A SANE FOURTH

Pine City Celebrates in Grand Style—Sports Many and Varied—No Casualties Nor Disturbances.

Young America was undoubtedly in all its glory all over this broad land of ours Wednesday. In this particular part of the country the weather was ideal and Pine City had all that was coming in that direction. From early morn until late at night the weather was better than was even hoped for, and the multitude of fun seekers that came to Pine City were chuck full of patriotism and Old Glory received a rousing send-off.

So far as we have learned there were no casualties from premature explosions and, although the saloons did a big business, few cases of drunkenness were apparent.

It was, indeed, a sane Fourth. The parade in the morning did not measure up to former efforts on account of its shortness, but what there was of it was good. A large float, gotten up by the employes of the Tri-State Telephone Co., was one of the best get-ups that had ever been offered the sight-seeing public in this place. It was tendered first prize, while the shouting male by the fire department earned second money. Three lobes, representing "Happy Hoopla" and his band, caused a bon of laughter and their caprices and general make-ups secured for them the first comic prize. A number of boys on horseback, representing a band of bold, bad outlaws, gained prize number two. Tom Heywood received the prize in the greased pole stunt. The greased pig catching contest was decidedly interesting and caused some very amusing sights. John Wilson finally captured the porker. Price and Pokogama towns were pitted against one another in a tug of war, the former finally pulling over the money.

After dinner the band gave a short concert in the park, after which the literary program was introduced. F. A. Hodge acted in the capacity of chairman. After a short opening talk he introduced Rev. Matthews, who gave the invocation. The main quartette, consisting of F. L. Cundy, Dr. E. E. Barson, A. W. Piper and A. H. W. Olson sang a selection after which the speaker of the day was introduced. Hon. Wm. E. Cahlin, of Duluth, was the speaker, and he held the large crowd essen-

WAR DECLARED

Against the Cabbage Maggot, Which Destroys Much Vegetable Life—To Protect Fruit Trees.

The entomologist of the Experiment station is waging relentless warfare against the cabbage maggot, which is very bad this year, and is destroying hundreds of dollars worth of cauliflowers and cabbages, to say nothing of radishes and turnips. Various remedies and means of prevention are on trial, some of which are suited for plants in the garden, and others applicable to large fields. Some of the methods employed are as follows: Repellent or preventive substances put around the base of the plant; dipping of roots in poisonous mixture, not injurious to the plant when selling same; application of substances from time to time about the plant which will kill the maggot and not injure the roots; stirring the soil occasionally, close to the plant, in order to disturb the eggs; a periodic going over the fields with a hoe and scraping a little of the soil, which is close to the plant, away from it, taking at the same time, of course, the eggs contained therein. This latter method is not expensive, of course, and seems to be very practical and efficacious. The eggs are scraped away with the earth at least 12 inches from the plant, a distance too great for the delicate young maggot to crawl after hatching. Most careful observations are made in connection with the life history of the pest, to determine just how long it takes for the eggs to hatch; the length of life of the maggot in Minnesota, length of pupal stage, etc. Young maggots have been observed, by the aid of the microscope, when hatching from the egg. The department will probably be in position by fall to make a very definite report as to the proper treatment for this destructive pest.

In addition to this work, careful observations are being made on a Lecanium scale, which is promising to be a dangerous pest in Minnesota. It is found abundantly on plums, the elms and other shade trees, as well as the various shrubs. The eggs which are found in enormous numbers under this scale are now hatching, and the next two or three weeks is the best time to attack them with soapy washes or kerosene emulsions, which will injure the trees if properly used. The adult insects are so thoroughly protected by the scale itself that nothing of this kind has any effect upon them, and they must be treated with stronger washes in the winter time when the trees are dormant or in the early spring or late fall.

Experiments are also in progress in various parts of this state to afford a comparison of the merits of dust and liquid spraying.

The Old Adage True.

If the suckers were all dead, such concerns as the Globe Association of Chicago, against which the government lately issued a fraud order, would not exist for twenty-four hours. They advertised to sell a $3.50 pair of shoes for 98 cents and strange as it may seem, their mails were flooded with remittances from those wanting to take advantage of this philanthropic offer. When will people learn that it costs about so much to buy good goods any place? A catalogue house can not sell a $3.50 pair of shoes, that are good value and worth that money, any cheaper than any merchant in any town in this state. This same rule applies to any other article. But the trouble is people patronize these institutions and imagine they have secured a bargain, when they really could have bought the same quality right at home for the same or less money. The fact is that even merchants who have been in the business for years, sometimes times one to a hundred, cannot detect the difference in the quality of the goods. Some of these days our large catalogue houses are going to come to a sticky end. Saw a postal law with a heavy thud, on the ground of fraudulent statements in their advertising.

WHERE WE REST

The Summer Resorts at the Lake are Now in the Spotlight—Campers Have Begun Flocking to the Woods.

"What is so rare as a day in June" when any of the days during our summer season are as rare? Though the season has been very backward it is never too late to receive summer "boarders" and the resorts at Pokogama lake are being steadily filled with pleasure seekers. When the Sol of us all commences to beat a tick tack on the hot air paves of the cities, then is when the inhabitants of those smouldering furnaces take to the trees and wonder why the founders of big cities ever left Mother Nature.

Pine City and the summer resorts in close proximity thereto were never clothed more beautifully. Somehow or other Pokogama lake is receiving the biggest slice of attention just at present and it is there that we will confine our sketch. The varied assortments of green that clothe the lake fronts are beautiful to behold—imagination need not be stretched in order to realize and appreciate the picturesque surroundings that abound.

