Memorial tablets are to be fixed by the London county council to Holly lodge, Campden Hill, Kensington, the house in which Macaulay died, to No. 4, Whitehall Gardens, in which Sir Robert Peel died, and to No. 23, Theobalds road, the house in which Disraeli was born.

An Austrian naturalist named Werner has ascertained by numerous experiments that crocodiles can see objects at a distance of over 20 times the length of their bodies. Crocodiles can distinguish objects ten times the length of their bodies, and can construct only one-quarter of their own length.

A Viennese father punished his little girl so severely for pawing his overcoat with her feet that she attempted to commit suicide by taking phosphorus. The father did not call a doctor for two days, and she was taken to a hospital. He was summoned for neglecting to attend to her while she was ill.

Long before J. P. Morgan tried his daring experiment of organizing the ship trust, Baron Shibusawa, of Japan, cemented a number of warring lines into the Japan Mail Steamship Co., the fifth largest shipping corporation in the world. For this he has been named the "Morgan of Japan." Shibusawa was one of the first Japanese to take European civilization, having been sent to Paris in the time of Napoleon III.

The sting of an insect liberated Dr. W. A. Bennett of Liberty, Pa., with the dread disease anthrax. While driving to see a patient he was stung, and 15 minutes later he was compelled to cut his collar off on account of the swelling. After a consultation the disease has been pronounced anthrax. The doctors think the insect must have been feeding on Chinese hides at one of the tanneries, and carried the germs of the disease.

The scarcity and high prices of cotton this year, which has forced many English mills to close and left home-land great suffering among thousands who have thus been made idle, has spurred the government to take renewed interest in the problem of raising cotton in English colonies, and it is proposed to give government support to colonists who may try to raise cotton. According to the latest reports, British Guiana has splendid conditions for the production of the staple.

Leland M. Finks, of Calhoun, claims to have the coat of arms of the Livingston family. Washington's official pedigree and a silver watch which formerly belonged to the "Father of His Country." Washington loved good horses, and Mr. Finks says he used this watch in timing his fast goers. The articles, he states, were given him by his mother, and to her by her father. Where his grandfather got them he does not state. They may be exhibited in the Missouri building at the St. Louis fair.

From London comes the report that Mackenzie Davidson, the noted surgeon at Charing Cross hospital, has announced that he has successfully treated a case of superfluous glands means of radium. Dr. Davidson is treating two other cases, and promises success in each. He says that while radium has proved to be a most effective with superficial cancer, he can not say it will cure internal cancer, as he has not experimented with them yet, and does not want to raise false hopes.

Every soldier in the British army carries in his haversack what is known as the "emergency ration." This consists of a small tin cylinder, similar to a pocket flask, divided into two compartments. One of these is filled with four ounces of cocoa paste and the other contains a similar quantity of concentrated beef (pemmican). As its title implies, the ration is not to be used except in case of dire necessity and is consumed in small quantities it will maintain strength for 20 hours.

A Boston entomologist makes the extraordinary statement that bugs, under which generic name he includes the little creatures from the grasshopper down to the ladybug, are stealing property in this country to the amount of $250,000,000 a year. The grasshopper eats up $50,000,000 worth of vegetation, the Hessian fly $50,000,000, the chinch bug $50,000,000, the locust $50,000,000. Moths, ladybugs, tobacco-worms, sawgrasshoppers, beetles and numerous other entomological entities consume the remainder.

R. G. Johnson, of Niagara Falls, while he has been searching for the best clay to make crucibles, read the statements in the fifth chapter of Exodus about the use of straw and stubble in the manufacture of ancient Egyptian bricks. He procured some straw, had it rotted and mixed the dark red loam with clay. He found that the plaster was greatly increased. Investigation showed that tannin was the active agent and when he treated other clay with a solution of tannin in water he obtained superior results.

CONTEST NOT YET DECIDED

Wind and Bad Weather Prevent Completion of Yacht Race for America's Cup.

Two of the Series Have Been Won by the Reliance—Her Showing in Two Attempts at the Third Race Proves Conspicuously That the Trophy Is Certain to Remain.

THE YACHT RACE.

Reliance Wins Second of the Series for America's Cup—Trophy Is Apparently Safe.

New York, Aug. 26.—In a glorious breeze, over a triangular course, ten miles to a leg, the fleet-footed cup defender Reliance again showed her heels yesterday to Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, taking the second race of the cup series of 1903 by the narrow margin of one minute and 19 seconds.

No Race.—With the Reliance less than a third of a mile from the finish and the Shamrock III. hull down on the horizon, fully two miles astern of the gallant defender, the fourth race of the present series for the America's cup on Thursday was declared because of the expiration of the time limit of five and one-half hours, as happened on Thursday last.

Lipton Gives Up.—New York, Aug. 26.—Sir Thomas Lipton, aboard the Erin, docked at Pier 15, in an interview that he would never challenge again for the America's cup until a man had been found in England who equaled Ned Herreshoff, then it will be impossible for the cup again. The baronet admitted his disappointment at his failure and frankly said that he had no hope of winning even a single race.

American brains and development have us beaten. If the day ever comes when England produces a man who will challenge for the cup again it will not be until then. It is unpleasant to be compelled to admit it, but the brains in boat building are on this side of the water. Herreshoff is a wizard. His work is wonderful. None can have admired Reliance more than I have. She is the best boat by all odds and has won on strict merit.

