A MERRY CHASE

The Pine City Ball Team Spends a Delightful Afternoon in Entertaining a Willow River Aggregation.

The "Tail of the Kangaroo" isn't in it with what we could tell about the chop suey exhibition that happened at the Pine City ball park last Sabbath past meridian.

An aimless game of ping pong is tame in comparison to the ingenuous exhibition of old time base ball which was served to the crazy gang of old relatives who had assembled to see Pine City and Willow River play ball.

But for a dismal, dreary atmosphere, a few drops of rain water, an unfavorable wind, the day was ideal for base ball, and its representatives bunch of bushers were therefore the first to offend the unsuspecting public. Before the inning's wind-up they had practically annihilated good form by tailing off five different occasions before the balls landed to the fact that batting was a whole lot of fun or the visitors wouldn't make so great an effort to drag the sphere with such consistent heaving.

Pine City eventually went to bat and by clever planning forced three runs over the home sack, and the locals gave the fans a case of unlocked for by making such an exquisite showing.

But in order to boil a long story down within the range of decency, it might be well to state right here that the game wound up after a most fascinating chase all around by a total of 31 runs. Willow River got the long end of the deal by making 29 of the runs, and the remainder of the tallies can be figured accordingly.

Kowalek pitched the first five innings for Pine City and it was a decidedly off-day with him. In the first four innings the heavy sloughers from Willow managed to get 11 runs, and in the 5th the fans were treated to a royal sweatfest. Before the curtain had been rung down 9 men had crossed the home plate and the game was practically clinched. Clint Breckenridge went in and twirled during the remaining 4 innings, allowing but one hit and no runs. Nevers Bros. were the Willow River battery.

Were it not for the facts that the tabulated score would further offend those who saw the nightmare, we should certainly print the same; but, suffice to say, the error column would show up stronger than would be consistent with good ball playing. For all that has been said, however, any team is apt to have an off-day, and the locals will yet give a good account, for there are a number of splendid players on the team.

Grand Opening Tomorrow.

The long looked for grand opening of Wilcox's summer resort will be held tomorrow (Saturday) evening. Wilcox's steamer "Eric" will be in commission, the barge has been chartered and a fleet of launches will furnish transportation to and from the resort, so the transportation facilities will be ample. Mr. Wilcox and assistants have made splendid provision for the entertainment of a large crowd and a bumper attendance is anticipated. Everybody is invited to the grand opening. Boats will leave the dock tomorrow afternoon and evening, and boats will leave Wilcox's in good season for the return trip.

ARE GRADUATED

The Seniors At Last Leave Their Cherished Alma Mater—Five Earn Diplomas—Congresses Bede Speaks.

The Pine City high school assembly hall was crowded to overflowing last Saturday evening on account of the commencement exercises which were held there on that evening.

At that time and place a very interesting and educational program, which had required much thought and preparation, was rendered.

The hall was decked in gallantly with a profusion of flowers, and the class colors were very tastefully displayed, the rich purple and white presenting an excellent effect.

Space will not permit of an enumeration of the many numbers on the program, but the Pioneer critic considers that the various efforts averaged higher and better than the usual high school commencement programs generally do.

D. Greeley, president of the school board, presented the diplomas to the following: Agnes Brackett, Alice Daley, Lillian Foster, Maude Kendall and John Hurley. The principal address was delivered by Congressman J. Adam Bede, who, by the way, is a member of the school board, and his remarks were listened to with the deepest interest. Prof. Olsen also delivered a most interesting and logical address to the parents and pupils.

SURFACE WATERS

The United States Geological Survey Issues Bulletin Concerning Report on Drainage Conditions.

As a result of nearly two years' field and laboratory work carried on by the United States geological survey in cooperation with the state board of health, the federal survey has just issued a report outlining the general characteristics of the surface waters in Minnesota, and discussing the various factors that tend to modify the quality of the drainage. Both the chemical and bacteriological work, during the entire cooperation, were under the immediate supervision of Dr. F. F. Westbrook, director of the laboratories of the state board of health, who shares the authorship of the paper with R. B. Cole, of the geological survey.

The headwaters of these great drainage systems lie within the borders of Minnesota. Approximately one-tenth of its surface is tributary to the Laurentian system, thirteen-tenths drain to Hudson Bay through its great tributaries, Red and Rainy rivers; the rest of the state is tributary to the Mississippi either directly or through its large branches, Missouri, DesMoines, Cedar, St. Croix, and Minnesota rivers.

