PINE CITY, PINE COUNTY, MINNESOTA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1898.

NO. 7.

CORRESPONDENCE

Gleaned for Our Readers From All Sections of the County.

HUSTLETOWN.

Mary Glanville is in town this week.

J. E. Netser and wife were in Pine City on Friday last.

Henry Krusa and Alf Rice were in Wisconsin on business last Thursday.

James Gray, who is in camp here, spent Sunday with his family in Pine City.

Miss Griffith attended the county teachers' association held at Hinckley last Saturday.

A number of the young people from here took in the good times in Pine City Friday and Saturday.

A breakfast party was given at the Krusa home on Monday evening. It was doubly entertaining because of its novelty.

Miss Agnes Glanville, of Kerriek, visited at the home of her parents here over Sunday, returning to her school duties Monday morning. She was accompanied by her sister Ella, who will spend a few weeks there.

At the regular meeting of the Hustletown club on Tuesday the regular routine of business was carried out, and a new member added to the list in the person of Miss Ella Glanville, after which the members participated in a sleighing party. An impromptu but enjoyable sleigh ride was given on Thursday evening.

Special to Pioneer.

Fran K. Stichter, who has been engaged as music-chaser in the pianos for the Wilcox Lumber Co., returned to his home at No. 25 Rag Alley Thursday last week with an honorable discharge.

WILLOW RIVER RIPPLES.

P. A. Hooky took a contract last week to cut logs on section 3 west of town.

D. R. Driscoll came home from his camp last Saturday night to spend Sunday.

Will Atwood came up from Stillwater on Friday evening's train. He will tarry here a week.

John Fenton, the Duluth watch cleaner, was at the Willow River house last week playing his trade.

The Willow River school, ably assisted by local talent, will give an entertainment Friday evening, for the benefit of a school library.

Rev. E. C. Oedri, of the Duluth Bethel Mission, is holding a series of revival meetings in the Presbyterian church. Much interest is manifest.

Messrs. William Saintry, Ferdinand Weyerhaeuser and Geo. H. Atwood, were here last Saturday attending the annual business meeting of the Atwood Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graf, assisted by Miss Thompson and Blackburn, gave a most delightful progressive ninth party last Tuesday evening, closing with lunch and coffee at midnight.

Misses Lora, Hawley, Scarlett and Prof. H. B. Cole, took the 11 o'clock train here Saturday morning for Hinckley to attend the county teachers' association. Before reaching Hinckley the delegation was increased to ten.

Under the management of Superintendent Dos, the Willow River house is now as comfortable a hotel as any along the line. The office is as clean as a new pin and warm, while the table would delight an epicure. Even Jim Patchen and Agent Peterson are laying on both from the ample bill of fare.

Talk about patriotism and loyalty to one's vocation! One of our fine young lady teachers rode in 12 miles on a load of wood, and cheerfully brought her load to Hinckley to attend the county association, and returning rode home on the empty sled.

Surely, education should come to the front with such promoters.

Some of the enterprising spirits among the ladies, organized this week a "Penny Do-Nothing Club," meetings to be held weekly, Wednesday evenings. Its objects are social and intellectual improvement. The officers are M. M. Tiffany, President, Mrs. H. S. Akin, Secretary, Miss Tulle Thompson, Treasurer.

MEADOW LAWN.

H. Reese, of Amador, is visiting here this week.

Geo. Turner, of Pierce county, Wis., is here looking over land.

This is the place for all honest industrious farmers to secure a good home.

W. C. Nichols' little girl has been very sick the past week, but is recovering.

W. Nichols had the misfortune to hurt his foot quite badly while at work last Saturday.

Mr. Davis has gone home to Parli-hunt to spend a few days, and will bring his family here on his return this week.

Mr. Purty and wife, from Dakota, are visiting with friends here, and being so taken with the place, will buy a farm and begin making improvements immediately.

A surprise party was given at J. McAdam's home on Saturday night last, by the young folks of this vicinity. Dancing was the order of the evening, and all reported a good time.

Mr. Hamlin is building a house on his farm. He has it almost completed. He is a rustler, but perhaps he is getting a little homesick for wife and children, and that accounts for his speedy work. Hamlin says nothing, but keeps busy at work.

