There never was, to our notion, a paper better suited to the sphere it serves than the Standard-Press and News is to the quaint surroundings of Saint Croix and Taylors Falls. Billed with the little lines of the daily business and social life of the locality is also reflected in every number more or less of the beauty of the hills about it. To one who reads the least of Nature's charms, humanity is not the only fellowship of the Falls.

We are in receipt of an inquiry from Congressman Schall as to whether we are receiving copies of his speeches and other mail from him regularly, saying that he is in receipt of reports that some of his mail is being "deflected" from those to whom it was sent. We don't believe anyone around here is "deflecting" any of his mail, anyway we're receiving something from him everyday.

"As we have said, we have said," chants Brother Colby of the Sandstone Courier in an article criticizing County Supt. Blankenship. If there is anything that Brother Colby hasn't said, we'd like to know what it is.

Methodist Church Notes

Sunday will be Rally Day proper. The exercises will be begun at ten o'clock instead of nine thirty, the usual hour, and will occupy the time of the preaching service. There will be exercises by classes, social music, and so ten minutes addressed by Mr. Hare, Epworth League at 7 o'clock and evening service at 8. Mr. Hare will preach the fourth sermon in the series on the "Marks of a Man."

The concert at the Armory, last Friday evening, netted the Ladies aid about $6.55 which was better than going into a financial hole. The ladies had not hoped to make much, their idea being to get a good concert company in, with the hope that they would at least come out square.

One great, grand, good time Friday night, the 29th! A rally set for the Sunday school, which includes everybody who likes to mingle with folks. You be there or we will be disappointed and you will miss a good time.

The Ladies aid met at the church yesterday afternoon, the Queen Esther girls serving lunch. The aid will be entertained next week at the home of Mrs. Rolfe Killmer.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:45.

Presbyterian Church Notes

What a splendid thing it would be to have a real and general rally throughout the whole church. Let us see if we can double the attendance at both preaching services, as well as make large increases in other departments of the work. A little effort will amply offset a much more. Services next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Note the evening service is half an hour earlier. Christian Endeavor meets, therefore, at 6:45 p. m.

The Sunday School of the Presbyterian church is arranging for a Rally Day program in the near future and the school is beginning already to rally the forces for better attendance and better work through the fall and winter months. A committee was appointed last Sunday to take charge of the program. The date will be announced later.

The Christian Endeavor recently elected new officers to carry on the work during the year next. The officers are as follows: Miss Katherine Fitzg, Pres. Miss Loretta Bede, Vice pres. Miss Dorothy Laing, Sec. and Miss Mabel Johnson, Treas. The society is looking forward to a good winter's work.

The Ladies Aid Society has resumed its regular meetings, the first being held on Thursday afternoon of this week with Mrs. Sten ga.

Mrs. Clark and baby are expected home tomorrow afternoon from Trenton, N. J., where they have been since June with her parents.

Rev. Clark is expected home today from Ely where he has been attending Presbytery since Monday.

German Lutheran Church Notes

Pastor Leubker, wife and daughter were at Hinckley last Sunday where he preached at the funeral of Mrs. W. Wegner of that place, the funeral being held in the Presbyterian church there.

The Y. P. society will meet in the parish school tomorrow evening. A large attendance is desired as the matter of having a lecture by a returned Missionary from India will probably be taken up.

Owing to the Korn and Klover Karnival at Hinckley on Saturday of this week, Pastor Leubker will not hold services there on Saturday of this week but will on Saturday, Oct. 7.

Regular services will be held in the church here next Sunday in the German at 10 a. m. and in English at 8 p. m. Also in the Pokengan school house at 2 p. m.

P. Grove-W. Rock Luth. Churches

There will be services next Sunday in West Rock at 11 a. m. and in Pine Grove at 3:00 p. m.

The Ladies Aid of Pine Grove will meet next Friday, Oct. 6th, at the home of Mrs. Hans Larson. All are welcome.

BIRTH OF AN ICEBERG.

Cradled on Land and Nourished by Fog, Rain and Snow.

From the great quantities of ice drifting in all parts of the ocean, in high southern latitudes, it is probable that the formation of ice islands is much more rapid than is generally supposed, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The manner of their formation is easily explained. In the first place the ice seems to require a nucleus, whereon the fogs, snow and rain may congeal and accumulate. This the land affords. Accident then separates part of this mass from the land, when it drifts off and is broken into many pieces, and part of this may again join that which is in process of formation.

From the accumulation of snow such a mass speedily assumes a flat or table topped shape, gradually increasing in thickness and weight by the congelation of rain, snow and fogs, which last have no small influence in contributing to the accumulation, as may be supposed, when a few hours suffice to give the rigging and spars of a ship a weight of ice a quarter of an inch thick. Thus masses of 1,000 feet in thickness might require but a few years to form.