The report in question discusses the conditions, both natural and economic, that influence the quality of the water and impart to the lakes and streams their essential characteristics, after which each drainage area is considered in detail, the streams are described, the sources of pollution are discussed, and the results of chemical and bacteriological examinations are given. The report is available for free distribution, and copies may be obtained by addressing the Director, the United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

CUPID GETS BUSY

Robert Hart Goes To Wisconsin To Wed—Miss Anna Kruse Becomes the Bride of August Zastrow Wednesday.

WANDS—HARTE

Yesterday afternoon at four o'clock Miss Mable Wands became the bride of Robert Harte. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride in Chippewa Falls, Wis. After a short wedding trip the young couple will take up their residence in this place.

The bride is a most excellent young lady, refined and cultured, and met her husband several years ago while on a visit with friends in this place. Robert is the general manager of the grocery department in the Big Store, and is a most estimable young man. The couple have the best wishes of all their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harte, parents of the groom, Mrs. McLaren, his grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laird, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Arthur Eddy, of Duluth, a sister of the groom, attended the nuptials.

KRUSE—ZASTROW.

Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Anna Kruse and August Zastrow. Rev. J. J. Parish of the M. E. church, of this place, officiated during the marriage ceremony. Only relatives and a very few friends witnessed the happy affair. Miss Edith Zastrow, a sister of the groom, was the bride's maid, and Henry Kruse, a brother of the bride, was the groomsman.

After the wedding a splendid dinner was served.

The principals are both well and favorably known about here. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kruse, of Proctor, and is a charming young lady. Her husband is son of Mr. A. J. Zastrow. He formerly conducted a meat market with his brother in this place, and is a man of steady habits and good character. They have the congratulations and best wishes of many friends.

Open for All.

The Inn, under the management of Mr. Shocumb, is open for the season and every effort possible will be made for the comfort and entertainment of guests. During the "reign" of the Taxedo Club on those grounds, only members were permitted to receive accommodations, but under the new management and better arrangement of affairs, any who wish may go to the resort and will be assured of cordial treatment.

NOW IN OPERATION

The McGrath Saw Mill and Loading Works the Scene of Activity—Saw Mill Starts Monday.

Monday morning the McGrath saw mill was put in operation and the works on the banks of Cross lake are now cutting up logs at the rate of 35,000 feet per day. This, together with the log loading works and the planing mill, makes a scene of activity which is indeed one of whole-some prosperity.

The log loading works started up a couple of weeks ago and about 20 cars are loaded each day. There is a great sufficiency of logs available for a good season's run, and, barring accident, both saw mill and loading crews will have plenty to do.

Between 70 and 75 men are employed in and about the mill and loader. The two enterprises are conducted by separate concerns, the mill being under the direction of the Pine City Lumber Co. and the loader is the property of Jas. McGrath.

Among those employed about the mill are, Robert Hoffman, who has charge of the mill; Aug. Larson, yard boss; Chas. Erickson, grader; J. L. Couplin, sawyer; Homer W. Miller, fore Ed.; McTeer, tally man; Jos. Petschel, engineer; John Biedermann, night watchman. Provided hands can be secured a night shift will be put on.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT

Judge P. H. Stolberg Presides During the Term Which Convenes on Monday and Adjourns Wednesday.

Judge P. H. Stolberg of Harris, conducted a special term of the district court at the court house the first of this week. Court convened Monday morning at 10 o'clock and finally adjourned Wednesday morning.

In the case of Robert J. C. Hamilton, administrator of the estate of Alfred E. Westrom, deceased, vs. Oscar Westrom, Emma Westrom, Frank Horgan and Oscar Forsman, judgment was entered against the plaintiff.

Mary E. Strub was granted a divorce from Leo Strub on the ground of alleged desertion. They left from Sandstone. In another proceeding of a like nature a Mrs. Greenley was denied a divorce from her hubby because there was not sufficient evidence to sustain the action.

The First State Bank was awarded judgment in the sum of $496.03 in a contention with the town of Pinel.

The case of Alonso Shaw vs. Peder Foss et al., was dismissed upon motion of the defendant for nonappearance of plaintiff, and judgment was entered against the plaintiff for costs, etc.

Several other minor cases were submitted to the court and were given due consideration.

Will Arrive the 17th.

