AN OLD SETTLER GONE

On Friday Last Mrs. Schoettler, One of Pine City's Oldest Settlers was Called to Her Reward.

In last weeks issue we noted the fact that Mrs. Schoettler was dangerously ill, and before the news was read by the greater number of our readers she had passed to that bourne from which no traveler ever returns. Miss Margaret Boettger was born in Germany in July 1833, and would therefore have been 71 years of age this coming July, she was married to Mr. Schoettler in her natal home, and moved with him to this place in the spring of 1880, and has made this place her home ever since, in fact she died in the house she and husband moved into when they first came here.

Mrs. Schoettler was the mother of three children, Mrs. Henry Spahr and Mrs. Albert Glasow, of this place and Mrs. Gustave Kruse, of Superior.

She was an earnest christian lady, a kind and loving wife, an indulgent parent, a good neighbor and her loss will be deeply felt by her children and many friends.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the German Lutheran church, of which she had been a consistent member for years, and the body laid to rest by the side of her husband in Birchwood cemetery, Rev. Dummond officiating.

The pall bearers were all old time friends, and were: W. F. Glauver, Henry Brander, Julius Neubauer, Christ. Voss, Julius Dosey and Christ. Kolecki.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

The Pioneer joins with the many friends of the deceased ladies relatives in extending its sympathy.

DIED AT HINCKLEY

Michael Dunn, One of Hinckley's Oldest Settlers and an Old Soldier Answers The Last Roll Call.

Last Sunday morning word was received here that Michael Dunn, of Hinckley, who was well and favorably known to a great many of our outlaws had passed away.

Mr. Dunn was born in Kings county Ireland January 5th, 1827. He was a member of Co. D. 31st Wisconsin Volunteers, and served during the civil war at the close of which he was honorably discharged.

He came to Hinckley 39 years ago and has lived there ever since. He was a great favorite with both old and young and he will be greatly missed in Hinckley. He leaves an aged widow, two sons, two daughters beside numerous friends to mourn his loss.

The funeral services were held in Hinckley and the remains brought to this place on the noon train Tuesday, a short service held at St. Mary's church, and the body laid to rest in Calvary cemetery by the side of his son Thomas, who was burned in the Hinckley fire of September 1st, 1894.

You bet. When it comes to furnishing the best Building Material, at the lowest prices—you'll find us occupying a front row seat every time.

And it's a continuous performance, too. The man who once buys lumber and building material here, is usually never satisfied with any other place. He may find grades as good as ours some other place. And he might find as low prices elsewhere. But he won't find as good grades as ours, at as low prices as we ask for that grade. No sir! Not for a minute. EVERYBODY MUST HAVE A UNION

Boston has begun it, of course. Where else should a new movement in religion, letters or labor start? This time it is a movement to organize all the school teachers of the United States and Canada in a union to be called the North American Teachers' League, says the New York Evening Sun. When the teachers have all been organized they are to demand higher salaries, shorter hours, less work and pensions, and, if necessary, fight for these recognized and necessary ends of all unions. Does anybody object? Nobody objects. Why should any objections be made? Why shouldn't the school teachers unionize and fight for more money and less to do? Why, for that matter, shouldn't all kinds of workers organize? There ought to be a bankers' union, a doctors' union, a clerical's union, a lawyers' union, a merchants' union, a manufacturers' union, a bookkeepers' union, a plain clerks' union, a domestic servants' union, a wives' union, and so on. There will have to be if the new departure in unionism is significant of anything. Everybody must have and belong to a union to do his or her fighting, and when all the unions have been organized, it can be said and they are all fighting for more money and less work at one another's expense everything will be lively.

A bride of three weeks, coming from a home of luxury to share the humbler fortunes of her young husband, killed herself because she found demands of work upon her young husband time caused her to feel neglected. Mothers who bring up daughters in idleness have much to answer for, and not the least responsibility is the selfish, dissatisfied dispositions which their daughters carry through life to their own disadvantage. A girl who had earned her own living, and understood the call of duty to her work, when she was taken from her own life in a fit of pettishness. The president of Mount Holyoke college spoke truly in her approval of the working girl as a better wife than the college girl or the girl who has never known any occupation but killing time.

