SUNNY CLIMES

Mr. Peterson Describes Trip To Sunny South

LOTS OF ORANGE GROVES

Mr. Peterson, Formerly of This Place, Puts It Up In Good Style Some Orange Groves

At this good luck they both jump and are soon whirling around through the town. The real estate man points out all the pretty places and points of interest. They think this is great, for four days ago they were shivering in a fur over-coat, and here they are riding around in their shirt sleeves in an automobile, under green trees, with green grass and beautiful flowers everywhere.

They soon leave town and speed into the country, the real estate man said he would show them a man that had come there a year ago with a small amount of money, bought a farm, has paid for it from his crops and beside has a small bank account. They soon arrive at the farm, find the farmer in his field or orchard, he instantly leaves his work and takes them around his place, shows them everything, and tells them all about his experience since coming south. This farmer is being well paid by the real estate man. He takes them to his orange grove and tells them to help themselves to anything on the place that they like. He next showed them the grape fruit, kumquats, lemons, tangerines, peaches, bananas, pine-apples, and then visited the garden, in which they found cabbages, lettuce, tomatoes, beets, onions, potatoes and sweet potatoes. Some having just been planted, some half grown and some ready for market. The farmer names prices that he will receive for the garden truck in the northern market, and even shows them statements from houses he had shipped stuff to showing the returns he received. What it cost him to raise the crop and the cost in getting the land in shape is not mentioned. It is a small amount compared with the returns, but it should be considered, as it has a lot to do with a new beginner. After looking the place over, they visit several others just like it and arrived in town after dark. The gentleman leaves them at the best hotel, promising to be on hand early the next morning and take them out to look at lands he has for sale.

They don't sleep much tired as they are, but lay and talk of the wonderful things they had seen since coming south, and can hardly wait for morning. As soon as breakfast is over they board the auto again and are driven out thirty or forty miles where the man has 100,000 acres of land, which is divided into five and ten acre tracts that he is selling for from 50 to 150 dollars per acre. The most of this is mostly white sand and cypress swamp, with here and there a patch of good land, he tells them the farms they saw the day before were just like this before they were cultivated. He tells how it can be drained, what to plant, how to plant and when to plant.

Mr. Buyer thinks it the best bargain he ever seen and picks out the piece that suits him, and tries to get Mr. Green to buy the piece next to him. Mr. Green said he would wait and look around for a few days before investing. The realty man tries to get him to buy, saying that in a few days the way the land was going there would not be an acre left. Mr. Green could not be persuaded so they went back to town, where the papers were made. Concluded on page 4.

CONCERT DE LUXE

Kryl And His Band Done Excellent Work Here

WAS GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT

The Kryl Band Certainly Came Up To All Expectations Friday Night. Given In Stek's Hall

The Kryl Concert Company appeared at Stek's hall last Friday evening, and those of our citizens who heard them were given a rare musical treat. They were greeted by a large audience, all the reserved seats being taken and a great many had to be satisfied with the benches.

The concert was the best ever heard in this place, and was highly appreciated by those who heard them.

The first number on the program was a piano solo by Miss Marie Edwards, who is an artist on that instrument. In all of her appearances during the evening she took the audience by storm.

Professor Kryl made a hit with his cornet, his execution on that instrument being far ahead of anything that is heard in a town the size of this. His tripping tonguing was a feature and by far the best ever heard in Pine City.

The violin playing by Miss Josephine Kryl was the part of the entertainment which was most appreciated and which called forth the greatest applause. This little Miss is but fourteen years of age, yet handled this difficult instrument like one of the old masters. Every time she appeared the house rang with applause, and she surely deserved all she received, as her playing was simply marvelous in one so young.

Taking the concert from beginning to end it was exceedingly good and well worth the price of admission. If this company should ever appear here again the hall would not be large enough to hold the crowd that would go to hear them.

COMMUNICATED

Editor: In reply to the meeting called by the teacher in school district 22, to discuss her grievance between herself and school board, will say that the action taken by the treasurer was as follows:

I have forbidden the teacher to make up holidays, which have been granted her, at her own request, on Saturdays, and legal holidays, for some of the people in the district are opposed to Saturday school, and have expressed themselves to that effect.

I disapproved of boys having and using fire arms on the school grounds, for accidents might result.

I have inquired if books were needed, as I was informed that the Eighth and lower grades were combined on account of a scarcity of books.

