 Mrs. Thomas Rice, an Old Resident of Pine City, Passes Away.

On Monday afternoon, June 5th, 1899, at about 5 o'clock, Mrs. Thos. Rice passed peacefully away at her home in this place.
 Miss Anna Eliza Jenkins was born in Essex county, England, in 1837, and left England in 1848, coming to Oshkosh, Winnebago county, Wis., where she was married to Thos. Rice. Mr. Rice moved with his family to Grantsburg about twenty-two years ago, and came to this village eighteen years ago, and has lived here ever since until a year ago, when they went to Minneapolis, where they went on account of Mrs. Rice's health, she having been a sufferer with cancer for a number of years back, and went to the city for medical treatment. They returned home about two months ago, and since then Mrs. Rice's health has failed steadily, and death came to her relief at the above mentioned time.
 Mrs. Rice was a kind and indulgent mother, and a good neighbor. None knew her but to love and respect her. She leaves an aged husband, four sons and two daughters, a sister, and several nieces, nephews and a large number of other relatives to mourn her loss. The sons are Charles and Ezra, of Grantsburg, Wis.; Alfred and Will, of this place, and the daughters, Mrs. Georgiana Morrison, of LaSueur county, and Miss Amber of this place.
 The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30, from the M. E. Church, Rev. H. Taylor officiating, with interment in Birchwood Cemetery. The church was most beautifully decorated with flowers. The pall bearers were George Payne, Albert Pennington, A. H. Lambert, A. C. Burger, A. F. Brackett and H. J. Rath. The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, of which the deceased was an active member, marched in a body.
 The PROXIMA extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

DROWNED AT MORA.
 Ed Guy, a Young Man From This Place, Meets His Death on Thursday.

On Thursday morning, Job Guy received the sad news by wire from Mora that his oldest son, Ed Guy, had been drowned about four miles from Mora, in the Snake river, that day, and the body had been recovered. He at once took the train for the scene of the disaster.
 The young man had never worked on a drive before. Wednesday, having left his home here on Tuesday night. It is a sad blow to his parents, after having left home for so short a time, to be brought home a corpse.
 The many friends in this place, and Cook Creek, their former home, will be sorry to learn of the young man's death, and join with the Proxima in extending their sympathy to the bereaved parents and family.

WHIPPING COACH.
 I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and soon he cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house. - J. L. MOON, South Bay, Wisconsin. For sale by J. Breckenridge, Druggist, Pine City, Minn.

MAPLE GROVE.
 Hello! Chris McKay has a new wheel!
 Mrs. A. L. Fredericksen, of Sandstone, is visiting her daughter, Miss Mary, who is teaching in the McKay district. A picnic will be given at the close of Miss Fredericksen's school, June 16.
 D. S. McKay is putting a new addition to his barn, 30x42, making the whole 30x72. It has greatly improved the appearance of his farm, and we all join in wishing him success, as he is rather apt to do the work by himself.
 A tribe of 'hippies' passed through this neighborhood on Wednesday last. A bear was copped up in the covered wagon, and one of the girls slightly stepped over the fence and asked for a bit of bread. He was the only one who was not at home, and so bread was baked, but he said she went away without assistance.
 -We can do your save-sporting, iron and tin roofing at the lowest prices. - P. E. SMITH, Hardware.

BROOK PARK.
 A barber shop in town.
 P. J. Kelleys is in Minneapolis on business.
 Our hotels are doing a good stroke of business.
 Clark Kelley was doing the city of Mora, Sunday.
 Miss Susie Berg has been on the sick list for the past week.
 There is a good opening in Brook Park for a meat market.
 There is some talk of a newspaper being started at this place.
 S. P. Marlette, of Minneapolis, has seen it to cast his lot with us.
 Track laying on the new road is completed from this place to Grass Lake.

The heavy rains of the past week, have done great damage to the new road bed.
 W. H. Simmons has returned to his first love, and will take the night shift at the depot.
 Work commenced Monday on the grade for the double track from here to Sandstone.
 Willie Berg returned home from Pine City Sunday, where he has been attending school.
 Mr. Marlette is thinking of adding a drug department to his well established business.
 Our general station agent has been very busy of late, as he has had the night, as well as the day work to do.
 It is rumored that there is some magnet as strong as the north pole, that attracts some of our young ladies to Snake river.
 There is a rumor afloat that we are to have a brick yard. Why not? We have plenty of clay, of as fine a quality as can be found in a days travel.