Everything has been definitely settled regarding the booking of the Minneapolis Y. M. C. A. members outing at The Inn, Pokegama lake, and a representative will be here the latter part of next week to prepare for the reception of 20 members of that organization. The lads will arrive here on the 17th inst and will remain for at least two weeks. It is decided that the Association members of the Twin Cities will hold their field day sports at this place as some of the leading members consider the fair grounds a splendid place for just such a meet. Should they do so, the lads and others about here interested in athletic sports will gain a knowledge of physical culture that will be broadening indeed should they see fit to emulate. During their stay at the lake the Association members will need a few more boats and any having row boats for sale or rent will be favoring all interested parties by speaking to Mr. Harte of the Merchantile Co. regarding same.

We Don't Keep Paint, —We Sell it.

Paint is physical insurance. It prevents decay. Property that isn't painted soon runs down, the wood decays and its value shrinks. The Pioneer uses paint and keeps the wood paints closed and his property insured in value.

There is nothing that makes a house look well kept as does the use of good paint. It is economy in paint if you use the right kind, but as it costs as much for labor to apply poor paint as it does to put on good paint, you should investigate the paint you buy and know that it is pure, honest paint. You won't have any trouble if you use FORMAN, FORD & COMPANY'S PAINT, for it is 100 PER CENT PURE, and won't fade, peal or chalk off.

It is made of pure white lead, pure oxide of zinc, pure turpentine dryer and pure Old Process linseed oil. The lead covers the surface, fills the pores, and zinc hardens the combination, makes the paint stay on and holds the color fast. The linseed oil is a preservative of the wood, while the turpentine dryer takes out the moisture and leaves a hard, glossy surface that the sun, rain or snow does not affect any more than it does glass.

Let us tell you more about this pure paint before you buy.

It's funny the way some people buy lumber. They think only about the 'price,' and never think of the 'quality.' When we sell lumber and building material we think of both. We are selling the very best of each. We believe first, in giving our customers the very best material that money will buy, and then in making the price as low as possible for that kind. And yet you can't find lower prices than ours. Now—if you're "onto a good thing," don't forget to see us next time you need anything in our line.

Departmental Commissioners.

The most sensible and businesslike plan is that of the interstate commerce commission providing for departmental commissioners at places remote from Washington. Under the old regime, in which the commissioners themselves traveled all over the country to hear complaints—many of them of comparatively small consequence—the shipping interests suffered intolerable delays. Many months often intervened between hearings on the same complaint. Inquiries were interrupted by the multifarious demands on the time of the commissioners, and business suffered correspondingly. While all the plans for the new regime have not been completed, it is expected, says System Magazine, that the departmental commissioners will be chosen by groups of commissioners from Washington, and that offices will be opened in such cities as Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and St. Paul. The deputy commissioners will keep in touch with railroad masters and will have authority to conduct hearings on complaints and to adjust minor difficulties. The deputies, of course, will have no rate-fixing power, but will report testimony to the commission itself, somewhat as a master in chancery conducts court hearings. The interstate commerce commission is fairly buried in complaints that have been piling up for months, and although it has been actively at work, the task still ahead of it appears hopeless.

The Triumph of Sweets.

Old notions must give way before modern ideas, if the contention of certain physicians is sound. For generations parents and other guardians of children have warned the little ones against the evils of too great and frequent indulgence in sweets. Yet here comes a London doctor who says that candy is a good thing, and everybody should eat not less than a quarter of a pound every day, while larger quantities would do no harm. And the doctor makes his argument favorable to indulgence plain. He advises those not used to more candy-eating men and adds: "It is possible to work for hours after eating four ounces of chocolate without feeling the slightest fatigue. If I had my way every soldier in the British army should be allowed a quarter of a pound of sweets every day." As to the danger of toothache, the doctor says all he can recommend is that people clean their teeth often. Whatever may be the general view of the doctor's teaching, remarks Times, there is no doubt the candy-makers will give him a vote of thanks.

Smoothing the Worker's Way.

The up-to-date employer has come to realize that it is quite as important from a business point of view, to have a well-protected workman as a well-oiled machine, and he carries an insurance fund for his people, just as he maintains a fund for breakage and repairs on his engines. This insured fund for the bodies and minds of employees is now officially known as welfare work, says Circle Magazine. It means, first and foremost, a provision for the physical comfort of the man and woman who works in the shop, and means plenty of light, ventilation, a good drainage and a pure water supply. It means, free elevators and seats for women workers, baths for the dirty and lunches for the hungry. It may mean, later, picnics and balls, public lectures, clubhouses and cooking schools; but for the present the demands of the body are paramount.

SECRET IN THE CHINAMAN'S TELEGRAPH.

