AGENT PINE CITY.
Points Concerning the County Seat -- Resources, Business Enterprises, Etc.

For the benefit of those who intend, or are thinking of coming to this place to locate, we will endeavor to give a general idea of what we have in the way of a village.

Pine City is well represented by churches, having a German Lutheran, Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal Catholic and Seventh-Day Adventist. We have a large brick high school containing four rooms, and a frame school house of two rooms. We have four general stores, one bank, two hardware stores, one harness shop, one shoe store, with a shop in connection, one creamery, the largest and best equipped drug store between the Twin Cities and Lake Superior, two butcher shops, a cigar factory, two weekly newspapers and a monthly and a brewery. We also have two hotels, a first-class livery, two sawmills, and a grist mill that for its size can not be beat in the state.

This village will be lighted by electricity as soon as the weather modulates that the poles can be set, as the power house is about completed, and everything is in readiness for the wires to be strung. For fire protection we have a Waterous engine, capable of throwing 400 gallons per minute.

Pine City is situated 63 miles north of St. Paul, on the St. Paul & Duluth Railroad, on the south bank of the Snake River. It is almost surrounded by water, and in the summer time three steamboats ply between this place and the head of navigation. It is one of the prettiest places in the state, and is fast becoming one of the favorite summer resorts of the state on account of its excellent fishing. The health of the community is looked after by two first-class physicians and surgeons, and the law is expounded by two lawyers.

We are sadly in need of some kind of an enterprise to give employment to the young men of this place, as well as a first-class clothing store.

Pine City is one of the healthiest places in this part of the country, and with her natural facilities, she should become the largest place between the Twin Cities and Duluth.

How to Make Money.
An agent can do more business working for The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, than he can for any other institution. It has a world-wide reputation, and the new policy, issued January 1, 1899, offers greater guaranteed advantages to the insured than any other policy issued by any other company in the world. Prospective policyholders who desire information regarding terms of insurance, prospective agents, men and women, who desire profitable contracts with the greatest insurance company in the world, will please address E. W. Pace & Son, Managers, St. Paul, Minn.

We particularly want a good agent at Pine City.

Remember our Bargain Days -- Fridays and Saturdays.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, '99. — President McKinley has no apprehension that the trouble on the Samoan Islands will lead to international complications of a serious nature, but he is fully determined that the commission, representing the United States, Great Britain and Germany, which will sail from San Francisco on the 25th inst., on the U. S. auxiliary cruiser Badger, shall fix the responsibility for all of the mischief done over there, including the amassing of the force of American and British Marines, resulting in the killing of two American officers and two privates, and one British officer and two privates. In order that he may fully comprehend his instructions, Hon. Barlett Tripp, the American commissioner, has been summoned to Washington to confer with the President and Secretary Hay. Baron von Stierberg, the German commissioner, called at the Navy department and thanked Secretary Long, in the name of his government, for having placed a vessel at the disposal of the Commission.

Spain has been notified, through the French ambassador, that the $20,000,000 called for by the treaty of peace, will be paid on demand, in New York, in U. S. gold coin, or in gold bars, as may be preferred. This is anticipatory, as this government has the right, under the treaty, to defer this payment until six months after the date of the exchange of copies of the treaty.

Senator Hanna denies most positively the report that he came east from Thomasville for the purpose of calling a meeting of the executive committee of the Republican National committee, and adds that he sees no necessity, at this time, for a meeting of the executive committee to consider preliminaries for the presidential campaign, as there will be plenty of time to look after those matters later.

Secretary Alger, who has just returned to Washington, after a tour of Cuba and Porto Rico, for the purpose of making a personal inspection of our Military government on those islands, said: "I return to Washington with renewed faith. Under no circumstances would I give consent to the surrender of Porto, for would I place the slightest check upon the great work being done for Cuba. The duty we have taken upon ourselves, of holding Cuba in trust for civilization, is a noble one. Every cent of money, every hour of time, which we are expending, is being wisely invested. The Army officers have entered upon their work with earnestness and industry, and the good results of their labors are already apparent." The Secretary also stated for the second or third time, that he had no idea of resigning.

