A PROGRESSIVE BANQUET

Four Couples of the Newlyweds of Pine City's Social Swim Indulge in a Novel Halloween Function.

The four young married couples of this place, viz. Dr. Froehlich and wife, Robt. Harte, and wife, E. M. Smith and wife and Dr. Knapp and wife, formed a progressive dinner party on Halloween evening.

The first course was served at the residence of Dr. Froehlich and consisted of oyster soup, pickles and fruit. The dining room was decorated with jack-o-lanterns on the walls, the Doctor's skeleton which was covered with a white robe occupied one corner and in another corner on a little table stood another skull and crossbones. The center piece for the table on which the delicious repast was spread was another skull filled with fruit. The Doctor evidently is proud of his profession.

The second course was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Harte and consisted of chicken pie, potatoes, turnips and other vegetables, and some very delicious rolls. The decorations were fine, a large cabbage with the center scooped out and filled with fruit and vegetables formed the center piece for the table and the portieres, between the sitting room and parlor were strings on which were tied apples, carrots, onions, turnips, potatoes, and other fruits and vegetables.

Dr. Knapp's rooms were next repaired to where the company were regaled with salads of all kinds and fruit. These rooms were very tastefully decorated with jack-o-lanterns, fruit and vegetables.

E. M. Smith's home was next visited and the company served with the desert of which pumpkin pie formed the principle part, fruit being also served. This house was also decorated with vegetables and fruit. After this course, the happy company went again to Bob Harte's for their ice cream cake, nuts, and candies. After this, their last course they played Halloween games till a late hour.

These four young married couples make it a point to spend at least one evening in each week together.

A Tie Game

The game of foot ball played last Saturday afternoon between the Webster high school boys of this place and the Sandstone team on the gridiron on the north side of the river resulted in a tie, the score being 5 to 5. The locals made their touchdown in four plays after the game began in the first half by running around Sandstone's ends, but the boys that were unable to score. Sandstone team made their first try in the first part of the second half by line bucking, which by their greater weight they were enabled to break the boys of the local high school. Jim O'Brien, the local center and the heaviest man on the team was hurt in the first half by being the stick wrenched, and Cliff Breckenridge, the local quarterback had to be carried off the field by a game light and if they had been any where near the weight of their opponents they would have had a walk away, as they were together and played foot ball all the time, but their opponents simply crushed them by their weight. When Pine City had the ball they simply show "no it end game, but it was a different story when Sandstone had the ball, they would throw their weight against the line and down it was. This thing it all together it was a good game, and thoroughly enjoyed by those who witnessed it.

A GROWING INDUSTRY

The Pine City Brewery Overhauled and Enlarged, and is Turning Out a First-Class Product.

The Pine City Brewery has been undergoing some needed improvements during the past week.

About a month ago Mrs. Buselmeyer put in a new steam brew-kettle, and after the kettle was in working order it was found that the other machinery was entirely too small for the brew-kettle, and while it was found necessary to enlarge, Mrs. Buselmeyer thought it would pay her better to put in the machinery for making her a first class brewery. She sent and got the latest style of a brewing outfit to be found on the market, and sent for three men from the Northwestern copper and brass works, of St. Paul to come up and do the work and place the machinery.

The men with the assistance of Fritz Johnson and the three men working in the brewery have been over a week fitting up the machinery and getting it ready for service. On Wednesday, Carl Buselmeyer, the brewer, ran off his first brew since the improved machinery has been put in place.

Carl is a good brewer and with the addition of new machinery will be able to make a better grade of beer than ever before. Buselmeyer's beer has the reputation around here of being the best made in the Northeastern portion of Minnesota, and with the latest improvements should be the best beer made in the state. Our reason why Buselmeyer's beer is the best is that there are no drugs used in their manufacture—nothing but the pure malt and hops, and when these ingredients are used a good, wholesome nutritious beer is the result.

Mrs. Buselmeyer, during the time she owned the brewery has built it up until now it is one of the best paying industries we have in our village, they not only supply every saloon in the town but also the saloons at Hinckley, Rutledge and Grasston.

McGinley Entertainers

The entertainment given in Stekl's hall Tuesday evening by the Bob & Eva McGinley Musical Comedy Co. was well attended, the chairs and benches being all filled with a very appreciative audience. This was Bob and Eva's seventh appearance before a Pine City audience and the packed house that greeted them last Tuesday evening is a good recommendation of what they had done in the past. The entertainment this week in Stekl's hall was a clean, snappy production, one of the best seen here for some time. The violin playing by Bob, and Eva as the school girl, were two features that are deserving of special mention, as was also Miss Levette Hoskins in her character sketch "I Waited at the Church," and "Illustrated Songs." Taking the entertainment from beginning to end it was one to drive away the blues and make the old young, and take a new lease on life. If Bob and Eva ever come this way again they will be assured of a good house.

The students of the high school held a Halloween party in the assembly room at the school house last Thursday evening. All those who were present announced spending a very pleasant evening.

50 YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, of Pine Town, Pass the Golden Mile Stone on Life's Journey.

W. H. Russell and wife celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Sunday, the 8th inst. Mr. Russell informs us that he told his wife he was ready to start out on another fifty year journey if she would agree to take as good care of him for the coming fifty years as she has in the past. He and Mrs. Russell are enjoying excellent health, and look as though they might live for a great many years yet to come. Mr. Russell is one of Pine County's successful farmers, and lives about five miles southeast of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Russell are two of Pine City's oldest residents, they having come here just after the railroad was built through here, in fact they came the fall that the road was put through.

When Mr. Russell and wife first came to Pine City there was nothing here but a trading store for the Indians, and a saloon. They have seen Pine City grow from a lumber town to one of the best farming towns in the state.

Mrs. Russell has kept a diary of the doings, growth and weather of this part of the state ever since she came here and the same makes very interesting reading. We have at different times printed extracts from her record, and our readers have had an opportunity to profit by her wisdom. Last spring we published the weather conditions for about thirty odd years showing the temperature at the same time of the year during that time.