I have also disapproved of the teachers attitude toward certain children, for it was not only unjust, but encouraged some of the other children to abuse them. One little girl went home one evening pumpled up, and as a result she could not raise an arm the next morning, consequently she could not attend school that day. Another girl went home all beaten and kicked one evening, and showed three very distinct marks as the result of the brutal treatment she received.

We have a compulsory educational law which compels parents to send their children to school, but there is no law that allows the stronger to inflict bodily injury on the weaker.

Yours Respectfully,
ALF. H. ANDERSON.

KILLED IN ST. PAUL

Leonard Husted Dies After Three Days In Hospital

AUTOMOBILE DRIVER HELD

Leonard Husted, A Brother Of Eli, Drove And Fred Husted Of This Place Succumb After Three Days

Leonard Husted, 1510 Twentieth avenue north, was thrown off a garbage wagon at Seventh street and Eleventh avenue south late Friday night when it was run into by an automobile and died at 8:30 o'clock last night in the City hospital from his injuries. The body is now at the morgue, where Coroner Seashore will hold an autopsy today.

John M. Wilson, driver of the machine that caused the accident, is still held at Central police station. Husted is survived by his widow and eight children, who are said to be in straitened circumstances.

Accident occurred shortly before 12 o'clock Friday night. Husted was driving south on Eleventh avenue and the automobile, which, witnesses say, was running at a high rate of speed, was headed toward the center of the city. The collision occurred at the intersection of the two thoroughfares. The force of the impact was sufficient to throw the heavy garbage wagon on its right angles to its direction, which caused Husted to lose his balance and fall head first onto the pavement. He was removed to the City hospital in the police ambulance, where he lingered in a semi-conscious condition for three days. Death is supposed to have been caused by a fracture of the skull.—Minneapolis Tribune, Tuesday morning.

LOUIMER CASE IS ON

BAILEY, SUPPORTED BY ILLINOIS, AN, BRINGS ISSUE NEAR CRISIS.

SUPPORTERS ARE WELL PLEASED

Roll Call May be Started Any Time—One Response Will Prevent Interference With Veto.

Washington, D. C.—A decision by Vice President Sherman that a call for a quorum of the senate was not in order when no business had intervened between that time and a previous session, has been met by Senator Crawford in opposition to the retention by Senator Lorimer of his seat, created considerable feeling among the senators at 1:30 a. m. The filibuster had been proceeding at that time for more than seven hours.

Washington, March 1.—It took several hours to accomplish it, but supporters of Senator Lorimer advanced the case where a roll call may be started at any time when the anti-Lorimer forces may be caught napping. Several senators had consumed time with "home consumption" speeches on the subject of popular election of senators and Illinois reciprocity. Senator Bailey took advantage of a lull to move that when a vote is taken on the Lorimer question it be by calling for a roll call. Senator Bailey, who was presiding, lost no time in submitting the question to the senate, and it was declared carried.

Supporters Are Pleased.—Although the Lorimer forces hoped to get a vote Monday night, they express themselves as very well pleased with the advancement made. Under the parliamentary position of the Lorimer resolution, no roll call may be started without preliminary motion, and the response of a single senator to his name would prevent interference until the roll is completed. If the Lorimer supporters have the votes claimed by them, the effect would be to end the case.

Under the existing situation some anti-Lorimer senators of exceptional alertness and with perfect knowledge of the rules of the senate must be on the watch every second of the time from the present to noon Saturday if a vote is prevented.

Satisfied with this proceeding, most of the Lorimer senators retired to the cloak rooms to smoke while Senator Crawford began a review of testimony in the case to avoid the submission of the resolution to the senate.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Several speeches were made in the senate up to the resolution calling for the election of senators by direct vote of the people. Today the resolution will be put to a vote.

"BOSS" COX AGAIN INDICTED.

Like First Charge Perjury, But Includes $17,500 More.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—A supplementary indictment was returned by the grand jury here against George B. Cox and, like the original charge perjury. The second indictment includes the accusation made in the first, but goes further, charging that Cox received $17,500 from Tilden R. French, a former county treasurer, from "gratuities" given French by banks of Hamilton county in return for making county deposits in them.

The original indictment charged Cox with testifying before the Hamilton county grand jury in 1908 that he had received none of the "gratuities" paid to the treasurer. It stated that in point of fact, Cox received $45,500 from John B. Gibson, a former county treasurer. The supplementary indictment includes this charge and also accuses Cox of having obtained $17,500 from Tilden R. French, also a county treasurer.