Some New York creditors of a tobacco firm, consisting of two brothers, which failed several years ago, are feeling somewhat differently from the average man who has an April fool joke played on him. There was much sympathy for the brothers who fell into financial difficulties, and they had no trouble in effecting a settlement at 50 cents on the dollar. In fact, the adjustment was regarded as specially satisfactory under all the circumstances. The brothers left New York and located in Canada, and in due time they were almost forgotten in a quarter where they had cut a wide swath in their day. But April first they reappeared in town, hunted up all the creditors with whom they had compromised and, though under no legal obligation, paid the full amount of the old debts. The brothers had prospered in Canada, and among other good fortunes had struck it rich in a mine. The creditors think it the best April fool joke they ever experienced.

Spain is going in on an extensive scale for internal improvements, which are to include public works, reforestation, irrigation and the construction of canals, highways and buildings for public use. A bill authorizing a loan of $200,000,000 for these purposes has been introduced in the Cortes. This is about the wisest thing that Spain could do. The country has large possibilities in the way of development, and the money, spent wisely, will add greatly to the general prosperity and foster material growth.

The navy certainly has cause to resent the action of a judge who sentenced a 17-year-old boy to a reform school in the navy or to a reformatory. The nation is proud of its factories and of the personal record they have established in the historic trip around the world, and the implication that the discipline of a highly honest branch of the service is a sort of reform school for wayward boys and embryo criminals is one which the nation will side with the sailors in resenting.

The manager of the Boston Ice Company is kind enough to say that an increase in the price of ice is contemplated, but there are strong indications that people in some of the Massachusetts may have to spend less for ice this summer than they have ever on an equal late winter.

ARBOGAST'S WIDOW MAY BE SATISFIED

GRAND JURY WILL PROBABLY CONNECT HER WITH MURDER.

Peculiar Motive Urged—Justifiable Homicide Would Be Defense Should a Trial Be Held.

St. Paul, Minn., May 25.—An indictment may be returned against Mrs. Louise Arbogast by the Ramsey county grand jury tomorrow or Thursday when it has reviewed the details that surround the murder of Louis Arbogast, the butcher, at his home, the morning of Thursday, May 13.

If Mrs. Louise Arbogast ever comes before twelve jurors on trial for the murder of her husband, her attorneys will enter a plea of guilty on the grounds that it was justifiable homicide.

This is the forecast of events from rumors that have been circulating. The announcement of Louise Arbogast the evening before the murder that he would leave for Alaska, with his daughter, Miss Louise Arbogast, now held in the county jail, is said to be the real key to the motive that lashed to an ungovernable and insane fury that caused the sleeping man to be strangled with the lead with an ax.

The authorities on the eve of putting the case in the hands of the grand jury admit that, beyond the murder of Mrs. Arbogast, the daughter Louise, that her daughter was responsible for the murder, no convicting evidence has yet been obtained. The daughter still insists she did not kill her father.

The authorities admit that there has been a manifest aversion to open discussion of the case of the evening before the murder among members of the family.

While no evidence has been forthcoming in a direct way from the principals in the case or from any other members of the family, information has reached the authorities about peculiar conditions in the family previous to the murder.

It is stated that testimony will be given before the grand jury of a character not yet related.

The widow and Louise are expected to shed much more light on the murder than they have yet done. Those who are familiar with the family as yet only unauthorized versions of the circumstances of the family relations previous to the murder may also be called upon by the grand jury.

The police have made every preparation to present every detail of their findings about the scene of the murder as well as their deductions from the statements of the various witnesses. The presence of the wife and daughter in the room of Louis Arbogast at or near the time when he was murdered, a fact that has given to the case its most mysterious phase, will undoubtedly find a more credible solution when the wife and daughter are brought to the face with their examinations together.