We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Russell will live a great many years together and that their married life in the future will be as pleasant as it has been for the past fifty years.

Hotel Agnes Changes Hands.

Yesterday afternoon arrangements were completed whereby W. F. Springer, of Albert Lee came into possession of Hotel Agnes.

Mrs. Rose M. Grater took the hotel last spring, having bought out Mr. Slocumb. During the time she has had the management of this popular hotel it has been doing a good business, and now it is conceded to be one of the best hotels in this part of the state.

Mr. Springer is an old hotel man, he having run a hotel at Albert Lee prior to a month ago, for four years, and before that time for seventeen years he had been connected with railroad eating houses and restaurants. Mr. Springer has a family consisting of a wife and three daughters. Mrs. Springer will arrive here on the noon train today, and after her arrival Mr. Springer can tell better when he will move his family here. He informed us that he has everything fixed up for the winter at his home, as he intended to take a rest this winter, but when he arrived here and saw the hotel it made him feel like working again and he purchased Mrs. Grater's interest. We are pleased to welcome Mr. Springer and family.

Mrs. Grater will visit in Dakota for a couple of months at least. We are sorry to lose Mrs. Grater, but our loss will be some one else's gain.

Debaters Meet Today.

The preliminary debate for the purpose of selecting debaters for the contest between the local school and the Duluth high school will be held at the school house this afternoon at 2:40 o'clock, and a cordial invitation to extended to the public. The question to be discussed is "Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Subsidize the Southern States for the Education of the Southern Negro." The speakers on the affirmative are Edna Bede, Redolph Wasack, James Clark and Archie Kenall; negative, John Hunt, Bernard Vaughan, William Labodney and Enoch Anderson.

A NEW SOURCE OF PROFIT

A Paying Market Offered for Flax Straw—A Product Which in Many Cases has Gone to Waste.

Are you a burner of flax straw? Millions of tons are burned by farmers and growers every autumn, because there has been no market for the so-called "waste" after the seed is secured. But that enormous destruction of splendid fibre is to be stopped.

These millions of tons of "rubbish" are to be transformed into millions of dollars—not magically by the waving of an enchanter's wand, but in a thoroughly practical, progressive, industrial way, that from a fine commercial beginning, will rapidly develop until there will be a profitable market for three or four times the amount of flax now raised in this country.

Do you know why there has never before been such a demand for American flax straw, which averages far better than that used by Europeans, to make the world's linen?

It is because the only methods heretofore known for converting flax straw into linen fabric required so much time (16 to 20 weeks) that America was not able to compete with Europe, where the work is done by miserably paid peasants—a class of labor wholly unknown in this country. That is why American flax straw, suited to making the finest linen in the world, has been burned or allowed to decay in the open fields year after year.

But—after two thousand years of waiting, during which time linen fibre has been secured by exactly the same slow methods that were employed by the early Egyptians—science has come to our relief. An American inventor, Benjamin Cushing Mudre, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has perfected some wonderful mechanical and chemical processes (owned exclusively by the Oxford Linen Mills) that in the space of twelve hours transforms flax straw into a beautiful white linen fibre, ready for spinning.

Contrast that with the ancient method still used in Europe requiring from 16 to 30 weeks, and consider what it means to the American flax grower and to the American manufacturer.

And the remarkable economic advantage of the Mudre processes and inventions is that they get this beautiful fibre from the matured plant, so that the farmer or special grower will get the full value of a crop, the straw being as marketable as the seed. That will increase by millions of dollars the average value of flax crops.

The Mudre processes start with the plant just as it is pulled and take care of the "ripping" (seed harvesting) and the working of straw into perfected fibre—all in one operation. The entire plant as it comes from the field is put into one end of the mechanical apparatus, and as it passes through the different compartments the seed is removed, the plant is beaten and broken so as to loosen the woody portions (which are removed in the next stage) and the remaining fibre is discharged into chemical baths from which it emerges an exquisitely white, soft and firm product ready for the spinners.

This tremendous economy of time, that in twelve hours what has heretofore required from four to six months, will revolutionize the linen industry. Instead of spending from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 a year to get linen from Europe as they now do, Americans will get a better line on at home and give our farmers the benefit of the money spent abroad for linen goods.

The Oxford Linen Mills are now preparing for their initiatory work at Gardner, Mass., and will soon be in the field as flax-buyers. They will handle full crops of straw crops only, as may suit the convenience of farmers and growers. As they can get so much better results from

CAFFEREY POSTS SANDERS

POLITICAL SITUATION IN LOUISIANA IS DRAMATIC.

Lieutenant Governor's Friends Refuse to Let Him Fight with Son of Former Senator.

New Orleans, Nov. 4.—The firm reply of Lieut. Gov. J. V. Sanders Sunday to what has been universally held to be a challenge by a duelist by Douglas Cafferey, son of the late United States Senator Douglas Cafferey, has created a dramatic political situation in Louisiana.

Another attack, entirely foreign to the personal combat, increases the tension. The practically rival proclamations of the lieutenant governor and of Gov. Blanchard of the coming extra session of the legislature were brought face to face by the governor's arrival here Sunday from the east.

Early Sunday morning, in close conformity to the code of honor, Mr. Sanders issued a written reply to the statement of Mr. Cafferey. This statement declared that the lieutenant governor holds himself personally responsible for the utterances which caused the trouble and that he was prepared to meet that responsibility and Mr. Cafferey knows where to find him.

Proceeding this statement two representatives of each man in the dispute had held conferences and Mr. Sanders' friends had declared firmly they would not accept a challenge in accordance with the dueling code but would accept the lieutenant governor could violate the statute law making dueling a crime.

Next followed the "posting" of several sections of the state by Mr. Cafferey with hand bills stating that satisfaction had been refused him by Mr. Sanders. These hand bills declared that the lieutenant governor had called some of Mr. Cafferey's statements untrue.

The discretion of both the lieutenant governor and Mr. Cafferey is relied on to prevent a personal encounter. There are fears, however, that friends of the disputants may be drawn into a serious quarrel.