"I am a most disappointed man. My hopes were high when I left home, for I surely believed we would carry back the cup."

Yesterday's fluke only prolonged the agony. I am sure that I will win with any sails and I regretted Reliance's failure to get over the line as much as anyone could.

Another Failure.—New York, Sept. 1.—Again on Monday the beautiful cup defender Reliance failed to register her third victory over Lipton's challenger, because the wind died to nothing in the time limit of five and a half hours expired before she could reach the finish line. Her margin was approximately the same as on Thursday last. She was less than half a mile from the finish when the gun sounded. The Shamrock III. was a faint blur on the horizon, fully two and a half miles astern. Reliance's failure to score the race was the more explicable because her opponent was a boat who, even by Sir Thomas himself, to be simply a formally. The superiority of the Herreshoff boat, which has already been acknowledged by the yachting critics of both sides of the Atlantic, and Monday's fluke only prolongs the agony of the contest, which has already been decided. The race was spiritless from the beginning. It was laid 15 miles to windward up the Long Island sound and return.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 28.—The populists held their state convention here Thursday and nominated the following ticket without a contest: Governor, H. W. Carter, Nashua; lieutenant governor, S. T. JOHNSON WINS.

Cleveland's Mayor Named for Governor by Ohio Democrats—Synopsis of the Platform.

Columbus, O., Aug. 27.—The Johnson program was carried out completely Wednesday in the democratic state convention. The ticket nominated is as follows: Governor, Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland; lieutenant governor, Frank B. Miles, of Toledo; supreme judge, Edward J. Dempsey, of Cincinnati; attorney general, Frank S. Monnet, of Cleveland; treasurer of state, W. J. Dahl, of Washington Court house; auditor of state, Charles A. Kloebe, of Wapakoneta; school commissioner, J. H. Beckett, of Ottawa; member of board of public works, T. H. B. Jones, of Iron-ton; United States senator, John H. Clarke, of Cleveland.

The result of the convention leaves the party organization 18 to 3 in the hands of the Bryan-Johnson element.

Next year, when delegates to the democratic national convention are to be selected. The platform affirms the declaration on national issues of the platform of 1902, adopted at Sandusky, renewing allegiance to the democratic party of the nation, and again avowing devotion to the principles of the last national platform. It condemns colonialism and imperialism, denounces trusts and trust-fostering tariffs, repudiates government by injunction, and opposes financial monopoly, together with every other legalized monopoly and legalized privilege. "Adhering to these principles of the Kansas City platform, we repudiate our condemnation of all efforts to renounce or ignore them."

While the platform contains over 4,000 paragraphs, only one refers to national issues. The people are asked to determine whether all state interests are to be sacrificed for the reelection of Tammy as senator.

William Jennings Bryan, by special resolution, is invited to speak in Ohio in support of these declarations of principles.

DEATH SENTENCE.

It is Awarded to Cash Powers for Alleged Complicity in the Murder of Goebel.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 31.—The third trial of ex-Secretary of State Cash Powers for complicity in the murder of Gov. William Goebel, in January, 1902, closed shortly before noon Saturday with the extreme penalty of hanging for the distinguished prisoner, who had been in the penitentiary for three years on life sentence. Powers has been convicted twice before, this being the third trial in which the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against him. On his previous trial, he escaped with a sentence of life imprisonment, as the evidence was not sufficiently strong against him to lead the jury to inflicting the extreme penalty.

A TERRIBLE DEED.

Robbers Attack Car Near in Chicago, Kill Two Men, Wound Two and Escape With $3,000.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Two men were killed and two wounded by hold-up at the barns of the Chicago City Railway company, Sixty-first and State streets, early Sunday morning. The hold-up was done by three masked men, who escaped after securing $3,000. Three of the men who were shot were working in the car-tilers' office, which was used as a motor-man's sleeping in the outer office. The victims were about without a word of alarm, having received the news of a robbery through a window before they were aware of the robbers' presence, and the motor-man was killed as he was rising from a bench, where he had just been sitting. After disposing of all opposition, one of the robbers broke open the door of the inner office with a sledge hammer which he had brought with him, and secured $3,000 in bills which were lying on the desk. The thieves then escaped.

TRAINS ARE IN AN AWFUL WRECK

The Collision Occurs on a Railway in Italy—The Result Is Appalling.

Twenty Soldiers, Returning from Military Manoeuvres at Udine, are Killed—Stately Officers Are Injured—The Festivities Are Cut Short by Disaster.

Rome, Aug. 29.—A disastrous railway accident has cut almost the festivities and demonstrations in honor of the king and queen at Udine, the chief town on the eastern frontier, 60 miles from Venice, where the sovereigns had gone to view the grand army manoeuvres. At ten o'clock Thursday night, near Udine, a train overflowing with soldiers collided with a freight train. The force of the collision was terrific. Those on board were thrown in all directions and the coaches were broken up. Nineteen soldiers and one captain were killed and 90 injured, 32 dangerously so. The colonel in command of the soldiers was among the injured.

King Victor Emmanuel visited the hospital in consequence of the accident. Queen Helena accompanied the king on his visit to the scene of the railroad disaster and spoke words of sympathy to each of the wounded, with whom the king also shook hands. With the royal couple were the minister of war and the archbishop of Udine, who, having received the telegram from the pope instructing him to visit the hospital and assist at the funerals of the victims.

FOUND GUILTY.

