They made a pleasant call on Miss Flossie Quinn. -There's lazy minds as well as lazy bodies Rocky Mountain tea cures both. Good medicine. Great medicinal. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, druggist. -If thou findest thyself ill, consider whether too much meat or drink occasioned it. Then take Rocky Mountain tea. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, druggist. -The ladies of Riverside Circle gave a ten cent lunch at the Pioneer house hall on Tuesday evening, and cleared a neat little sum to be added to the G. A. R. building fund. -Remember the special services to be held in the Methodist church every night next week. Mrs. James Quilow will preach each night. A special invitation is extended to all. -Dick Valentine, of Manson, Ia., arrived last Tuesday, and has moved his family into the old Henry Adams place, three miles west of town. We are pleased to welcome such men as Mr. Valentine.

-Geo. Nielson, of Danewood, was in town the fore part of the week. He informs us that he recently put up a windmill, and has water all over his place. -I eat, drink and sleep well as ever. I could. "Well," says the doctor, putting on his hat, "Rocky Mountain tea did that." For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, the druggist. -She that will eat her breakfast in bed and spend all morning combing her head, had better take Rocky Mountain tea. Gets, em out in the morning. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, druggist.

-Dr. Towbridge will remain at home until March 24th when she will visit Willow River for two days, but can always be found at her office on the following days of each week Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday. -A party was held at the residence of Geo. Sherwood on Monday evening. All those who were present report having a fine time. The party was given by Miss Edna Peterson on her sixteenth birthday. We all wish the young lady many more happy years. -Geo. Perkins, Ed Netser and Nick Perkins, who have been at work for the Ann River Logging Co., arrived in this place on Tuesday morning. They report having had a good winters work, but say that the company will continue hauling as long as there is any snow. -At the masquerade on Monday evening some one walked off, either by mistake or intentionally, with an overcoat and cap belonging to a traveling man. Anyone knowing any thing in regard to the above articles will please leave information with Jos. Thomas, the village marshal.

-Dr. Towbridge, the Dentist, for the next 30 days offers a large reduction of prices on all on work already contracted for. Teeth per single set, formerly $15.00 now $12.00, teeth per single set, formerly $12.00 now $10.00. Alloy fillings, from 75 cents to $1.00 per cavity, gold fillings a discount of 10 per cent off regular prices. -Douglas Greeley has a man by the name of W. A. Kent, who meets all the trains, and is rustling for the Lake View Hotel. It seems to be a hustler and the above hotel can expect to get its share of the public patronage. Mr. Kent is an old hand at this business and being an old soldier he should meet with good success.

-On Saturday Andrew Goethly, who lives about eight miles east of here received a telegram stating that his sister Mary had died the day before in Minneapolis. He took Sunday's afternoon train for Kenyon to be present at the funeral. Miss Goethly was well known to the family of N. A. Crittenden and was an intimate friend of Miss Mable Thompson. -Lee Fairbanks, who has been in Cambridge for the past two weeks running the creamery at that place, returned here on Monday, and will commence running the engine at the Pine City Roller Mill next Monday, Ed Eriksson the engineer having handed in his resignation this week, which goes into effect tomorrow. Lee is a good engineer and should give satisfaction. -Herman Borchers has just received a large and complete line of shoes for ladies gents and children. His stock is complete in every particular, and when you are in need of anything in the line of shoes do not forget that you can get what you want here at the lowest prices. I your shoes need repairing call on him he can do it in first-class shape and at reasonable prices.