Secretary in the Chinaman's telegraph dispatches in China are to be insured in the future by a provision for the decapitation of all offenders revealing the contents of important messages in transit. In the case of ordinary messages of commerce thus revealed the penalty is to be ten years in prison. Five years' imprisonment is provided for those who know of the revelation of such secrets and neglect to report the matter to the proper authorities.

A Pittsburgh millionaire has established a chicken farm on a tract of nine acres of land in the residence district of that city, his purpose being to provide his family with fresh eggs and tender chickens. The land is valued at $45,000, which seems to be rather an extravagant outlay for eggs, even for a Pittsburger.

TWELVE MEN SWORN TO TRY HAYWOOD

JURY COMPLETED AND STATE READY TO OPEN THE CASE AT BOISE.

Summary of the Charge—Harry Orchard, Who Confessed, to Be an Important Witness—Prosecution Pleased with the Jurors.

Boise, Idaho, June 4.—After weeks of tiresome questioning, the jury in the trial of Harry Orchard, the Haywood, the labor leader and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with the murder of former Gov. Steenberg, was completed at 12:30 Monday with the acceptance of O. V. Sebern, a farmer.

The Haywood jury complete, is as follows:

Thomas B. Goss, real estate; Fletcher McLean, rancher; Dr. D. Gilman, farmer; Daniel Clark, farmer; George Powell, rancher; O. V. Sebern, farmer; H. F. Messacar, farmer; Lee Slevin, farmer; J. A. Robertson, farmer; Levi Smith, carpenter; A. P. Tamm, carpenter; John C. Russell, farmer.

Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock James H. Hawley for the state will address the court with the state's opening statement. He has prepared no manuscript and said that he would be very brief.

What the State Will Charge.

He will speak of the charge that Haywood, conspiring with Moyer, Pettibone and Simpkins and others of the alleged "inner circle" of the Western Federation of Miners, plotted a campaign of terror that had the purpose of overthrowing by assassination of those opposed to the organization, and the retention and increase of control and power within the organization. It will allege that the explosion at the Vindicator mine, the blowing up of the Independence depot, the murder of Light Greenway, a member of the Denver City Council, Arthur Collier of Telluride, the alleged blowing up of Fred Bradley, of San Francisco, and the alleged attempts on the lives of former Gov. Peabody and Judge Gabbert and Godard, of Colorado, were all acts in a single scheme, which the chief agent of the Western Federation of Miners was to be charged that Haywood was the genius of and the strength behind the great plot, and that Steenberg was added to the list because of his part during the labor troubles in north Idaho.

It will be shown that Haywood and his accomplices, stalling and working in the background, planned the long list of crimes and sent Harry Orchard and Steve Adams as hired executioners.

Orchard to Testify.

The state's testimony will begin on the subject of the Caldwell tragedy in which Frank Steenberg was blown to death by a bomb on the night of December 30, 1905, and then the presence at Caldwell of Harry Orchard and John L. Simpkins, a member of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners, who actually murdered Steenberg, will be connected with the scene and crime, and then Orchard will be called to the stand to retell the confession which it is alleged he made to Detective McParland. After that will come the effort to discredit the Orchard story and to clinch by other testimony the general part of the Western Federation of Miners and the particular part of William D. Haywood in connection with the murder of Frank Steenberg.

Attorneys will endeavor to impress satisfaction with the jury, but counsel for Haywood, while believing the jurors honest of purpose, call attention to the fact that none of them has any natural kinship to labor organizations.

KILLED IN AUTO SMASH.

Harry Hamlin, Rich Buffalo Man, Meets Instant Death.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 4.—Harry Hamlin, one of the best known and wealthiest of Buffalo, was killed in an automobile accident on the Williamson road a mile north of the city late Monday afternoon. Mr. Hamlin's automobile collided with a light wagon driven by Jacob Schaller, a resident of Buffalo. Hamlin was hurried to the roadside and immediately killed.

Schaller was badly hurt, but will recover. John Beckel, a 12-year-old boy, who was in Schaller's rig, was fatally injured. Both his legs were broken and his skin flayed.

Mr. Hamlin was 50 years old and lived at 1014 Delaware avenue. He was the son of the late Cleary J. Hamlin, famous as a breeder of trotting horses. He is survived by a widow and one son, Chauncey J. Hamlin.

Shoots Two, Kills Himself.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 4.—The census bureau Monday issued a preliminary report showing that Wisconsin during the calendar year had produced 2,300,000 more of human beings than 1900, adding 307,876,000 shillings. The report shows a decrease of 212,000,000 feet of lumber in that state since the previous year.