Six Men Are Convicted of Rioting at Danville, Ill.—Two Are Acquitted.

Danville, Ill., Aug. 31.—Six men were found guilty of taking part in the race riots the night of July 25. They are Winfield Walker, John Walton, Adam Murray, Isaac Sale, John Robertson and Thomas Bell. William Redwine and Clay Biddle, who were also indicted, were found not guilty. The sentence calls for fine and imprisonment. The evidence conclusively proved to the minds of the jury that the riot was planned and carried out on the fall when the mob attacked to lynch Henry Wilson, a negro.

TRADE REVIEW.

The Predictions by Economists of Depression in Business Fall of Realization.

New York, Aug. 31.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "There is still no indication of the depression in trade and industry that pessimists predicted would follow the decline in securities. Conservatism was developed by the uncertainty regarding the effect upon financial conditions, but legitimate business is able to secure loans as they are required, and the more cautious progress of business gives promise of greater permanent gain. Weak spots have been disclosed and the technical position strengthened, just as occurred in the stock market. Readjustment after a period of inflation must of necessity bring some losses, yet the outlook is brightened by the removal of threatening industrial clouds. Dispatches from all sections testify to the liberal distribution of merchandise and the disposition to prepare for greater consumption of all the necessities of life, while the crops are making good progress and from some cotton districts in Texas. The number of buyers in New York is increasing and a heavy fall trade is anticipated.

"Failures this week numbered 170 in the United States, against 173 last year, and 23 in Canada, compared with 34 a year ago."

FLEETS SENT TO BEIRUT, SYRIA

Orders Given to United States European Squadron—President Gives Command.

Washington, Aug. 29.—On Thursday the state department received a brief cablegram dated at Constantinople from Mr. Leishman, United States minister to Turkey, announcing that on Sunday last United States Vice Consul William C. Magelsen had been assassinated in Beirut, Syria. The instructions were immediately sent to Mr. Leishman to demand a thorough investigation of the affair and the punishment of those involved in the crime. President Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, was at once notified of the purport of the dispatch, and he ordered the European squadron, consisting of three warships, and the United States Admiral Cotton, to proceed immediately to Beirut to support the demands of the United States minister, should this be found necessary.

Friday night, however, another cablegram was received from Minister Leishman, announcing that the report that Vice Consul Magelsen had been killed was incorrect. An unknown individual had fired at him and the bullets passed close to the vice consul, but did not touch him. The dispatch said that the fall of Beirut afterwards visited Vice Consul Magelsen, expressed his regrets for the outrage, and ordered measures for the arrest of the perpetrator. The report stated that Vice Consul Magelsen had been killed as a result of a mistake in a cipher telegram.

This news was at once communicated to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, and a dispatch from the latter place states that the president expressed gratification that Consul Magelsen had escaped without injury from the result of the would-be murder. He announced, however, that no change at present would be made in the plans of this government, and that the European squadron, which he has ordered to proceed immediately to Beirut, would continue in its ordered destination. It can be said that the president and Secretary of State have both regard it advisable, in view of the present state of unrest in Turkey, to have American war vessels in Turkish waters.

It can be said to be the purpose of President Roosevelt to afford American citizens in the troubled provinces of Turkey all the protection possible. For that purpose, and for others which may develop in a short time, the decision is reached that no change will be made at this time in the orders to the European squadron. Admiral Cotton will proceed with his vessels to Turkish waters, and will have American guards, fully armed and equipped, to guard fully Americans and American interests.

War Almost Certain.—Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 1.—Both in official and revolutionary circles the opinion is freely held that war between Bulgaria and Turkey is imminent, and can be averted by nothing short of a miracle. It is not expected that either Turkey or Bulgaria will declare hostilities, but that the prevailing conditions will force on a war.

Dear Plaintiff.—Governor N. Y., Sept. 1.—The deer shooting season has opened and northern trains have carried many hunters to the Adirondacks. Campers from the mountains say deer are plentiful this year, especially in the vicinity of Whittaker lake, in Hamilton county.

Double Tragedy.—Richmond, Ind., Sept. 1.—Herbert B. Bates, a clerk in the First National bank, Monday shot and fatally killed Miss Rena Green. He then shot and killed himself. He was 19, no witnesses to the tragedy. It is supposed that she had rejected his attentions.

Damage Was Enormous.—Frankfort, Kan., Aug. 27.—The damage to farms in Nemaha and Marshall counties by Tuesday's sandstorm is greater than formerly estimated and now is placed at $500,000.

But Captured.—St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 31.—Three people were drowned and a Wisconsin boat was lost Sunday night by the overturning of a rowboat.

PINE COUNTY PIONEER.

ED. C. GOTTRY, Editor and Prop.

Entered in the Post Office at Pine City as Second Class Matter.

PINE CITY, MINN., Sept. 4, 1908.

We may even have to thrash Turkey ourselves.

Of course, the blame is being laid on the men who sinned Shamrock III.

Sin Thomas didn't get the cup, but he got a lot of free advertising just the same.

As a matter of fact, we can get along without that canal if it becomes necessary.

Russia started to carve the Turkey, but its knife turned an edge and the czar beat a hasty retreat.

The powers announced that the sultan will be good and the sultan winks the other eye and does as he darned please.

No, brother, the capital of the nation has not been moved to Oyster Bay. The president has just been taking a vacation.

They say John D. Rockefeller's fortune has shrunk to the tune of about $80,000,000. If that is so, we will have to quit using oil altogether.