The latest addition to the lake shore attractions is the Island Hotel and Summer Resort. The proprietor, Jos. Wilke, and his family are cordial folk and it is a pleasure to be numbered among their guests. Their fine home-like hotel is a mecca for those who love infameral treatment. The hotel is tastefully furnished throughout, and affords a quality of satisfaction to all who enter its portals.

Fritzen's Sanatorium, directly across the bay, is a place of rest and recreation and all who go there are made to feel perfectly at home. It has long since been well instituted and Dr. Minnie Fritzen chose wisely when she located at the lake. Perhaps the most beautiful and at least one of the best spots of the picturesque have is the ravine at the Fritzen location. It must be seen to be appreciated. A pathway leads from the house to the ravine at the base of which is a winding stream which courses into Pokogama lake. A bridge crosses the stream and high banks on either side gives the scenery a wildness that is most attractive. Seats of the "lover's" lamé type are set, by the bye, leading to the stream, and they are guaranteed rest promoters.

As we go down the east bank of the lake we just can't help but stop at that exclusive watering place, St. Elmo. Here we find Breckenridge's cottage and another ravine of considerable beauty, south of which are the Holbert, Harro and Greeley cottages. After mounting the lookout at Holbert's you decide to have Capt. Inman propel his "Nyroca" across the lake to the Tuxedo Club, where you are agreeably accosted by Major Cooley or some of his assistants. The Club is too well known for further comment. It is a delightful outing place, as everyone knows who has been there. McAllen's "Kabin Kill Kare" adjoins the Club grounds, and if Mack isn't out in the knock and in an endeavor to effect a stiff breeze on the lake, you'll get a greeting that will thrill every sense in your carcass. Mall's cottage is to the north of McAllen's and if you ever visit the lake don't forget to step across the sandbar, where lemonade and welcome are as synonymous as pumpkins in November.

Before returning to Pine City a visit to the Pokogama Sanatorium is in order. It is a delightful home for the care of sick people and many already attribute to their present health to the rest cure which they received under the guidance of Doctors Taylor and Wiseman. The Sanatorium is the first place of prominence to be seen as one enters the lake from the trip away from Pine City.

It will now be good form to take

Salisbury, Eng., July 2.—Salisbury built, nearly 200 years before Columbus discovered America, rang its chimes Sunday night for a score of American deaths who met their tragic fate under the very shadow of its beautiful spire when the boat train from Plymouth, freighted with people, wealthy and poor, who had looked forward to the attractions of Europe and were hurrying to the world's capital, collided with a milk train at two o'clock Sunday morning.

One searcher in vain for eyewitnesses who might give from mental photographs details of the disaster. There were not a dozen men on the platform at the time, and these included Night Inspector Spicer, who was there to signal and telegraph train movements.

Runs at High Speed. All went well until the train reached Salisbury, although some passengers had at various points remarked on the very high rate of speed, one or two men expressing some alarm and then taking supper on the train experiencing the greatest difficulty in avoiding spilling the contents of their plates and cups.

Not only does the line enter and leave the station on a curve, but where it crosses the electric street the train takes a slight rise. It was practically at this point that the engine jumped the rails and brought about a disaster both as respects the percentage of lives lost and the extent of the damage to rolling stock, almost without precedent in the annals of British railway accidents, especially local express.

Train Leaves Rails. In the meantime the express came pounding along, swaying heavily owing to the enormous speed. The inspector on the station platform, having in hand, followed her course with the car and was horrified to see the train leave the rails and jump to the vacant line on the right and plunge into the rear of the milk train.

BURIED 22 HOURS; RESCUED

VICTIM OF A CAVE-IN IS TAKEN OUT ALIVE.

Dramatic All-Night Struggle to Save Plumber at Tompkinsville, Staten Island.

New York, June 29.—After fighting against death for more than 22 hours, Jeremiah Fisher, a plumber, was rescued alive Thursday from a landslide at Tompkinsville, Staten Island, in which he had been imprisoned since 11 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The rescued man is in a pitiable condition from exhaustion, however, and it is not at all certain that he will survive the effects of his frightful ordeal.

Fisher was working in an excavation when a passing street car loosened the earth around the hole and sent an avalanche of sand pouring down upon him. Before he could scramble out of its way the sand had sifted in around his legs, holding him as firmly as in a vise and gradually rising until only his head was visible. For hours a large force of rescuers worked with frantic haste in an effort to free the imprisoned man, but the shifting sand surged back and renewed its grip upon the prisoner almost as fast as they could remove it.

Hundreds of persons from various parts of the island had flocked to the scene and many of them remained throughout the night. An ambulance with physicians and nurses also stood by in constant readiness to render any aid they could, and two clergymen who had been summoned awaited the call to administer the last rites should the task of the rescuers prove unavailing. All through the night the rescuers labored under the glare of torches, and when daylight came they had succeeded in uncovering the imprisoned man's body as far down as the hips. There ropes were attached under Fisher's arms, but the combined strength of 20 men failed even to move the imprisoned man an inch.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE"

PRaise FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you, feeling you longed to hear from me, I had doctors for over two months and spent lots of money on medicine, but nothing helped. I had had a severe attack of bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after allowing your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, I began to get better and to perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave today."

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful periods, weakness, displacement or irritation of an organ, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which removes such troubles.