A remark in the Piker recently made by a Hustler concerning Meadow Lawn bachelors has all right.

Hustletown also is not very far from Wisconsin but it's all the same, for the bachelors from there don't like the idea of visiting Wisconsin alone, that's the reason why they stay away.

WEST POKEGATA.

A little snow would be greatly appreciated by our teamsters.

Dr. Barnum was called to Wm. Peter's to extract a tooth for Mrs. Peters, one day last week.

J. Peterson and John Anderson, of Kerriek, are camping with John Dillend, Mr. Peterson owns land here, we and hope he has come to stay.

Julia Bergman met with quite a painful accident while skating recently, having sprained her ankle, but not as severely as at first supposed.

Dr. Barnum was called to the Quinn home on Sunday to prescribe for the children, who were quite sick. We are pleased to state they are all improving rapidly.

Mr. Peske of Minneapolis, was up looking after his interests in this settlement. He was accompanied by another gentleman, who is desirous of obtaining land here.

Two of the county commissioners were in this settlement one day recently, looking over the road that is to extend from the Brook Park, or Jarvis Bay road, to what is called the cut-off.

Otto Olson has not decided upon special quarters, as yet, but he has not abandoned the idea nevertheless. Otto caught a sturgeon in Pokegama recently that weighed in the neighborhood of 12 pounds, with a common hook and line.

F. Jackson has moved the house that formerly stood on Pokegama farm to his farm northeast of there. Thos. Quinn did the moving. Fred will remodel it for a dwelling house. That is right, Fred, be sure the cage is habitable before you—younknow.

Druggists will tell you that Rocky mountain tea is the best seller and the most successful medicine of the day. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, the Druggist.

SCHOOL MATTERS IN DIST. 22.

On Jan. 22 a special meeting was held at the Asmus school house, in District No. 22, for the purpose of considering the moving of the Asmus school house further east, also to select a location for a new school in the eastern part of the district, the meeting being quite largely attended.

The meeting was called to order by the clerk and on motion of J. E. Norstrom J. W. Sellers was appointed Moderator.

On motion of A. C. Wilson a vote was taken to move the Asmus school house further east, but the motion was defeated.

On motion of A. C. Wilson it was voted to build a new school house on the southwest corner of 16-39-20.

A PEEP IN A STUDIO.

Mrs. A. W. Lawson, of Champlin, is some day ranked among the best artists in the county, especially in her studies of animal life. The Union was permitted to visit her studio, and examine the score or more of oil paintings that have been finished. There are three large pictures, all representing dogs at work in the chicken field. The idea is most vividly portrayed and the subjects were splendid animals, and seemed so natural one expects them to move forward. One of these pictures was sold during the week to a Hamline lady, and Mrs. Lawson has sold ten different ones during the past month. She expects to have them on display in Anoka soon so her friends may see them. The landscape paintings have the same carefulness of detail and perfect coloring that the portraits of the dogs have and of course the pictures are splendid—Anoka Union.

-Henry I. Rath received his engine and edge the first of the week, and has a crew of men at work putting the same in place, and pushing the work as rapidly as they can so as to haul out the hardwood he has on hand before the lake opens up in the spring.

-Mrs. A. W. Lawson, an old resident of this place, and who is fast coming to the front as an elocutionist and painter, will be in this village on the fourth of next month and will take part in an entertainment to be given by the ladies of the M. E. church on that date. Further notice next week.

The concert given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson at the Pioneer house hall on Friday last was well attended and the selections rendered were up to the high standard of their musical talent. They have not decided whether they will open a singing school or not this spring, but will know later.

-Wm. Braun, emigrant agent for the Canadian Government, was in this village on Thursday and Friday last week interviewing some of our residents who have been contemplating going to Manitoba to settle. He spoke very highly of his country, and explained all that the parties wanted to know. He says that Manitoba is somewhat colder than it is here, but that they can beat us raising wheat.

-On Saturday evening a load of young folks went from this place to Schneider farm, about a mile above Chagwattanna, on Cross lake, to spend the evening with the family of J. M. Collins. A very pleasant time was had until about 11 o'clock when a luncheon was served, after which the team was hitched up and the merry road came home, hoping that they will soon have another chance of visiting Jere and family.