BRITISH RAILWAY STRIKE IMPENDS

UNION VOTES TO CALL ONE AND OUTLOOK IN ISLAND IS VERY GLOOMY.

Lloyd-George is Active—Some Hope That Board of Trade President May Alvert the Trouble — Railroads Baffle Socialism.

London, Nov. 2.—Notwithstanding the powerful influences that have been at work for some time past in the effort of averting trouble in the British railroad world, there seems to be but little probability of preventing a strike which will have the most serious consequences to the traveling public and the men and companies involved, as well as to commercial interests generally.

The action taken Friday by the executive committee of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, in passing a resolution to call a general strike, leaves little or no hope for a favorable outcome. This society always has been looked upon as one of the most conservative of the labor unions, and its leader, Richard Bell, M. P., has been noted for his efforts to prevent strikes and for his utterances in favor of the rights of capital as well as the rights of the working man.

Don't Recognize the Union. While there is a long list of alleged grievances, the principal one has been the recognition of the union, and this the railroad companies, whose chief spokesman is Lord Claud Hamilton, are determined not to concede.

Employees Blame Socialism. The railroads charge that the present agitation is the growth of socialism and curiously enough, while this idea was being voiced by Lord Claud Hamilton Friday night in a declaration that socialism was "irreversible and immoral in its teachings," Mr. Lloyd George was averring in his address to-day introduced to "right the wrong" and that there was no danger but a "certain advantage in socialism inasmuch as it stirred the people to think."

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 5.—Grief-stricken because the woman he loved refused another, a well-dressed, refined-appearing man, giving his name as Herbert Welch, entered the apartments of James La France and took up his abode in the Hiawatha lodging house on Broadway Monday and after asking permission to use the telephone, sprang to a bureau there and revolver in hand, placing up his breast, shot himself fatally in the head. It is believed he gave an assumed name. His home was in Michigan.

LAD SHOTS GIRL AND HIMSELF. Norfolk, Va., Nov. 5.—Joe Dean, 18 years old, called Julia Johnson, also in her teens, to the door of her boarding house Monday night, and shot her through the abdomen. He then shot himself in the temple. Both will die. Jealousy is said to have been the cause.

TIMBER FOR ONLY 20 YEARS

SUPPLY IN UNITED STATES WILL THEN BE EXHAUSTED.

Government Forester Pinchot Sounds Warning Saying Natural Resources Must Be Protected.

Washington, Nov. 5.—In 20 years the timber supply in the United States, on government reserves and private holdings, at the present rate of cutting, will be exhausted, although it is possible that the growth of that period might extend the arrival of the famine another five years.

This announcement was made Monday by Gifford Pinchot, the government forester, who has just returned from a six months' inspection trip, on which he traveled 10,000 miles, in studying the country. Such people as he said that the danger of the pinchot should not be underestimated. He said that the United States uses more timber per capita than any other country, and that every man, woman and child would be affected. He decried the policy of discounting the future of the country by failure to protect the natural resources, and he advised everyone who has not already done so to read President Roosevelt's speech at Memphis on this general subject.

About one-fifth of the forest area of the country is in government reserve, but Mr. Pinchot called attention to the fact that as privately owned timber lands are better than the government reserves, as a general matter the government does not control one-fifth of the timber supply. The forest service will ask congress for more money and more men in order to extend the service, and will push the work of reforesting the denuded timber lands. Mr. Pinchot says, however, that it is utterly beyond the possibility of the service to meet the situation, and prevent serious trouble. One hope entertained in the Appalachian forest and an effort will be made to protect this and promote the growth there.

President Roosevelt shortly called a conference in Washington of experts of the natural resources. The conference will be for the purpose of developing sentiment in favor of the administration's policy of looking into the future resources, such as timber, coal, oil and gas, and the various minerals. It is believed by administration officials that when the people realize that the lumber price which began in 1900 and has continued rapidly since that time, was based not on actual shortage of supply but upon the fact that the owners of private tracts of timber land were merely looking into the future, the government's policy will be indorsed without question.

Interesting Items Gathered in the Gopher State

Rattlesnake Loss.
St. Paul—Passengers at the Union depot were given a bad scare as the result of the escape of a Texas rattlesnake from a box in the charge of the Wells Fargo Express company. The snake was one of six consigned to E. J. Erickson, Hamilton, and had been shipped from Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 7. According to the officials of the express company the consignee refused to accept the snakes, stating that they had written the lake for the purpose for which he wished them, therefore the snakes had been kept at the express company's Union depot office since Sept. 7.

During the early hours of the morning one of the larger snakes managed to get out of the box and crept across the platform. Several passengers who were boarding the early morning train saw the snake and a panic followed.

Finally a brakeman on the Great Northern who had evidently had some experience in handling rattlers, picked up the snake and tried to shove him back into the box, which was then tightly nailed.

Faregry Charged.
Brookings—Charged with a series of bold forgeries, Mrs. Almee Lloyd of San Francisco, twenty-two years old and endowed with a charming personality, is a prisoner in the county jail. Mrs. Lloyd was Miss Schick before her marriage and was well known here during her childhood and early girlhood. She is a native of St. Paul.

Several days ago Mrs. Lloyd came to Rochester from the West. She had not been in this city for ten years, and her old friends gave her a cordial welcome.

She made numerous purchases about town, and it is in connection with these transactions that it is alleged the law was transgressed.

Bodily Bruised.
Franklin—Mrs. A. J. Olin received painful blows while climbing a gas-bill stove. She was pouring a fresh supply from a five-gallon can, which was partly filled, into the county fall when the fall became ignited by coming in contact with a heated stove, causing an explosion and setting fire to Mrs. Olin's dress. Her hair was singed and her face, hands and other parts of her body were severely burned. She ran out of doors and neighbors helped her to another bed. She is in her clothing and an infant child was sleeping in a baby carriage close by, but when the vehicle took fire the baby was rescued unharmed.

Suicide.
St. Paul—Miss Rachel Goldstein, 143 State street, returned home with a portion of the wedding tray she had purchased during the afternoon, and saw, thru a window, the body of her father, Samuel Goldstein, hanging from a rope. She flew to the alarm and several neighbors broke into the house and cut down the body. It was thought that Goldstein was still alive. A physician was called and pronounced him dead. Coroner A. W. Miller decided that it was a case of suicide.

