Carroll—Greenley.

Finlayson Special.

The wedding of Miss Isadora Marie Greenley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Greenley, and Mr. Charles T. Carroll which took place Thursday Nov. 26th, 1903, at 2 o'clock P. M. in the M. E. church, was the smartest function of the kind that has taken place in Finlayson so far this season.

A company of about eighty guests witnessed the ceremony. Rev. Parish of Barnum, assisted by Rev. Townsend of Finlayson, performing the ceremony. Palms and shrubs were effectively banked about the altar, and the church was otherwise made beautiful with decorations.

Forming in the outer vestibule of the church, the bridal party proceeded down the aisle to the altar, to the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. E. S. Whitacre, the bride on the arm of her father, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Josie Kukola, and Miss Jennie Greenley. The bride was gowned in white broadcloth, trimmed with chiffon, and orange blossoms and wore a veil of white tulle. At the altar rail the bride was met by the groom and his groomsmen, Mr. A. B. Carman and Mr. Carl Anderson of Superior, where the marriage ceremony was performed.

Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Carroll went to the home of the bride where an elaborate dinner was served for all the guests, and a merry time was had until late in the evening.

Mrs. Carroll is one of Finlayson's most popular young ladies, having grown up here from childhood, known and loved by all, and for the past year has been a clerk in the leading store in Finlayson. Mr. Carroll is a highly respected young liveyman and their many friends wish them all the joy and happiness which this life affords.

Following is a list of presents which they received.—Mr. and Mrs. Odenburg, commode, willow rocker, toilet set; Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, set silver knives, forks and teaspoons; Emil Greenley, $5; Chas. Greenley, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Hoglund, silver crumb tray; Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt and Miss Gross, set silver coffee spoons; Mr. and Mrs. Arne Anderson, table cloth and napkins; Mr. and Mrs. Foley, china cake plate and fruit dish; Miss Faudskar, silver sugar shell and cracker jar; Ed. Langer, set desert spoons and carving set; Ethel Olson, china cake plate; Mr. and Mrs. Plows, six dining chairs; Rev. and Mrs. Townsend, silver crumb tray; Esther Olson, pair lace curtains; Iosie Kukola, moquette rug; Mr. and Mrs. Pfotenbauer, mantel clock; Mary Laugaland, glass water set; Mr. and Mrs. Whitacre, jardinerre; D. Cowie, one sack flour; Carl Anderson, parlor lamp; A. B. Carman, glass tea set; Mrs. Cora Carman, six fruit plates; Mr. and Mrs. Buggie, six glass sauce dishes, fruit plate and table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, bed spread and table cover; Miss Lillie, set silver table spoons; Mr. Bergstrom, china tea set; Miss Anna Carroll, set silver dessert spoons; Mr. and Mrs. John Greenley, pair lace curtains; Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, two linen towels; Miss Oksanen, embroidered centerpiece; Miss Nora Byrnes, two embroidered doilies.

The Rev. Irl E. Hicks 1904 Almanac. The Rev. Irl E. Hicks Almanac for 1904 is now ready. It will be mailed to any address for 30 cents. It is surprising how such an elegant costly book can be sent prepaid so cheaply. No family or person is prepared to study the heavens, or the storms and weather of 1904, without this wonderful Hicks Almanac and Prof. Hicks splendid paper, Word and Works. Both are sent for only one dollar a year. Word and Works is among the best American Magazines. Like the Hicks Almanac, it is too well known to need further recommendation. Few men have labored more faithfully for the public good or found a warmer place in the hearts of the people. Send orders to Word and Works Publishing Co., 2901 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

The Farmers' Institute.

As advertised in these columns, the State Farmers' Institute was held in this village on Saturday of last week. A large attendance was present and the interest taken by the farmers, it was appreciated. The Institute was opened in the usual manner and a large number of pointers given to the attendants. They gave instruction on how to develop their farms and land so as to make the most of it. If you were not there you were the loser and there is no one to blame but you. The instructors were all good ones and knew what they were talking about. When we are favored with another Institute there is no doubt but what the attendance will be greater than at the one held on Saturday last.

Saw Mill for Pine City.

While in this village, last week, James McGrath purchased the Burger mill site and will erect a saw mill thereon during the coming winter and have it ready for the summer's cut. Mr. McGrath has come to the conclusion that he can save his timber here and save money by shipping the lumber direct from here to the market. This will be a boom for Pine City and will make it one of the best towns in the state. We are pleased to know that a man like Mr. McGrath will open up an industry in our midst that will give employment to the working man during the summer months.

Later—Since the above was written we have learned that the deal has not been closed but the transaction is pending.

Obituary.

(On Nov. 18th, in St. Paul, Mrs. Elizabeth Holler, wife of George Holler, died of heart disease, at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Johnson; after an illness of only a few days.)

The remains were brought to this village and the funeral held from the M. E. church on Sunday morning, the 22d instant at 10:30, Rev. Ferguson officiating.

