Pine City Bowlers Score Victory.

Last Friday evening quite a large crowd turned out and witnessed the first contest of the season in the bowling line, at the Bath alleys. A team of eight players from Rural City came up and were handily defeated by the sturdy ten-pin men of this village. The second game was the most hotly contested and resulted in a small margin in favor of the visitors. The following table shows the individual standings and the totals:

RURAL MAIL.

Bede Secures Services for Pine County.

A special from Washington says: "Representative J. Adam Bede is in Washington, where he will remain for about two weeks. He called at the postoffice department and secured the promise of the establishment of several mail routes in Pine, Anoka and Isanti counties, on which favorable reports have been made by inspectors and on all of which the rule relative to the number of families to be supplied is complied with.

"Mr. Bede believes that this rule is just because some limit must be placed on the establishment of service in view of the amount of money available.

"On Oct. 10 Representative Bede will begin a speech making tour in Ohio, at the request of Senator Hanna, opening at Cleveland."

The Pine county route referred to in the foregoing dispatch is located in the south end of the county, with the Pine City office as the distributing point. The rural service will be for citizens on the government road and through Hustelton and Meadow Lawe. A rural route is already in operation from Pine City down the St. Croix road east of Pine City.

Other parts of the county are fully prepared for rural mail delivery, but as yet the people of the north end have made no definite move to secure the service.—Sandstone Courier.

Does It Hit You?

—From the Chicago Independent.

The Morton Enterprise editor felt hurt at a man who wanted a notice of his family in the society column, but who didn't take the paper, but did take the Chicago Trumpet, "because he got more news for his money." The Enterprise "gets back" at the scoundrel with the following bit of condensed philosophy:

If this man was going to get married again he would probably pick out a woman that weighed 200 pounds, for he would want all he could get at the regular price. Excellence is what we aim at, not bulk, and when our friend is struck by lightning he will find that his many quilts will appear in this paper instead of in his secret one.

A man may take a city paper without offense, but if at the same time he refuses to stand by his home paper, where the editor is working for the good of humanity and living on saw dust, he is worse than a scoundrel and does not merit a death notice. If he doesn't notice the paper, why should the paper notice him? We pause for a reply.

Just to Square a Wrong Impression.

Although the PIONEER can stand for a great deal of bumping, etc., it is not disposed to take all of that superplusage and illudate abuse that has heaped upon the "Snake River Editors" through the columns of the North Branch Review of the 25th in its attempt to get even with what the county seat papers had to say about the Branch base ball team. We are sure Bro. Folsom can take good care of his corner of the lot and therefore we will not meddle with what was said against him.

Nor would we care so much about ourselves, but in justice to the management of Hurley's Barringtons we are wont to lump all of the statements made during the excitement that must have been caused when that man Huber and several others perhaps, read the exact facts in this paper. We did not go out of our way to report the game in a fictitious manner. No, not this load of poles! Anything that was said in the PIONEER in regard to the ball game, happened just as stated.

But that is not the point we want to rub into the sore heads of the Branch. It is principally the statement to the effect that the North Branch boys paid all of their own expenses to and from Pine City and while here. Bro. Huber certainly shows his ignorance on this question when he makes such rankly impressive statements. We had an interview with the treasurer of the Pine City baseball team shortly after we had read the "write-up" in the Review, and we were informed that their expenses (even to three players' fares from St. Paul) had been paid, or would be forwarded at once; also that the expenses amounted to quite a little in excess of the purse of $30 which was pulled down on the 13th. We would take this treasurer's word far in preference to the players'. And another thing. If the Branch players had staid to play out the game their expenses, we understand, would have been guaranteed for the night, but of course this could not be as the parties from the cities had to return to their work so it was impossible for them to remain, therefore the statement that they had to "catch a train in order to avoid additional expense" seems to be on the guess-again order.

Just think of a know nothing statement like this: "If the editors had invested a nickel toward the expense, there might possibly be some excuse for their hot air." Well now, that's rather galling, and we'll wager dollars to doughnuts that the editor of this paper has paid a dollar to every "nickel" or "wise" (?) sage from below has shot in for base ball.