Consternation prevails in the ranks of the employees of the government printing office. They are all compelled to take the oath of allegiance to the United States.

Don't forget that every dollar you pay to your home merchant may some day find its way back to you, whereas if you send it to the city you simply kiss it an eternal goodbye.

The only thing lacking to make those naval maneuvers on the Atlantic coast complete in every respect was the presence of Admiral Cervera and Montijo aid their Spanish ships.

Newport society is nothing if it is not original. Having tired of monkeys and cats and dogs, it now turns its attention to the gentleman of color and furnishing him with the most lavish entertainment. But then Newport must have its amusements.

Now a professor at the Annapolis naval academy is out with the prediction that the bookless age will soon be at hand, and that the talking machine will be the whole thing. If a few more of these freak professors make their appearance we won't even need a talking machine.

Nor being able to attract sufficient notice otherwise Judge Wood and Governor Davis of Arkansas, engaged in a fist fight at a public speaking and the shining light of the Supreme Court knocked the ruler of the Arkansas off the platform. The presence of Carrie Nation and her hatchet would have made the spectacle complete.

Beginning with Sunday, Sept. 6, the Duluth News Tribune will issue in addition to its regular edition a comic colored Supplement of four pages. This is a move in the right direction, as the young people look forward to these pictures. The Tribune will not be cut down by any other paper in the state. The Tribune only a short time ago secured special trains for the express purpose of giving their Sunday edition a wider distribution and the success of the undaunting has well demonstrated itself.

Secretary of War Root will leave the Cabinet January 1 and will be succeeded by Governor William H. Taft of the Philippines. Judge Taft will in turn be succeeded as governor of the Philippines by General Luke E. Wright, the present vice-governor. The president could hardly make a better selection for the war portfolio than Judge Taft, who is one of the best public officials the country has ever produced. The same may equally be said of General Wright, his successor in the Philippines. General Wright, though a democrat, has the entire confidence of the administration, and his work has been of such a high order of merit that the president determined to make him governor of the islands.

CHINA has agreed to give us the open door. Now to see what is on the other side.

E. T. YOUNG, of Appleton, had the St. Paul Dispatch editor arrested for libel, for saying that Young was a "mercer" candidate for Attorney General, and a country justice fined the editor fifty dollars. This article on Young's political career, for it should be considered a credit, rather than disgrace, to be on a ticket headed by Bob. Dunn - Taylors Falls Journal.

PRESIDENT Roosevelt has said some nice things to the governor of Indiana for the efficient measures he is taking for the suppressing of lynching and other forms of lawlessness in his state. And the Gov. is deserving of the commendation. His course is one that many another executive could emulate with advantage to him and the people of his commonwealth.

The bookbinders in the government printing office seem to have bumped up against a stump with a good long root attached to the other end. An order has just been issued by the secretary of commerce and labor requiring every employee of the office to take the oath of allegiance to the United States. This will be a poser for them, as their oath taken in the union is supposed to practically forbid their taking the government oath. It appears to be a case of the pitcher-going to the well one to often.

Sin Thomas Lipton is in despair and intimates that there may never be another contest for the American cup. We sympathize with him in his defeat, but would remind him that the American people have a very high regard for a gentleman who has shown so much pluck and determination, and whether he ever races for the cup again or not, he can point to us and say that we are his friends in all truth and sincerity. He has made a gallant fight and defeat but raises him in our estimation.

We haven't heard much of that good roads movement for some weeks and yet it is a subject that should not be allowed to die out. Winter is coming on and in a short time the rain and the snows will make many of the roads almost impassable. What if it does take a little money now to put them in proper shape, won't the result in the future more than repay all present trouble and expense? Let us not forget this. This is a prosperous age, and almost everything but our country roads is feeling the effect. They are allowed to remain in their old condition, and it should not be so.

The postmaster general has directed that railroad trains not carrying mail cars be allowed to carry newspapers to the dealers along the routes, and that such packages be handled by the baggage men and be considered as United States mail and subject to all of the protection that goes therewith. This will not only enable the readers of the great dailies to receive their papers much earlier than formerly in many cases, but will also place every train in the country under the protection of the United States government, as being mail trains, strikers are forbidden to molest or interfere with their transit in any way under penalty of federal law. It will be a great boon to the railroad companies.

The murder of the United States vice-consul at Beirut, Syria, called for prompt and severe measures being taken against the government of the Porte. It was only a few days ago that a Russian consul was killed by a Turkish gardener and Russia made a big bluff that mounted to nothing. Such should not be the case with our government. A heavy indemnity should be paid to the family of the murdered official as an object apology made to this government, and the flag should be publicly saluted. In addition, the sultan should be taught a lesson for all that his policy of rapine and murder will no longer be tolerated by Christian nations. This ruler has been a blot upon the civilized world for years, and will continue to be such until the powers cease their glowing adulation. It is time to turn in and give the heathen a good sound thrashing. Nothing less drastic will have the slightest effect.

Thousands of people have a little money laid aside drawing perhaps 3 per cent in savings banks. If you want an investment which will pay you bigger returns, send me a check for $80 payable in the order of the Merchants National Bank, St. Paul, and twenty 85 certificates of the Consolidated Trust Company, of New York, representing a $100 share of stock in the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America, will be sent to you by return mail. One hundred dollars in the Edison Electric Light Company advanced to $1,000 in one year. $100 in the Bell Telephone Company advanced to $200,000 in twenty-five years. We do not promise great dividends, because the earning power of $80 could not produce anything enormous, but multiplied by the opportunities which a new and wonderful scientific invention offers for commercial development, the returns will be greater than you would believe if stated in cold figures. It is because the system is new that this offer is made. It is liable to be withdrawn any day. Send for literature.