Elizabeth Smith was born in Pennsylvania in 1829 and was married to George Holler in 1842 and they lived together 61 years. She was the mother of four children, George and John Holler, Mrs. S. Kilgore and Mrs. A. J. Hathaway, of Pine City and vicinity, all of whom survive and her. Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Fortin, all of St. Paul.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Olga Hoffman, who was absent from school last week, is back again. Monday afternoon the Sophomore girls appeared with their hair done up. They bore themselves with great dignity.

The next entertainment of the course given by the school, will be given Thursday evening, Dec. 10 by the Russel Music and Comedy Co.

Miss Jessamine Allen, a former pupil of this school visited with us Monday and entertained us with a number of piano solos at opening exercises.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

Interesting Incidents of the Law-Makers at National Capital.

THE END OF A HOUSE FEUD

How Speaker Cannon and Congressman Hepburn Settled a Quarrel-Faithful Members of the House-The New British Minister.

Washington-Speaker Cannon and "Pete" Hepburn have made up. That is about as gratifying news as is likely to come out of congress this session.

It looked as though the feud would be a lasting one; but a year ago when Cannon announced his candidacy for speaker Hepburn, like the big-minded fellow that he is, walked into Cannon's headquarters one day, held out his hand and exclaimed: "You, I'm going to vote for you."

There was a significance in the incident that was not generally understood. It meant a great deal for party harmony during the coming two years. Hepburn will come very close to being the republican leader on the floor.

Young Ames has just a shade of resemblance to his grandfather, and he has the old general's faculty for attaching friends to himself.

The His of Bede. J. Adams Bede, the new member from Minnesota, promises to be one of the striking figures in the Fifty-eighth congress.

MINNESOTA NEWS.

A Close Call. O. Baumgartner met with an expensive and dangerous accident on his way to Le Sueur. He was riding on a load of hay and on passing over the remains of what he supposed to be burned out bridges in the road, the horses' feet started the moldering material into a blaze.

Realizing that the team would be burned to death as soon as the flames reached the front end of the load unless something was done, Baumgartner, with rare presence of mind, sprang onto one of the horses and whipped the team into a run at a terrific pace along the road.

Plenty of Money. The annual report of the state superintendent of public instruction, in process of completion, will show that the public school system of Minnesota is in excellent financial condition.

Nervy Louis. A burglar with nerve to spare went thru the home of Louis L. McNair, in Minneapolis, and many valuables were taken.

Henry Cordell, president of the Standard Turpentine company at Hinckley reports that it has stamps enough pulled to keep its boilers running. The plant is making turpentine, tar and charcoal and is the only one in the United States making three products from pine stumps.

Vinegar Improves. The state dairy and food department has just finished an analysis of 1,000 samples of vinegar received since Jan. 1, 1903, and of this number only 209 were illegal.

The British Minister. There is great curiosity in Washington to see the new British ambassador, who is expected to arrive almost any day.

Cleaned the Streets. Miss Stella Mayberry, the star in "The Show Girl" at the Grand, St. Paul, acted as foreman for eighteen men she employed to clean the streets of St. Paul.

More than $2,000,000 will be sent from Minnesota and the Dakotas this winter to support relatives and friends of new Americans that are prospering here.

The First National bank has been opened at Grand Meadow. A great rush was made to get check books and make deposits.

Justice S. B. Hooley at Pipestone, sentenced Frank Madden to a term of ninety days in the county jail for passing counterfeit money.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Hawes in honor of her birthday, Thursday evening, at home of Herman Schultz. A pleasant time is reported by all who attended.
Among those from here who attended the Farmer's Institute at Pine City, Saturday, were Peter and Henry Anderson, Herman and Wm. Schultz, Anton Dlouhy and J. Baem.
The merry clink of steel was again heard, Sunday afternoon, when a crowd of young folks gathered at Bergman's and put in the time skating. Thanks are due the boys to whom we are indebted for the rink.
"PHILEPP PIPPS."
GRASTON.
Will Tucker and family, of Jarvis bay, spent Sunday with H. L. Wallace.
H. L. Wallace attended the Farmers' Institute at Pine City, last Saturday, and reports that he enjoyed it very much.
Wolves are quite numerous in this vicinity and between these and the hunters the poor deer have had a hard time to get any rest.
H. H. Markuson, who has been at work carpentering in Minneapolis the past summer, had the misfortune to lose all his tools by fire which destroyed the shop where he was working.
Your correspondent attended the literary society entertainment at the Bergman school house near Jarvis bay, last Friday night. An interesting program was rendered, consisting of songs, recitations and readings, after which there was a short recess and then a debate upon the question, "Resolved, that city life is better in every way than country life." The speakers were as follows: Affirmative, R. Cummings, Mr. Tasch, Miss Hawes, and J. Linghe; negative, W. Tucker, Geo. Nightengale, H. L. Wallace and Miss Bergman. Geo. Linghe, Anton Sletme and W. O. Peters were chosen judges. After a lively debate the question was decided in favor of the negative. Score.

NEWS FROM GREELEY.
Miss Anna Johnson visited at her home, last Sunday.

LIVER TROUBLES
"I find Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is the best medicine I have."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.
If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.
Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.
If you need Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney troubles and find nothing to equal it.—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Newark, Ill.