BEGIN ST. PAUL CATHEDRAL

CORNER STONE FOR MAGNIFICENT BUILDING LAID.

St. Paul, Minn., June 5.—The corner stone of the fourth cathedral of St. Paul, which, when completed four years hence, will probably surpass any other American church in architectural distinction and beauty, was laid Sunday afternoon. Participants in the ceremony comprised Archbishops Ireland and Gibbons of Dubuque, Bishop Glenn of St. Louis, the bishops of Oregon City, the bishops of Winona, St. Cloud and Duluth, Minn.; Sioux Falls and Lead, S. D., and Fargo, N. D., all assisting Archbishop Ireland in the provinces of St. Paul; a score of other bishops from various states, and 200 clergymen. About this notable group were ecclesiastics from 400 parishes.

The cathedral will be completed in about four years. It will cost upwards of $3,000,000, of which $700,000 has already been subscribed.

Bishop McGolrick of Duluth, as senior bishop of the province, laid the corner stone with silver trowel and mallet.

Archbishop Ireland made the principal address and read this message from the president:

"White House, Washington, June 1.—Archbishop Ireland, St. Paul: In the name of our country of ours liberty and religion we never had so much forward hand in hand. I congratulate all those gathered to witness the laying of the corner stone of the new cathedral of St. Paul. I congratulate those who are to worship there, and I congratulate especially you personally. (Signed) 'Theodore Roosevelt.'

AFFECTS TAXATION OF GRAIN.

Important Decision Made by Minnesota Supreme Court.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 1.—The supreme court has decided that the Northwestern Elevator company of Minneapolis need not pay the personal property assessment in 25,000 bushels of grain stored in its elevators at the Minnesota transfer. The only tax that came in collected from the Northwestern Elevator company is on its office furniture, which amounts to about $250.

This is considered a most important decision, as it may affect every elevator company in the state in regard to taxation of the grain in the elevators. The only tax on the grain in the northwestern elevator at the Minnesota transfer was about $250.

VOLVIA IS Deposed.

Chicago, May 29.—William Glenn Volvya, pastor of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church, has been deposed as temporal head of Zion City, and the opposition to him is rejoicing in the belief that his spiritual leadership also is dead.

After that Harry Orchard, who actually deposed Steenberg, will be connected with the scene and crime, and then Orchard will be called to the stand to retell the confession which it is alleged he made to Detective McParland. After that will come the effort to discredit the Orchard story and to clinch by other testimony the general part of the Western Federation of Miners and the particular part of William D. Haywood in connection with the murder of Frank Steenberg.

MONUMENT TO JEFF DAVIS IS UNVEILED

OBJECT OF CALL FOR PUBLIC LANDS CONVENTION.

VETERANS IN GRAY DEDICATE MEMORIAL TO PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERACY.

Great Military Parade Precedes the Ceremonies—Daughter of Leader of "The Lost Cause" Puts Cord of "The Lost Cause" on the Monument.

Releasing Covering.

Richmond, Va., June 4.—A memorial to Jefferson Davis, only president of the Confederacy, was unveiled Monday as the crowning feature of the annual reunion of the Confederate veterans. The cord of "The Lost Cause," in which every veteran in the army who was physically able, as well as many who were not, participated with energy and enthusiasm.

The unveiling was the fruition of 18 years of patient and loving effort, and many men whose hearts and minds were fired in the cause of the Confederacy, and who are now dead, were present. The thanks of the entire south were offered by the orators of the occasion to the United Daughters of the Confederacy, whose work it was to release the cord.

The speakers were brilliant and decorated. There was scarcely a house or business building in the city that was not profusely draped with confederate colors and bunting. This was especially true of Franklin street and Monument avenue, where the cord for the dedication to the monument was to be placed.

The parade started at 11:30 o'clock.

The military feature was similar to the parade on the first day of the reunion, when the status of Maj. Gen. J. E. B. Stuart was unveiled, but there were far more veterans in gray in the line of march. The confederate veterans marched in honor of their revered leader Gen. Smith Bolling, of Petersburg, Va., was chief marshal.

The ceremonies at the Davis monument were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, of Richmond, chaplain general. The dedications were made by Gen. Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, followed by Mayor Carlton McCarthy, of Richmond, who introduced Gen. Evans as orator of the day.

Davis' Daughter Unveils Cord.

Mrs. J. C. Glenn, of Colorado Springs, Colo., daughter of Mrs. Davis, pulled the cord that held the canvas which covered the bronze statue. Her two young sons caught the two cords used to complete the unveiling. There was a second or two of absolute silence, then cheering.