Lid Is Tilted.
East Grand Forks—Six affidavits were mailed to Attorney General Young to call his attention to the fact that Mayor John O'Leary has failed to get the lid on open gambling in East Grand Forks. His political career has been varied, he having held office of great trust among others that of secretary for foreign affairs. Salvador will have as chairman of its delegation Dr. Salvador Gallegos, who represented his country in Costa Rica at the time of the negotiation of the San Jose treaty in 1906. He has had a long and brilliant political career, having been for many years secretary for foreign affairs. He will be accompanied by Dr. Salvador Rodriguez, a lawyer, public writer and an accomplished orator, who represented his country in the San Jose conference.

MAYFLOWER CAPTAIN

is an Officer of Wide and Varied Experience—President Impressed by Ability on Panama Trip Influence Selection.
Washington—"He is a good shipmate," is the opinion of the officers of the navy regarding Lieutenant Commander Carl T. Vogelgesang, who has just been assigned to the command of the Mayflower, President Roosevelt's private yacht.

He is not only one well liked in the service, but possesses a high order of ability and has had an eventful and successful career in the navy. President Roosevelt's new privateer was born in California, and entered the naval academy Sept. 6, 1886, and was graduated July 1, 1892. From that time the department made him an ensign. He did duty successively on the wooden cruiser Mahican, the supply ship Celtic and was in the bureau of navigation when the war with Spain began and he was ordered to the gunboat Hancock which did blockade duty on the Cuban coast. At the close of the Spanish war Lieutenant Commander Vogelgesang made an expedition around the Isthmus of Panama to gather information for the government. As a recognition for this service he was given a medal of honor. Then he went around Cape Horn, with Capt. Barker, and to the Philippines, where he was placed in command of one of the light draught launchers and conducted a vigorous campaign against the hostile natives in the dangerous country on the north of Manila Bay. It required a resourceful and courageous man for this duty. But he met the situation to the satisfaction of his superiors, and succeeded in clearing the region of this undesirable element, and brought about peace, which has never been broken.

In 1901 he returned to the United States and was assigned to the battleship Wisconsin, and was in command of the turret in which a gun crew broke the record for rapid and accurate gun practice. Later he was a general inspector of materials, and his next assignment was to the first class battleship Kentucky, where he remained until transferred to duty at the bureau of navigation in the navy department.

When the battleship Louisiana went to Panama with President Roosevelt on board, Lieutenant Commander Vogelgesang was assigned to duty as a general inspector of materials, and his next assignment was to the first class battleship Kentucky, where he remained until transferred to duty at the bureau of navigation in the navy department.

A HUNTING PARSON. WILL SEEK SCHMITZ' PLACE.

Preached His Sermons Seated on a Saddle Top Stool.

London—At the picturesque old church of Westwick in Warwickshire, there is to be seen a saddle-top stool.

Saddle-Top Stool Once Used in Pulpit.

made according to the wish of a former incumbent who was a keen follower of the hounds. The parson himself became the parson of his life, so much so that he actually had the stool made and placed in his pulpit, and seated astride of it he preached his sermons Sunday by Sunday throughout his parsonage.

The proceeding was a novel one for this country, but in Australia horseback services are not so rare.

One of them took place some years ago in a parish, which as well as the surrounding district had been visited by serious floods. The dwelling houses were many feet deep in water, but the people were determined not to forego their Sabbath services, so they set out on horseback for their little chapel, only to find on arriving there that the water was actually had the stool made and placed in his pulpit, and seated astride of it he preached his sermons Sunday by Sunday throughout his parsonage.

PINE COUNTY PIONEER.

Entered in the Post Office at Pine City as Second-Class Matter.

PINE CITY, MINN., Nov. 8, 1907

The U. S. war department is to have an arship built at a cost of $10,000. Such toys come high.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has issued a proclamation naming Thursday, Nov. 28th as a day of national Thanksgiving and prayer.

A Tomp county farmer this week sold his crop of clover seed, raised on 19 acres of land, for $950, netting over $50 per acre for his crop.

According-to-press dispatches Le Sueur county has a peripatetic ghost, which travels around the country (rightening people out of their wits, and the farmers have petitioned the preachers to lay the spook.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT set a practical example of good citizenship to the stay-at-home voters last Tuesday, traveling 225 miles and consuming 18 hours of valuable time in order to cast his vote at his home at Oyster Bay.

A VERY successful farmers' institute was held at Barham last Monday, Superintendent McGuire, of the Grand Rapids experimental station, conducting the meeting. A splendid dinner was served the visitors at noon, at the expense of the Barham Commercial club.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press says that Gen. C. C. Andrews, state forestry commissioner, has just returned from a trip in Itasca county, where he inspected a new growth of pine on a tract cut over about eighteen years ago. The tract is about 12 miles west of Hibbing in the iron ore country, and he found the land well stocked with a new growth of white pine.

EDITOR ELBERT BRED, in his last issue of the North Branch Review, announces the sale of his paper to Mr. Dare, a son of Editor Dare, of the Elk River Star News. Mr. Bred has made a good paper of the Review, and the Pioneer hopes he will not remain long out of the harness. Here's success to the new management of the Review. With "Dare and Dare" for a motto the future success of the Review is assured.

THE PIONEER is under obligations to Prof. J. H. Hay, of Thief River Falls, for a copy of the program of the annual meeting of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational Association, which meets at Crookston, Nov. 14 and 15 next. The program as arranged by Prof. Hay, the president of the association, is extended, varied and interesting, and the meeting can not fail to prove of great benefit to the educational interests of the state. The territory included in the association extends from Lake Traverse to the Canadian line, and from Bemidji west to the Red River, also taking in eastern portions of the Dakotas. Five hundred or more teachers are expected to be in attendance at this meeting of the Association.