UNCLE EBEN AND THE TURNSTILE

REJECT ROADS' PLEA

COMMERCE COMMISSION UNANIMOUSLY DECIDE AGAINST INCREASE IN RATES.

ADVANCE IS NOT NECESSARY

Decision Shows Carriers to Be Prosperous—Do Not Need Larger Revenue to Maintain Their Credit or Insure Against Adversity.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The shippers won a sweeping victory in the western and eastern railway rate cases in decisions handed down by the interstate-commerce commission.

The commission shows that at the moment when the railroads were arguing their justification for a raise they were eminently prosperous. The decisions were by unanimous vote of the commission.

The report, written by Commissioner Franklin K. Lane, is an elaborate, optimistic review of the American railway situation.

Despite what the federal reports say of the considerable increase in wages and the increase in the cost of fuel in the last six months of the year 1910, in which the new wage schedules were in effect, the report shows for the carriers the largest operating income they have ever enjoyed.

The report opens with a consideration of the effect railroad rate regulation has had upon the revenues of the carriers, in which it is shown that, by reason of the law and its enforcement, the railroads have been protected against each other. As a result, the revenues of the carriers have increased under regulation and their dividends and their surplus have also increased as in no other period of their history. In the past ten years the railroads of the United States have borrowed over four and one-half billion dollars, or twice the amount of the national debt at the close of the Civil war.

Dividends Largely Increased. This is evidence of the faith the public has in these properties. The rate of dividends and the total amount has increased more rapidly than the additional message built. The western roads have increased their surplus over 100 per cent. in ten years.

Comment is made upon the fact that the railroads are not seeking to increase rates which were voluntarily made by them under competitive conditions and which they admit could not be increased under such conditions. The carriers are seeking to gain the benefits of protective legislation and at the same time asking for a free hand and criticizing the law for the restraints which it casts upon them. It is found that the carriers do not need larger revenue for purposes of maintaining their credit or insuring them against temporary adversity.

The report closes with these words: "We shall ask the carriers to withdraw the proposed tariffs and, if such action is not taken, the commission will further suspend these rates and make an order directing the maintenance of present rates for a period of two years."

FRENCH MINISTRY IS OUT

Premier Briand and Other Cabinet Officers Tender Their Resignation to President Fallieres.

Paris, Feb. 27.—Premier Briand and the members of his cabinet tendered their resignation to President Fallieres today. They reached this decision to resign at a conference in the premier's office, when the political situation was thoroughly canvassed from beginning to end.

The bare majority of sixteen, which the government received Friday night in a vote of confidence in the chamber of deputies, following the premier's arraignment on a charge of clericalism by the radical deputies, Louis Malvy and Paul Meunier, was a sore blow to the premier and his associates, who had been sustained many times in previous crises by much larger votes. In the end, M. Briand declared that he was "sick of it all."

The vote in the chamber is interpreted as the result of an intrigue among Briand's adversaries in his own party, who have been plotting his overthrow since the great crisis in the railway strike and blocking the premier's program of arbitration in labor disputes in connection with public service corporations.

HILLES TO SUCCEED NORTON

Illinois is Blated to Become Secretary to President Taft Immediately After March 4.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Charles D. Hillis of Ohio will be secretary to the president to succeed Charles N. Norton of Chicago.

The change will take place immediately after March 4, when Mr. Norton will go to New York to become vice-president of the First National bank of that city.

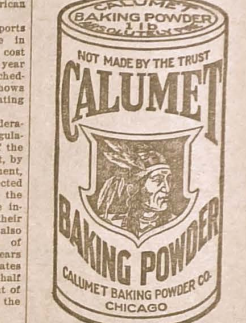

Mr. Hillis is a man of considerable known ability, well read, and known politics. He has been assistant secretary to the treasury a couple of years and offered his resignation to take effect early next month in order to return to private work. He will be succeeded in the treasury department by Robert C. Bailey, a former newspaper man.

Mr. Hillis is forty-three years old.

The BAKING POWDER That Makes the Baking Better

Patience are almost impossible with Calumet. We know that it will give you better results. We know that the baking will be more even. And we know that Calumet is more economical, both in use and cost. We know these things because we have seen it tried out in every way. It is used now in millions of homes and its sales are growing daily. It is the standard baking powder.

