The County Commissioners were in session at the court house Monday and Tuesday morning, all members being present.

The minutes of the last previous meeting were changed to show $100 withheld from the amount due the G. N. Bridge Co. on a concrete bridge in Kerriek town until they comply with the recommendations of the State Highway commission.

The following estimates were made for county government next year: books and stationery $1800, court and jail $3,000, salaries and fees $12,000, light and fuel $1,000, board of audit $400, coroner's fees $300, return of births and deaths, $200, examination and commitment of insane $600, care of poor $8,000, printing etc $2,000, road and bridge fund $20,000.

The board authorized Auditor Hamlin to levy sufficient county tax to provide $20,000 for the road and bridge fund, $9,000 for the care of poor and $26,000 for other purposes, making a total levy of $55,000 for county purposes next year.

Upon request of the Kanabeec county commissioners, the board set a date for a meeting of the two boards to divide the monies on hand in the treasury of consolidated school district 24—the Brookpark district—so as to give the portions in Kanabeec county, which is withdrawing from the consolidation, its just proportion according to assessed valuation.

A request from the officials of Clover town for $475 aid for town roads and bridges was laid on the table.

An allowance of $300 was made for a cement culvert near the Roberts farm on the piece of road around the south end of Cross lake that has for years been a source of more trouble to farmers and to travelers, probably, than any other piece in the county, except the road between Beroun and Hinckley.

The county auditor was instructed to entertain no bids at the Absolute Tax Sale, for less than the entire amount of accrued taxes, penalties and costs against the lands offered at the sale. The sale comes on the second Monday in August.

The following petitions asking to be set off from one school district to another were received and date of hearing on each was set for August 16: Nels Lindberg of Rock Creek town, from district 4 to 15, S. E. Greenly of Rutledge from district 55 to 6, Arthur Stover of Chengwatana town from district 1 to 98 and Fred Miller of the same town from district 25 to 73.

The auditor was instructed to notify road maintenance supervisor to issue time checks in payment for help, same not to exceed the sum of $75 per mile of road, during the year.

The books of County Treasurer Pofert were examined and found in perfect order. A cash balance was shown on hand and in banks of $330,417.84. Most of which has since been paid out to towns, villages and school treasurers, statement of which was published in last week's Pine Poker.

idly growing need for them, was granted.

The application of J. J. Heidegger of Pine City for real estate abatement was rejected, that of Della Smith of Pine City was partially recommended, that of J. P. Holmberg of Chengwatana was recommended, as were that of Peter A. Dahlen of Birch Creek and the Baker L. T. Co. of St. Croix Falls, Wis., for land in Sandstone town.

The board readjusted the list of uncollected personal property taxes and this will be published in The Poker next week.

The usual bunch of bills for operating the county were passed and the board adjourned to meet again on Aug. 16.

Largest Animal on Earth

Spark's World Famous Shows are billed to exhibit at Mora, Saturday July 17, and from the newspaper report preceding them their exhibition will be worth going many miles to witness.

Among the many features tho show carries is what is claimed to be the largest land animal on earth. It is an elephant said to be three inches taller than Jumbo and a half ton heavier.

Some idea of her immense size can be obtained when you consider that she is 11 feet 7 inches tall and weighs over 5 tons. In other words she weighs as much as 10 ordinary horses.

Another extraordinary feature with the show is Capt. Tiebor's troupe of educated Seals and Sea Lions. These interesting sea animals perform the most seemingly impossible feats, balancing chairs, umbrellas and whirling brands of fire while climbing ladders, walking tight rope and riding the backs of galloping horses. This feature baffles description and must be seen to be appreciated.

Many other wonderful things are to be seen with this mammoth show and the main performance beneath the big tents will present a number of the most marvelous

Nav. Militia On Cruise

Preparations Are Under Way for the Big Cruise of the Boys Next Month

Several members of the local naval militia were at Duluth over Sunday on the regular bi-weekly cruise. The next cruise will be on July 24 and, following that on Aug. 5, will come the big annual cruise. Chas. Sherwood, Arnold Lee and Arthur Olson went up last Friday night so as to take in the circus there the following day. Noble and Bob Clark, Lawrence Graham, Frank Thurston and Lieut. Wilcox went north on Saturday's limited.

Anchor was weighed at midnight, Saturday, and the Gopher passed out into the lake with a falling barometer. After cruising about in a choppy sea and with light rain and continuous threatening conditions, she put in through the Superior entrance and dropped anchor at 5 p. m. Sunday.

The Duluth News Tribune has the following to say of the coming annual cruise:

First, second and fourth divisions of the Duluth naval militia and the third Minnesota division from Pine City, numbering about 175 men, will leave Duluth aboard the U. S. S. Gopher on Aug. 5 for a 16-day squadron cruise down the lakes. Guy A. Eaton will be in command of the vessel.