One finding of the police is of much interest. It is contended by Mrs. Arbogast that the deed was committed while she was absent from the room. The ax with which the deed was committed was in the woodshed, adjoining the house at the back. It was hurried after the murder in the basement of the house. The kerosene with which the fire was started was in another room upstairs. Matches also are not in the room. The first committee is composed of Dr. W. N. Shaw, director of the British meteorological office; Prof. A. Angot, director of the Central French meteorological office; Rev. L. Froc, director of the Zi Ka Wei observatory at Shanghai, China; Rear Admiral Hirs, director of the Deutsche Seewarte at Hamburg, Germany; Prof. H. Mohr, director Norwegian Meteorological Institute; Prof. Willis L. Moore chief of the United States weather bureau.

A concerted movement will be inaugurated to induce the principal governments to adopt a uniform system of wireless telegraphy marine weather reports and to reach an agreement so that all nations shall display a uniform marine storm signal. If such an international agreement can be effected, it is believed that it will be a great factor in saving life and property on sea and land and at the same time be highly important in the making of weather predictions.

These subjects will be dealt with by two committees, one on marine weather signals and the other on uniform marine telegraphy.

WIRELESS TO GIVE REPORTS OF WEATHER ON THE OCEANS.

METEOROLOGISTS TO MEET

Will Devise Plan at London Conference in June to Be Submitted to the Governments of the Leading Nations.

Washington, May 24.—Fishing around the world by wireless telegraph warnings of approaching storms and other disturbances of the elements is one of the latest international projects. Still another of perhaps little less importance is the proposal to equip the vessels of all nations with uniform storm signals.

These are the leading problems to be threshed out at a conference of distinguished meteorologists of the principal nations in London on June 21. The proposed conference is the outgrowth of a meeting of the leading meteorologists of the world in Europe several years ago. The United States will be represented by Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau.

A concerted movement will be inaugurated to induce the principal governments to adopt a uniform system of wireless telegraphy marine weather reports and to reach an agreement so that all nations shall display a uniform marine storm signal. If such an international agreement can be effected, it is believed that it will be a great factor in saving life and property on sea and land and at the same time be highly important in the making of weather predictions.

TRIAL OF MILLIONAIRE NEARS ITS SIXTH MONTH

State and Defense in Calhoun Bribery Case Make Bitter Fight for Victory.

San Francisco, May 24.—Revelations of alleged conspiracy in the San Francisco bribery graft case, plots and counterplots, double dealing and "diamond cut diamond" methods of opposing detectives in the obtaining of evidence, accusations of perjury by attorneys for the defense, and many dramatic situations which formed a sensational chapter last week in the trial of Patrick Calhoun, charged with bribery, gave promise of a still more lively session when the case was resumed today.

The trial which is nearing its sixth month has produced more sensational testimony than any of the bribery graft cases tried since the exposure of municipal corruption in San Francisco in 1905. With practically unlimited financial backing the case has been bitterly fought since January 12.

When the trial was resumed today Judge Lawler was called upon to decide whether he has authority in defiance of two restraining orders of other courts of similar jurisdiction to certain documents from William J. Burns' office and found in the safe of William M. Abbott, general attorney for the United Railroads in a suit under a search warrant.

LAND FOR HOMESTEADERS

President Taft Orders Great Tracts in West Opened for Entry and Settlement.

Washington, May 24.—President Taft issued a proclamation providing for the opening up to settlement and entry of about 440,000 acres of land in the Flathead, Montana; 200,000 in the Coeur D'Alene, Idaho; and between 50,000 and 100,000 in the Spokane, Washington, associations.