And again, we did not have to "work overtime" to throw this into words, neither did we waste any gray matter in "going into hysterics over the results in a base ball contest," although we used some in writing up the game and getting the score correct. We are just simply tickled to death to know that North Branch hasn't anything to lay up against us, and we hope they will hereafter see the utter folly of trying to push us around by means of a toy balloon, or, in other words, do the wild-gaff act in trying to win games from a ball team such as we have.

It is with much mental anguish that we are forced to submit such matter as the above to our many readers, but we do not intend to allow anyone to go so far as to lead a wrong impression by a long article such as is brought out only through ignorance of the real facts of the case, and the North Branch Review surely must be the paper that did the "bumping" when it published such an article.

WASHINGTON LETTER

National Capital Gossip That Is Just Now of Timely Interest.

THE DISTRICT GOVERNMENT

Commissioner West Turning Things Over—Many Opportunities for Fraud Have Existence—Rotation of the Cabinet Wheel.

Washington—A good object lesson in effective administration is being given just now by a former newspaper editor who responds to a who less than a year ago became one of the members of the District of Columbia.

Henry Hitchcock was for many years the political writer for the Washington Post, and is pretty well known throughout the country for his articles on political and historical subjects, but even those who admired his ability hardly suspected that he had in him the making of a reform executive as he is demonstrating to-day.

When he went into the District government all the wheels seemed to be running smoothly. It was the habit to talk about the District of Columbia as the best governed municipality in the world. The government had the reputation of being clean, efficient and altogether above reproach. Then all of a sudden came the discovery that trusted employees had been siphoning the District money for years and that he had made away with over $300,000 of it before he was caught. West was as startled as everybody else.

He was only one of three commissioners, but he went to work without a minute's delay to investigate the system which would permit such a defalcation, and it was not long before he had unearthed a laxness of administration which was simply appalling. Men who had been officers of the District for almost a generation handling the taxes and disbursements were found to be bonded property, so that any defalcation in their departments must have been a complete loss to the taxpayers. It was discovered that the accounts of some of the disbursing officials had not been audited in 15 years and that there was actually no way to find out whether there had been misdoings or not.

West began at once to make changes in his office personnel, and one man who had held a position of trust for 20 years was retired because it was found that he had good-naturedly allowed scores of opportunities for plunder without taking any steps to safeguard the government.

Peculiar Methods.

One most important discovery of West's is just announced. He finds that it is the practice of District officials to buy all supplies in the open market, and that without inviting competitive bids. This is a practice which has not been permitted in any other department of the government and has not been in the open market since the time Commissioner West is determined that there shall be no further temptation and he has ordered that hereafter all supplies for the District be bought only after competitive bidding. The reform is certain to save the District thousands of dollars a year.

The astonishing thing is that such laxness should have gone on for so many years before any high official caught on to it, but the people of Washington have become so accustomed to hear about the perfection of their District government that they accepted it as a matter of course.

Cabinet Changes.

Only one of the original members of President McKinley's cabinet remained. President Roosevelt's cabinet—Secretary Wilson, the head of the department of agriculture.

Before Hitchcock became secretary of the interior he was ambassador to Russia, so that for a plain business man without the usual attacks he has made places.

Good book published by D. W. B. has been devoted to occupy the body of a sick man in Hawaii. At first an educated physician was called, but he failed to give relief, a native medicine, or Kahunas, was brought to the aid. He was with a Bible, to this drive out the devil, and his treatment was so persistent and vigorous that the sick man died.

The threatened shut-down of the Minneapolis saw mills has been averted. The higher water has so far receded that the saw mills are able to work this morning, and today all the mills will have plenty of logs.

The Great Western earnings for the second week in September show another increase and amount to $173,176 as against $153,315 for the corresponding week a year ago.

The earnings of the Maple Leaf for the beginning of the new fiscal year are $1,660,000.