Owing to the grading not being completed from Grass Lake to Cambridge, Mr. Roberts was obliged to take his crew and go to Coon Creek and lay track this way.
 Ed Donley, of West Superior, Wis., has been appointed road master, with headquarters at Sandstone. He will have full charge of the new road from Sandstone to Coon Creek.
 Our townsmen have taken a tumble to themselves and have been devoting their time to clearing the streets of stumps, which have been a dangerous impediment to him who has been indulging too freely in spirits recently.

Mr. Berg, our genial post master is starting a new enterprise, in the way of raising mocking birds. He one of the fine imported kind (Oh! my, you ought to hear him sing) which he is contemplating crossing with the bobolink.
 Mr. and Mrs. Boneher, of this city, received a dispatch from West Superior the latter part of last week, conveying the sad news of the death of their son, at that place. We understand that young Boneher was a member of the Fifteenth Minnesota regiment, that was stationed at Chickamauga, where he contracted the malarial fever, of which he died. He was interred at West Superior.

It takes two road masters, a superintendent and the Lord only knows how many underbosses, as well as several of the head officers, together with three engineers, to look after a handful of men who are raising the grade of the new road-bed where it has settled from the effects of the recent heavy rains. Why not turn the tables, and let the bosses do the work and the men do the looking on? They probably would get more work done.

ROCK CREEK.
 Mr. E. N. Kirke made a trip to Rush City on Sunday.
 W. E. McKinzie made a trip to Rush City, Wednesday.
 Miss Jessie Wescott, of Pine City, is visiting at this place.
 Mrs. G. O. Vibrance, of St. Paul, is visiting at the home of F. Radant.
 The work of putting the machinery at the creamery is progressing nicely.
 C. Hammergren came up from St. Paul Saturday, and spent Sunday with his family.
 Henry Earle has bought forty acres of land near R. E. Bowen, and is building a house on it.
 A Swedish M. E. Church is about to be built three miles west of here, near the Presbyterian Church.
 F. Crump, the creamery man, has moved his family into the Erickson house, near the school building.
 Miss Annie Kern left for Oelwein, Iowa, Thursday June 1st, where she will work during the summer.
 Mrs. Fredericksen, of Sandstone, is visiting her daughter at the McKay home, where she is engaged in teaching school.
 Archie Ross and Silas Doran made a trip to Minneapolis last week on wheels, and both invested in a wheel, and returned Sunday evening, about played out. Archie says he discovered some wire fences on his way back, and has several marks to remember the trip by.
 On account of Annual Meeting of Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F., Minneapolis, Minn., June 14-16, 1899, tickets will be sold June 13th and 14th, final limit June 17, at one and one-third fare for the round trip, or $2.35. J. P. HOLMBERG, Agent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Erickson and Miss Nellie Peterson attended the wedding of Miss Carrie Anderson to A. Johnson at Brahm Saturday. Miss Anderson is well known in this vicinity, having taught several terms of school here. Mr. Johnson is a member of the firm of Johnson & Matson, general merchants at that place.
 They Make it a Holiday.
 The excursion advertised by the St. Paul & Duluth Railroad for the 17th it seems will be more of an affair than most people realize. The many roads running to the Head of the Lakes are all advertising a very low rate from all points on their systems. Elaborate preparations for the reception and entertainment of the guests are being made by the people of Superior, where the principal attractions for the day will take place, among which will be a free steamboat ride around the harbor and on Lake Superior, Baseball and Athletic games, but the feature of most interest to visitors will be the launching of the big steel steamboat, "John Smeaton," now being built at the Superior yards of the American Steel Barge Company. A Special train has been secured to take the visitors around the city to see the industries.
 The streets will be fittingly decorated, and committees will see that everybody has comfortable quarters both day and night.
 Grand Excursion to West Superior and Duluth, June 17.
 Upon the occasion of the launching of the grain carrier "John Smeaton" at Superior, June 17th and the Grand Military Parade in honor of Secretary Alger at Duluth at 10 a. m. the same day, The St. Paul & Duluth railroad will sell excursion tickets from Pine City, to Duluth or West Superior and return for $2.00. Remember the date, June 17th, and call upon local agent, St. Paul & Duluth, railroad for full details regarding tickets and limits.

THE GOSPEL OF LOVE

The East Full of Fakirs Who Travel in Its Holy Name.