No other form of medicine in the world has received such widespread and important endorsement. Refuse all substitutes. For 35 years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction, and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

ACCUSE NEW YORKER OF RUINING GIRLS

ACCUSATION MADE THAT YOUNG SHORT SEDUCED SCHOOL CHILDREN

Arrest Is Incident in Connection with Exposure Following Shooting of Architect Stanford White by Harry Kendall Thaw.

New York, July 2.—District Attorney Jerome announced Sunday that he would organize a new grand jury to go to the bottom of the scandal in the Thaw-White case.

With the announcement came the first fruits of the crusade, which has for its object the punishment of prominent New York men who have been making an organized attack on the virtue of young girls.

Henry Alfred Short, a member of the University club, one of the late President Taft's school of Columbia university, was indicted on the West Side court house on a charge of ruining two 14-year-old schoolgirls, daughters of respectable parents.

Short is prominent socially. An address book found in his pocket contained the names of several families of the 40s and memoranda showing he has been a regular caller at their homes. He was a brother of Edward Grimes Short, who died a year ago and who married into the aristocratic Livingston family.

Arrested in "Den."—Recent exposure in connection with the Thaw-White shooting led some persons, whose names is being withheld, to report to the police that "Harry Short had made a practice of ruining young girls."

The social register gives Short's address as 1 West Fifty-fourth street, but the current was made at 224 West Fifty-fifth street, where he maintained a luxurious furnished "den" in a furnished room house conducted by Miss Annetta.

May Indict Mrs. Thaw.—John Doe proceedings will be continued, Mr. Jerome said, but relations existed between White and the Thaws before and after Thaw's marriage. It is thought possible some one else may be indicted as an accessory.

It is recalled that Mrs. Thaw was with her husband before the shooting and that she did not leave the Madison square roof garden until after the fatal shots were fired. Mrs. Thaw may be called before the grand jury again.

Diurnal Attorney Jerome said only a short time as his fingers street house after his return.

He did not disclose the names of the persons he intend to confer with before an indictment is said.

"At present I know nothing more about the White killing than what I have read in the papers. It is not only my duty but my good reason appears now why Harry Thaw's trial should be advanced out of its regular course. There are 15 persons in the Tombs besides him awaiting trial on homicidal charges. These cases naturally would come up before Thaw is brought before the grand jury."

Thaw Refuses Lucky Charm.—Thaw spent a quiet day in the Tombs Sunday after a social night's sleep. He did not have a single visitor all day. His wife sent a telegram in the afternoon saying it had been impossible to visit the prison on Sunday. Thaw seemed greatly disappointed at the message.

A prison keeper carried him a lucky rabbit's foot offered by Roland D. Holt, Mrs. Thaw's friend, and Patterson, and Bertha Claiborne. Thaw declined the gift.

"I don't see any luck charm," said he.

Mrs. Thaw was in her apartments in the Lorraine, Forty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, all day, but refused to see reporters. Her mother, who it was announced, was coming from Pittsburg to take her place at her girl's side, did not appear at the hotel.

Longworths Best at West Park.—London, July 2.—Ambassador and Mrs. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth are spending the week end at West Park. Mrs. Reid has another of her popular house parties. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth will be present at Mr. and Mrs. Reid's reception at the Chester House and at the American society's dinner July 4, and will leave London for Paris July 5.

Tennis Scores.—Wimbledon, England, July 2.—In the ladies' singles, international tennis champion, Miss E. G. Lathrop, defeated Miss G. G. Lathrop, 6-1, 6-2. Miss G. G. Lathrop and Miss G. G. Lathrop were defeated by 6-2, 6-1.

Bryan Goes to London.—Charleston, July 1.—William J. Bryan, who has been spending a couple of days at Bergen, flew to London on the Atlantic liner, the Albatross, on Sunday. He will be in London on Monday. While at Bergen Mr. Bryan visited Premier Mitchell on board the steamer which was conveying the latter from Philadelphia to this port.

WORK PLEASAS PRESIDENT

COMMENDS CONGRESS FOR RESULTS ACHIEVED

Says Legislation Is Along Lines of Real Constructive Statesmanship of Practical Kind.

Washington, July 2.—President Roosevelt, on the adjournment of the congress, declared a statement concerning the work accomplished during the session just concluded. He says that the present congress has done more substantive work along the lines of real constructive statesmanship than has been accomplished at any session of congress with which the president is familiar. He says that the men of genuine patriotism have a right to feel "a profound satisfaction in the entire course of this congress."

"In the session that has just closed," says the president in his statement, "the congress has done more substantive work for good than any congress has done in the history of the country. The legislation has been along the lines of real constructive statesmanship of the most practical and practical kind. The bill after bill has been enacted into law which has of an importance so great that it is fair to say that the enactment of one of them alone would have made the session memorable, such, for instance, as the railroad rate bill, the most important measure, the pure food bill, the bill for free alcohol in the arts, the consular reform bill, Panama canal legislation, the joint statehood bill and the naturalization bill."

"I certainly have no disposition to blink what there is of evil in our social, industrial or political life of our day, but it seems to me that the men of genuine patriotism who genuinely wish well to their country have the right to feel a profound satisfaction in the entire course of this congress."

"I would not be afraid to compare its record with that of any previous congress in our history, not alone in its wisdom, but for the disinterested high-mindedness which has controlled its action."

"It is noteworthy that not a single measure which the closest scrutiny could warrant us in calling of doubtful propriety has been enacted; and, on the other hand, no measure of any kind has availed to prevent the enactment of the laws most vitally necessary to the nation at this time."