The lowering of the prices of commodities, as the result of the monetary stringency, will at least work no harm to the general interests of the country, whatever disappointments it may bring in particular cases. Prices have been too high. Witness the suspension of some of the many irrigation projects undertaken by the reclamation service. That suspension was the result of such advances in the cost of labor and materials as made the prosecution of the works inadvisable, least the cost of the reclaimed lands be made too high for the settler. Many private undertakings requiring heavy outlays were similarly postponed. With prices restored to normal levels, they are likely to be resumed. If labor gets less per day, the laborer will have to pay less for fuel in the train and there. The main aim is that there is plenty of food, plenty of fuel and wear.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles Pine City People Recommend It One application of Doan's Ointment stops itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum, any skin eruption or skin itching, as the cheapest remedy to use, because a little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Samuel Hearn's testimony to prove it: Samuel Hearn, farmer, Rural Route No. 3, living northeast of Pine City, Minn., says: "I have been troubled with itching hemorrhoids and eruptions of the skin and face for a long while. My work was greatly disturbed my rest at night and I would often be obliged to get up and put something on the itching parts. My remedies but received no relief until I commenced using Doan's Ointment, which I procured at the Breckenridge Pharmacy. After a few applications of this remedy, the soreness disappeared, and with the skin eruptions, and I am well pleased that I endorse Doan's Ointment. For sale by all druggists. Price Sixty-Four Cents. Buffalo, N. Y. Agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ducing the General, said: "The history of Christianity may be read in the story of but few lives. It is given to few men to live to see such great results of their labor of love as General Booth has seen. I would suggest that the result of his success is that he has preached a vital gospel—a gospel that takes hold of men and makes something of them, a vitalizing influence that makes men realize that they are allied with the great God. I consider it a distinct honor to introduce to you the greatest evangelist of our time, the greatest preacher the world has ever seen, since Paul—General William Booth." The great audience arose to its feet and cheered. The address of the aged leader was a resume of Salvation Army work and it abounded in anecdotes and incidents.

Winckley Lad Killed. Floyd Bjork, of Hinckley, was accidentally shot and killed by some party unknown Saturday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock. Dr. R. L. Wiseman was called and summoned a coroner's jury, who brought in the above verdict. The little fellow was about 8 years old and was shot in the head and instantly killed. The bullet was 22 calibre Winchester rifle bullet, and it was supposed that some boy and rabbit and the youngster being in range was shot with the above result.

Dr. Forbes Honored. Duluth News Tribune, (November 5). Dr. Robert Forbes, formerly of Duluth, was elected yesterday at Spokane, Washington, King, elected, as secretary for the home missions and church extension at the business session of the board of bishops of the Methodist church. Rev. Ward Platt, of the Northern New York conference was elected to succeed Dr. Forbes as assistant corresponding secretary. Dr. Forbes was a delegate from the Northern Minnesota conference.

A Painful Accident. We are sorry to learn that Wm. Tierney had the misfortune to break his leg Saturday afternoon. Mr. Tierney has been a cripple for a great many years, having been disabled by an injury when Pine City was in her infancy. He was stabbed in the right hip and ever since he has been compelled to walk with a cane and drag his foot after him, as he can scarcely lift it off the ground. It is his right leg, so we were informed, that is broken. Mr. Tierney's many friends in this place sympathize with him in his affliction.

A Barbaric Custom. We wish a law could be passed prohibiting the barbaric custom of opening caskets in public at church funerals. It is a relic of the dark ages and has no place in a civilized community. It jars on the sensibility of every tender chord, and is something that churches and undertakers should combine to put to an end. In nine-tenths of the cases it is merely a pandering to a ghoulish curiosity, of people who never speak to the deceased during his (or her) life time parade around the church, gape at the form of our loved one then go out of the presence of death to talk of the good deeds done in life, but to criticize the appearance of the poor clay that death has covered the body. Death is a sacred thing, and we are going on a long journey we do not make our adieus before a gaping crowd. We ought not to be expected to bid our lost dead good by while curious eyes fasten on our grief, and we ought not to be expected to sit in the house of mourning while people we never speak to, who have no claim on us or our loved one, jostle each other in their desire to view the remains, and then get together to gossip over what they saw or heard to see. We believe that a majority of people detest the painful funeral scenes such as we do witness here, and would be glad to see them ended, but are afraid to break a "custom." It is a duty the minister and undertaker owe to themselves and the long suffering public to put a stop to the exhibition and they will find the public only too glad to uphold them with a hearty amen.—Ex.

BLESSED BLINDNESS

By JUDITH SPENCER

"The condition of our streets is positively disgraceful," thought Miss Agnew, as she gathered up her gown and proceeded to pick her way over curbs, his boards and loose paving stones, where the crossing once had been. It was then that she saw him first.

He was a tall and well-made man, walking somewhat slowly ahead of her. Suddenly he stumbled and almost fell in recovering himself he turned and passed irresolute, as uncertain which way to go. He was now facing her and she saw his expression of helpless bewilderment, and saw, too, that he was blind.

With a sudden pity for his misfortune and predicament she advanced toward him. "Our streets are in such a chaotic condition," she said. "Will you allow me to pilot you to the opposite side?"

"I should be most grateful to you," he replied, lifting his hand. "I have not been in New York for some time and confess that I find myself decidedly at sea."

It seemed the strangest thing in the world to Mary Agnew to be walking thus familiarly by the side of an unknown man. And she felt that luck had favored her when she had run the gamut of that late life without meeting any of her friends. But the man was a gentleman, and something in his helplessness had appealed most strongly to her.

This unconventional episode haunted Mary Agnew all that day. She caught herself wondering again and again who her stranger was and who he had ventured out alone. Sometimes it seemed as if she had done something inexcusably bold and unwomanly, yet at the same time she felt that she would never have forgiven herself had she acted otherwise. His tall, straight figure and the face were still present with her when, late that evening, she entered a crowded ballroom on her father's arm.

Half an hour perhaps had passed when she saw her old friend Jack Beverton approaching with—could it be possible?—her stranger of the morning!

"Miss Agnew, allow me to introduce my cousin, Anthony Gordon, one of New York, lately of the far west and now of New York again." Jack's words seemed buried in her ears.