The Gopher undoubtedly will pick up the Isla de Luzon carrying the Illinois reserves, at Presque Isle on Lake Huron, and the two boats will arrive at Buffalo on Aug. 9. The row will be given shore leave at that port, and a trip to Niagara Falls will be made, according to Eaton.

At Erie, Pa., on the morning of Aug. 11, the Gopher will meet the naval reserve fleet, composed of the Don Juan de Austria, Detroit; Yantic, Hancock, Mich.; Dorothea, Cleveland; Essex, Toledo; Hawk, Buffalo; Wolverine, Erie, and possibly the Sandoval of Rochester, N. Y. Approximately 1,400 men will be on the nine boats.

The Isla de Luzon will be the flag ship of the fleet, carrying Captain Moffett of the Great Lakes Training station, who will be in command of the ships.

All the boats will engage in maneuvers off Erie for about three days. There will be target practice, boat and gun drills and ship drills of all kinds for the crews. It is likely that whaleboat crews from various ships will race. The Gopher crew has never been defeated and expects to carry off honors again this year. When the Isla de Luzon was in Duluth on July 5, the Gopher crew, without any practice, defeated the Illinois boys by three lengths.

Following the maneuvers at Erie, the boats will come up the lakes in squadron formation, disbanding at the north end of Lake Huron. The Gopher will clear for home immediately, arriving here on the noon of Aug. 21.

On Aug. 25, fifth division of the naval militia from Bemidji, sixth division, Crosby, seventh division, Lindstrom, and the eighth division from Duluth will leave on the Gopher for a 10 day trip in Lake Superior. The boat probably will lay in the Duluth Superior Harbor for several days. This will be the first cruise for these divisions, which have been created lately.

According to Eaton, it will be necessary for jacksies to enlist in the naval militia immediately if they wish to take the squadron cruise.

The Stillwater Gazette claims that the Mayo Indians of Mexico are in no way connected with the Mayo doctors of Rochester. Our understanding, however, is that they can both raise your hair by a word.

Just to have a "happy and comfortable" home, some seventy women at Minneapolis will club issues and keep house together after October 1. The surprising thing is that they should wait so long before beginning to enjoy the pleasant pastimes of such a memorable occasion.

The people of the state are to be congratulated on the appointments made by Lieutenant Governor Burnquist to the new efficiency and economy commission. Senator F. A. Duxbury of Caledonia handled the efficiency and economy program in the senate last session. Senator Rockne of Embrota is one of the very biggest men in state official life and Senators Carley of Plainview and Jackson of St. Paul are able and alert state-men. The senate end of the work will be faithfully and ably handled—and we believe the same is true of the House and gubernatorial appointees though we do not happen to be as conversant with the methods of work of the latter gentlemen.

Making the Farm Pay Better

People who have traveled in Europe tell us that the way in which farm land is utilized there as compared to America, is simply marvelous. Intensified farming, some people call it. There the price of land is so high that to make any money at all per acre, there must be no waste land and no idle land. 30 to 40 bushels of wheat per acre is no uncommon yield on some lands in Europe that have been farmed for generations.

One thing that amazes American tourists is the vast amount of unused land in Northwestern farms. Many a farm is only half under cultivation and in far too many instances that half is not producing anything like what it should and could produce per acre.

There may be several reasons for this but we often wonder when we see the buildings on some farms whether the regular daily chores don't take so much time that there isn't enough time left to give the land the attention it should have.

In these days of high priced land—with prices continually climbing—with grain prices at an unusually high level and with a big demand for hogs, cattle, cream, chickens and eggs at very profitable prices, it would seem as though every American farmer would realize the absolute necessity for farm buildings that would make possible the greatest production of grain and live stock at the lowest cost per bushel and per head. This would mean barn, hog house, chicken house and complete equipment that would save time, labor and feed and at the same time enable the stock to do its best because of clean, well ventilated and sanitary surroundings.

It is gratifying to note the number of farmers in this immediate vicinity who do realize this and are taking advantage of the unusual condition in the building material market this year, to make their equipment up-to-date.

With conditions excellent for small grain and prospects for corn improving, this wave of farm improvement ought to spread rapidly so that the greatest number possible may take advantage of cheap material and labor this year to make their farm building modern and easier to work with.

DOUBLE SERVICE AUTOMOBILE TIRES

Guaranteed 7000 Mile Service ABSOLUTELY PUNCTUREPROOF

Double Service Tires are double the thickness of the best standard make tires. This 100 per cent greater wearing surface naturally gives that much more mileage and service. The average of 12 miles of tough fabric and one inch surface tread rubber makes these tires absolutely punctureproof.