The only reason why the instructions given the U. S. commissioners to the Czar's disarmament conference have not been made public is that it would not be proper to state the attitude of this government on the matters to be considered in advance of the meeting. There are reasons for the belief that arbitration fills a large part of the instructions.

It is not likely that any official action will be taken of the demand of Gov. Lee, of South Dakota, that the volunteers from that state, now in the Philippines, should be at once mustered out of service and sent home, because no law is not considered necessary. The whole matter was placed at the discretion of Gen. Otis, weeks ago—March 16, to be exact—no positive order being issued to him by the war department except that whatever the exigency, no individual who had good reason for wishing his discharge, should be kept in the service. Had he cared to have information on the subject, before writing a demand which struck most men as being silly, to the President, Gov. Lee could easily have ascertained that no volunteer in the Philippines from South Dakota or any other state is being kept in service against his will. But he wanted the nationality he got by writing his own letter to the President, or rather by signing a letter believed to have been prepared by Senator Pettigrew, in the hope that it would be embarrassing to the President—a hope that was not realized. Mr. R. S. Person, of South Dakota, who is temporarily residing in Washington, said of this letter:

"The sentiment of the people of Dakota is not voiced, and the President may rest assured that it is simply another case of hearing from Senator Pettigrew. The alleged demand from the Governor does not represent the sentiment of the people of South Dakota, any more than Governor Lee represents the intelligent citizenship of that state."

Mr. C. C. Donovan, of Santa Rosa, California, who is visiting Washington, said: "The most popular man in California is President McKinley. I voted for Bryan in '96, but next year I hope to cast a vote for the present occupant of the White House. I have lots of democratic friends who are as anxious to reverse their votes as I am. We think McKinley has conducted himself through all the trying times as a statesman and patriot, and the coast is pretty nearly solid for him."

$1.20--8 X 9 X 12 This looks like a sum in Arithmetic, doesn't it?
$1.60--8 X 12 X 16 And it is. The figures are those which we quote for covering a room of the dimensions named with some of our cheapest grades of
$2.00--8 X 12 X 18

Wall Paper!

We have other grades, higher in price. In fact, it will cost you $10 to buy some of our paper for a 12x16 room. But our figures show that everybody can afford to buy Wall Paper! Our stock has been selected to suit all pocket books, and the colors and designs will suit all tastes.

BRECKENRIDGE'S PHARMACY.

Main Street, Pine City, Minn.

HUSTLETON. — Chas. Glanville returned home from the woods last Sunday morning. We are glad to welcome you back, Mr. Glanville.

G. C. Tallman enjoys walking very much, if appearances are to be believed.

We, the people of Hustleton, are overjoyed because we have a bridge to cross at Oungwatawa, and not the river to ford. We offer many thanks to Pine Down and Mr. Munich, Chengwawana is right in it all.

Hustleton is getting quite social of late. Dancing is the ad at present.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.
This remedy is indicated, especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it ribs that disease of all dangerous consequences. It is especially prized by mothers for their children, as it never fails to effect a speedy cure, and because they have found that there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. Sold by J. Y. Breckenridge, druggist.

WANTED.
Live correspondents in every neighborhood in the county, to send news regularly to THE PIONEER. Write to or call on us for stamps, stationery, and general information.

1,000 Premiums.
The above premium is offered by the Minnesota State Horticultural Society for the production of a seedling apple tree as hardy and prolific as the Duchess, with fruit equal to the Wealthy in size, quality and appearance, and that will keep as well as the Malindis. This offer is open to all.

Quite likely the seed to produce this tree may not yet have been planted, even. Select a corner of your garden or orchard for a seedling nursery, and plant seed of the hardest varieties of apples. You will find the work of growing and testing seedlings an interesting one, and it promises much for the future of pomology in the northwest.