"I am glad to meet Mr. Gordon," she said quietly, though her heart was fluttering strangely, as it had not done since she was a young, young girl. She saw him start and turn eagerly toward her. Jack had now passed on, and among the crowd these two seemed quite alone.

"It is I!" I was hoping I might meet you again," Gordon said gladly. "The world is a small place, after all!"

"Yes," she assented, "yet I confess this is a great surprise..."

"You probably think that a blind man is even more out of place in a ballroom than in the city's crowded streets, and I agree with you; but Jack overpersuaded me and now I am glad I came! He promised to keep me in tow and to introduce me to a few of his friends with whom I could sit out an occasional dance."

Dressing on Dimes

Charming Princess Gown of Pink Crepe de Chine Not Costly for the Woman Who Understands the Art of Dress and Use of the Needle.

The charming princess gown shown of rose-pink crepe de Chine, its finely crinkled surface glistening beautifully under artificial light.

Looking at the finished gown, no one would dream it was constructed of separate waist and skirt patterns. Yet it is a fact, and each was carefully fitted to the waistline before the two were united in pieces effect, by enclosing bands of lace insertion and creasing.

In the model fine valenciennes lace was used, and heading of a heavier character was run through with velvet ribbon. Individual invention may easily provide substitutes for these bands without increasing the cost, may even decrease it by using up decorative bits of material, which may be at hand.

In Pink Crepe de Chine.

live bits of material, which may be at hand. Gathered strips of the crepe de Chine, or of thin ribbon matching it in color, might be used to connect the lace bands in place of the velvet ribbon. Expensive answers the same purpose, done in rose-pink of the exact color of the gown and threaded with chenille, or with narrow silver ribbon.

The gown illustrated requires no lining. It may, however, be worn over a princess slip of mercerized mall or organdie, matching the crepe de Chine in color, and ruched at the foot.

The cost of the material follows: 1/2 yds. of crepe de Chine, at 45 cents..... $2.25
1/2 yds. of tulle, at 25 cents..... .62
1/2 yds. of velvet ribbon, at 6 cents..... .30
1/2 yd. of silk lace, at 90 cents..... .45
1/2 yd. of heading ribbon, at 50 cents..... .25
2 spools of sewing-silk at 10 cents..... .20
Hooks and eyes..... .05
2 patterns (177 and 182), at 15 cents..... .30
Total..... $3.07

Home Gown Suggestions. Hand-work is as extravagantly used as ever upon house gowns, those for dinners and balls especially. A pale pink-blue is a shade that rises into prominence in all kinds of evening materials, satins, crepes, silks and mousseline, the sheer fabrics holding their own as persistently as one might expect from their popularity.

Purple is Fashionable. Purple is one of the fashionable colors this winter. Indeed, one might say that it is to be the most fashionable tone. Purple shading from a very light lavender into a dark hue is to be found in all kinds of materials, from cloth to delicate chiffon, and the handiest of costume dresses, made up in a combination of cloth, velvet, silk and gauze.

New Long Wrap in Serge. A long wrap of thick diagonal cheviot serge is in a soft, droll wash-leather shade, brided with a smokegray sateen in many lines closely set, crossing each other to form a lattice work all over, and, making a simulated belt, while collar cuffs and facings generally are of plain leather, also the hip buttons.

WILD TRIBE OF POETS.

Picturesque People That Are Found in the Philippines.

Among the wild tribes to be found in the Philippines are the Bogobos, the most picturesque people in the tropics. Their origin is unknown, and all sorts of opinions have been expressed concerning them. One tale told of them is that their first ancestors were all poets and musicians, and that the dislike for the practical which is always noticeable among them has come down through the generations.

Those that have taught among the Bogobos say that given a song or a poem to learn and they will study and dream over it for hours, but give the Bogobo a problem in arithmetic and he immediately becomes ill and wants to go home.

Living at Santa Cruz, in the Davao district, is Miss Benedict, a Chicago university woman, who is collecting everything peculiar to the Bogobo.

It has been found that the best work done by them is quite like that of the American Indian, but there is no other likeness in the races beyond that.

FAMILY'S SKIN TROUBLES. Eczema, Heat Rash, and Scalp Affections Afflict Different Members, But Cuticura Cures Them.

"My wife had eczema for five or six years. It was on her face and would come and go. We thought we would give the Cuticura Remedies a trial. We did so and she has never had a sign of eczema for four years. I myself used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment some time ago for falling hair. I now have a very heavy head of hair. We used Cuticura Remedies for our baby, who was nearly bald when young. She has very nice hair now. She is very fleshy, and we had so much trouble with her that we would have had her with Cuticura Soap, and then apply Cuticura Ointment, it would dry the heat up so much quicker than the best oil. Mr. H. B. Springville, 333 So. Capital Street, Iowa City, Ia., July 16, 1905, and Sept. 16, 1907."

Much the Same. His Wife—I see by the paper that at a wedding in Oklahoma last week the man promised to obey instead of the woman. I wonder how the marriage will turn out. Her husband—Oh, about like any other marriage, I suppose. He probably didn't mean it any more than a woman does when she says "I—Chicago Daily News."

FATTENING HOGS.

Make Decisions Early and Push the Feeding as Rapidly as Possible.

FOR A HORSE HARD TO CATCH.

Fasten Short Bit of Chain to His Fore Leg Above Knee.

For a horse that is hard to catch, take a chain about one and one-half feet long, and fasten it with a strap to his front leg, just above the knee.

Breaking a Hard Runner.

The chain will hang down and will not bother the horse while he walks, but if he runs, it strikes his other leg, and he will be forced to stop. They don't run far before they stop and let you catch them.

SPECIALIZING IN STOCK.

Farmers Should Follow Lines in Which They Will Have Best Success.

This is fast becoming an age of specialization. The farm of five years ago was supposed to produce about all that was consumed. A great many things were made then, too, that are bought now. The change has been coming on gradually, but now the disposition is general to let the man who is better fitted for doing or producing one thing follow his line, while we may follow another line, and the exchange is made through the regular channels of trade.