Disappointed with the pay they are receiving for their work, the washwomen of Duluth have resolved to form a union and demand substantial increase in wages. They are backed by the Trades and Labor assembly and will probably secure a charter soon.

SMILES

Based on Experience. "My dear," asked Mrs. Weddery, "what's the difference between idealism and realism?" "Idealism," replied the son-in-law of her mother, "is love's young dream." "Yes," said the other half, "and realism?" "Oh," answered the masculine end of the sketch, "that's what matrimony bumps one up against."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

IT FINDS THE BILL. "My lady, langwhich hill dis is de only relief for a bile on a feller's neck!"—Chicago American.

Gracious! What possible use can such language be? "My lady, langwhich hill dis is de only relief for a bile on a feller's neck!"—Chicago American.

Accounted For. Yes, she's a charming woman—That is as charms as; And no one ever heard her Dispensing tales of woe. As to her husband's doing, She is discreetly mum. Perhaps the secret of it is The lady's dear and dumb.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Health Note. Employer—Mr. Redick, you got off yesterday afternoon under the plea of being ill. I saw you afterwards going to the races and you didn't appear at all unwell.

Client. Clerk—You ought to have seen me after the second race, sir; I was bad enough then.—The Bill.

Faunting Customer—Those eggs are a week old, to my certain knowledge, and yet you've kept that sign "Fresh Eggs" sticking up in the basket all this time.

Grocer's Clerk (righteously indignant)—You're mistaken, mam'm. I change that sign every morning.—Chicago Tribune.

APPROPRIATE. Jangles'—The members of that exploring party seem assured that they will make wonderful scientific discoveries. Have they good reasons for thinking so?

Waggles—The best. They have taken a press agent along.—N. Y. Times.

No Judge. Young Artist—It's an outrage to have such an ignorant as Puffers on a hanging committee.

Friend—No judge of art, eh? Young Artist—He is a half-dolt. Why, sir, he thought my cows were horses.—N. Y. Weekly.

At the Seashore. "Can you swim?" she asked. "No," he answered, "but I can hold my up while you're trying to learn."

"That is all that is necessary," she cried, joyously. And so they went into the water.—Brooklyn Eagle.

QUITE ANOTHER ANIMAL. I ape the English language, and I ape the English walk; I've ever been my passion for the English talk. And 'tis this great accession—This spring pow'r, I think—Has given the impression That 'm's the missing link.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Two Sides. "There are always two sides to a question," said the broad-minded man. "That's true," answered Senator Sorghum, "and the question must always be carefully studied to ascertain which side is going to pay the best."—Washington Star.

The Burgin Hunter. He—Where are you going, dear? She—I'm going shopping. He—You haven't got a cent in your pockets. "Then I'll have more room to hold the rapidly moving handker."—No bones were broken, but his spine was injured.

Real Things. "Do you know anything about the rule of three?" asked the drummer. "Well, I guess yes," replied the grocer. "The rule of three is that if you get a wife, a two-year-old daughter and a mother-in-law."—Chicago Daily News.

Matter of Business. Stringer—There goes a man who makes $25 a day, on an average, yet he is always looking down in the mouth. "Nihilism—Because why is that?" Stringer—Because that's what he gets paid for. He's a dentist.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Did He Keep On. "Madam," said the polite stranger, "in the smell of smoke disagreeable to you?" "I don't know," Madam replied, "no gentleman ever has smoked in my presence."—N. Y. Times.

The Triumph of Reason. "And you've given him your heart?" "Oh, mamma, how could I withhold it, after he had confessed himself utterly unworthy of it!"—Detroit Free Press.

Different Opinions. "So young Robinson wants to marry you, eh? Such impudence!" "Why, papa," said little Bessie, "he shows very good taste."—Chicago American.

Entirely Proper Then. Figgs—You have seen Jones's wife? What is she like? Should you call her pretty? Foggy—Indeed, she is. I was talking to Jones—Stray Stories.

Florries in Wall street that would once have shaken the whole country, now pass almost unnoticed—Pittsburgh (O.) Tribune.