For full particulars as to the Horticultural Society, Fruit List for 1899, terms of membership, premiums offered, sample copy of its monthly publication, etc., address

—We are in receipt of a school text book from the American Book Company, entitled "The History of the United States," which gives the history of the country from the time of its discovery by Columbus, to the destruction of Gervera's fleet at Santiago last July. It is a beautiful, comprehensive work, and written in a simple, accurate manner that the smallest child can comprehend it. This is one of the best text book concerns in the country, and our school boards should correspond with them before placing orders for school books.

—The invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Anna Stechl, of this place, to Mr. Frank Slipka, of Minneapolis, on Monday afternoon at 3:00, May 1st 1899, at the Presbyterian church. Miss Anna is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stechl, our popular cigar maker, and came to this place with her parents from Minneapolis about three years ago. She has made many warm friends in this place who are loth to see her leave, but hope that no matter where she may go, success will attend her, and the man of her choice. Mr. Slipka is a plumber by trade, and is spoken of very highly by all that know him.

—C. N. Carson and wife, of Knoxville, Ill., arrived in this place on Wednesday morning. Mr. Carson was the gentleman that bought the N. A. Crittenden stock of clothing and goods furnishing on the 24th of last October, and was closed up on the 1st of December by Sheriff Hawley on a writ of attachment sworn out by Kellogg & Johnson, of St. Paul, against the stock as the property of N. A. Crittenden. Mr. Carson sued Sheriff Hawley for the value of the stock, and the case was set for the present term of court, which brings Mr. Carson and wife to this place. Mr. Carson during the few weeks he was here made warm friends, who wish him success in his suit.

—"A word to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years, has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy, and never all other cough remedies manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, Pine City, Minn.

COPPER INDUSTRY REVIVED.

The Chengwatana Copper Mine About to Resume Operations.

Work will be commenced next week for the purpose of exploration and development of the Chengwatana mine, a property. The work will be done by the Chengwatana Copper Mining Company, an active company, and a paying copper mine in Pine County.

The work will be under the supervision of J. P. Stone, who will put to work a crew sinking a shaft. Some years ago two shafts were sunk and copper was found in large quantities but the value of the metal was so low that it would not pay to mine it but since the price has advanced the work will again be resumed with renewed energy.

One of the main obstacles will no doubt be overcome if the new rail-road is being surveyed by the mine. The main obstacle before when the copper mine was worked was the cost of transporting the ore to the railroad for shipment to the smelter. This road we understand will cross lower Snake at or near the mine and a town site there established in due time, which will mean a great deal to Chengwatana and the surrounding country.

MARRIED.

GLANVILLE-NASON—In this village, by Rev. Dr. Forbes, Presiding Elder of the Duluth district of the M. E. church, at the residence of the groom's mother, at 2:30 p. m., Tuesday, April 15, 1899, Miss Sarah Glanville, of this place, to Mr. Chas. A. Nason, of Barnum. They were supported by Miss Agnes Glanville, of this place, an older sister of the bride as bridesmaid and Mr. Custer Seavey, of West Superior, Wis., as groomsmen.

The bride and bridesmaid were both dressed in white India linen, trimmed with satin ribbon and natural flowers, and the gentlemen were each dressed in a suit of black and bouquets of natural flowers pinned to the lapel of their coats.

Miss Sadie, the bride, is next to the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Glanville, and is well known to a greater portion of the readers of the PIONEER, she having come to this place with her parents from Howard Lake, about six years ago, and attended the high school in this place where she finished her education, since which time she has taught school in different parts of the county, where she always won the respect and esteem of the parents by her kindly disposition and ladylike manner, and the love of her pupils by her kindness. In the marriage of Miss Glanville Pine City loses one of its estimatable young ladies, but Mr. Nason has won a prize.

Mr. Nason, the groom, is also well known to the most of our readers, he having been born and raised in this place. He received his education in our schools, and for a number of years was clerk in the office of Register of Deeds, Baudette, where he won the confidence of his employer by attending strictly to business, and the esteem of all by his obliging and courteous manner. About a year ago he accepted a position as clerk in the store of Sautrey & Kane, of Barnum, where he has risen to the responsible position of head book-keeper. Charlie is a young man of rare business qualifications and exemplary habits and will no doubt do well no matter where he may go.