The Pioneer extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

Hiram and Alf Rice have the contract for putting in the McLaughlin timber for H. J. Rath. This is the pine that has stood for many years just south of the McGann farm, in the town of Pine City. The logs are barked on Nickaborn Bay, near George Kiek's farm, and they are some of the finest logs they have seen put in here for a good many years.

J. Hurley and J. D. Vaughan went down to North Branch on Monday to attend the funeral of John Craughan. Mr. Craughan is an old resident of Chisago county, and was well known in that section of the county, he being connected with a large number of different enterprises. He was a member of the K. of P. of that place, and he was buried according to their ritual.

The attendance at the singing school Saturday night was not as large as was expected, owing to some other meetings being held. We understand that Mr. Wilson can not afford to teach a class at this place unless he receives more liberal support. A singing class is a benefit to a community and its advantages ought to be appreciated and supported by its best citizens. Mr. Wilson will continue the effort to secure the required number by giving a free lesson to all who are interested on Friday evening in Stone's hall. A children's class will also be organized and a lesson given to any children who will come to Stone's hall from 3 to 4.30 Saturday afternoon.

The Ladies of St. Mary's church will give a basket social in Hetzeneker's hall on Thursday eve, Feb. 3. This is the only thing of the kind that has occurred for some time, and it should be well patronized. Each lady will take a basket with luncheon for two, and she gives her basket to the committee in charge. She will receive a number and another number corresponding will be fastened to the basket. At a given signal the numbers will be sold and the gentlemen buying the basket will be expected to act as escort to the owner during the rest of the evening. If this thing is carried out in shape as it ought to be, it will be a source of considerable amusement. All should attend.

The following is the program to be given at the M. E. Church on Friday evening, Feb. 4th. Do not forget the date.

Instrumental Solo. Mrs. Armstrong "The Lost Key" Mrs. Lawson (J. Whitcomb Riley)

Solo. Mrs. Albrecht "Sociel Things" (Eugene Field) Mrs. Lawson "Little Louise Lamm" Mrs. Lawson "Main Quartette" Mrs. Lawson "Old Daylight" Mrs. Lawson "The Obstructive hat in the Plu" Mrs. Lawson

Admission, 25 cents; children under 12 years of age, 10 cents. Sale of paintings in the class room after the entertainment.

TIMOTHY CHERRIER DEAD.

On Tuesday, January 25th, 1898, the messenger of death visited the Town of Royalton and took from the family and friends Timothy Cherrier. He had had the consumption for a number of years, but until last fall he was able to bear down. Everything known to medical science was done for him, but of no avail, death claimed him as a victim, and he passed away at the above mentioned time in great agony.

Mr. Cherrier was born in St. Paul in 1844 and was one of the first white children born in that place. He has lived in the Town of Royalton for the past fourteen years, and none knew him but to respect him.

In response to his country's call for volunteers in 1860, and enlisted in the sixth Minnesota and served until the close of the war. He was a member of B. E. Davis Post No. 129, of this place, and the service at the grave was conducted by that order. The funeral was held from St. Mary's church on Thursday at 10 o'clock, and a large concourse of friends and the Grand Army accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Besides a wife and two children he leaves an aged father who resides in St. Paul, a brother Henry, of this place, one sister, Mrs. Brady, of St. Paul, and two sisters who reside in the state of Washington to mourn his loss.

The Pioneer extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

WAS A TREAT.

The Kenner County Times in its issue of Dec. 24th, published the following of interest to Anoka people concerning an entertainment given at Mora.

An honorable table was devoted to the collection of small oil paintings, mostly landscapes, the work of Mrs. A. W. Lawson, which together with two large paintings of dogs and a hunting scene formed one of the best collections of oil paintings ever exhibited in the village.

The work shows that Mrs. Lawson keeps close in touch with nature and she has a high conception of art and place in the foremost rank of oil painters.

After an overture by the Mora orchestra, Mr. R. W. Safford, introduced Mrs. A. W. Lawson, the star of the evening. He spoke of her early work in the county as a teacher in our public schools and her charitable and religious sacrifices, to all of which the oil painters present lent their endorsement.