DURING the past year the Argentine Republic's exports have increased 22 per cent, being more than double its imports. In the growth of this young republic all Americans may well rejoice, because prosperity is both a cause and an effort; it springs from policies and principles and rights, and it ensures a contentment that makes for progress and permanency. The United States has a deep interest in the success of all the South American republics, for it is a sense it is their guardian, protecting them from European rapacity, although not standing sponsor for their occasional disregard of national honor and international courtesy. South America is rich in natural and undeveloped resources, and when the many small republics there quit their dissensions and unite on progressive lines, there will be more of them that can imitate Argentina in the matter of business and prosperity.

HELP a man once, and the chances are nine times out of ten you will have an opportunity to help him again.

It has been estimated that a woman's mouth stretches half an inch with every smile. At that rate how many smiles will it require to stretch from New York to San Francisco?

The official thieves in the Indian Territory, are trembling with fear and apprehension because of the appointment of Mr. Bonaparte to conduct the investigation into the scandals in the territory. Bonaparte is known to be incorruptible, and prison stripes are assuming large dimensions in the eye of these rascals.

It, as Secretary Shaw says, there is no excuse for alarm and that a man who hoards his money now is a fool, what is the meaning of the reports from industrial centers? Is it all for the purpose of forcing Congress to start the presses on wild-cat money, or is it because there "is fear that a Democratic President will be elected next year"—Chillicothe (O.) News-Advertiser.

The resolution of every American to resist to the utmost the tendencies now at work in this country for the formation of favored classes, the stratification of society according to European models and the subjugation of the vast majority of workers of a state of relative poverty and hopelessness, should become as impenetrable as steel when he remembers that the success of these tendencies would inevitably throw multitudes of American women into that pitiful state of enforced labor which now makes his blood boil with indignation when he looks upon it in a foreign land—Chicago Live Stock World.

ONE of the greatest problems that confronts a minister of the gospel is what to say at a funeral. A minister doesn't feel like telling a deliberate lie, and yet there are times when to say anything regarding the virtue of the deceased is to prevaricate in the most outrageous manner. This a good proverb that says "Speak only that which is good of the dead," but when the good side of the deceased is conspicuous by its absence it puts the preacher in an unenviable predicament. There are many people who favor simply reciting the burial services and remitting all extemporaneous remarks, and thus avoiding the farce of lauding a man who in his life was possibly notorious and a cheat and a rascal.

An Artificial Comet. Prof. E. L. Nichols and Mr. G. F. Hull, of Cornell university, have obtained a very accurate reproduction of a comet's tail while experimenting with the pressure of light upon floating particles of extreme minuteness. A powder consisting of emery and the spores of puffballs was put in a vacuum tube from which the air was exhausted as completely as possible. When the rays from an arc-light were concentrated upon the powder the lighter particles were seen to be blown out as if repelled by the light, presenting a striking resemblance to a comet's tail. According to Arrhenius and others, this is analogous to the way in which an actual comet presents a striking resemblance to a comet's tail of comets. The experimenters found that the effect upon the powder was of the same order of magnitude as would be expected from the value of the pressure of light deduced by them from other experiments.—Youth's Companion.

Oh, the Serpent. The girl with the bean order, snoring silly, said to Number 29: "Everybody's looking at us." Number 29 tossed her locks out of her eyes with that impatient gesture peculiar to petulant natures. Haughty and proud under the unmistakable admiration of every hash-eating clerk in the restaurant, she gazed scornfully into the far-away realms of space beyond the pie counter. "Wot do I care for men?" she retorted. "De whole bunch is gay deivers." "Dat's right. 'Other night I met a feller at de Arion's ball. He was nice to me. I give him six dances. Den he pulled out his watch, an' dere was a photograph of two kids in de lid!"—Newark Evening News.