Registration, which will commence on July 15 and close August 5, must be executed and sworn to at either Kalispell or Missoula, Mont., for the Flathead land; at Spokane for the Spokane land; and at Coeur D'Alene for the lands in the Coeur D'Alene region. Applications for registration must be delivered through the mails only to the superintendent of the opening at Coeur D'Alene, which will be the point of entry for all three reservations. The drawing will begin at ten o'clock, August 9, and will continue until completed. The time for making applications for registration is April 10, 1910, for all reservations in order to enable the successful applicants to make personal investigation of the lands which will be subject to entry.

Regulations regarding the opening of the lands will be available about June 1.

SEEK TRAIN ROBBER

COUNTRY AROUND OMAHA IS SCoured IN SEARCH FOR BANDITS.

STEAL THE REGISTERED MAIL.

Union Pacific Hold-Up Men Believed to Have Fled in Automobile After Getting Loot Reported to Be $200,000.

Omaha, Neb., May 24.—Although the police department of this city and the sheriff have had large forces of men scouring the country in the vicinity of the scene of Saturday night's hold-up on the Union Pacific railroad three miles west of the city, little progress has been made toward arresting the robbers.

Two empty mail pouches taken from the train were found some distance from the point where the robbery occurred. They had been cut open and their contents removed, the outlaws overlooked only one package. One report says the robbers got $200,000.

Plans Were Well Laid. That the robbers had laid their plans well is apparent. They dropped from sight so quickly that not a single person has been able to give a clue to the direction in which they went. The empty mail pouches were found near Forty-third and Jackson streets, which leads the police to believe that the robbers had come to the city after holding up the train.

All four of the men wore long rain coats and their features were entirely masked, giving no opportunity for members of the train crew to identify them.

The Union Pacific railroad has made every effort to trace the men but has found little in the way of clues in which to work.

Postal Authorities at Work. Every town in the country has been notified of the robbery and surrounding counties have been keeping a lookout for strangers. The post office department has also taken steps to aid in the search.

What means of escape the robbers selected is indefinite, but the authorities believe they had either an automobile or had hidden away the fact that only two of the held pouches have been found indicate that they were in no hurry to divide their loot, and that the savings of the city detective department believe his men will be able to obtain some trace of the outlaws before they can get far away.

The automobile theory is strengthened by the discovery of a greasy glove which the robbers had dropped at the point where the two empty mail pouches were found. The police believe it belongs to an automobile chauffeur, and the automobile record of this city and South Omaha is being searched.

Good Place for Robbery.

The robbers evidently got on the train at some town west of here. The hold-up occurred in a deep cut along the recently constructed Lane cut-off. The robbers climbed over the tank and forced the engineer to stop his train and then proceeded to the mail car.

The clerk in the mail car upon the car and hand out a number of pouches of registered mail. Having secured the bags, they hurried away in a southerly direction and permitted the train to proceed.

The passengers were not molested, and as soon as the robbers left the train they were allowed to proceed to this city. A big squad of police hurried to the scene and quickly started in pursuit of the bandits.

There were eight clerks on the mail car, and they were forced to open the door. The chief clerk was singled out and asked to point out the registered mail.

Bandit Mentions Automobile.

This he did, and the robbers going into seven pouches and the leader then remarked:

"This is all we can get into our automobile." A continuous fusillade of shooting was kept up during the robbery, evidently to intimidate passengers and crew. A flagman who went to the rear narrowly escaped being shot. Several passengers who had not returned since the robbery got out of the vestibules, but in no uncertain tones the robbers ordered them back into the cars.

AFTER SUPERFINE CURED BY LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pain in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Miss Elizabeth S. Smith, Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure for the most obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to try at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all such women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

THE HEIR'S HAIR-MOVING.

Mr. White—"It's no use, my dear, I shall have to have my whiskers off; baby is pulling 'em out by the roots."

Mrs. White—"How unfeeling of you. It's the only thing that keeps baby quiet. Now you threaten to take the dear's enjoyment away!"

Kicking Kindness Into Him.

The benevolent old gentleman got busy when he saw four boys eight or nine years old attack one boy of about the same age.

"You mustn't, you mustn't," he said, when he had hauled them off, "attack my little companion this way. What has he done to deserve such harsh treatment?"