They Meet Disciples Upon the Nile, Men and Women Who Devote Their Lives to the Work of Salvation.

(Special Washington Letter.)

A new industry has sprung up in the cities along the Atlantic coast, and a few of the money-makers have come to Washington recently and set up their business.

Last December there came to this city a man, with his wife and two sons, in a dilapidated wagon, drawn by a bony and sorry-looking white horse. On the side of the wagon appeared the sign: "Hutchinson-Morgan Family of Sigmars."

This strange-looking oddity anchored near Pennsylvania avenue opposite center market, in a very busy part of the city, where the throngs at night are thickest, and a folded organ was brought forth from under a seat, was set up on a platform at the rear of the wagon, the man began to play, and a boy about 15 years of age began to sing.

Nature has gifted him with a strong contralto voice, and his method indicates a bit of culture. Within ten minutes the wagon was surrounded by upwards of a hundred people. The woman and her boy sang revival songs, and occasionally the younger lad, about 12 years of age, sang a solo.

Night after night during the entire winter, excepting only the week of the blizzard, the alleged gospel chariot went to that spot, and gave its performances without paying license or tax for the privilege of using the street. It was taken several times each evening, and it was made manifest to close observers that this professional gospel business was paying well.

The head of the family is a little bit of a man, with eyes which do not look fairly at the audience, and which are downward when engaged in private conversation. Between songs he occasionally appears on the platform, with a Bible in his hand, and makes a pretense of preaching. He doesn't know enough about the Bible or about systematic theology to enable him to instruct a crowd of infant-class children, but he makes a rattling good show, and he stands for a sermon. This disagreeable part of the performance is nightly endured by the gathered crowd. The alleged preaching is necessary in order that the deceit may be complete and the law respected.

Because of the pretense that this is a religious effort, a sincere soul-saving performance, the police department of the national capital permits that man and woman to leave those little boys out until almost midnight night after night during the cold winter. They were kept there sleeping in order to gather crowds from whom collections might be taken. It is a contemptible, because and exceedingly reprehensible, because it is conducted in the name of the gospel of love.

Two weeks ago there came to town one Sunday night another gospel chariot. It bore the name of a preacher and his wife, and an ostentatiously bailed wagon from Buffalo, N. Y. The preacher was a stout black negro. He is brighter and smarter and more entertaining than the white man who has kept his children out all winter. He had a platform also in the rear of his wagon; and during the evening performances his wife played an organ and sang Gospel hymns. The solar of her skin shows her mixed birth.

But that makes no difference. However it may be elsewhere the writer knows not, but here in the national capital the negroes who have white blood in their veins are proud of their manifest fairer sinister. The colored girls with light complexions have black men for husbands, and the black men for their hands. One of them explained this to the writer, saying: "Black men bow low to the white blood in my veins, and believe they are as good as I am. But the black fellows worship me for my white blood, and hence I prefer them. It is the same with all mulatto girls. We are like white women, we like to have admiration, even if it does come from black men."

The black preacher and his mulatto wife stayed here four days and gathered many hundreds of pennies and nickels from the colored population. Then they drove over the aqueduct bridge, and went into Virginia. Where they go next can be conjectured. The peripatetic gospel chariot is the precursor of a new style of gypsy for this country.

After the departure of that chariot there came into the streets of Georgetown, which is now a part of this capital, a big heavy blacksmith-looking fellow. He had a good-sized wagon,

MINNESOTA NEWS.

Back Pay for Minnesota Volunteers. The last legislature appropriated $30,000 for the payment to the enlisted men of the National Guard, who were discharged into the volunteer service, of the difference between the pay received by them for service at Camp Linnay, prior to their entry into United States service, and the rate of $1.00 per day allowed by the state under the provisions of the military code. The adjutant general has made up the several payrolls and forwarded them to the captains of the volunteer companies for signatures. But a limited number of men can be reached in that manner, and it will be necessary for those who have not received their pay to sign the payroll to the adjutant general, giving the designation of the company and volunteer regiment to which they belonged, to the adjutant general of Minnesota, who will send them the proper receipts to be signed and returned, and will then proceed to pay under the law.

In order to facilitate this payment it is desirable that those who are receiving the address of comrades residing or now serving outside of the state, communicate the information in the proper manner to the adjutant general, thus enabling him to reach the absent ones.