Garlands were placed around the base of the statue. Richmond howitzer batteries began firing the presidential salute. Afterward garlands were placed on the pedestal of the monument.

Mrs. Norman Randolph, of Richmond, chairman of the committee of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, addressed the crowd to which a response was made by Mrs. William J. Bohan, of Mississippi, president of the Bayou City chapter. He was followed by Mayor Evans.

PINE CITY MINN. June 7, 1907

PINE CITY orange dealers are sharing a brisk trade. Messes is quite prevalent.

SEVERAL towns are after the state training school for girls and the town offering the best inducements may get it—may get it.

DELMAR is in the public eye more than any other city in the state. And its two excellent daily newspapers are doing more to put it there than any of us ordinary mortals are able to comprehend.

A copy of the Minot (N. D.) Optic showing a very progressive historical edition, has reached our sanctum sanctorum. It contains 84 pages and is conceded the largest paper ever issued from a North Dakota shop.

NORTH BRANCH business men have decided to put on a grand, monster celebration July 4th. It is time that the Pine City business men get their heads together and decide upon an appropriate observance of our Natal day.

The Wholesale Liquor Dealers association says, "whisky is whisky" That certainly is plausible reasoning—but that does not prevent it from making fools of those who get a little too much of it under the belt.—Review, North Branch.

The laying of the corner stone for the new cathedral at St. Paul last Saturday marked another advance in the building of costly and beautiful church edifices in this state. The Capitol City will be honored by the ennobling aspirations of those who have made the monument a possibility.

The county commissioners are considering the building of a separate ward for consumptives at the county poor farm. It is reported that an incipient case of the white plague has been discovered at the county farm, and the addition is deemed a necessity. Steps to prevent the spread of the dread disease cannot be taken too soon, and the matter—if found serious—should receive favorable consideration at once.

Citizen dissipation is getting to be so common in some of our schools that it fails to attract attention. Minnesota is to be congratulated on having a man at the head of its state university, whose strength of character so stamps itself upon the personnel of the student body that close observers say that the moral tone of the students at our state university is far above that of the average institution of the kind. In selecting men to stand at the head of our educational institutions only such men as are fit examples for the student body to follow should be chosen. The influence of Christian life in a body of students is far better than many imagine.

Mrs. A. S. McPhee and children arrived Saturday from Duluth to take up their residence here for the summer. Mr. McPhee arrived a week sooner in order to take down the storm windows and to do other spring stunts about the house. His sealer at the log loading works.

LOCALS.

J. W. Bassett, Jos. Littfin, B. Purvis and L. Bahr, all with the firm of Barrett & Barrett of St. Paul, spent Sunday at Pokegama lake where they caught a whole raft of fish. They were registered at The Inn.

Misses Clara Claussen and Theob. Wing, teachers in the grades, have returned to their respective homes, the former to Albert Lea and the latter to St. Cloud. Miss Claussen will not return to teach next year.

Walter Odenthal went to Hamline Monday to take up the study of steam engineering at the state agricultural school. He is the young man who nearly lost his arm last fall while working about an engine at the state fair grounds.

In a short local in last week's issue of the Pioneer we stated that Eddie Gilt, of Rock Creek, had been suffering from spinal meningitis. This statement was incorrect. His trouble was typhoid fever and he is now getting along nicely.

Little Rosendom Barnum met with an accident Monday afternoon which might very easily have proven serious. While playing about the house with a number of companions of tender age the end of an air gun held by one of the little ones accidentally came in contact with her right eye and the member was nearly blinded.

A moving picture show was presented at the Stekl hall Wednesday and last evenings and gave a clean, interesting expo. The company was a trifle above the average as a couple of "real actors" were carried and their antics served to put the bald headed row in good humor while at the same time giving those further back hours of joy.

Prof. and Mrs. Peter Olesen left Tuesday for Hamline "U" where they attended the graduating exercises at that institution. They will spend a large portion of the summer with relatives in Waterville and

SMALL DEPOSITS

MANY of our most influential citizens began their business careers by opening small accounts in a bank and consistently depositing thereafter such sums as they could save. All large accounts have grown from small ones and the bank is really of more help to the small than the large depositor. A growing bank account is a most valuable asset. It makes its owner acquainted with business men, business methods and establishes a valuable credit.

You can open an account with this bank by depositing one dollar. We will furnish you with a nice pass book and lend you our aid in accumulating a fortune.