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

COVAT DECIDES IN FAVOR OF DAIRY COMMISSION

Suspected Murderers in Custody—Young Girl Disappointed—News in Brief.

St. Paul.—The decision of the state supreme court, Friday afternoon, in the right of the state dairy and food commission to condemn "evaporated cream" unless it has 20 per cent of fat, will have far-reaching effect in the work of the commission. Commissioner C. S. Kiser says it will be a big help in the work and give the officers authority to enforce some rulings which they are now avoiding. It is somewhat dubious about. The principle established will apply to a large number of things besides evaporated milk. In fact, it gives the commission a right to declare illegal practically all the products in the market.

The manufacturers in this evaporated cream case and in many food products are sold under a name which is deceptive, although a label under it in finer print may correct any misstatement in the brand. The milk company involved in this suit had "evaporated cream" in large letters on the label, and in smaller type below that the contents is evaporated milk. The company argued that it complied with the law by stating that the product was evaporated milk and that the words "evaporated cream" is part of the trade-mark.

A Strange Visitor.

Duluth.—A large bull moose made Duluth an early morning call. It ranged around the east end quite extensively from 2:30 to 4 o'clock. It was first seen at Eighteenth avenue east and Jefferson street, and from there it crossed the tracks to the corner of Seventeenth avenue and Superior street, coming out by George Jones' residence.

The animal then proceeded on Superior street to Fifteenth avenue east and from there to First street. It started to go west on First street but changed its mind and went to Second street, crossing the spaces between C. W. Fitzsimmons' dwelling and the one immediately west of it. After a roving on Second street the moose started to trot west with the graceful swinging gait peculiar to this monarch of the forest.

A Clue.

Minneapolis.—The first real clue that has come to the police in connection with the murder of the six Macedonian whose dead bodies were found in Washington avenue, March 2, was received from Chicago, Ill., by a dispatch received from the chief of police of that place. Five foreigners, believed to be the murderers, are in custody there for larceny, and two of the number answer the description given of the men supposed to be the murderers.

The two men whose descriptions have been broadcast as being the authors of the sextuple murder were picked up by the St. Paul police as suspicious characters within a few hours of the time the murder was actually committed.

Disappointed.

Duluth.—Anna Mack, a young Finnish girl, came 4,000 miles to Duluth to wed one August Dagerman, whom she had become acquainted with through an advertisement he had inserted for a wife in a Finnish newspaper printed in this country, and a copy of which had found its way to her in a small town in the interior of Finland. She arrived here yesterday and met the groom to be, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Christopher on St. Croix avenue.

The story as given by the police is that instead of being "a girl well to do and good looking," as Dagerman had declared himself to be in the advertisement, he was a dirty, unkempt and a widower upward of 40 years old.

State Fair Program.

Hamline.—Secretary E. W. Randall of the Minnesota state fair is making preparations for the publication of the official program of the fair of 1906. For a number of years the State Agricultural society has published the official program instead of disposing of a program concession as was formerly the practice. This is found to be a much more satisfactory arrangement and a handsome and useful program and souvenir of the fair is produced each year. The cover design this year will include an outline plan of the fair grounds. Inside will be a descriptive sketch of the grounds, buildings, attractions, exhibits, etc. followed by a detailed daily program. Illustrations will be used freely.

News Notes.

St. Paul.—The St. Paul lacrosse team defeats the Calumet of Chicago 5 to 2.

St. Paul.—An aged lamp lighter is held for the explosion of a gasoline street lamp.

A MODERN MADRIGAL

"I was a robin bird
A swain in the woods
I'd sing to sweet dat when she heard
His'd step to look at me.
It was er' hutter
I'd jump about so spry
Dat when I tumbled from a log
I'd ably catch her eye."

"I was a clover bloom
In noddy's herabud.
I'd breathe my heart into perfume
I'd tell her I was er' hutter.
But it is plain to see
I'll never get no notice while
I'm er' hutter."
—Washington Star.

"Hilum, said Mrs. Cornetson, 'what makes you say 'gosh' so much and wear your trousers in your boots?'"
"I'm rehearsal," answered the farmer, "for the benefit of the sumner boarders who are comin' next week. If some of us don't talk that way they won't think we're real comin' folk like they've been readin' about."
—Washington Star.

UNCERTAINTY AND CERTAINTY.

Severe Discipline.

"I should like to be rich so that I could own an automobile and be independent."
"My friend," answered Mr. Dustin Slax, "the man who owns an automobile is dependent on everybody from the gas-man to the country sheriff. The greater value of the automobile is to civilization is its effectiveness in giving wealth lessons in humility."
—Washington Star.

Natural Fitness.

"My friend," said the man who was getting out of the barber's shop with a shaven cheek, "you have enlightened my mind on a point that has hitherto been a mystery."
"What is that, sir?"
"For the first time I understand why in former times the village barber was also expected to be the town surgeon."
—Washington Star.

To Be Avoided.

"Yes, he has quarrels with his wife every day over money matters."
"Do you suppose it will lead to a divorce?"
"Oh, no; a divorce would leave him worse off than ever."
"I don't see how."
"He would be compelled to go to work."
—Houston Post.

Prima Facie Evidence.

"I don't think I'll let my daughter marry you, young man."
"Why not, sir?"
"Well, you have very expensive tastes."
"How do you know that?"
"Why, you want to marry my daughter."
—Cleveland Leader.

He Ousted.

"I see Cassed," said she.
"My dear, has he bought your name?"
"Yes, I'll just occurred to me."
"How did that happen with 'new name'?"
"Well, reaching for his purse, he grunted he, 'And with 'dogme' it."
—Cleveland Leader.