Successful Life Work.

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a better poem or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best he had; who, when life was an inspiration, whose memory a benediction."—President Schurman.

Witely Solitude.

Appealing to the police to find her husband, who went to work and had not returned home at eight o'clock, but requesting that the officers neither arrest nor "talk cross" to him, a woman left a note in the hands of Patrolman Hickerson at Sixth and Edmond streets containing information concerning the missing husband.

The note in addition to giving a description of the missing man read that the wife "was worried nearly sick because it was the first time that he had done this."

"I don't want you to arrest him," continued the note. "Tell the police to please not talk cross to him."—St. Joseph Gazette.

MAYOR VS. COUNCIL

WINONA IS ENJOYING AN INTERESTING MUNICIPAL ROW.

HAS ONLY SHORT TERM TO SERVE

But is Making Things Interesting— Says Bills Aggregating $5,643 Have Been Allowed Contrary to Law.

Winona—Mayor W. E. Hamilton, whose term of office expires in April, is losing his administration at once with the city council he is submitting another communication following up his previous one asking for an auditing of the city accounts and the assistance of the council in investigating places where, it was alleged, liquor was being sold in Winona under government and without state license.

In answer to the mayor's original communication the aldermen made formal reply that the city books had been audited by expert accountants in two years and found correct. As to the allegation that there were places in the city where liquor was being sold contrary to law the council maintained it was the duty of the mayor and not of the council to investigate law violation and proceed for its suppression.

Mayor Hamilton at last evening's meeting came back in a communication in which he charged that bills amounting to $5,643.24 had been allowed by the finance committee and the council to three aldermen contrary to law. Referring to liquor matters Mayor Hamilton said the only place he knew where liquor was being sold under government license without the payment of the $1,000 state license which belongs to the city was a certain saloon club, which he had been informed by a traveling salesman for a whisky house that had sold fifteen barrels of whisky by that name. The mayor said he had talked with a member of the club who had told him the information was incorrect, in that only five barrels of whisky had been bought from this house. The mayor said further that a member of the city council was on the purchasing committee of this club and ought to know something about this transaction.

The council referred the mayor's communication to the finance committee to report upon later.

St. Paul—Henry Anstie, a local banker, has been charged by the city council allowed bills to three aldermen in excess of $3,000 for work performed for or articles furnished the city, the work, as a result of the council's investigation, in an automobile accident. He was president of the Great Northern Land and Stock company, the North American Timber company and the North American Land and Stock company, all St. Paul firms.

FIND RICH ORE BODIES.

Two New Deposits of High Grade Iron Discovered on Cuyuna.

Faribault—Two important ore discoveries have been made at Ironton during the past week. During the last few months in her studies, since she has been in school from the "three months" school, "gold" and "iron" have been the first day, her vocabulary has increased to about three thousand words. She writes good English, is fond of reading books in raised type, and has also studied geography, and writes on an ordinary typewriter and brings in writing with a pencil on a grooved board that does not require her hands to be used.

RATIFY JAP TREATY

A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE ANYONE—THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY NEVER DISAPPOINTS

SENATE AFTER TWO-HOUR CONSIDERATION VOTE TO CONFIRM NEW CONVENTION.

UCHIDA MAKES A STATEMENT

Japanese Ambassador Gives Written Assurance That His Government Will Maintain Present Regulations Regarding Emigration of Coolies.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The new Japanese treaty recently signed by Secretary Knox and Baron Uchida was ratified by the United States senate. The objection to the convention has consistently been that it did not throw sufficient safeguards around the immigration of Japanese to the United States. Opposition was made to it by the people of California, and by the people of the legislature and by the people of the Pacific states generally.

Taft Rushes Ratification.

President Taft personally pushed the ratification of the treaty by his assurances to the governor of California that the question of immigration was effectively covered by the existing law, which has been declared above and which has been declared by other authorities to be sufficient.

The treaty was taken up for the third time in senate and after two hours' discussion was ratified.

The western senators who had continuously opposed the treaty reluctantly but not surrendering any of their opinions that grave consequences might ensue from this peculiar document.

Uchida Makes Statement.

The sole basis for the belief that immigration is safeguarded is the following declaration by the Japanese ambassador in Washington duly authorized by his government, has been published in the official Japanese government are fully prepared to maintain with equal effectiveness the limitation and control which they have exercised in the past year exercised in regulation of the emigration of laborers to the United States.