P. W. Meillon spent the first of the week in the twin cities on business.

Miss Della Day, of Duluth, has been visiting with Mrs. A. W. Lambert the past week.

The ladies of the G. A. R. gave a supper at their hall, Tuesday, and netted a neat little sum.

Conrad Kowalke, of West Superior, came down on Sunday to spend a few days with his brother, Otto.

John McGrath and brother, of Stillwater, came up on Saturday last to spend Sunday and take in the ball game.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Waldron in this village on Saturday night of last week, and Charles Heywood is the happiest grandpa in town.

John Goodspeed, of Brookpark, is spending a couple of weeks visiting in this village before leaving for Oregon, where he goes to make his future home.

Quite a number of hunters took in the first of the chicken hunting on Tuesday of this week, which was the day the season opened. A large number of the feathery tribe were bagged.

Hon. Fred A. Hoag departed on Monday for St. Paul and was accompanied by his son, Webster, who will be operated upon for some nose trouble which he has suffered with for some time past.

C. I. Heywood arrived home on Monday from Scanlon where he has been engaged as scaler for the past few months under the supervision of general at Duluth. Charley came home to cure up a cold which he had contracted and will remain for a few days.

C. E. Lenz, formerly of Brookpark but during the past year has been living on the Hady farm, has sold out and gone back to Hopkins, his old home. Mr. Lenz met with quite a loss by fire while living at Brookpark, receiving but a small portion of his insurance.

John Gasson, of Hancock, Swift county, arrived in this place on Tuesday of this week to look over the country around here. He is from the same part of the country that S. B. Wells, H. J. Daley, Wm. Daley, and J. H. O'Riley, who located here, and expressed himself as well pleased with this section. It may not be long before we can add him to the list of new settlers about here.

On Saturday Aug. 22, Mrs. Matt Swanson met with a painful accident at her home in the town of Royalton, while assisting her husband to draw in the last of his hay. She was on the wagon when the team became frightened and ran away throwing her from the load, breaking her right leg just above the ankle, and injuring her right arm. When picked up by her husband her head was but a few inches from a log. Dr. Wiseman was summoned and set the fractured member and Mrs. Swanson is doing as well as can be expected.

The musical and literary entertainment given at Kath's Hall on Friday evening last for the benefit of the M. E. church was well attended despite the bad weather, and all who attended were more than well pleased with the entertainment. Every number on the program was of the very highest class, and the best way to determine what the audience thought of it was the manner in which they applauded, every one of those taking part having to respond to the hearty echoes accorded them, which made the program almost again as long as was intended. We have heard numerous requests that the program be repeated, and if it is there need no doubt but that those who attended last Friday night would do so again, and the large number who were compelled to stay away on account of the wet weather would have an opportunity to attend one of the best entertainments of this nature ever given in Pine City.

LIVE STOCK.

In order to produce the best results for the feeder, must be fed on good rich feed, the richer the better.

It is a daily occurrence for a farmer to tell us that he has been buying the bran and shorts made by the big mills and did not realize what he was losing by not buying that made by us, which is so much richer feed.

Our bran and shorts is worth fifty per cent. more for feeding purposes than the bran and shorts made by the big mills.

Nearly every south bound passenger train going through this village is loaded with people for the state fair.

Prof. and Mrs. Chamberlain departed on Tuesday morning's train for St. Paul to attend the fair, returning Thursday morning.

Mrs. Lillian Cox, daughter Madrid, and Miss Blanche Tuttle returned to White Bear Wednesday afternoon, after spending a week at the home of G. J. Albright.

Geo. Harris, who has been at work for J. H. O'Riley during the past summer, departed on Tuesday for the fair, and will make his future home elsewhere hereafter.

On Tuesday of this week, September 15, was memorial day at Hinckley, it being just nine years since that awful catastrophe which laid waste the whole country around and caused the death of upwards of five hundred people. Among those who attended from here were, Congressman J. Adam Bede, who delivered the memorial address, Messrs. Saunders, Wände, Breckenridge, Rath, and Mesdames O. C. Cox, G. J. Albrecht, Buttrick, and the Misses Wright and Kenney. They report the services very appropriate and say that the number who go to pay their respects to the unfortunate victims, is increasing each year.

Married at the M. E. parsonage in this village, Miss Florence Berkey to Mr. Lyle Gibson, both of Hustletown, last Saturday morning. Rev. W. E. Loomis officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Berkey and is a bright young lady of good qualities, and will no doubt make an ideal better half for Mr. Gibson. The husband is a young man, steady in his habits, and well liked by his many friends. The wedding was a quiet one and only a very few knew of it until it was over with. For the present the young couple will make their home at the residence of the groom's parents. The best wishes of the PROVER as well as their many friends, are extended.