When the icebergs are fully formed they have a tabular and stratified appearance and are perfectly well sided, varying from 150 to 210 feet in height.

In some places the United States expedition, under Captain Wilkes, sailed for more than fifty miles together along a straight and perpendicular wall from 100 to 200 feet in height. The icebergs adrift were from a quarter of a mile to five miles in length.

In their next stage they exhibit the process of decay, being found fifty or sixty miles from the land and, for the most part, with their surfaces inclined at a considerable angle to the horizon, caused by their lower portions being unequaly abraded by the waves.

Some apparently retain their original tabular form until they reach a lower latitude, while others have entirely lost it and have evidently spent or overthrown.

The large ice islands are not the most dangerous to a ship in passing among them, as they can be more easily avoided. On the contrary, it is the small, broken or detached pieces, level with the water's edge, which are the most mischievous, for when the wind is high it is almost impossible to distinguish them from the break of the sea, and yet these small pieces do as much injury to a vessel as large ones by knocking a hole in her bottom.

Shifting the Blame.

An old tenor who had once been a great favorite was broken down and out, and had been sleeping in a lively stable for three months when he suddenly got a chance to sing the role in which he had once been famous. La Scala, at Milan, was packed that night. He sang—most painfully—before that vast audience. At the end of the performance, amidst a shower of applause, the old tenor in the wings, "see not not painful?" You Italian people, say no longer that for!"

Chinese Students Answer

In answer to the question, "What are the five great rivers of mankind?" a Chinese student replied said Bishop Montgomery, "The 100 rivers, the twelve, the nine, and the five and the three rivers."

In another paper a Chinese student said that "out of eight out of nine" could be explained by two words—"impossible, impossible!"—Landon Mall.

Notice of Expiration of Redemption

Office of the County Auditor

County of Pine, State of Minnesota.

To G. J. Ahrens:

You are Herely Notified, That the following described piece of land situated in the County of Pine, State of Minnesota, and known and described as follows, to-wit: S. 1/4 of S. W. 1/4 of Section 14, in Township 48 North, Range 28 West, is now assessed in your name, due on the 15th day of May, A. D. 1912, at the rate of land tax to the Real Estate Tax Department, duly given and made in and by the District Marshal of and for the said County of Pine on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1912, in accordance with and for the payment of taxes delinquent upon real estate for the year 1911, (to-wit: said County of Pine, the above-described piece of land) and was sold for the sum of $6.07, and the amount required to redeem said piece of land from said sale, exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice, is the sum of $6.97, and interest thereon, at the rate of twelve per cent per annum from said 15th day of May, A. D. 1912, to the day such redemption is made; and that the said tax certificate has been presented to me by the holder thereof, and the time for redemption of said piece of land from said sale, with exception of 60 days after the service of this notice, and good thereof, has been filed in my office.

Witness, my hand and official seal this 15th day of September, A. D. 1916.

W. H. HAMLEN, County Auditor of Pine County, Minnesota.

Maxwell

$595

The world's record—twenty-two thousand and twenty-two miles without stopping the motor—is held by a Maxwell stock touring car.

NO other car at any price has ever approached this wonderful record of endurance.

In addition to this proven sturdiness, remember that the Maxwell averages between 25 and 30 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Moreover, the Maxwell is complete. It has electric starter and lights; demountable rims; one-man mohair top; speedometer; roomy, comfortable seats and an attractive appearance.

Are you particular about details? Do you demand evidence of value? If so, you will investigate the Maxwell, the features, record and reputation of which proclaim it the world's greatest motor car value.

Stanley Smith, who purchased the Michael Thiery farm, three miles west of town, last month, arrived with his family and a car of household and farm goods last Saturday and at once moved into their new place. The Smiths came from Adrian, Minn., where they bear an excellent reputation and the folks of this region are glad to welcome them to the Pine City country.

The H. W. Hartel returned Monday from a delightful trip to Cuyuna, where they spent the week-end at the home of their son Robert. They made the trip via Cambridge, Princeton and the west shore of Mille Lacs lake and report the scenery at the lake especially entrancing, besides enjoying excellent opportunity to view the extensive mining undertakings of the Cuyuna range.

Earl Gray left last Thursday for Washington, D. C., where he will attend the Bliss electrical school. Earl has been employed in the Eastern Minnesota power house at Chongratana for two years and his studies will carry him along the same line. He is a bright young man with a natural bent toward mechanics and his hosts of friends at home are confident that he will be heard of in his chosen work.