-Miss Margaret Murray, of Duluth, arrived in this place on Monday to spend a couple of days, the guest of Miss Annie Tierney, before going to the Pacific coast. Miss Murray is quite well known in this place, she having spent a couple of months here last fall. She was accompanied by her niece Miss Sprenger who with her mother. They departed on Wednesday for their trip west, taking with them the best wishes of their many friends. -Julius Dosey's horse took a lively run on the river on Monday afternoon, breaking the fan bone in her hip and smashing the cutter. While Mr. Dosey's oldest son started for Pakama lake, and the horse started to run, when up near Mile Island Robt. Hoffman stopped the horse and told Will to lead her home but Will thought he could drive her, and got into the cutter when she started up and Will jumped out and let her go with the above result. -J. W. Hunt moved his household goods to North Branch on Saturday last, his son Royal going with John, leaving on the night train for above named place. John has bidden his old friends good by, as he does not expect to come back before going to Alaska. He leaves North Branch with a party the seventh of this month. All of Mr. Hunt's friends are sorry to have him leave, but all hope he will strike it rich, no matter where he may go. John and party should do well in the frigid zones, as they are used to exposure, they all with but one exception being used to roughing it in the woods. The PIONEER joins their many friends in wishing them a successful trip.

-Services in the M. E. church next Sunday morning at 10:30, and in the evening at 7:45. Both discourses will be on "The Divinity of Christ." Young Peoples' meeting at 7 o'clock. Everybody welcome to these services. -Mrs. Dr. Inford, of West Concord, arrived in this place on Tuesday to spend a week or so visiting with her friend Mrs. N. A. Crittenden, before departing for her old home in Kansas, her husband the doctor having left for the Klondike last week. -Dr. Forbes spent a few hours in town Tuesday, while on his way home from Minneapolis, where he had been taking part in the dedication services of Fowler church, at which place he preached the sermon on Sunday evening. He also took part in the Minneapolis Preachers' meeting on Monday.

-Andrew J. Billstrom, who has been up five miles east of Sturgeon Lake for the past six weeks, teaching a Swedish school, returned to this place the latter part of last week. He goes to Minneapolis in a few days to visit friends, and while there will try to induce some of his countrymen to take up land in the northern part of the county. He informs our reporter that the Swedes have a settlement on the east shore of Sturgeon Lake, and have built a church and called a minister. The St. P. & D. company is selling first-class farming lands in that vicinity at $5 per acre.

-E. A. Jesmer was canvassing among our citizens on Monday seeing how many customers he could get to take milk provided he ran a milk wagon; he informed a reporter of this paper that if he could get customers enough to guarantee him seven gallons he would commence the first of the week. He proposes to furnish milk from now until the first of May for four cents a quart, and during the summer for three cents a quart. All those wishing milk can leave their names at this office and Mr. Jesmer will call and see them. This is an industry that should pay in this place. We wish Ed success. -A drama entitled "Messmates," a sequel to "Comrades," will be re-performed Saturday evening, March 5th by the Webster School, assisted by local talent. The play is a high-class comedy, representing a yachting party in the southern Atlantic, and is both interesting and instructive, from beginning to end. Every character has some instructive parts, which are interspersed with amusingly humorous passages. The object of the entertainment is to increase the school library; therefore come everyone, enjoy a pleasant evening, and contribute to a most worthy cause. Remember the night, March 5, at Mr. Stone's Hall. Admission for children under 12 years, 15 cents; adults, 25 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents.

-Quite a number from this place took in the Lyceum at the Chongwata school house Saturday evening. The evening entertainment consisted of music, recitations, readings, dialogues, reading the "Blizzard" and a debate. Each one that took part acquitted themselves with credit and furnished an evening's entertainment which was both entertaining and instructive. The "Blizzard" is a written paper published every Thursday at Chongwata, Mrs. Hazel Pogue being the editor, assisted by an able corps of correspondents from Meadow Lawn and Hustletown. Mrs. Pogue shows marked ability as an editor and gets up an amusing and instructive paper. The debate was one of the principal features of the evening's entertainment. The question was "Resolved That Women Should Have a Vote in Political Affairs." Mrs. Hazel Pogue led the affirmative, and Guy Chaffee the negative; after some four or five had spoken on both sides and all had made some good points that showed the ear marks of a great deal of study the question was turned over to the judges for their decision. The judges, Mrs. J. M. Collins and Messrs. Van Gorden and Telle, decided in favor of the affirmative. The question for debate next Saturday night will be "Resolved That the Right to Pop the Question belongs to a Man." Mrs. Pogue took the affirmative and Guy Chaffee the negative.