The Clew.

"I think I have another clue!" exclaimed the new detective, excitedly.
"Go to your room," rejoined the old police officer, sternly. "You're not putting in your time finding clues, so as to hold off the capture of the criminal for 40 chapters."
—Washington Star.

Force of Habit.

"This" said the agent, "is the best motor car you can buy. It's just the thing for a lady."
"Yes," said the customer. "I suppose it's electric and gentle and not afraid of electric trams?"—Cassell's Journal.

NOT WHOLLY DIFFERENT.

"Oh, but Capt. Trentham, you asked me into the garden to talk about botany, you know."
"Yes, and now I want to talk about hawthorn. There isn't a great deal of difference, is there, now?"—The Tatler.

Where They Met.

Angry Wife (after a quarrel)—Seems to me we've been married about a hundred years. I can't even remember when or where we first met.
Hubband (emphatically)—I can. It was at a dinner party, and there were 13 at table.—N. Y. Weekly.

Served In On Her, Anyway.

Mistress (indignantly)—What is it you are saying to me, Bridget? I am too ill to sit up.
Domestic—Well, mum, you can take notice which of us is ill. I have had a bad cold, mum.—Chicago Tribune.

A Genuine Reunion.

"Hill—Don't you think this blowing of factory whistles is a nuisance?"
"Well, when they blow for quitting time, I don't think so; but when they blow for going to work, it certainly does.—Yonkers Statesman.

The Lovers Quarrel.

"Their engagement's broken off."
"What did they quarrel about?"
"About which one loved the other best, I believe."
—Cleveland Leader.

HE WAS DIPLOMATIC AND SO WON THE GIRL

"Mr. Gladstone, began the young man, 'when you proposed to your wife—or to the woman whose name is now Mrs. Gladstone—did she tell you to ask her father?'"
"She did, my boy," affably replied Mr. Gladstone.
"And did you try to affix the job?"
"Well, come to think of it, I did. I was just going to get her to do it. I believe I tried to get her to do the asking, you see, Mr. Gladstone."
"And when you did ask him—of course, you had to speak to him finally."
"Of course I did. Of course."
"And when you did ask him, did your knees shake, and was your stomach and did you have stage fright generally?"
"I was scared to death."
"Well, that's the way I feel I told Gladstone. I know I could find some mutual bond of sympathy between us when I came to tell you that she has promised to marry me."—Life.

Wandering William.—I don't know where my next meal is coming from, says William.

Lying-Well. I know where it is not coming from.

Disqualified. "Cheer up, dear," she said to her dying husband. "I can keep boarders, you know."

Paradoxical. The nature feminine is prone to paradox—sly.

Thankless. "Do you enjoy being a weather prophet?"

Couldn't Help Himself. "Mother (to little daughter)—I am surprised, Ethel, that you should talk so impudently to your father. I'm sure you never heard me talk that way."

What He Came For. "How did you come to get mixed up in it?" answered Pa. "O! come to collect a bill for two dollars and twenty-five cents."—Judge.

A Theory. "Why are you Americans so subject to indigestion?" asked the placid foreigner.

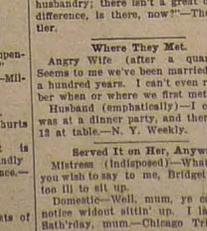

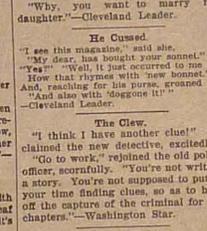

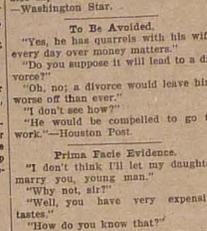

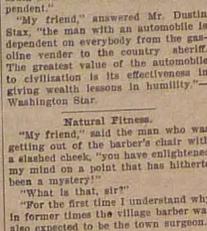

Not Yet Arrived. "What salary do you get?" "I don't get any salary."
"You don't? You get some compensation for your work, don't you?" "Yes, but only get wages."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The Incidence of Spanking. Boston Father—Waldo, this hurts me worse than you.

Waldo—Corpora. punishment is surely sufficient indignity, kindly refrain from the fault to my intelligence.—N. Y. Sun.

Seats of the Mighty. Tommy-Pa, what are the seats of the mighty?

The Lovers Quarrel. "Their engagement's broken off."
"What did they quarrel about?"
"About which one loved the other best, I believe."
—Cleveland Leader.

PINE COUNTY PIONEER.

ED. C. GOTFREY, Editor and Prop.

Entered in the Post Office at Pine City as Second Class Matter.

PINE CITY, MINN., July 6, 1906

Announcement

To the Voters of Kanabec, Chisago and Pine Counties.

As the location of many of the representative citizens of this legislative district, but more especially at the earnest request of many of the voters of Kanabec—my home county, I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination, at the coming republican primaries, as one of the representatives from the 32nd district. It is nominated and elected I shall endeavor to merit the confidence placed in me by laboring for the best interests of the district. I am heartily in favor of and shall advocate and vote the so called reciprocal duty-free legislation, reduction of freight and passenger rates and revision of our present unjust tax system, which makes the poorer classes bear more than their share of the burdens of taxation.

I believe that Knute Nelson has ably represented this state in the United States senate and is entitled to another term. If given the opportunity it will afford me pleasure to vote for his re-election.

HENRY KINES.

Congress has faded away. It will appear again.

We will need Cole very muchly when the legislature meets during the bleak days of next winter.

