Don't be Deceived On Lumber Prices

There's a big difference in buying just lumber and in buying the kind of lumber we sell. Your contractor or carpenter will tell you that some lumber can be nailed right into a house without a plane ever touching it. That means the saving of hand labor. Of course, the lumber dealer has to charge a little more for this smoothly finished lumber, but in the end it really means a big saving to you. Right here is where a lot of mistakes are made when lumber is bought solely on price—without regard to quality. True, 15 to 20 years ago lumber sold for from 10 to 25 per cent cheaper, but you do yourself and pocketbook a great injustice when you compare that lumber with the 50 to 75 per cent greater values you really get today. Come in and see the difference.

HILL MINERS URGE A GENERAL STRIKE

COMMITTEE FROM THE FIELD DISTRICT PETITION UNION OFFICIALS.

SAY OPERATORS BROKE FAITH

Probe Witness Believes that Armed Guards Caused Trouble in West Virginia—Trouble About Over.

Charleston, W. Va., June 18.—With the renewal of industrial war in the Paint and Cabin creek mine districts universally reported, the strike committee is continuing its examination of witnesses.

During the day miners, detectives and agents of the mine operators came down from the strike region with tales of the new strike declared and the district again thrown into disorder.

The local union of the United Mine Workers of America, No. 17, has not called a new strike of Paint and Cabin creeks, Thomas Haggerty, a member of the international miners board declared.

Men in the Fields Strike.

"But we cannot be sure of the men who are working up in the field," he said. "The operators have been holding out that the miners who went back to work, and who were drawn by Governor Hatfield, we have tried to prevent a further strike but I am convinced that the miners up there have already decided not to continue to work under the conditions which prevail."

"Meetings were held in the creeks and many expressed dissatisfaction with conditions. They voted to strike and the union cannot control them."

A committee of miners from the Paint and Cabin creek section came to Charleston to urge the United Mine Workers' officials to call a general strike. They bore the instructions of a mass meeting held in the hills Sunday.

Routine Testimony Only.

The testimony presented to the Senate committee was brief and cumulative. Thomas L. Feltz, vice-president of the Baldwin-Felts detective agency, which supplied the mine guards for the Paint creek and Cabin creek operators, during the strike was testifying.

Mr. Feltz told the committee that when the trouble on Paint and Cabin creeks was at its height, he commanded about 110 armed men on Cabin creek, and about 35 men on Paint creek. He also said that his company sent $1,000 to the men working in the strike district as "secret service operations." These men, he said, furnished information to the operators and his agency.

"Did your men make a list of those you were employing?" asked the witness.

"One of the objects of your organization is to maintain minimum standards of employment," Mr. Feltz said. "What it is employed to prevent the organization of branches of the United Mine Workers?"

"Yes, that is one of the objects," said Mr. Feltz.

"What is one of these objects of yours now employed in this field?"

"Yes, that was one of the objects of our employment on Cabin creek."

Mr. Feltz denied emphatically that any of his men operated in the strike districts but admitted that he declared martial law. He also denied that any Baldwin-Felts men were on the armored train which fired on the strikers' camp at Holly Grove in February.

President Kenyon asserted from Mr. Feltz that men were employed "to join the unions to find out what was going on" in order to carry out the purposes of preventing union organization.

The witness said such a list had been compiled.

"One of the objects of your organization is to maintain minimum standards of employment," Mr. Feltz declared martial law. He also denied that any Baldwin-Felts men were on the armored train which fired on the strikers' camp at Holly Grove in February.

President Kenyon asserted from Mr. Feltz that men were employed "to join the unions to find out what was going on" in order to carry out the purposes of preventing union organization.

Mr. Feltz told the committee his concern received something over $600 a day for the services rendered by a number of men in the field on the creeks when the trouble was at its height.

Witnesses called by the miners testified that the principal trouble in the strike district was caused by the conduct of the guard.

OLD LOVER SHOOTS GIRL; KILLS SELF

REMI DE ROSIE ALSO SHOOTS AT RIVAL WHO FLEES IN A PANIC.

CLERK AT CORCORAN, MINN.

Hennepin County Village ja Shaken by Tragedy—Girl in a Serious Condition and May Die.

Minneapolis—Remi De Rosie, clerk of the post at Corcoran, Hennepin County, shot and killed himself after he had tried to kill Miss Hattie Weier, who lives on a farm one and a half miles from Corcoran, and Rudolph Babler, when the latter two returned from an automobile ride.

Miss Weier was shot in the left side near the heart. Her condition is serious. The body of Babler was found near the Weier farmstead, with Remi Rosie in pursuit, firing his revolver.

Remi Rosie then returned to his aged mother's home, bid her goodbye, and, getting another revolver, went into the garden and shot himself through the head.

The shooting was the climax of a love affair that began two years ago. De Rosie, 21, and Miss Weier, 22, six months ago Miss Weier's affections are said to have cooled with Rudolph Babler who was seen calling at the farmstead. De Rosie, who had led a sober, industrious life, seemed to be brooding over something, say the villagers, but he took no one into his confidence.