(Signed) Y. UCHIDA.

February 21, 1911.

This was deemed sufficient certainty by the president and the state department and the president was assured in his efforts to impress the California legislature with his view of the treaty's efficiency and sufficiency.

The fact that the treaty had been ratified has not changed the popular opinion that the question of immigration should have been written into the treaty itself.

Although the text of the treaty has been published the injunction of secrecy has not been removed and so far as the public is concerned it continues as a confidential document.

UNCLE SAM RAIDS STEAMER

Arrests Agent, Officers and Crew on Charge of Smuggling Aliens Into Country.

New York, Feb. 27.—Federal officers swept aboard a transatlantic liner when she made her pier and arrested seven persons who were charged with conspiracy to violate the United States immigration laws.

The government charged that the company has been smuggling in aliens for more than a year, some of them disguised as members of the crew, others hidden about the ship until there is no danger of being detected.

A field agent of the immigration bureau at New York was working on the case had 76 names on his list, but only 29 of them could be found on the Athina when he boarded her at quarantine. No arrests were made until the ship moored in Brooklyn.

The passengers were taken off without fuss and federal officers then searched the ship, arresting those wanted who could be found.

ONE—THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY NEVER DISAPPOINTS

A few years ago I was troubled with a complication of kidney and stomach ailments, and although I tried two or three different doctors, I was unable to obtain a cure. Having read in the paper about Swamp-Root, I decided to give it a trial and after purchasing a one dollar bottle of Alexander's, the druggist, from the beginning I could notice a change for the better and after taking eight bottles of your medicine, I felt entirely cured and have not had I begin with Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root since. I would have been a few hundred dollars to the good and saved myself a lot of suffering.

You may use my testimonial any time you wish.

Yours very truly,

WAS JUST COPYING MAMMA

Child's Actions That at First Mysterified Father Were Easily Explained.

The little six-year-old daughter of a well-known club woman was found in her play room the other day doing all kinds of acrobatic stunts and gesticulating wildly and wondrously.

"What are you doing?" asked the child's father.

"I'm playing 'mamma,' she answered. Then she made more unique movements with her little arms and said: "There, father, you don't want that. That's what they do when mamma makes them."

"What shall I accept?" asked the father, still more mystified, "and what does mamma make?" Tell me what you are doing?"

"Why," she said, "I'm playing that I am mamma at her club. Whenever mamma goes to her club she makes motions, and the others accept them. I heard her say so over the telephone to Mrs. Smith this morning."—Illustrated Magazine.

Denominational Puzzle.

The wife of a prominent Unitarian clergyman is still wondering what her cook meant when she said she had been there very reason to believe she was a good cook. At any rate, she had unquestionably prepared good families, and she brought the best of references. Nevertheless, her new mistress did not hesitate to give her a few instructions.

"One thing I want you to remember, Nellie," said she, "is the way we eat our dinners. I'll get it right, never fear. I've worked in Unitarian families before."

A Religious Innovation.

A certain well-brought-up little girl yawned at the breakfast table last Sunday morning and ventured a polite proposition to her mother.

"I really don't feel like going to church this morning," she remarked. "Can't we just send cards?"

CHILDREN AFFECTED

By Mother's Food and Drink.

Many babies have been launched into life with constitutions weakened by disease taken in with their mother's milk. Mothers must be too careful as to the food they use while nursing their babies.

The experience of a Kansas City mother is a case in point. She told me "it was a great coffee drinker from a child, and thought I could not do without it. But I found at last it was doing me harm. For years I had been troubled with dizziness, spots before my eyes and pain in my heart, to which was added, two years later, a chronic sour stomach.

"The baby was born 7 months ago, and almost from the beginning, it too, suffered from sour stomach. She was taking it from me!"

"In my distress I consulted a friend of more experience and she told me to quit coffee, that coffee did not make good milk. I have since ascertained that it really dries up the milk, and it is quite correct and true at last. At last coffee. But they did not agree with me. Then I turned to Postum for the happiest results. It proved to be the very thing I needed. It not only agreed perfectly with baby and myself, but it increased the flow of my milk."

"My husband then quit coffee and used Postum and quickly got well of the dyspepsia with which he was very troubled. I no longer suffer from the distress, blood spots, pain in my heart or sour stomach of which I was so troubled. Now we all drink Postum from my husband to my seven months' old baby. It has proved to be the best drink we have ever used. I would not give up Postum for the best coffee we ever drank." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., to the little white can "The Road to Wellville," in place.