A SUMMER training school has opened in the county seat of Pine county, and this may now be considered among the more desirable places of residence in our state.

The more mud you sling at a candidate the lighter he'll stick to the soil. The slingers had better take their own treatment. A good thick application may tend to cure them of the sore head.

It has been discovered by the Stillwater Gazette machine publisher that Hell is a delightful place in the extreme northern part of Norway. Our conscience prevents us from telling him to go there. We need him in Minnesota.

CARNEY KOERNER is no longer a member of the state treasurer's official family. He was a good official but aspired to his chief's seat at the recent state convention, while Block wanted the gubernatorial nomination. Block has been offered a $3,500 job with an insurance company while "Carney" enjoys the confidence of a good pa. It's a sin to starve under the conditions.

To his personal knowledge unolicited and unexpected, Charles E. Elquist, the rising young county organizer of Chisago county, received notice Monday morning that he had been appointed a member of the state central committee from the 1st Judicial district. The honor, coming as it did, means much for the man who is a credit to this part of the district. We congratulate him.

The eleventh annual excursion and outing of the Northwestern Editorial Association will occur July 14 to 16. The members will rendezvous at Crookston on the 14th inst., and the excursion will carry them through the famous Red River Valley to Devils Lake, N. D., one of the few salt water bodies in the United States. That the boys and girls will have a jolly time is foregone. They always do.

For Men Only.

Edward F. Young, attorney general, has given an opinion to J. W. Olsen, holding that women cannot vote for school officers at a primary election.

The attorney general says: "A primary election is essentially only the action of a political party naming candidates which theoretically represent its principles. At the final election any woman, as well as any other individual, may vote for a candidate that has been named by a political party, or may vote for some one who has not been named. As the law now stands there is no way by which a woman could be permitted to participate in making a political nomination."

Committed Suicide.

Last Saturday forebreakfast Messrs. Paul Martin and Jas. Nugent underwent an experience at Pokegama lake that they would not care to have repeated on a seething sizzling sea. The gentlemen are natives of St. Paul—at least they exercise the rights of their citizenship at that place—and are not accustomed to the wildly ridiculous pranks of some gentlemen are guests at the Wilke resort and had been plotting to do an unusual stunt of fishing for some time past when Sunday morning they waxed restless and tossed themselves out of their dream-land and simultaneously shot down to the water's edge from whence they rowed to 6-8 time to a fishing hole. They were rowing about and rather enjoying the novelty of the forebreakfast atmosphere when suddenly Paul let a rip out of him that for tone and action would give any one outside of a lunatic observatory a feeling of misplaced confidence. About the time Nugent had completed a hurried examination of the top of his think tank, the cause for action was discovered comolentally kneeling on one fin on the only vacant seat in the boat. A foolish stare, apparently tinged with water and wishing to gain the friendship of two early birds, had decided to either form their acquaintance or commit suicide in the attempt. The fool fish had done both. And may be our St. Paul friends weren't glad to see the chunk of brain food. Oh, no! They'd be shaking hands with it yet if the breakfast bell hadn't told them that it wasn't right to fish on—empty stomachs. After that it had resumed its proper position of telling how all big fish are caught they acknowledged that their friend from the deep (it weighed 19 pounds) had voluntarily jumped into their boat, possibly thinking at the time that it had struck a millionaire angle worm joint. Vouchers for this story can be had from any of those who were registered at the Island Hotel last Sunday, but we reserve the right to refuse to forego a cross examination in the case of the aquat in solitude.

Bowel Complaint in Children.
During the summer months children are subject to disorders of the bowels which should receive careful attention as soon as the first unnatural looseness of the bowels appears. The best medicine in use for bowel complaint is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as it promptly controls any unnatural looseness of the bowels. For sale at Breckenridge's Pharmacy.

"Hope springs eternal in the human breast." Storms break and ruin follows to their train, financial panics bring despair, the refreshing rains are withheld and on far-stretching fields in our western lands the growing crops wither and the very wild trees die of thirst; grim-visaged men and careworn women scan the skies in vain for signs of rain-bearing cloud; want comes stalking over the land, robbing babes of their portion and parents of their hope; nature laughs at men's vain assumption that they have changed climates. Pine county, geographically convenient to the great markets, with a salubrious climate. Pine City, the metropolis and popular resort. Groveland Dairy Farm and Jersey Herd for sale. Make your terms. Saved His Comrade's Life.
"While returning from the Grand Army Encampment at Washington City, a comrade from Elgin, Ill., was taken with cholera morbus and was in a critical condition," says M. E. J. Houghland, of Elgin, Iowa. "I gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and believe saved his life. I have been engaged for ten years in immigration work and conducted many parties to the south and west. I always carry this remedy and used it successfully on many occasions." How to Break Up a Cold

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, hard cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour upon the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. Don't be fooled and made to believe that rheumatism can be cured with local applications. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the only positive cure for rheumatism. Tea or Tablets. For sale at Breckenridge's Pharmacy

News of the Week.

Chips Picked up Around Town and Vicinity.

Miss Nellie Greeley is home from Stillwater.

Mrs. Murray is here from Superior, the guest of friends.

Henry Glasow, of Cloquet, is spending the week with his family. Visitors to Pine City on the 4th were far too numerous to mention.

Miss Whittle Collins arrived Tuesday from Hinckley to visit with Mrs. D. Greeley.

John H. Mullen, of Hinckley, was here on the Fourth, just to hear the eagle scream.