In the evening a dance was given in Hatzeneckers' hall where a large crowd assembled to "shake their feet" in honor of the event, until about 1:30, when all departed for their several homes, wishing the newly married pair a long and pleasant journey over life's troubled sea.

The couple took Thursday morning's train for Sandstone, where they will spend a few days, after which they will depart for Barnum, where they will make their future home.

Open the door, let in the air, The winds are sweet, the flowers are fair, Joy is abroad in the world for me. Since taking Rocky Mountain Tea.

—J. Y. Breckenridge.

FARM-GARDEN

TUMBLING MUSTARD.

A Destructive Weed Which Was First Noticed in the United States Twenty-One Years Ago.

We illustrate tumbling mustard, known scientifically as Sisymbrium Irtisimum. This species of the plants that have already obtained too great a foothold in this country for us to hope to exterminate it. Tumbling mustard is called so from the fact that when it is ripe it breaks off and blows along the ground by the wind. The rounded shape of the plant makes this characteristic of great value, as to the propagation and dissemination of the plant, as it is said to travel even faster than the Russian thistle.

TUMBLING MUSTARD

than the Russian thistle. The plant was introduced into this country from Europe previous to 1878, as it was first noticed in that year in Philadelphia. It is probable that it had been growing in out-of-the-way places for some years before being noticed. Since that time it has spread over much of the country between the two oceans. It bears numerous seeds, the seed pods containing frequently 100 seeds each. As the plants are very numerous on each plant, the number of seeds a single plant may bear is almost beyond calculation. Prof. James Fletcher of Canada, by careful calculation, came to the conclusion that one plant which he came in contact contained not less than 1,500,000 seeds. The pods are round and long and stand out at right angles to the stem on which they are borne.

The means of eradication is to plow under or cut down with a sharp hoe before the seeds have ripened enough to grow. This must be early, for seeds will sprout and grow while yet very immature. The plant is easily killed when cut off at the roots, while its seeds are yet unformed. A man can eradicate a large area of it in a single day. Being an annual, it will not reappear from the root.—Farmers' Review.

GOOD FARM CROPS.

They Are Those Which Save the Fertility of the Soil and Produce Paying Results.

No crop in this section of the country takes the precedence of corn, writes a Nebraska contributor to the Wallace Farmer. It is so abundant and so useful. I do not know of any other crop that can be used for so many purposes. It makes good food for stock and admits of being prepared in so many ways. I do not know of any other crop that will supply the wants of our domestic animals so completely as the corn crop. The entire plant fed to cattle or sheep makes an admirable fattening ration, supplying both grain and rough feed of the highest quality. Do not fail to have a good corn crop. Then concentrate it as much as possible into the most marketable products, butter or meat, before it leaves the farm. Next to corn, if not equal to it, is sorghum, drilled in with the ordinary grain drill at the rate of three pecks to one bushel of seed to the acre. No one will believe the amount of good corn for any kind of stock this will produce until they try it for themselves. Then comes peas and oats sown together. I differ from many in the amount of seed to be sown in this combination. I think mostly two many oats are sown for the peas. I prefer one and one-half to two bushels of peas to not more than three pecks of oats per acre. Do not let the oats become too ripe before cutting. My crop of peas and oats sowed in the above proportions yielded last season over four tons per acre.

BAck-furrowing Pays.

In plowing clay lands nearly all the advantages of under-draining can be obtained by back-furrowing into narrow beds, and by leaving the strips two or three feet wide between the beds, or unplowed. It practically dries away with the trouble of gullying by heavy rains, as there are two channels instead of one to carry off the water. No perceptible difference in growth for yield or crop can be seen in the dead furrows after being put in with modern improved implements, and the leveling of four furrows in plowing each bed and bed-two in the middle of the bed and two in the dead furrow. The great advantage of back-furrowing over level culture in plowing is shown in the fall in that very often crops can be sown several weeks earlier, making a fine crop and a good catch of grain, when later sowing would fall.—Prairie Farmer.