"The four boys glowered sullenly while the one boy whimpered as he thought what would happen to him when the benevolent gentleman went on his way."

"Well," said one of the four at last, "he won't join the band of kindness our teacher wants to get up at school!"

Our Wonderful Language.

"Out of sight in that gown, isn't she?" observed a gentleman in the balcony, pointing to Mrs. de Koltay who occupied a front seat in one of the lower tier of boxes.

"Out of sight? Well, hardly. It strikes me it is the other way about," responded his companion dryly.

"Which goes to show the elasticity of the American language, which says one thing and means another. It also shows—but, upon second thought, we must respectfully but firmly decline going into any further details.—Bohemia."

THINK HARD

It Pays to Think About Food.

"The unthinking life some people lead often causes trouble and sickness. Illustrating in the experience of a lady in Fond Du Lac, Wis.

"About four years ago I suffered dreadfully from indigestion, always having eaten what I liked, not thinking of the digestible qualities. This indigestion caused palpitation of the heart so badly I could not walk up stairs right after sitting down one or twice I would regain breath and strength.

"I became alarmed and tried dieting, wore my clothes very loose, and many other remedies, but found no relief.

"Hearing of the virtues of Grape-Nuts and Postum, I commenced using them in place of my usual breakfast of coffee, cakes, or hot biscuits, and in one week's time I was relieved of sour stomach and other ills attending indigestion. In a month's time my heart was performing its functions naturally and I could climb stairs and hills and walk long distances.

"I gained ten pounds in this short time, and my skin became clear and I completely regained my health and strength. I continue to use Grape-Nuts and Postum so that I owe my good health entirely to their use. 'There's a Reason.'"

"I like the delicious flavour of Grape-Nuts and I make Postum according to directions. It is similar to mild high grade coffee."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in page five of this issue. It is a new one appears first in this issue. It is interesting, true, and full of human interest.

WILLOW RIVER.

See Smith Hardware Company's new add in this addition.

We notice that some improvements have been made on our streets, railroads have been laid on the bridges and the dangerous grades. Most of our citizens went up to Moose Lake Tuesday to see the Colored Gophers, of St. Paul, and the team from that place play ball. The Gophers were the victor by a score of 10 to 12.

There was a fierce game of ball played here last Sunday when the team from Sturgeon Lake and the locals crossed bats. The home boys played a good game and defeated their opponents by a score of 15 to 0. Ed Halva arrived with his new McIntire high wheeled auto Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, he having started from Minneapolis that morning. Mr. Halva has a good rig now one that he has no need of being ashamed of.

Willow River is trying to get a $3000.00 pickling plant this season, the farmers will have a chance to raise pickles and have some ready cash during the season when money is naturally scarce. If Willow can land this plant it will be a good thing for the town as well as the farmers.

Emil Zake was in town Tuesday and swore out a warrant for Joseph Arenski for setting a fire in the forest. Constable Mottle went out Wednesday morning and arrested Mr. Arenski and brought him to town. He was tried before Justice Brant and found guilty, the minimum fine consisting of $50.00 and costs was imposed amounting to about $61.00. This will teach Mr. Arenski a lesson, not to set fire and not watch them so that they destroy other peoples property.

There was a large forest fire about six miles east of town which burned Emil Zakes household goods, and the house belonging to the Atwood Lumber Company in which he lived, as well as the barn, hayshed and several other buildings. The Verneky place was also threatened, but it was saved by the neighbors who all turned out and fought the fire, it got into the lumber piled in that place it would have made a large fire. Mrs. Zake came to town and ten men went out to their place but found that the fire had been fought until it was under control, and they returned home. The origin of the fire is unknown, but if the party that set the fire is ever found out he should be punished to the full extent of the law.

GRASSTON DASHES.

Mrs. N. H. Ticker was down from M. Paula, Montana to sell her farm of 120 acres in Pine county. She has sold 80 acres.