Strongest Jail. Graham county jail, at Clifton, Ariz., is the strongest jail in the world. It comprises four large apartments hewn from the solid quartz rock of a hillside. The entrance is through a box-like vestibule built of heavy masonry and equipped with live wire of steel gage. Some of the most desperate criminals on the southwest border have been confined in the Clifton jail, and so solid and heavy are the barriers that no one there has ever attempted to escape.—N. Y. GAINS SIGHT AFTER YEARS.

A most touching and pretty story comes from the little Scotch village of Croft Head, Bridge of Weir, where a man of 80 years, blind from his birth, has been given sight by Dr. Maitland Ramsay, of the Glasgow Ophthalmic Institute. He might never have had the veil of darkness removed had it not been for a student on a vacation passing through the village. Hearing of the case, he made an examination and thought it possible to give the man, whose name is John Carruth, sight.

He brought the case to the notice of the institution. Carruth was taken there and operated upon. He is now home again, with good sight. In describing the sensations when light first dawned upon him he said the first face he saw was that of the doctor. He was bewildered, but thought he must be looking on a face for the first time. Then he saw the face of the nurse and knew she must be a woman, for her face was so pale and smooth.

His first meeting under the altered conditions with his mother was the most pathetic incident of the recovery. "Lovely," was the word he used when he gazed upon her face, and the mother's joyous cry: "Eh, laddie, you can see! you can see!" made the hearts of those who heard it throb in sympathy.

REVENGE FOR EARLY CRUELTY

The Novel Defense Offered by a German Officer Charged with Brutality.

Noncommissioned Officer Kisch, of Berlin, who has been sent to prison for a year and a half for maltreating soldiers, said he inflicted torments on the recruits because he had been compelled to suffer when he himself was a recruit. He boxed the ears of almost all the recruits daily, prodded them in the back, struck them in the face, used his whip liberally and amused himself twice a week by chasing the men under beds, making them scramble under five beds as often as 50 times in succession. During gymnastic exercises he made them pick up filth from the ground with their mouths, like dogs. He also compelled recruits to rub down each other's bodies with a scrubbing brush and sand. At other times the men had to flog each other.

Like Father, Like Son. "Look at the way baby's working his mouth," exclaimed Mrs. Newman. "Now, he proposes to put his foot in it."

Economy Surely. Husband—You are not economical. Wife—Well, if you don't call a woman economical who saves her wedding dress for a possible second marriage I'd like to know what you think economy is.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The dance given by the old timers on Friday evening of last week was well attended and a royal good time was enjoyed by all. Some elegant music was furnished by two Minneapolis musicians assisted by Carl Boddy. The supper was served by the ladies in the hall, and as usual was up to the standard.

HELP WANTED—Really ambitious students and teachers, out of employment, or who desire to better their conditions, climb up higher, should write Prof. J. P. Simon, New Era Business College, Superior, Wis., and learn a plan of mutual benefit. The cause of humanity is the highest in this life—help one another.

R. P. Allen, of the Pine City Milling & Electric Co., informs us that during the past week he has been compelled to secure two carloads of wheat from Duluth on account of not being able to get enough from this section of the country to keep the mill running. The demand for the Pine City flour is daily increasing and it keeps the manufacturers busy to supply the demand. "People know a good thing where they get it" and therefore by the flour manufactured here.

LIVE STOCK.

In order to produce the best results for the feeder, must be fed on good rich feed, the richer the better.
It is a daily occurrence for a farmer to sell on that he has been buying the bran and shorts made by the big mills and did not realize what he was losing by not buying that made by us, which is so much richer feed.
Our bran and shorts is worth fifty per cent. more for feeding purposes than the bran and shorts made by the big mills.
You can't do it at our

A horse, owned by a Mr. Rofe, attempted to make a home run all by its lonesome last Friday evening about 9:30, and perhaps would have succeeded had it not been for Frank Daley who stopped the badly scared animal by grabbing it just as it was about to pass the Madsen feed store.

"In Sweden Valley" was presented here on Wednesday evening in Rath's hall to a fair sized audience. Thursday evening a mixed entertainment was given by the same company. They are a good bunch of entertainers and musicians and their entertainments were well liked by all who attended.