Salt sprinkled on a cloth is excellent for scouring out stationary wash bowls and other chamber vessels, making them bright and clean.

PLANTING THE CORN.

It should be Done as Soon as the Conditions Are Favorable for a Quick Germination.

All reasonable care should be taken to plant the corn as soon as the conditions are favorable for a quick germination of the seed. There is no advantage in planting when the soil is cold and wet. Corn is not a tropical plant and will not thrive when the soil is wet and cold.

But often the early-planted corn makes the best growth and gives the best yield. It is, therefore, an item to take advantage of every opportunity for plowing. With the ground well plowed the disc and association harrow may be rapidly put into good condition to receive the seed, which, with a good check roller, may be rapidly planted. It is always best to have the soil well prepared before planting. It is better to delay the planting and prepare the soil in a fine till, than plant with the soil wet, rough or clumpy.

Having the soil in good till when the seed is planted, not only makes a nucleus for the germination of the seed, but a more vigorous start of the plants to grow.

Planted early with plenty of moisture in the soil, the seed should be covered shallower than if planted later, after the soil is warmer and drier. Rather more corn can be grown to the acre if planted in hills with the stalks standing 10 or 12 inches apart in the row, than in hills with two or three stalks and the stalks standing a half or four feet apart. But it takes more work to keep corn planted in drills clean than in hills especially foul land. The question which is best one of whether the increased yield will pay for the increased cost of cultivating, and this the farmer can best determine for himself. It is important in making a good corn crop to have good seed and to plant under the most favorable conditions, in order to get a good even stand.

It is always best to have the soil and the seed in perfect order of seed and being, perhaps, obliged to thin, and using fewer kernels to the hill and having to replant more or less, the first plan is much the best for under ordinary conditions the replanted corn yields very little grain.—St. Louis Republic.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

Well seasoned wood of apple trees makes good handles for tools.

Sprinkle cayenne pepper around where rats frequent, and they will leave.

Have the collar fit the horse and do not draw the harness too tight at the top.

It is easier to "keep up" with your work than to "put" when once you have fallen behind.

The man who does not love a good horse should hire out to work on a good railroad or in a mine.

It is easier to keep land in a good state of cultivation than to restore soil that has been allowed to "run down."

The farm horse does not need blinders. Blinders add so much more to the cost of harness. Do away with them.

Don't let any of us wait until the spring work begins before we get ready for it. Have tools, implements, etc., in good shape.

It is best to prevent disease in your home if possible, and it is cheaper to prevent disease among your animals than to cure it.

The steer or other animal that is tramping two mouthfuls under foot while eating one is fertilizing the ground, but is doing it in an expensive manner.

Feed the corn to fattening hogs and not to colts and pigs. Feed oats to colts, and pigs should have a variety of whatever is convenient and cheap.—Western Plowman.

SAVING LIQUID MANURE.

How an Ohio Farmer Saves Considerable Fertility from the Barnyard All the Time.

Here is my plan of annually saving considerable fertility from the barnyard, which before went down the water run marked B in the cut. In heavy rains the water works follow and is lost. This question was how to save it.

HOW TO SAVE LIQUID MANURE.

and take it over to D. We plowed a deep furrow from water run B, and made a heavy bank of earth at E. Now when it rains all the water of the barnyard goes to D, also all that runs down the run B. The field is in the pasture, and it will be of great benefit to it. The ditch E can be lengthened at any time at the same time.

Deep Plowing is Profitable.

Land that is plowed deep endures the droughts better than shallow plowed land, as there is a greater reserve of moisture. In other words, the deeper the soil is plowed the greater its capacity for holding water. To prevent loss of this moisture the top soil should be cultivated so as to simply loosen it, which prevents evaporation, and at the same time keeps the weeds down. The water in the soil escapes at the surface, and this is prevented by a mulch of loose dirt over the surface, which is effected by cultivation.

HIS OLD YELLOW ALMANAC.

I left the farm when mother died, and changed my place of dwelling. To dine in the style house, right in the city street.

And there was time, before I came, that sort of scared me telling.