Word of the shooting spread about the countryside, and residents of the little town of Corcoran, as well as to the Weier farmstead, and when it was discovered that Babler was missing, searching parties spread out for nearly a mile, beating the woods and brush into which Babler and De Rosie disappeared.

Seemed Depressed Tuesday.
On Tuesday night De Rosie visited the Weier home. He seemed much depressed and while talking about Miss Weier he tried to take a drink from a bottle that bore a poison label. Mrs. Weier grabbed the vial from his hand and tried to calm him. In a few minutes he had recovered enough from his pocket. For a second time Mrs. Weier thwarted his efforts to take his life by taking the bottle from him. She has given both bottles to deputy sheriffs, who were sent to the scene of the shooting.

Early Wednesday evening Babler, who had made an auto at Rosies, called for Miss Weier. The two were seen several hours when De Rosie reached the house. When told that Miss Hattie was out, De Rosie left at once, but a few minutes later was seen loitering in the road in front of the house. Ten minutes later an auto chugged up to the front door. Miss Hattie stepped out and tripped light upon the steps. Suddenly she was heard. Miss Hattie turned and saw De Rosie running down the porch toward her. She turned to run and De Rosie shot.

Babler leaped out of the auto after De Rosie and the girl. No sooner had De Rosie shot at the girl than he turned on Babler and fled. Babler whirled and began racing the same way with De Rosie in close pursuit and firing as he ran.

The shooting occurred about 9 o'clock. About a half hour later De Rosie walked into the farmhouse of Aaron Kruger, who lives on the outskirts of the town. "Well, I just did it. I put away both of them," De Rosie told Kruger. Kruger had a hearty laugh at the boyishness and could not understand De Rosie's incoherent talk. In a few minutes De Rosie left for his home.

Tells His Mother Goodbye.

Old Mrs. De Rosie, the widowed mother, was waiting or her son to return. Entering the little living room of the cottage, De Rosie beat over and kissed his mother. "Goodbye, mom. I am going to kill myself," he said in a calm voice. Mrs. De Rosie made no move to stop him as he left the room. Going to his own room first for a second revolver he went outside, placed the gun against his head and pulled the trigger.

De Rosie, who had lived all his life in Corcoran, had held the office of town clerk for several years, having been twice re-elected.

Eagles Choose Minneapolis.
Fergus Falls—The Eagles' state convention elected George Weaver, Brainerd, president, and chose Minneapolis as their next meeting place.

Parade Featured by Floats.

Austin—Over 3,000 persons participated in a grand celebration in La Fayette park on Wednesday. There were many beautiful symbolic floats in a parade which preceded the picnic. N. P. Hull, national eagle secretary, said: "I have learned from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and have seen many grand parades, but this is by far the finest I have ever witnessed." About twenty floats participated in making the event an unqualified success.

board of trustees of the Old Soldiers home. He was a Mason, and belonged to the Elks and other organizations.

Mr. Whitney was born in Massachusetts, March 20, 1846, and came to this state in 1873. Except during the time he was engaged as state printer, he resided at Marshall, Minn. Six months ago he moved to St. Paul. Mrs. Whitney was with him. Besides his widow he is survived by the following children: Mrs. Hills of St. Paul, Joseph, who is identified with the News-Messenger at Marshall; Jack and Edward of Marshall, and Frank of New York city.

The body was taken to Marshall for burial. Funeral services were held Monday.

100 BANKERS AT LUVERNE

Second District Meeting is Well Attended—Officers Elected.

Luverne—Over 100 bankers, representing nearly every town in the second congressional district, gathered in Luverne last week to attend the eleventh annual meeting of the district association. The address of the president of the association, Mr. Abraham Jacoby, New York, president of the association, called the delegates to order. After the report of the committee on credentials and the organization of the house, the reports of officers for the past year were presented.

The report of the secretary, Dr. Alex R. Craig, Chicago, showed that the membership had increased during the past year from 37,810 to 37,910, while the membership of the fifteen constituent state associations had increased from 70,021 last year to 70,538. There are 2,001 component county societies organized in 2,961 counties in the United States.

ITCHING AND BURNING

Minneapolis, June 16.—The sixtieth annual session of the American Medical Association opened this morning with the arrival of the house of delegates at 19 rooms in the library of the engineering building of the University of Minnesota. Dr. Abraham Jacoby, New York, president of the association, called the delegates to order. After the report of the committee on credentials and the organization of the house, the reports of officers for the past year were presented.

Thus Sealed, They Cannot Spoil

St. Paul—It is a well-known fact that fruits, vegetables, and meats will keep longer if they are sealed in Parowax.

Michael Sweeney, chief of detectives, the St. Paul police have received reports that more than twenty 15 or 16-year-old girls have disappeared under ten days.