On Sunday of this week J. J. Madden purchased a carload of stock at Miller in this county, and shipped the same to the South St. Paul market. Mr. Madden says that there is a large amount of cattle yet in the county, but it will not be long before they will be all bought up at the rate they are going at the present time.

Oliver's Big Show and Swiss Bell Ringers open at Rath's hall Monday evening, Oct. 5th, for a week's engagement. This company certainly know the art of pleasing the public and pack the houses every where they play. The Dutch, Irish and black face comedians are very clever, and the "optigraph" in moving pictures and illustrated songs all ways captivate the audience. Prices within reach of all. General admission 10 cents, reserved seats 10 cts. extra. Ladies over 16 years old admitted free to general admission—reserved seats 10 cents.

The lecture "The House You Live In," delivered at the M. E. church by Rev. Thomas McClary Wednesday evening, was highly entertaining and instructive. His subject centered on the human body which he explained, was the house in which "yourself" or the "spirit" dwelt. The audience was compelled to laugh most of the time by his many witty sayings and droll facial expressions. Not nearly as large a crowd came out to hear Mr. McClary as should have, but the inclemency of the weather, and the fact that there was another entertainment in town that evening, kept back a large number.

A Promising Strike.
During the latter part of February and the first part of March, work ON THE MARIE-MARILLA PROPERTY consisted in pushing a drift along vein No. 2 from the point where the working tunnel ends through the vein. IN DRIVING THIS DRIFT FOR FORTY-THREE FEET, THE VEIN MATTER WIDENED FROM TWO INCHES TO FROM EIGHT AND A HALF TO THREE FEET, AND BECAME HEAVILY MINERALIZED.

ORE, RUNNING $250.00, IN SILVER ALONE, TO THE TON, was encountered across the face of the tunnel. This simply demonstrates the theory that, as depth is attained, the ORE BODIES WIDEN AND BECOME RICHER.

The most encouraging reports may be expected from time to time.

NOTE.
The company reserves the right to advance the price of stock without notice.

MARCONI WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.
For a Few Days You Can Secure a $100 Share for $80.

Thousands of people have a little money laid aside drawing perhaps 3 per cent in savings banks. If you want an investment which will pay you bigger returns, send me a check for $80 payable to the order of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of America, and I will send you twenty five certificates of the Continental Trust Company of New York, representing a $100 share of stock in the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America, will be sent to you by return mail. One hundred dollars in the Edison Electric Light Company advanced to $4,000 in one year; $100 in the Bell Telephone Company advanced to $200,000 in twenty-five years. We do not promise great dividends, because the earning power of $80 could not produce anything enormous, but multiplied by the opportunities which a new and wonderful scientific invention offers for commercial development, the returns will be greater than you would believe if stated in cold figures. It is because the system is new that this offer is made. It is liable to be withdrawn any day. Send for literature.

CZAR PLANS FOR DAUGHTER.

Scheme of Education in Preparation So That Girl May Be Fitted to Reign in Event There Is No Son.

The Taglich Rundschan of Berlin reports the czar is seriously considering an alteration in the law of succession, with a view to enabling his eldest daughter to ascend the Russian throne, falling a son. He has directed several educational experts to elaborate a scheme of instruction, with the object of preparing his daughter for the duties of ruler.

This project inevitably will meet with strong opposition, especially from the disinherited granddukes.

It is reported that the czar shortly will make a pilgrimage to the hermit father, Serafin, at Saratskaia, in the province of Tambours, and that he will be accompanied by the court and the ministers. Serafin is the Lourdes of the Russian members of the orthodox Greek church, and Father Serafin is venerated as a worker of miracles. The czar's homage will strengthen the belief of the common people in the hermit's alleged supernatural powers. Afterwards the czar will go to Rome and Vienna.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

642-1-4 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1909.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches and I would have could not stand up. A maternity friend discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came to my aid. I was able to get a change for the better within a week. After six days of treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and well again. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Willahester Jones
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down, pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headache is female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