How I would find the low-falr was so different to me.

They said I'd have no comfort in the city, and I'd have to wear stiff collars every secondly right along.

I find I like to city ways just like a duck to water.

Like the racket and the noise, and never tire of it.

And there's no end of comfort in the manner of my daughter.

And everything is right at hand, and coming in so quick.

And hired help is all about, just listenin' for my call.

But I miss the yellow almanac off my kitchen wall.

The house is full of calendars from attic to the cellar.

They're painted in all colors, and are fast and in the best of the year.

But just in this particular I'm not a modern feller.

And the yellow-covered almanac is good enough for me.

I'm used to it, I've seen it round from bottom to old age.

And I rather like the jokin' at the bottom of each page.

I like the way the "B" stood out to show the week's beginning.

On these now-forgotten calendars the days were named short and snappy.

And the man upon the cover, though he wasn't exactly winning.

We had a lot and lives all exposed, still showing how we are laid.

And the water, creditable that was writ to Mr. Ayer.

I've often, on a rainy day, found readin' very fair.

I tried to find one recently; there wa'n't one in the city.

I looked out great calendars in every sort of style.

I looked in it for cold distain, and answered 'em in pity.

"I'd rather see in my almanac than that ready pie."

And, though I like to city life, I'm lonesome after it.

For that old yellow almanac upon my kitchen wall.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in the Century.

PLEASED WITH ALBERTA.

An Excellent Report from Wisconsin and Minnesota Delegates.

The opinion of five delegates from Minnesota and Wisconsin, published by the Edmonton Bulletin, are very complimentary to Northern Alberta. The report says:

"We must say with all sincerity that, driving all over the country for six days, we have not found one settler who was not more than pleased with the country and its productions, and will not return to the land he left. We have seen people here from all parts of the states and all doing well. We met a Dakota farmer by the name of McLean, who has informed us that he has raised more grain here in three years than he did in 13 where he came from, on half as much acreage. We have seen a number of others, both men and women, and all speak in the same strain about Alberta. They all look well and contentedly, even the children are happy. In our drives over the country, in passing the countless schoolhouses, we could only see happiness in the faces of the little ones. We noticed them at many points, equal if not better than the same class of children in the State of Minnesota.

The wheat that is raised here is just beautiful, the corn full and plump, and may well be termed golden grain, yielding 20 to 55 bushels to the acre. This statement is not from one farmer, but from hundreds, who tell the same tale. Oats yield from 70 to 100 bushels to the acre, barley from 40 to 60 bushels and potatoes from 300 to 400 bushels to the acre.

We have taken particular notice of the climate in regard to the difference between this country and our own. When we left Ada, Minnesota, we were in the midst of a real Dakota blizzard. When we arrived at Edmonton we found the people on the streets still wearing summer clothing, no matter how cold it was, because it is pure, clean, durable, and it is the best of the best. They are well dressed, and they are happy.

The wheat is better than ever dreamed of. The printed matter sent out by the Government does not half tell of the grand country in Alberta, open for millions of people to make beautiful homes for themselves. Too much cannot be said in praise. It is all better than the greatest outgrowth ever thought of giving to the public.

We saw cattle and horses in herds grazing on the prairie like in summer time, and we saw the grain crops and best of the stock run out all winter. We also found the market extra good here for beef and pork. Hogs fetch eight live weight. Three-year-old steers will bring from $40 to $45 right from the prairie. Coal and wood are here in abundance. Coal is sold in the town of Edmonton for $2 per ton and farmers can secure coal at the mines themselves for 75c per load.

Before closing we say to you one and all, come to Alberta where there are homes for millions and a promise for something to lay by for an old age. We are well satisfied with this country, and as evidence here we have each bought a half section of C. P. R. land in township 53, range 21, west of the 4th initial meridian, and will return next spring to reside here.

Hoping this may be of some benefit to the overburdened farmers of the United States.

Sent by Floyd Dean, son of E. S. Dean, of Dear Mr. Mich., who is now in Alberta, and has taken up 133 acres there.