School will open on Monday morning of next week with the same corps of teachers as last year with the exception of Katie Barnum, who takes the place of Miss Anderson who will teach this year at Sandstone. There is nothing we can say in regards to the ability of the instructors as they are all well known and have been tried and if they were not what was wanted, would not have been reengaged. Our schools have prospered under their tutelage and with guidance and it will be to keep a good thing when we have it. And always bear in mind that it is always helpful to the teachers to know that their services are appreciated. The following places are obtained to hold school in until the building is completed: 7th and 8th grades, high school, M. E. church; 5th and 6th grades, Connor store building; 4th grade, G. A. R. hall; 3rd grade, Presbyterian church; 1st and 2nd grades, old school house. The scholars will present themselves at the above named places on Monday prepared to commence school. LATENT—We learn that Elsie Badger, who has taught in the 1st grade has resigned and Miss Day of Duluth, will take her place.

Blankets and quilts, large and best assortment at the Big Store.

Peaches for canning, only $1.00 per case, Saturday at the Big Store.

Hon. J. Adam Bede and daughter, Retta, went to St. Paul, Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Lambert and Miss Susan Shorn, left on Tuesday's limited for St. Paul to attend the fair and the Territorial Pioneer Convention.

A dance will be given tomorrow (Saturday) evening at Rath's hall. Good music and good time guaranteed. Tickets 50 cents per couple. Every body cordially invited.

Miss Phoebe Greeley, accompanied by Nellie Greeley, returned to Stillwater Wednesday, the former having spent a couple of weeks here visiting her brother, Douglas Greeley.

The Lottie Austin Co. showed here Thursday evening in Rath's hall to a rather small house. The numbers were nearly all new and up to date and the show as a whole was better than the general run of traveling tent shows which usually strike a town of this size. Lottie Austin is a contortionist is one of the best we have ever seen, and a number of remarks were made by some present to the effect that she had no bones in her body.

Local Catholic Church in Festive Garb.

Sunday, the 30th of August, was a red letter day for the local St. Mary's parish. The occasion was indeed a grand one, one that in the pompous ceremonial of the Catholic church, occupies a foremost position.

Forty-two children—twenty-five boys in black suits and seventeen girls all clad in white, with wreaths and veils, walked in procession from St. Mary's rectory to the festive decorated church. The church was practically turned into one grand bouquet of flowers, intermingled with the ferns, palms and other plants. It can truly be said that never in Pine City was such a flower ocean seen before. The side altars, main altar, communicating rail, were all one mass of flowers, and as each child approached holy communion it was led by flower girls strewing the path before them with flowers. As flower girls acted little Katharine Hurley, Marguerite Lahody, Julia Rybak and Julia Underwood. They were beautifully dressed in white and looked indeed like angels.

The sermon was elegant, and the pastor, as he said, rendered that they brought tears to the eyes of many. So large a crowd attended that many could not gain admission.

A Unique Challenge.

This week a challenge was sent by a team composed wholly of Pine County officials to a similar make-up of Chicago county cracker. The game should be wholly an attraction for the fair and will cause no end of merriment, both for the players and the fans. The challenge calls for a game on Thursday, the first day of the fair. On the evening of the same day a dance will be given in Rath's hall and the receipts will go toward giving the fair grounds and buildings a more attractive appearance. St. Paul music has been engaged for this dance and a huge attendance is anticipated. The following is a copy of the letter sent to the Chicago County Cracker:

Pine City, Minn., Sept. 1st, 1903.
Mr. Charles Elmquist, Esq.,
Manager of Chicago Co. Cracks,
St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir:—The Pine County official base ball team, recently organized and composed wholly of "Antiquated players," hereby challenges the "Chicago Co. Cracks" to exhibit themselves in base ball uniforms on the diamond at the Pine County Fair.

Time: Thursday, September 10th, 1903, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Place: On the north shore of the Snake, where in bygone days the Sioux and Chippewas were accustomed to meet in friendly combat.

The Pine County Officials hereby covenant that they, the aforesaid aggregation of "Antiquated players," shall carry off the blue ribbon, and further covenant that the said "Antiquateds" shall have the aforesaid Chicago Co. Cracks biting the sandy loam of Pine county at the end of the ninth round.

The said "Antiquateds" further agree that if they fail to do and perform all of the things set forth in said covenant, that the aforesaid "Antiquateds" shall send their "batteries" to do missionary work among the "Heathen Chinese" provided however that, if the said covenant is fully complied with, it shall be the duty of the said "Chicago Co. Cracks" to devote their remaining energy towards obtaining freedom for Ireland.

NEW YORK LETTER

Glimpse of the Varied Side of Life in a Great City.

HOME SWEET HOME IN DUMPS

Cafes Where South American Plotters Meet and Hatched Revolutions—"Graters" in the Labor World—Newport and Saratoga.

New York—There is this difference between a New York slum and an old one in the old world—in London, particularly. In New York poor people have opportunities to live in detestable holes not to be matched in Europe. In London, particularly in Naples, but they generally have to eat.

The rubbish dumps at the water side have been famous for years. Big canal boats lie there beneath a high platform whereon wagons with street sweepings are lashed up and dumped over into their holds. Here the stuff has to be "trimmied"—a process something like loading hay upon a rack, so that it will "ride." This trimming costs the city nothing, on the contrary it brings in many thousands a year.

Contractors bid eagerly for the privilege of sorting over the rubbish and take out of it a perfect gold mine of valuable refuse. And under the platforms, breathing daily and nightly the air of the refuse, have lived the laborers who do the trimming.

There is no home so bad that someone does not love it; the people who are to be evicted from the dumps protest against the order. They have always lived so. They only ask to be let alone.