Dr. Fenners' Kidney and Backache Cure. Just as the name suggests, this valuable remedy cures certainly and speedily all ailments arising from the kidneys, bladder or urinary system. It removes uric acid, and restores the system, "giving you strength, Vigor, feeling, where now you feel weakness, dizziness, and a weak bladder, as continuing men, it has never been known to fail. First bottle guaranteed to give satisfaction. Write for it.

ORDINANCE NO. 38. An Ordinance to Restrict and Regulate the Sale of Horses and Cattle in the Village of Pine City, Minnesota. The Common Council of the Village of Pine City, Minnesota, do hereby enact and ordain as follows: Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to buy or sell, or offer for sale at public auction, goods, wares, merchandise, or any personal property, without having obtained a license therefor, as prescribed by this ordinance. Section 2. Licenses may be granted to hawkers, peddlers, and auctioneers in the manner hereinafter provided for the purpose following: Upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, to wit: That the license shall be for one week, or twelve dollars for one month, or twenty dollars for one year, and the fee therefor shall be paid for the license, and the receipt therefor upon the receipt of said amount, shall have a force to the person, and for the time named. Section 3. That the term of any such license shall not extend beyond the annual election of village officers, and after the granting thereof, no license shall be granted to any person or persons for the sum of five dollars. Section 4. All persons who go about the village selling or offering for sale, or who shall sell or offer for sale at public auction, goods, wares, merchandise, or any personal property, or any such thing, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or by both, in the discretion of the justice, together with the costs of prosecution. Section 5. Any person who shall attempt to sell or offer for sale at public auction, goods, wares, merchandise, or any personal property, or any such thing, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or by both, in the discretion of the justice. Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage. WITNESSED before me this 15th day of February, 1898. P. Y. BRECKENRIDGE, Mayor of the Village of Pine City. W. A. XTLE, Village Clerk.

The Business to Continue

For the coming season at least, having bought Heavily for spring trade, and being compelled to take a large amount of same goods because the different houses would not accept countermands, we will be obliged to continue for a time at least. Soliciting a share of the patronage of the good people of Pine City, and county at large, and thanking you for past patronage, I am, as ever, yours,

"CRITT," the Clothier.

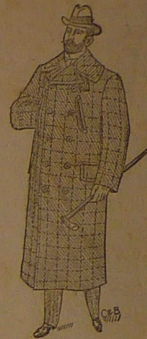

P. S. Remember, we can dress you up from the top of your head to the sole of your feet, for we have now in the largest stock of Ladies' and Gent's Shoes in Pine City, bought direct from Chicago. We handle the famous R. P. Smith & Sons Co.'s Shoes. There are none better. We have handled the same line six years, and we know what we are talking about. Try a pair and remember our motto:

"We will not be undersold by any living man or firm on earth."

John Dillend was seen wending his way through the woods last Sunday.

Animals are getting too numerous to mention. Some are ugly looking fellows.

No sickness in our vicinity. We can boast of good health, good roads and a good school-house, if it was only finished.

Fred Jackson is finishing up the work on his cottages. His brother Charles is back from Stanchfield, where he has been visiting for a week or two.

We have one strong man in town in the person of John Henkie, a bachelor. With one blow of a club he succeeded in killing two of his dogs, and nearly killing one pig. He is not a very large man, to all appearances, but we presume it was more of an exhibition of temper than of muscle.

MRS. ANNA ADAMS.

Dr. M. M. Fowler, Fredonia, N. Y.
Dear Sir:—I had been sick many years. When you first saw me in 1899, I was near the grave.
My throat was deeply ulcerated. One eye had been partly eaten off. Large ulcers on thighs and body exceedingly offensive, and I was reduced to flesh to a mere skeleton. All doctors and medicines had failed. One year ago of your Blood and Liver, Bismuth and Kava Kava produced a complete cure. Improvement began at once.
Fredonia, N. Y., June 15, 1904.
It has now been about 25 years since I was cured and there has been no return of the disease. I am truly, Mrs. ANNA ADAMS.