Miss Nan Cassar, of Stillwater, has been the guest of friends in this place since last Friday.

John Barry, of St. Paul, was the guest of his friend, Martin Hurley, a couple of days this week.

Messrs. Alfred and Henry Glancie came down from Duluth to spend the Fourth with relatives.

Ross Bath, who has been employed at St. Paul for several months past, is home for an indefinite visit.

Miss Grace Rohl returns today to her home at North Branch after a week's visit with the Misses Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vojta came up from Rush City Tuesday to spend the Fourth and to visit with relatives.

Wm. Buttrick and Arthur Anderson, of Hinckley, assisted the Pine City band in the discourse of music on the Fourth.

W. C. Stranahan and wife arrived Monday from St. Paul to spend a few days with L. P. Stranahan and family at the Hotel Argos.

Up to last evening an enrollment of 38 had been registered for the training school for teachers which commenced at the school house yesterday.

Among those from North Branch who spent the Fourth in this place were T. E. and M. H. Warner, J. H. Locke, Harold Peterson and Will A. Herrod.

The ladies of the M. E. church had a busy day of it on the Fourth. They served dinner and supper, ice cream and lemonade, at the old Buttrick building.

Mrs. Francis E. Stivers and children and Mrs. Fagnus, of St. Paul, have rented the Belle cottage on Cross lake where they will remain during the summer.

Andy Conuaker, who holds the foreman'ship of a crew of telegraph line men for the D. M. & N., was here visiting relatives and friends for several days this week.

The dinner served on the Fourth by the ladies of St. Mary's church met with great success. The clear profit, for which the congregation is very thankful, amounts to $136.37.

Wm. Velleum, of St. Paul, arrived here Saturday to spend a few days at the Island hotel, Pokegama lake. He returned home yesterday, but will return again, and says the place suits him to a "T".

Mrs. G. J. Albrecht and daughter, Inne, of Minot, N. Dak., arrived Saturday from St. Paul, where they had been visiting Mr. Albrecht and son, Olyde, are expected to arrive here today for a short visit.

Attorney F. L. McGehee was up from St. Paul Saturday last on business pertaining to his proposed cottage at Pokegama Lake. He and his family expect to arrive here on the 11th inst. to camp at Pokegama.

Wm. Rice, R. A. Hunt and Emil Hofer returned last Friday from an extended tour along the Canadian line where they have been cruising. They fetched along a couple of bears cubs which have been the center of attraction at the Hunt home during the past week.

Mrs. M. C. Brackett, Miss Libbie Brackett and Hiram Brackett and Miss Mayme Pennington drove up from Pine City Saturday. They returned Sunday, except Mrs. M. C. Brackett, who will remain a month as the guest of the John Brackett family.—Mora Times.

Louis Burge and Tom Henderson arrived Tuesday from the northern part of the state to spend our Natal day with relatives and friends. They left for Biogol, this state, yesterday, accompanied by Wm. Henderson and Dan Dosey, to continue their telephone line work, of which Mr. Burge is foreman.

Paul Perkins was down from Duluth over the Fourth.

A. E. Palmer was a Pine City visitor from Harris this week.

Jack Connaker came down from Duluth Sunday for a few days' visit. Mrs. John Hurley and child, of St. Paul, are visiting with relatives in this place.

The claim of Assessor, Jos. Veverka, was on motion allowed at $125, and the claims of John Gross, Jos. Neubauer, F. Kulneck and the Watrous Engine Co., were on motion laid over until the next regular meeting.

On motion an appropriation of $50.00 for musical entertainment for July 4th was ordered.

No further business appearing, Council on motion adjourned.

Frank Pifer, Village Recorder.

Cookie in Trouble.

Robert Henry Monteith, a cookiee for the N. P. Ry. construction crew now at Pine City, was arrested Sunday night charged with a criminal assault upon a 13-year old girl, residing near Beroun. The crime was alleged to have been committed two miles south of Beroun.

The accused is 17 years old and is of an adventurous nature. Sunday afternoon, between the hours of five and six, it is said that he met his victim and a younger sister along the railroad tracks.

After the assault he came to Pine City on a railroad velocipede. Sheriff Hawley was notified and after a neat piece of detective work captured the youth in a saloon. He denied the charge and alleged that a cookiee in another camp might be the man wanted. He was placed behind the bars, however, and cookiee No. 2 was arrested and jailed. The victim's sister was brought down from Beroun Monday morning, and at once recognized Monteith as the assailant.

At the hearing Monday afternoon Monteith plead guilty and, under the new code, unless he changes his plea he will likely be tried shortly. Under the charge no bail could be fixed and he was taken to the Washington county jail to await trial.

Creditable Road Work.

Three weeks ago we wrote an account of some road work that had been done along the Teich properties in Pokegama town. The work was done exceptionally well and we recorded the fact. But, apparently, the name of the one to whom most credit is due for the work, was omitted. This was not intentional on our part but was through misinformation. Edwad Kruse, road overseer in school district No. 11, was the one who instituted the good roads movement in that district, and his good example will be emulated by others in Pokegama town and the county. That is as it should be.

The making of good roads is but in its infancy in this county; that is so, not because there were no road builders in the past, but because the facilities offered today are better and the parts improved are more thickly settled. We believe that credit should be placed where credit is due, and thus do we believe that Mr. Kruse deserves standing at the head of the procession through his efforts in behalf of good roads construction in his district. The work done by Teich brothers and every one else identified with said improvements is highly commendable, and we urge, on behalf of the county, that the making of good roads be continued until they are as near perfection as possible.