The Cafes of Revolution. There is room in a great city for all sorts of queer people. Certain Spanish cafes of the lower West side make the proving places for novelties in search of material for stories of Latin-American life; for they are always well provided with scowling, whispering, mysterious plotters against the peace of the Southern American republic. They are the "cafes."

Some very rich A Cafe of the Construction-ists—they are the same as the "kings-go to Paris to spend in luxury, among the "kings in exile," of whom Daudet wrote, the millions fished from their countrymen and with difficulty saved. More come to New York. Here the two great South American trading houses the Flins and the Graces are popularly supposed to be supplying the funds of revolution and counter-revolution. Their alleged activities in this line, for the sake of "concessions" from successive parties in power, have been woven into fiction by Kipling and by Richard Harding Davis and Harold Frederic.

The sober fact is that quite aside from these alluring possibilities, here is the mart for the smuggling of arms, here and in Washington center the management of business enterprises that live in troubled waters, the pleasure of the executive, and that appeal for subsidies to the secretary of state when anything goes wrong.

Here, too, are arranged those rival titans "on the side" between rival traders, as when a brave hero of Santiago, Capt. Rafferty, was hired by one asphalt trust to fight the soldiers of another in Venezuela.

Plotters and counter-plotters are polite above all. And in New York they seem to recognize neutral ground, where all quarrels must cease until they can be renewed beneath hotter skies.

The Spanish Americans in Port. There are other Spanish-Americans less troubled by politics who light-heartedly add to New York's attractions. They are the birds of passage who stay in harbor a day or two while waiting for their ships to proceed to Spain. Mostly about the old Battery, or at others in farther Brooklyn, warp in the tall tramps with the Latin names—the "Concepciones," and the "Carmen de San Juan."

A Dutch on Deck and over their rails lean Cuban, Guatemalan, Costa Rican, Brazilian beauties in gari that brighten the dull streets of warehouses.

They come ashore in little groups to enjoy a breath of fresh air and wander up and down the streets, arm in arm.

There are gentlemen in serapes and in spotless white ducks and in sombreros. And at night when they return to their floating homes there is the thrille of the mandolin and the strumming of guitar, and upon the decks there is dancing quite impromptu, but also with Castilian grace. Few are these visitors of a day who cannot dance. A queer idea of New York they must carry away. Perhaps one in five over ventures up town to the streets where it is always light.

It is worth while occasionally to wander into the sleepy regions of the South street commission merchants. It is a quarter of a mile from the stock exchange, but the streets do. There is the odor of opium in the air. Bouts about sleep in the sun. On the deck of the ship Sikh, when after long absence she comes in, are Lascaris sailors eating by the rules of their caste, squatting about their food dishes that upon the deck. There are the Chinese cooks, the Japanese stewards, the Portuguese fore-mast hands, Kanakas whom you have drifted around the Horn.

The Ways of the "Grater." New York stands appalled at the revelations of "grating" in the labor world. Concede that the majority of the labor leaders are men not of honesty and sincerity, but of unusual ability. I have met many of them in members had practically divided a fund of $10,000 which Andrew B. Baird had paid on behalf of master-stone-cutters to end a "strike."

He is a grim old Scottish warrior, a brave veteran of the civil war, a man of wealth and position, once a candidate for mayor of Brooklyn. When terrorism must have existed to make this man—not for his own sake, I believe, but to keep the men at work, and save weaker countrymen from bankruptcy—pay blackmail!

The chances for "grat" are enormous. Imagine a contractor under penalties to finish within a certain time a building worth $1,000,000. Promptly finished the work nets him a profit. Delayed so as to bring creditors down upon him, or to cause demurrage penalties, it will ruin him. Then comes a walking delegate with a trumped-up charge of having in some way offended against some one of the hundred conflicting rules in often quarrelling unions. He demands cash—in a word, a bribe. What is the contractor to do?

Who gets the money? Obviously it is a fine. In the Baird case, the money was deposited in bank to the order of six men, about $166,666 to each. They could not trust each other.

Newport and Saratoga. Saratoga is having the most brilliant year in its history—and last year was a record one—easy to beat. Newport is melancholy.

Small street is at the bottom of it. Newport is the capital of those who have "arrived" in business and society. Saratoga is more democratic. Newport has been made sad by the depression in stocks; Saratoga welcomes the lucky bears with the "bulls" who wish to forget their sorrows in trying the "little horses," in the slang of the day.

Newport, as I have written, suffers by the growth of the fashion of the retail country store, amid broad acres such as in Newport, are impossible. Saratoga is frankly a hotel resort, where comparatively few attempt cottages. If there is Saratoga no such splendid array of homes with wealth in Newport, just as in the latter one looks in vain for mile-long hotel piazzas where fat mammas sit all day blissing with diamonds while they toil at fancy work.

Racing makes Saratoga. Without gambling, the place would be dull. On the race track in Newport legislation by the law of the state. Thousands of dollars are risked there by men who do not look as if they could raise a accession to the treasury. They pulled off nearly $70,000 there recently in one race. Where else could he have bet so much without pulling down the ears for fools as for animals. Many diseases are due to a failure to purify salt, and this accounts for the cures effected by it. In some cases, the fowls which being benefited by salt because it supplies a long-felt want.

POULTRY AND BEES

MODEL POULTRY HOUSE. It is Thoroughly Well Built and is Cool in Summer and Comfortable in Winter.