"There's a Health."

Why not try the best? A new one appears from time to time, but this is the best, one full of health interest.

HENDRICKS-CARLSON MATCH

Last Saturday evening in Stekl's hall the wrestling match between Guy Hendricks, of this place, and Charles Carlson, of Dassel, was pulled off to the satisfaction of all present. The first fall was gained by Hendricks, after eight minutes of the hardest kind of work. The second fall was also gained by Hendricks, who downed his opponent in thirty-six minutes. Hendricks weighted in at one hundred and sixty-six and Carlson at one hundred and seventy-eight. There was only one draw-back to the match. Such coaching as was done at this match should not be allowed, and the offenders, according to the rules of the game, should be compelled to keep their proper places. The referee has the privilege, in such cases, of ordering such offenders out of the house. This match was the cleanest match, we believe, that was ever witnessed in Pine City, and was deserving of a great deal more patronage than it received. People should turn out to these matches and help support the game. This Saturday night (tomorrow) Hendricks will take on Joe Ruhl, of St. Paul. Ruhl is one of the fastest middle-weight in the game, and this match is sure to be a real live one. Everybody should attend. The match will be held in Stekl's hall. An admission price of thirty-five cents will be charged.

DON'T BLAME THE EDITOR

The newspaper man is blamed for a whole lot of things he can't help, such as using partiality in mentioning visitors, giving news about some people and leaving out others, etc. He simply prints all the news he can find. Some people inform him about such things and others do not. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residences of all your uncles, aunts and cousins, even if he saw them get off the train. Tell us about it. It's news that makes the newspaper and every man, woman and child can be associate editors if they only will. Never apologize when you give this bit of information to an editor, for if there lives one so dead that he has lost his appreciation of such favors he is dead to every virtue that imparts value to a paper.—EX.

ASTONISHED THE "OLD MAN"

Hie "Rah Son by No Means the "Dude" He Had Hitherto Seemed to Be.

The new governor of a western state has two sons. One is big and husky like his father, but the other is more slight; and at times he rather vexes his father by his affection of "rah-rah" boy clothes and a general air of "rah-rah" indifference. The "rah-rah" boy had been sitting by, twiddling his thumbs, but his ears pricked up at the man's name, and he "drawled": "I rather like that chap. He's a real change." "What do you know about him?" the other brother asked, rather contemptuously. "Oh, he gave me a shake the best of it one night." "Gave you the best of it?" both father and brother shouted. "Yes; you see, I fight under the name of Young Ryan and he counted pretty slow one time when I was down."—Saturday Evening Post.

My feet and ankles were bloated and I was in a bad way when I began with Doan's Kidney Pills. I used four boxes and was cured." Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Minnesota Legislature

Proceedings at the Minnesota State Capitol for the Past Week.

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—A semi-monthly payday bill for public service corporations, a bill to limit the working hours of women to 10 hours a day at all times of employment, and an anti-labor shark bill occupied the attention of labor committee of the senate. All were recommended for passage.

Representatives of labor unions appeared before the committee to advocate the semi-monthly payday. Invidious examples from shops, and railroad lawyers, spoke against it. When the committee went into executive session Senators Paul and Litcher of Minneapolis took up the cudgils for the bill. Senator Duxbury of Houston opposed it.

The bill was recommended to pass with one dissenting vote. Mrs. Peary Starkweather of the state labor department asked that a bill making it unlawful for women to work more than 10 hours a day in any mercantile, manufacturing or industrial establishment be introduced as a committee measure and recommended for passage. This was done.

Senator Paul's anti-labor shark bill provided that no contract assigning wages without the consent of the employer and the recording of the assignment with the clerk city. It also provided that if a man were married he could not assign his wages without the written consent of his wife.

Drainage Probers are Named. Speaker Johnson appointed the house committee to investigate the conduct of George Ralph, state engineer, relative to the letting of contracts and the damage done in the drainage of upper Minnesota. The committee is headed by Representative Cleon T. Knapp of Chisholm. The other members are Representative Robertson of Argyle, J. J. Moriarty of Belle Plaine, E. J. Fowler of Minneapolis and Ralph M. Crane of Grand Meadow.

