A conference will be held in Washington this week which will probably result in an immediate start being made in the taking of the census of Cuba. Those who will participate in the conference will be Secretary Root, Assistant Secretary Melckjohn, Inspector General Sanger, who will have immediate supervision of the work, several representatives of the Census Bureau, and the Cuban Supervisors, recently appointed by Gen. Brooke. As has been stated, this census is to be taken to get at the voting population of Cuba, and soon after its completion, municipal elections will be held over there. Although our Census Bureau officials are acting in an advisory capacity in this matter, the Cuban census will have no connection with our census, and will be taken under military supervision.

The following opinion, by J. T. Gillespie, an observant citizen of Massachusetts, who has just returned from a trip to Russia and who is now in Washington, is both interesting and pertinent: "With all her professed friendship for the United States, Russia does not tolerate American missionaries within her borders. Russia is pre-eminently selfish in all her aims, and her ambitions are far more stupendous than people in this country have any idea of. She dreams of the time when she will dominate not only the whole of China, but India, Persia, and Turkey as well. The building of the great Siberian railway is nothing but a scheme of conquest. Russia courts the friendship of the United States, because she fears that when the inevitable conflict between the Slav and the Briton comes on, the United States may side with the mother country. Down in their hearts the Russians care no more for us than they do for the English, and whenever they think the hour is ripe they will push us aside in the Orient just as ruthlessly as they will John Bull. They bide their time, being a patient and cunning race, but in the meantime it suits them to appear to be our friends."

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

My son was afflicted with rheumatism which contracted his right limb until he was unable to walk. After using one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was able to be about again. I can heartily recommend it to persons suffering from rheumatism—JOHN SINDR, Freed, Calhoun county, W. Va. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, Druggist, Pine City.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Bergetstown, Pa. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, Druggist, Pine City, Minn.

BEST NATIVE CURED.

My Wife had used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.
W. J. CUYLER, Red Creek, N. Y.
Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading citizens of this village, and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity.—W. G. Purrys, editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by J. Y. Breckenridge, Pine City.

$1,000 Premium.

The above premium is offered by the Minnesota State Horticultural society for the production of a seedling apple tree as hardy and prolific as the Duchess, with fruit equal to the Wealthy in size, quality and appearance, and that will keep as well as the Malinda. This offer is open to all.

Quite likely the seed to produce this tree may not yet have been planted even. Select a corner of your garden or orchard for a seedling nursery, and plant seed of the hardest varieties of apples. You will find the work of growing and testing seedlings an interesting one, and it promises much for the future of pomology in this northwest.

Why does the boy hate the beer?

He doesn't—he loves it because it is Ham's delicious brew. It is the medicine his kind aunty has mixed in it, that he dislikes. Never mind he is to have a drink of the pure article afterwards to take the bad taste away.

DR. W. McKENSTRY, Fredonia, N. Y.

The Veteran Editor of the Fredonia Concor, writes Dr. Fenner:

"I have been using your Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic, and desire to say that I like it."

I find it an admirable remedy for the biliousness, languor and nervous depression incident to the changing seasons sufficiently physic and yet not debilitating but strengthening instead."

Dr. Fenner's Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic. This famous remedy, by a famous physician and the virtuoso of medicine in one of America's most eminent medical authorities, and has been long and successfully used and prescribed in cases of debility, nervousness, impaired blood, etc. For "building up" the system it is impossible to find a equal. The first bottle is guaranteed to give satisfaction. Dr. Greenlee.

THE TRADE JOURNAL

An Enlargement and a Great Freshening. Since H. P. Hall purchased the St. Paul Trade Journal it has been rapidly forging to the front, both in increase of subscriptions and in advertising patronage. It success has been so marked that it was given a material enlargement on the 1st of last, by the addition of a column to the page, the standard number of at least 31 pages being maintained and often three more. It gives much interesting reading matter in this way, as well as valuable business information and market quotations and is a publication the business man of the Northwest cannot afford to do without. The Trade Journal is issued weekly at the subscription price of one dollar per year, and upon invitation for subscribers Mr. Hall offers, for a limited period, to send The Trade Journal for one year and the Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, a volume containing 1,121 pages and 60,000 words, for one dollar. The dictionary will be sent express charges prepaid so that the total cost for fifty-two copies of the Trade Journal and a standard unabridged dictionary will be one dollar.—St. Paul Dispatch.

High Officials Take to Washing. Seneca, Stevenson's island home and grave, is the only country in the world where its rulers and chief justices will with each other in the honorable work of the laundry. There is no false pride about a chief of Seneca, who will discuss high politics with you one moment and the next make a tender for your washing. What is more, when he has executed the washing to your satisfaction he will ask you to give him a testimonial to that effect, with which to fortify succeeding victories.—New York Journal.

Hungarian Gypsy Minstrels.

The gypsy minstrels form a caste by themselves. Their appearance is always more swarthy than that of other Hungarian musicians, their dress is sometimes purposely fantastic and their manner of life is far more Bohemian than the most liberal minded aristocrat would care to own. Every hotel and restaurant in Budapest possesses its gypsy band, and the method of payment is as free and easy as the music itself and their life. The hotel keeper is not bound by any contract, but at various intervals throughout the performance one of his gypsies takes a dinner plate and goes round among the various guests in the hall from table to table, receiving in the plate what the latter like to put there. The favorite coin deposited there is the nickel 10 kopeck piece, answering to our twopenny. I have not often seen a florin or a krona (half a florin). The whole collection is, as a rule, made up of twopennies.—Good Words.