These tires excel all others for use in the country over rough and rugged roads as well as on hard pavements. They are an easy riding and resilient as any other pneumatic tire—the air space and pressure being the same.

They are the most economical and "care free" tires made and are used where tires must be depended on and tire troubles cannot be tolerated. Many Double Service style tires are in use in the United States government and European War service.

Our output is limited to a certain amount, but for a short time we offer the following reduced special prices as an introductory offer:

And what's more, it's always cheaper to fix up BEFORE damage than AFTER.

You will do everything you can to protect your crops BEFORE harvest and there's really little that you can do at that.

During harvest everything is RUSH, RUSH, and if a sudden severe storm makes its way through your barn or granary roof, it's very likely to cause more damage than an entire NEW and SAFE roof will cost you NOW. Besides, you won't have the time then to fix it unless you let your crops stand.

Get the shingles or roofing NOW and have it all done before the rush.

My red cedar shingles are the kind that will make crops and stock safe from ordinary storms for years.

At The State Fair Ground

Hundreds of men, women and children deliberately will face the awful danger of fire, an entire city block teeming with life and rebounding with the harmony of activity will be put to the torch and the works of men wrought at great cost will be set at naught when the world-famed spectacle "Fighting the Flames" is presented July 31 on the state fair grounds in the Twin Cities.

The production under the supervision of the fire department of Minneapolis and St. Paul, endorsed by municipal administrations and commercial organizations and with the co-operation of fire departments throughout the state, intended to defray the expenses of obtaining the 1916 convention of the International Association of Fire Engineers, an allied body almost of 10,000 members, which this September will be in Cincinnati. A part of the receipts of the stupendous fire show will be set aside for the firemen's emergency fund.

More than 200 men are at work on the state fair grounds erecting the imposing row of buildings to be fed the flames. Thousands of dollars already have been expended in construction and thousands more will be spent to complete an exact reproduction of a busy street such as may be seen in any Minnesota town.

An army of volunteers under the direction of Dick Ferris, noted theatrical producer and actor is, being trained for the great spectacle. Crack fire companies of Minneapolis and St. Paul already have been assigned their parts. The rigors and perils of a community predestined to destruction will be impressed on those who will take part in the production. All modern inventions in fire fighting and life saving will be put to the test.

"Mid flames and smoke, shaken by many explosions, dazed by the roar of the conflagration, women and children caught in high buildings will be rescued by the firemen. The fight for life will be as realistic and actual as the great fire itself. Women will leap into life nets stretched far below. A party of dancers on the roof garden of a hotel, trapped by the fire and frenzied by fear, will be led to safety by firemen down lofty aerial ladders. Life lines shot from cannons will be caught by flame-periled men who will lower themselves amid the hoarse shouts and glories of the crowd, to the ground.

Under skies gleaming dully with the glare of the conflagration, to the fearful accompaniment of falling buildings and the shrieks and wails of peo ple in panic the fire fighters will continue their battle. Men will be carried unconscious from storerooms and resuscitated by means of pulmonators and lung-motors. The injured will be removed in ambulances as the police check the morbid mobs.

Although determined efforts will be made to control the flames and although apparatus of the most modern type will be called into play the entire business block, consisting in part of a pharmacy, four-story hotel, saloon, garage and automobile sales room and apart goods shop, in one fell swoop will be erased by the fire.

Prior to the great spectacle there will be a program of athletics. Mike Gibbons and his clever brother will give a sparring exhibition; Johnnie Erble and other famed pugilists will appear in boxing matches. There will be tugs of war, automobile, harness and running races, relay and pony express contests by women and feats of equestrianism of society leaders, competitive military drills by crack militia companies, cavalry maneuvers, steer-ropeing, polo games, potato races and other interesting events.

Charlie Fisher of the First National bank of Devils Lake N. D., will act as express messenger, and Fred A. The pilots will be Capt. Oscar Knapp and Wyman K. Folom, Governor Van Sant will be on the hurricane deck and Lige Seavey on the lower deck as master mate. The position of steward will be assigned George H. Hazard, with instructions to put in the best cabin crew he can get, that the culinary department may be well supplied. J. H. Dawlin, porter on the Northern Light in 1856 will act as porter, and Allen French, pantry man of the Northern Bell, that year, will serve in his old capacity. Both are now in St. Paul. "Dumpey Gray" will assist Lige Seavey as mate. Government Inspector George Knapp of Dubuque and Dave Swain, president of the Stillwater machine shops will see that the boat is supplied with engineers and firemen. River Historian George B.