The law also provides that the arrears due a deceased soldier shall be paid to his widow, or father, or mother, or next of kin, in the order named, and means for that purpose will be furnished by the adjutant general upon application by the party entitled to such payment.

Stock Company Formed. E. T. Leclair and E. C. Barrows have returned to Minneapolis from the Rainy Lake mining country more firmly convinced than ever that the gold mines will soon see some of the richest gold mines in the world.

Not only is Mr. Leclair convinced of this, but has succeeded in convincing several Eastern people that there is money in the ground about Rainy Lake, and at Rat Portage last week was effected the organization of the Boulder Gold Mining company of Ontario, with a capital of $2,000,000. The company, which is a genuine organization for the dissemination of religion, for the betterment of mankind. It is planned to have a number of classes who might receive no instruction of a religious or moral nature but for the means offered. The platform of earnest men and women, with their drum, cymbals, tinbrels and cornets, marching to various points at night, drawing crowds who hear the Gospel earnestly delivered by honest people.

The Young Men's Christian association has a Gospel wagon which visits every section of the state, carrying good singers, good speakers and noble workers for the cause which is so dear to them. There is no collection taken up at these meetings, and there is no favor of money-making to destroy the genuine character of the efforts which are made.

Climate and Crop Bulletin. These were showers, except on the 23rd and 24th, though they were somewhat local as regards place and amount; those on the 25th and 26th were much heavier in the south, where there were thunder storms, which in the extreme southeastern counties were accompanied by high winds and excessive rainfalls, which filled the creeks.

Most of the week was very favorable in the Red River valley for healthy growth, and for finishing the wheat seeding. The flax, some barley and a little oats are still to be seeded, but because of wet weather and delay earlier in the season, large areas of undrained counties will not be seeded this year. All the small grains are reported in splendid condition and the stalling of wheat and oats continues. Winter rye is generally thin and it is hard planting in some places, especially in the favorable localities it is coming up slowly.

Death of Maj. Digges. Major Arthur M. Digges, junior major of the Thirtieth Minnesota regiment at Manila, who was recently wounded in the head, passed away May 29, at Manila.

Major Digges was one of the best loved of the old officers in the old first regiment, Minnesota National Guards, having served as an officer in that body for seven years. Eight years ago he joined the state militia as the captain of company B, and he remained with that company until the regiment was called into the field by Gov. Clough, a year ago when he entered into the service of the country, at the head of the men whom he had trained for so long a time. While in Camp Linnay he received the appointment of major, which position he held until his death.

Beats Former Records. The crop year of 1893, ending July 31, will be the banner year for wheat receipts in the history of the Minnesota grain trade. The record will be broken by the great total of 85,000,000 bushels of wheat received in 12 months.

In the calendar year of 1893, Minnesota received 79,878,570 bushels of wheat, but the 85,000,000 mark has never been passed in either calendar or crop year. There has been received in Minnesota since Aug. 1, 78,019,916 bushels of wheat, and it is not unreasonable to expect 7,000,000 more in the next two months. Of this total receipts, Minnesota will grind nearly 15,000,000 bushels to her mills. The city remains the great primary market of the country.

News in Brief. Gov. Lind gave a short address to the inmates of the state prison at Menominee July 1.

Rev. J. C. Hull, formerly a well known Methodist minister, who was sent to prison from St. Paul for poisoning his wife, died in the Rochester lunatic asylum July 1.

The territorial pioneers will make an excursion to the Dalles of the St. Croix, June 15.

For the first time, the saloons of Minneapolis were closed on Memorial day during the parade.

John J. McTeague, 23 years old, a telegraph operator employed by the Western Union at Minneapolis, was drowned in the Mississippi river when it is joined by the Minnesota.

MORE AID FOR HENDERSON.

The Western Candidate for the Speakership of the House Seeks Assistance of Voluntary. Chicago, June 5.—Republican congressmen in many states fail to do their duty. Col. David B. Henderson, of Iowa, for speaker of the lower house. Reports from Massachusetts, Maryland, Michigan and South Dakota indicate that the solid republican delegations of those four states had decided to support Henderson for speaker. In addition, messages received by Chicago politicians from Wisconsin, Minnesota, Indiana and Ohio brought assurance that congressional delegations undoubtedly would remain with him to the end. Other western states are believed to be in the same mood. The action of Massachusetts and Maryland is thought by Col. Henderson's friends to foreshadow further eastern success.