Deaths Takes Two Young People.

EDWIN ARTHUR ROBINSON.
 Edwin Arthur Robinson died at his home in Pine City town Sunday morning between the hours of three and four o'clock. He suffered from a severe case of appendicitis and although slight hope for his recovery was entertained it was deemed necessary for him to undergo an operation. The young man had just recovered from the mumps when he complained of the pains which proved fatal.

Edwin was born in Pine Town on the 4th day of February, 1884. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robinson and beside them is survived by three sisters and three brothers.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and the funeral was held from that church in this place Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. W. P. Matthews officiating. The remains were interred in Birchwood cemetery.

MISS PEARL COX.

Last Saturday afternoon at Brook Park occurred the death of Miss Pearl Cox. The end came at four p. m. and the cause of the fatality was tuberculosis from which she had been a patient sufferer for the past two months.

Miss Cox was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox, of Brookpark, and was born at West Ben town, Iowa, in 1884. She arrived at Brook Creek eight years ago and a year later moved to Brookpark where she had since made her home. Besides her parents the following sisters and brothers survive her: Mrs. Sadie Peterson, Mrs. Alice Trotter, Mrs. Jennie Chaska, Misses Addie and Nora Cox, and Alysie Cox, all of Brookpark and Mrs. Fred Norton, of Pine City town.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. Manley, of the M. E. church of Hinckley, and interment was made in the Brookpark cemetery.

TUEBDO TOPICS

(MISCELLANEOUS)

Attorney and Mrs. Stewart, of Minneapolis, came up on Sunday and stayed until Monday.

Chief Fred Ahin and assistants spent the entire Fourth at Pine City, never showing up at the Club until time to get breakfast Thursday morning.

Louis Weeks, one of the prominent attorneys of Minneapolis, was a club visitor Sunday. Mr. Weeks is more than pleased with the lake and Club.

Mr. Nash and family spent the Fourth at the county seat, Mr. Nash going to St. Paul on the limited, and his wife and the balance of the family returned to the Club in time for 6 o'clock dinner.

Mr. Hammer, of St. Paul, was up to the Club the latter part of last week, and engaged a cottage for himself and family for the balance of the season. Mr. Hammer is engaged quite extensively in mining in the west.

Mr. Louis Nash, of St. Paul, came up to spend the Fourth with his family. Mr. Nash was engaged to speak at St. Paul Park, but an account of a lack of proper advertising the celebration at that place was called off and that enabled Mr. Nash to spend the day at the Club, which was a great surprise and pleasure to his family.

CHENGWATANA

FROM AROUND THE COPPER MINE

The air drills are working fine. Mr. and Mrs. Heath, of Beroun, spent Sunday with Wm. Guphill and family.

The glorious Fourth is over and work has been resumed in full force at the mines.

Law Davis spends all his spare time breaking the running horse he recently purchased.

Albert Kruse came down from Duluth to spend the Fourth and enjoy a few days at home.

The mine presented rather a deserted appearance on the Fourth. Everybody went to Pine City to celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, of Hibbing, have been spending a few days with Mrs. Fisher's sister, Mrs. Henry Kruse. They returned to their home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis, of Huntington, came to spend the Fourth with their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Guphill, accompanied by Mrs. S. A. Blair and children of Duluth, spent Monday at the Guphill home.

Henry Hoefler took a picnic party to Pokegama Tuesday. The trip was planned for the pleasure of his sister, Mrs. Fisher, who was visiting here.

a trip across to Sturgeon's point after spending a few cheerful moments at Peter Engel's cottage, where is a choice friend now and then is welcome as the rest of 'em. The point which we refer to here is to the right as the boat enters the historic Pokegama. Much is promised for this place in the future.

F. L. Moore, of St. Paul, has purchased frontage there and will build this summer, and the fact that U. S. Senator Clapp's summer home is just north of there gives it not a little prominence. The Pioneer aggregation of printery artists also expect to locate in that whereabouts for their summer outing, and an ideal camp in the lake and uncut will be "Bathelene's Rustle," to which all our physiologically friends have a straight up invitation.

To any who want to appreciate the freedom of out doors life we would say: "Take a hunch and come to Pine City for the rest cure, the simple life and all its accessories, and you will profit thereby."

It has caused more laughs and dried more tears, wiped away diseases and driven away more fears than any other medicine in the world. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, 35 cents. Cans or Tablets. Breckenridge's Pharmacy.

Unknown Friends. There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word, through personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the house and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale at Breckenridge's Pharmacy.

Most Claims often Carry the Most Conviction. When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee on judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise, instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cholera,

The Ball Game.

It pains us sorely to have to retrace this writing of the grand and glorious Fourth of July ball game to a few mere lines when it was surely worth a column. Space forbids, therefore the tears.

At least, the game was a howling success. Everybody hollered—but father; he yelled.

The Pioneer Business School ball team, a St. Paul aggregation, drifted into town just after John Wilcox had captured the greased pig. They came, as advertised—bless them, and after eight and one half innings of limelight work, discovered that Hurler's Barringtons were the strongest "farmers" that they had had the honor of meeting with during this season of 1908. Out of 18 games played, they had won 18. Weshowed them. The score tells the tale. In the 19th game they met their little Waterloo to the melodious air of 9 to 8.

The game was tight from one round to another and any fanatical cranks present who declared they would not stand call at the box office for a box of gull cur. It removes the kicks and cures the knots.

The following table was prepared by the "society" editor for the use of PIONEER readers. It's yours; take it.