The stockman is turning up specializing to a wonderful extent. A very few years ago the stockman had a few of all classes of stock, and each class represented some of his ages. Today we find more and more of the special herd. The cattlemen stick to a certain line, and it is rare for the market to fill to have the hands of all of an age and size. It is the same with every other line of livestock. After all that has been said of having one of all kinds, then you will be sure of having some of the right kind, for stock does better to run all of an age and size, and is easier cared for.

A FEW HOG DON'TS.

Do the Don'ts if You Would Have Success in Raising Pigs.

Don't keep diseased hogs with the rest of the herd. Most diseases common to hogs are contagious, especially cholera.

Don't let your feed lot get foul. A hog as well as other animals does better when he has a clean eating and sleeping place.

Don't expect to raise thrifty pigs by feeding the sows nothing but corn. Plenty of slops are essential to the growth of the pig.

Don't let your sows and pigs sleep at odd straw ricks unless you want them to die with the cholera or some other disease.

Don't let your shoats run all over the farm. A few dollars spent in wire will save you much worry and keep your meadows and growing crops from injury.

Don't let your pigs root up the meadows and pastures. A few hog rings are cheaper than a lot of timothy and blue grass which would be destroyed.

Don't let your sows run together until farrowing time. Cold nights they will pile up together and may cause the loss of their pigs. It is best to separate them a month before.

Don't fail to give your hogs plenty of ashes and salt. If you have an old ash bank about the place, throw it into the pen and salt it good. The hogs will dispose of it to their advantage.

Don't keep a chicken-eating sow just because she raises large litters of pigs, says Farmers' Voice. She will soon eat her work in chickens. Put her in the fattening pen and let her go on the market as soon as possible.

STOCK NOTES.

A badly-shod horse is one that will perform his work with difficulty. The cow is a machine for converting food into milk, and the profits from her work are in proportion to her digestive and assimilative powers.

With an increasing demand for horses on the farms where they are raised there will be less horses to sell and consequently those sold will command a higher price. Keep on raising good draft colts.

The future brood sow should show every indication of being able to properly nourish her litter. This quality is evidenced by the development of ten or twelve well-formed teats. This is quite an important point.

Before building the barn or hog house lay down and calculate where it can be placed, and how obtained to be the most convenient. The average farmer shortens his life a fourth by taking unnecessary steps around the barn and feed lots.

PRESCRIPTION WHICH ANYONE CAN EASILY MIX.

Said to Promptly Overcome Kidney and Bladder Affections—Simple Ingredients Well in Bottle.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargol, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A prominent physician in the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from any druggist even in the smallest towns.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive Kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription. In October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

JUST WHAT HE WANTED.

Surely Here Were Musical Tastes Enough to Satisfy Anybody.

A gentleman of the most cultivated musical tastes, wishing to change his residence, advertised for rooms in a private family "fond of music." The next mail brought him the following reply:

"Dear Sir: I think we could accommodate you with rooms, and as for music one of my daughters plays the parlor organ and guitar; another one plays the accordion and banjo; I play the cornet and fiddle; by wife plays the harmonica and my son the flute. We all sing and if you are good at tenor singing you would fit right in when we get to singing gospel hymns evenings, for none of us sing tenor. Or if you play the base viol we have one right here in the house. If you want music as well as rooms and board we could accommodate you and there would be no extra charge for it. Lippincott's.

Time Sometimes Flies So.

"Mabel" asked the dear girl's mother, "what time did that young man leave last night?"

"Why," replied Mabel, "I believe it was nearly 11 o'clock."

"What I am sure is later than that," said the mother.

"How strange!" remarked Mabel, dreamily. "We both thought it couldn't possibly be that late. —The Catholic Standard and Times.

The Circus Lemonade.

Uncle Hiram—Be so, this here is the blametest weakest lemonade I ever drank.

Blaney's Nephew—Gracious, uncle! Maybe they "handed you a lemon?" Uncle Hiram—Handed me a lemon? Great grasshoppers! They didn't even hand me a slice of lemon."

Slightly Mixed.

"How did Henry get along when he had to testify in court, Mr. Mixer?" "He got along good enough till the lawyer tangled him all up with one of them air 'long hyperlogic questions."

HER "BEST FRIEND."

A Woman Thus Speaks of Postum. We usually consider our best friends those who treat us best.

Some persons think coffee a real friend, but watch it carefully awhile and observe that it is one of the meanest of all enemies for it stabs one while professing friendship.

Coffee contains a poisonous drug—caffeine—which injures the delicate nervous system and frequently sets up disease in one or more organs of the body. If it is used in a perturbed condition it "had heart palpitation and nervousness for four years and the doctor told me the trouble was caused by coffee." He advised me to leave it off, but I thought I could not," writes a Wis. Lady.

"On the advice of a friend I tried Postum Food Coffee and it is satisfied me that I did not care for coffee after a few days' trial of Postum.

"I was so weak and I continued after a Postum my weight increased to 98 lb. from 88 lb., and the heart trouble left me. I have used it a year and it is stronger than I ever was. I can hustle up stairs without any heart palpitation, and I am cured of nervousness.

My children are very fond of Postum and it agrees with them. My sister liked it when she drank it at her home, but not when she made it at her own home. Now she has learned to make it right, both it according to directions, and has become very fond of it. You may use my name if you wish. I am not ashamed of praising my best friend—Postum."

GEORGE KEPT HIM BUSY.

Matrimonial Engagements Seemed Always in Order.

A well-known Virginia clergyman, sometime president of William and Mary college, was married three times and on each occasion the ceremony was performed by his brother, an even more renowned bishop. When the first marriage took place, the bishop had to refuse a tempting invitation from an old friend because—the letter ran—"I am going up to Williamsburg on that date to marry my brother George."

The same friend happened to be on the train with him, years afterward, when he was traveling to the second ceremony. "I am going to marry my brother George," the bishop explained, benignly, after the business of greeting was over. Again many years passed, and the same journey was taken once more for the same purpose. By a strange coincidence, the identical friend ran into the bishop as they hurried through the depot to their respective trains. "Where going bishop?" the former sang out as they grasped hands and dashed by each other.