Mrs. Lawson first gave a selection from James Whitcomb Riley, "The South Wind and the Sun" which was rendered very effectively, but the nature of the piece did not show the lady at her best. It was in her humorous and pathetic selections that she captured the house, and the audience laughed and wept in turns. She recited "He Worried About It," the man so deeply interested in science that he worried about everything else but his hard-working wife, who took in washing to support him. She recited "Old Daylight," the poetical tale of the old horse who won the race and saved the home of its master; "Me and Jim," The Obstructive Hat in the Plu" and gave the oration, "Women's Rights," in her own inimitable way finishing with a prophecy written and recited by herself at a teachers' entertainment here in 1885. From what was noted that as a certain thing Mrs. Lawson has few equals. Her six year old daughter Louise, displayed the genius of her mother in a recitation entitled "Little Orphan Annie." -Anoka Union.

THE BELATED BUTTER.

A story with a moral told by a six-year-old girl to her grandmother.

"See here, June Bridgeman," said Mr. Golden Wedding, as they sat and themselves together in the kitchen.

"Think of children!" stammered June Bridgeman, taking on a color that an ancient black girl would have envied.

"What ever started you off on that track?" asked June Bridgeman, recovering his self-possession.

"Oh, just a little story I heard my little grandchild, Dorothy, telling her brother last night.

"I'll bring 'em home to-morrow, I meanly promised, and so I did."

"When I carried them to her last night, she was beside herself with joy, and as for me, why, I was as happy as if all my investments had advanced ten times in a day.

"I tell you, June Bridgeman," said Mr. Golden Wedding, as he concluded the child's story.

"You see, I don't see how you can be so sure that you will not be disappointed."

Proved True.
A lawyer whose office was on one of the upper floors of a tall building was about to enter the elevator one morning, but stopped back in order to let a lady who seemed to be in a hurry precede him.
The "conductor," it appeared, had been waiting for just one more passenger to complete his load, and when the lady stepped inside he shut the door, and the elevator shot upward.
"Politeness," muttered the lawyer, "is not always its own reward."
A few minutes later, however, ascending by another "lift," he passed that load of passengers, stuck half way between floors, where they remained half an hour, by some accident to the machinery.
"I take it back," he muttered in the same tone as before. "Politeness is its own reward!"—Youth's Companion.

Prices in Mexico.
A correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald says that the price of a room in the hotels of the City of Mexico is $2 a day. Singularly enough, the location of the room does not affect its price. It may be on the first or fourth floor, front or back, it will be $2 just the same. This equals $1 in American money. In the restaurants one gets an elaborate course dinner, from soup and fish to cheese and dessert, with a bottle of excellent wine thrown in, for 75 cents, or 37½ cents in our coin. Pretty nearly everything else is on the same basis.

Expecting Impossibilities.
"Billy, keep your eye on this small boy of mine while I run over to the postoffice a minute."
"Keep my eye on him? Gracious! I'm no revolving telescope!"—Detroit Free Press.

A physician writes to the London Lancet that one reason why boys are more liable to typhoid fever than girls is that boys are more apt to play games in dirty streets and get disease germs on their hands and into their stomachs.

One large agency in London employs women for bailiffs, putting them in charge where the victim of distraint is a woman or an elderly person who is not likely to make trouble for the custodian.

Greek architecture was based on the bowyer of trees, which formed the original shelter of that people.

The Parisian sets the divisor in a loop to the right of the dividend, the Londoner to the left.

A Birthday Present

Miss Sarah Carr

Dr. M. M. EXAMINER,
Fredonia, N. Y., July 1, 1894.
Dear Sir—When I was eleven years old I had a weakness in my kidneys and back which became so distressing that serious consequences were feared.
I was treated by two eminent physicians but neither seemed able to reach my case, and I continued on in this distressing condition without hope.
Finally a friend gave me as a birthday present a bottle of your Kidney and Backache Cure. I realized its benefit as soon as I began its use. Improvement was steady and by the time two bottles had been taken I was well. Six years have now elapsed and I have not had any return of the disease.