Although many have been located and returned home, new cases come to light each day. The police say that the situation is a serious one.

Duluth Strike Is Ended.

Duluth—Duluth's second strike, which threatened to spread to the mills of Allouez and Superior and to the lumber industry of northern Minnesota, is broken. Early Monday all of the Duluth mills resumed work, with crews running from 50 to 75 per cent of normal. The union leaders tried desperately to keep the men from returning to work, but their efforts were unavailing. The unions maintained that the mills and most of the men were eager to return to work.

Convention At Owatonna.

Owatonna—The annual state convention held a three-day session in this city. Among the convention speakers were Bishop Quayle, who lectured on Emerson and preached the convention sermon; Rev. L. B. Wood of Rochester, who spoke on "Shams and Shrines in the Holy Land," and Mrs. Hull of St. Paul. Rev. Dr. Knapp Klosser of Mankato, attorney, M. E. Ryan, says: "Minneapolis never wanted money, but he did want to prove to the people of this community that the pamphlet contained untruths."

INFANT MORBILITY is something frightful. We hardly realize that of all the children born in criminal statistics, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these infant deaths. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations.

Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are considered quieting, demulcent, sedative. In my opinion, they are really restoratives and tonics to congestions, sickness, death.

Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and alleviates fever.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

HOG MARKET FOR STATE FAIR

Plans Discussed on Northern Pacific's "Livestock Special"—Train Attracts Crowd.

Urges—The Minnesota state fair is to become a hog market for farmers of the state. The fact is brought to light in a talk with W. M. Hagerman, the hog specialist on board the Northern Pacific's College of Agriculture's "Livestock Special" train.

Hagerman said that at the fair last year some 150,000 hogs were brought along, and at one time there was a greater number, but the reason for the plan lies in the fact that many farmers like to buy at the fair because there they have the pick of a large number of hogs, whereas when they go to buy from an individual breeder they have the pick of only one herd. The success of last year's trading, therefore, has led to the decision to try to increase the interest in the venture by rail.

To make the trading easy and expeditious a set of scales will be put in near the swine building.

DOCTORS IN ANNUAL SESSION

ITCHING AND BURNING

Berea, Mo.—I was troubled with scalp eczema for about five years and tried everything I heard of, but all of no avail. The doctors told me I would have to shave my head. Being a young fellow I was afraid to do so.

The American is about the only one who prefers his egg boiled hard. When it is, he picks it up to him, knifes them in half, removes the yolks into a glass, stirs and mixes well together with pepper and butter. He makes a practice of dipping bread into the mixture, and eats along with the eggs.

A Spaniard wouldn't think of letting his egg boil more than one minute. He then breaks it, lets the contents run into a glass, and consumes it as if he were drinking a glass of wine.

An Englishman, much like the American, likes his eggs of three minutes exactly. He then "peels" them, places them in a glass, stirs and mixes well together with pepper and butter. He makes a practice of dipping bread into the mixture, and eats along with the eggs.

A German wouldn't think of letting his egg boil more than one minute. He then breaks it, lets the contents run into a glass, and consumes it as if he were drinking a glass of wine.

BOILED EGGS BETRAY THEM

Nationality of Diners is Shown in Their Various Methods of Eating.

Sherlock Holmes might have figured this out, but he did not. The average Englishman will always demand his egg boiled just three minutes, then he破壳 the egg cup just large enough to have the egg fit in it, taps the top of the shell, and removes the broken shell with his fingers. The egg is eaten a spoonful at a time.

A Frenchman, much like the Englishman, likes his eggs of three minutes exactly. He then "peels" them, places them in a glass, stirs and mixes well together with pepper and butter. He makes a practice of dipping bread into the mixture, and eats along with the eggs.

The Best Bargain You Ever Made

HOW do you measure the value of a bargain? Suppose you bought an engine that did practically all of your hardest work for you, sawing, pumping, grinding, etc., and that saved so much money that it soon paid for itself. Would you call that a good bargain?

An IHC engine will do all that, and more. Having paid for itself, it works steadily year after year until, like our Clay County friend who has used an IHC engine for six years, you will say, "My IHC engine is the best bargain I ever made."

IHC Oil and Gas Engines

are thoroughly dependable, and unusually durable. The fine-grained, grey iron cylinders and pistons are worked together to a perfect fit. Ground piston rings insure maximum power from the explosion. The fuel mixer is the most effective known. Bearings are large and carefully fitted. No part is too heavy to be efficient, yet every part is amply strong.

IHC engines are made in all styles—vertical and horizontal; portable and stationary; air and water-cooled; in sizes from 1 to 50-horse power, to operate on gas, gasoline, naphtha, distillate, kerosene or alcohol. Oil tractors, 12 to 60-horse power, for plowing, threshing, etc.; grinding, sawing, pumping and spraying outfits, complete the line.

The IHC local dealer will show you all the good points of the IHC engine. Get catalogue from him, or write.