Now that the evenings are cooler, folks are patronizing movies more. Manager Buschmeier reports better attendance each week. Tuesday evening, "The Red Circle," a thrilling serial, opened to continue every Tuesday evening thereafter until it is concluded. On Sunday, the "Great Mysteries of New York," an all-star cast of New York city underworld life will be shown. It will be thrilling in the extreme.

Mrs. J. A. Bede calls the attention of The Piker to the promiscuous shooting going on within the village limits. There is a state law preventing this on the theory that public safety is endangered by it and that hunters can find plenty of opportunity for hunting in less settled portions. Anyone may wear out a warrant for the present town of those caught shooting within the village limits. Parents of boys, beware!

The concert given by the "Wagon Singers" in the Armory last Friday evening drew a very good audience and provided a very good entertainment—directly Welsh, both in the amount of "Welsh" employed and the character of the program. They had voices capable of rendering a program of so-called higher "Welsh" well has combined themselves to more familiar songs. It is safe to say that such an aggregation and such a program would have been most greatly appreciated at Sandstone where there are a large number of Welsh and English, though everyone enjoyed them here.

The F. R. Disturbance are moving into the Father Hollidge residence near the wagon bridge, the Father storing his household goods and going to St. Paul where he will be able to receive special medical attention, in hopes of regaining his health. Father Hollidge has been a potent factor in improving our village during his residence here—not in advising others to go ahead but in "doing things" in almost every part of town that have given a better appearance and set an example that has helped others. He has hosts of friends here who hope that he may find better health and, later, be back here to remain.

FEATS WITH THE SWORD.

An East Indian Soldier's Wonderful

Nerve, Speed and Skill.

East Indian swordsmen are acknowledged to be unrivaled. An extraordinary performer, who was a sergeant in one of the native regiments, is thus spoken of in Colonel Barrard's book, "India and Tiger Hunting": "He was a fine looking fellow, in the prime of life, and, notwithstanding the frightfully cruel nature of what he was going to do, he moved about with perfect ease and calmness. In one hand he held a very long double edged sword, sharp at the point and with edges like razors. With the other hand he held his little bow, which aged about six years, who was clearly accustomed to what was about to follow.

"From the little fellow's evident enjoyment of the scene it was plain that failure on the part of his father was quite beyond the limits of his imagination. As soon as the usual preliminaries had been gone through, such as walking round and saluting the commanding officer and principal guests, the father placed his little boy in the center of a circle, with a small line (a kind of lemon), about twice the size of a walnut, under his heel.

"Then, taking up his stand at a few feet from the child, he grasped firmly the hilt of the sword and began brandishing it rapidly in the air. The child was thin and finely tempered, so that it could be seen to quiver and undulate throughout its entire length as it flashed in the rays of the setting sun. Soldier's muscles of the athlete might be seen to stiffen themselves; an instant's pause, then a sudden and lightning-like swoop, and the lime under the boy's heel was safely severed.

"Then, the boy having taken up his position as before, a small open box, about the size of those we use for tooth powder, was placed on the ground at his feet. It was filled with a black powder called sormaa, used by the natives for darkening eyes. Round this little box and about the boy's head the sword was now made to play with redoubled velocity. In the midst of the most dazzling passes the weapon would dart toward the little box and then reappear, steadily poised at the full stretch of the performer's arm, in front of the eyes of the child; then a sudden turn of the wrist, and a very dark line of powder was lying on one of the boy's lower eyelashes, placed there by the sharp point of the long sword. The same was then done to the other eye. This feat was performed weekly.

Sunday in Old Scotland.

Looking out of the window used to be an indelicate offense on the Sabbath, the London Chronicle says. In 1709 the kirk session of Edinburgh, "taking into consideration that the Lord's day is profaned by people standing in the streets, vaguing in the fields and gardens, as also by idly gazing out of windows, it is ordered that each session take its turn to walk the streets on Sabbath and to visit each suspected house in each parish by elders and deacons with beads and officers and at four o'clock, when the day is long to pass through the streets and to reprove such as transgress and inform on such as do not refrain."

Curious Labrador.

Dr. W. T. Grenfell describes Labrador as a land with little life beyond its borders. The cold current that flows along its shores from the north dominates its climate.

Smoothing Trouble at Sea.

"Once, crossing the Atlantic," said an old traveler, "a tremendous gale arose among the sailors. They fought down in the forecabin like a pack of wild beasts. Luncheon was going on at the time, and the first officer left the table, as he could not quell the disturbance.

"He had only been gone a little while when the mighty bubbling began to die down. Every man and woman called across the saloon to him in an approving tone.

"Things seem to be somewhat smoother now," he remarked.

"Yes," returned the first officer, "we have ironed the sailors, sir."