A poultry house over 400 feet long has been built by W. J. Kirwin, of Westfield county, Mass., who keeps several hundred head of Barred Plymouth Rocks. The house, which faces the south, is 12 feet wide, seven feet high in front and four feet in the rear, with a shed roof that slopes one way. It is thoroughly well built and has an extra protection during cold nights of a muslin covering.

Working bees are made by shaking bees from the frames, only part of the frames should be shaken. The colony can be removed and the new swarm placed on the stand it occupied. Some of the working bees will return to it, which will be needed, as the swarm will be small if only part of the frames are shaken.

I prefer driven swarms to those shaken, as they are more like natural swarms. When a swarm is driven, young bees will stay with the brood to care for it. I have drummed until no more would leave the comb and the colony do well. It is drumming is thoroughly done, there will be no bees old enough to carry water. A bee which is sprinkled on the frames, or if they are in box hives it can be poured in the holes arranged for surplus twice a day for a day or two.

IMPROVE BY SELECTING. Never Sell the Best Poultry, But Keep the Good Layers to Better Your Flock.

All over this country farms and farmers are grown poorer through the method of selling off continually and not bringing anything back to the land. This same is true to a large extent with all our live-stock, poultry included. For years the huckster has come along, and for each time he passes he selects the very best of all your poultry to buy for market. The time he has bought all you have to sell, you will have left for your own use the culls of all you grow. This continues till we hear you say: "The huckster and his commission man is too particular to buy our stock," when the facts are there is nothing left but weeds.

Under this way of doing the farm, weeds and the owner and his family into rags. To avoid all this, never sell anything unless there is more of it than you need. With fowls be sure to select all the best for your own breeding and for egg producing, and keep them to breed from. Never sell the best, keep them to breed from. The best is none too good for this. By thus selecting, year after year, we shall soon have a flock of the poorest of which will excel the best of former years.—The Feather.

LOG WATER TROUGHS. Every Farm Should Have One or More of These Log Water-Mats. Convince.

Most farm woodpeckers have two or three old logs lying about which woodpeckers to tattle with or blasting powder, and are too short for the sawmill.

Gravel and Sharp Shells. Gravel is valueless unless it is sharp. As most of the gravel sold is of a soft substance in the gravel, it is voided, hence prefer sharp shells to round gravel. The reason they eat more shells is because they are sharper and consequently they are better digested. If an egg has specks or fibers in it, it will not hatch. It is simply that it is due to feeding oyster shells, as the same thing occurs when no oyster shells are given. It may also be due to the fact that the shells are not of the same kind. Some kinds of gravel are of limestone and of exactly the same composition as oyster shells.—Fara and Firside.

INCREASING SWARMS.

Experienced Beekeeper Tells Why He Prefers the Driving to the Shaking Method.

During the past ten years there has been considerable writing for the bee journals in regard to obtaining increase in the apiary by shaking bees from the frames of strong colonies containing brood. Some advise shaking all the bees from the frames and removing the swarm to a new stand in order that some of the bees will return to the colony to care for the brood. There are but very few bees that return to the parent colony except those of working age.

Working bees that gather stores are too old to nurse brood. If the bees are all taken from a colony containing much larva brood and not little hatchling brood, some of the bees will be apt to perish even if the honey is left on the old stand.

Working bees are made by shaking bees from the frames, only part of the frames should be shaken. The colony can be removed and the new swarm placed on the stand it occupied. Some of the working bees will return to it, which will be needed, as the swarm will be small if only part of the frames are shaken.

CATARRH DESTROYS THE KIDNEYS

Was Miserable—Could Not Stand Up or Walk—Pe-ru-na Cured.

Many Persons Have Catarrh and Don't Know It.

Mr. James M. Powell, 623 Troost street, Kansas City, Mo., Vice Grand of I. O. O. F., of Cherryville, Kan., writes:

"About four years ago I suffered with a severe catarrh of the bladder, which caused continued irritation and pain. I was miserable and could not stand up or walk for any length of time without extreme nervousness. I began taking Peruna and it greatly relieved me, and in eleven weeks I was completely cured and felt like a new man."—James M. Powell.

JAMES M. POWELL.

Hundreds of Dollars Spent in Vain.

Mr. Cyrus Hershman, Sheridan, Ind., writes: "Two years ago I was a sick man. Catarrh had settled in my pelvic organs, making life a burden and giving me little hope of recovery. I spent hundreds of dollars in medicine which did me no good. I was persuaded to try Peruna. I took it two weeks without much improvement, but I kept on. Within two weeks I was cured, and have been well ever since. I am a strong advocate of Peruna."—C. Hershman.

Peruna cures catarrh of the kidneys, bladder, prostate gland, simply because it cures catarrh wherever it is.

No other systemic catarrh remedy has as yet been devised, namely upon having Peruna. There are no medicines that can be substituted. If you do not desire complete and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his reliable advice gratis. Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

The Bible and the Empire State Express. A Bible student has recently been figuring on how long it would take for the people to make the journey from Dan to Beersheba. He could have had the benefit in the olden times of the Empire State Express. He figured that the train would have made this journey in less than three hours, although from a reading of the account in the Bible one would think it was a long journey and it was for those days with the limited facilities of an appropriation of $100,000,000. He was right. In his mind's eye something like the Empire State Express system had been worked out in the first chapter of his prophecy. Look this up and see if you can find the idea.—From the Iron Daily Daily.