State Drainage Commission Hit. "The state drainage commission should be abolished," said Senator Swanson before the senate committee on public accounts, referring to the charges made by state Examiner Schaefer against the commission. The committee appointed three of its members, Senator Works, Murry and Swanson, a special committee to investigate the state drainage commission. It was decided to work in conjunction with the house committee for the same purpose if the house committee would accept their cooperation. If not they will work independently.

St. Paul, Feb. 27.—For the third time in its history, a proposal for a time tariff, the "Iowa Idea," with which the name of Senator Cashman has become associated, was defeated in the Minnesota senate.

The final vote on the measure was 29 for and 32 against. Two years ago the measure received 29 votes for and four years ago it received 27 votes for. The vote came after a spirited debate in which such men as Senators Cashman, Gleason, Putnam and Dwinell took a leading part.

Campbell Bill Advanced. Initiative and referendum won a point in the lower house of the legislature. By a close vote of 57 to 50 its advocates succeeded in making the bill from general orders and made a special order for Thursday morning, March 3. Many of the members who opposed placing the bill on a special order a week ago, changed their stand. Myrtle Edwards of Breckenridge, who is opposed to the Campbell bill, will favor a conservative initiative and referendum measure, brought the issue before the house by a motion to have the action of a week ago reconsidered.

There were two absentees in the senate roll call, Duxbury and Nelson. Both had been absent before leaving. Senator Duxbury had announced he would vote against the bill. Representative C. W. Fowler led the opposition. Representative Campbell took the position that the bill was one of the most important measures before the legislature. R. C. Dunn objected to further discussion.

The long-expected 12 o'clock school closing bill was introduced in the house by J. D. O'Brien of St. Paul. It affects only the three cities of the first class. The proposed measure is expected to excite even more discussion than the county option bill.

The first anti-fur appropriation bill for the university was passed. It provides about $600,000 for construction and equipment of buildings. Senator Ellwells' new bill, giving the park board right to acquire property outside the city limits, also was passed.

The report of the house committee on university and university lands, recommending indefinite postponement of the bill providing for a homestead building fund at the state university, was defeated. The bill will be placed in general orders.

CROWD SHOUTS AT HAREM SKIRT

That the Wearer at Mount Vernon Place Falls a Victim.

Baltimore, Feb. 28.—A comedy woman wearing a "harem skirt" created a stir on fashionable Mount Vernon place, near the Washington monument. A crowd followed the wearer of the skirt and her escort for several blocks, when the couple halted in a taxicab and were hurried away from the shouting spectators.

COULD NOT STAND SUFFERING FROM SKIN ERUPTION

"I have been using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for the past three months and I am glad to say that they cured me of a most annoying skin eruption. It began by my noticing red blotches appearing on my face and scalp. Although they were rather disfiguring, I did not think anything of them until they began to get scaly and dry and to itch and burn until I could not stand the suffering. Then I began to use two different soaps, thinking that my old skin might be hurting me, but that did not seem to do any good. I then consulted two different doctors but neither seemed to relieve me any. I lost many nights' sleep in continual scratching, sometimes scratching till I drew the blood on my face and head. They I started in to use the Cuticura Remedies and in two months I was entirely relieved of that skin trouble. I am delighted over my cure by Cuticura Remedies that I can't be glad to tell anybody about it." (Signed) G. M. Macfarland, 251 115th St., New York City, Oct. 5, 1910.

The Sulplicity of Him. "John, dear," said Mabel, as her lord and master entered the house, "I've just had a letter from mother, and she is coming to visit me. It is a pretty expensive trip for little Muddy, and I wondered if we couldn't help her out a little."

"Of course we can," said John, giving his wife a generous kiss. "Just you write and tell her that I'll be only too glad to pay for her railroad ticket back home again, and she'll be glad to do it."—Harper's Weekly.

A Frequent Speaker. A member for a northern constituency who one day reproached by a disappointed supporter for never opening his mouth in the house, replied the accusation with indignation. "Not a day passes," he declared, "but he said something; and it was reported in the papers; too. Housework Drudgery

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of duty, possibly dizzy feeling. Sometimes rest is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not rest and remain in a state of tension. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well. This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weakness, heals inflammation and restores the system. It is a powerful purgative, and its action is so peculiar to women, it purges the system, and restores the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any unscrupulous composition try to "put a case" in order that he may make a bigger profit. Just smile and shake your head. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure liver ills.