The going where I am always going," the answer came back, ponderously, "to marry my brother George!" —Harper's Weekly.

TESTED BY TIME.

A Cure That Has Held Good for Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Crumlish of 1130 West Third Street, Wilmington, Del., says: "Some years ago I began to feel weak and miserable and one day awoke from a nap with a piercing pain in my back that made me scream. For two days I could not move and after that I had backache and dizziness all the time. My ankles swelled and I ran down dreadfully. I was nervous and had awful headaches. I wonder that any medicine could do what Don's Kidney Pills have done for me. They cured me four years ago and I have been well ever since."

Signs of Long Life.

"Bacon took a deep interest in longevity and its earmarks," said a physician, "and Bacon's signs of long life are as follows: If you are truly old you have a long nose, small mouth, brittle and separated teeth and fat ears."

"Your life, harring accidents, will be very lengthy if you have a deep mouth, a rough skin, deep wrinkles in the forehead, firm flesh, a large mouth, wide nostrils, strong teeth set close together, and a hard, gristly ear."—Minneapolis Journal.

She Did Not Fear Death.

An old lady of her seventy-third birthday once said, "I do not mind getting old, and I do not fear death, but I live in constant fear of paralysis."

"For some time I have been wanting to tell you of the great good your wonderful Sloan's Liniment is doing for me," writes Mr. J. A. Abernethy, of Rutherford College, N. C. "In fact, all my remedies are doing noble work, but your Liniment beats all. In my thirty years' experience with medicine, I find none to go ahead of it, having tried it in very many cases. I know of one young man, a brick-mason, who suffered from a partial, almost complete, paralysis of one arm. I got him to use your Liniment, and now he can do as much work as ever, and he sings your praise every day."

"I got up to it I possibly can and know there is great virtue in it. I have helped the sale of your noble remedies about here greatly, and expect to cause many more to buy them, as I know they can't be beat."

The Mystery.

"Your husband knows a great deal about the horses?" "Yes," answered young Mrs. Torkins. "He knows all about what they have done and what they ought to do. But he can't find out what they are going to do."

KIDNEY TROUBLES

The kidneys are essential organs for keeping the body free from impurities. If they should fail to work death would ensue in very short time. Inflammation or irritation caused by some feminine derangement may spread to some extent to the kidneys and affect them. This cause can be so far removed by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that the trouble will disappear.

the plant that are possible with the old methods of treatment, the Oxford Linn Mills can buy on terms more favorable to the farmer than other manufacturers can afford. A small amount of flax straw is now used by certain manufacturers of twines and cordage; but as the Mudge processes get fibre for the very finest kind of linen from the same material, the Oxford Linn Mills will offer the best market for flax.

It is not expected, of course, that the parent mills alone will meet the requirements. It will be necessary to establish subsidiary ones, and these will naturally be located at points near the sources of the flax supply most advantageous to the company, and will be erected as rapidly as practical conditions and local demands warrant.

Any particular information concerning the new industry can be obtained by applying to the Superintendent of the Oxford Linn Mills at the Boston address or to the Oxford Sales Company at 225 Fifth avenue, New York. Farmers and flax growers are specially invited to ask for or impart information of interest.

BULLETIN NO. 37.
Valuable Information From the Minnesota Dairy and Food Commission.

Undoubtedly the greatest fraud now being perpetrated in the sale of foodstuffs in this state, as well as in nearly every other state in the Union, is the short weight and short measure fraud. The law of the state prohibits misbranding of food products, and when a container is labeled giving the net weight the statement must be true. The law requires a statement of the net weight on a few products, but does not require such a statement on a great number of staple articles.

The manufacturer or packer simply does not label the package he puts on the market and the purchaser buys it thinking he is getting a pound, five pounds, a quart or a gallon, as the case may be. The practice is quite general and is the rule in the case of many products and not the exception.

The manufacturer of the packages makes them short weight or short measure according to the orders of the packer, who is to fill them with his products.

One very noticeable short weight fraud is the practice of selling butter in jars. The customer who buys one of these jars of butter for $1.50 thinks he is getting butter at 36cts. per lb. while in fact he is paying just 40 cts. per lb.

This department is powerless to compel a statement of the net weight on all food packages, as there is no law requiring such labelling, but until such a law is enacted there is no relief in sight except that the individual purchaser can protect himself by weighing the goods he buys and insisting on receiving what he pays for.

Producers of and dealers in eggs are again warned against selling or offering for sale eggs, which are not fresh and wholesome. Inspectors of this department are instituting processes against violators of the law in every section of the state and the lowest fine that can be assessed by any court is $50.00 and costs.

Among the analyses reported from the laboratory recently are the following:

- Lab. 1840—Extract of Almond, "Paritan", manufactured by Wright Clarkson Mercantile Co., Duluth; Illegal; labeled 2 oz.; exact measure 1 1/2 oz.
- Lab. 708—Imitation Fruit Jelly, manufactured by Berry Mayburn Co., Chicago, Illegal, marked 13ba, exact net weight 1 1/2 lbs.
- Lab. 1183—Ground Cinnamon, manufactured by J. P. Dieter Co., Chicago, Illegal, labeled 1 lb.; exact net weight 2 3/4 lbs.
- Lab. 1176—Black Pepper, manufactured by Dr. Ward Med. Co., Winona, Illegal; labeled 3 oz.; exact net weight 2 1/2 oz.
- Lab. 1165—White Pepper, manufactured by H. B. Strait & Co., St. Paul, Illegal; sample is adulterated with ground cocunut shells and contains a considerable amount of starchy matter.
- Lab. 84—Boiled Linseed Oil, manufactured by American Linseed Oil Co., Omaha, Nebraska, Illegal, adulterated with mineral oil.
- Lab. 90—Boiled Linseed Oil, manufactured by the Central Linseed Oil Co., Omaha, Neb., Illegal, adulterated with mineral oil.

"We never repeat of eating 'too little,'" was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Breckenridge's Pharmacy.
