ITEMS FROM THE OLD HOME

Resume of the Most Important Events in Sweden, Norway and Denmark—Of Interest to the Scandinavians in America.

SWEDEN.

A farm house built by the name of "Solomon," in Lillhult parish, which is known as the oldest man in that part of the country. In the room in which he keeps himself, the floor is covered with mats and wool, and he lies down to rest on this without any further ornaments. Most of the windows are broken, and the holes are filled with moss. The man himself is dressed in rags, his main food is a sort of porridge consisting of meal and water. The man has several cows and many sheep. They all go wherever they please. The sheep are not milked, and the barn is open all the year. In spite of this, the man has a "good luck." Why, Solomon is known to sell stock for hundreds of kronor every year, for actually owns property for something like $15,000. Not long ago he was asked if he would sell this dreary place and buy a little farm, where he could live more comfortably. "No," Mr. Solomon answered, "I cannot afford it. Indeed, I feel so happy, so happy here, I could never better my condition elsewhere."

Three hundred men have started work on the new feed factory at Karlshamn. Wharves will be made large enough to accommodate 100,000 tons. The plant will be the largest of its kind in Europe. Modern machinery has been ordered in Germany. The main products will be oil and oil cake. This factory will be in a position to supply the oleomargarine factories of Sweden with raw materials.

On an isolated timber farm in North Trelog, Varmland, may be found a sturdy old couple, namely, Jan Mossen, eighty-two years old, and his wife, who is eight years older. Their mental and physical capacities are at this wonderfully late stage of preservation. They are still able to till the ground and care for their stock. Mr. Mossen cut his hay last summer, and his wife plied the rake.

A newspaper in Sundsvall took pains to compare the price of rice in Sweden and necessary of life in Sundsvall and Berlin. Eight staple products were picked out, and the price in 40 (sweet peas) to 1.250 (white cabbage) per cent higher in Sundsvall than in Berlin. Carrots, for instance, were 333 per cent higher in Sundsvall than in Berlin.

Finshtyan timber factory, Varmland, has received orders from many foreign countries, including South America and Japan. The factory last year was 900 tons. About 250 men are employed.

The Elma Baptist congregation of Norrtalje, Uppland, lost its church by fire in 1912. Now a new one has been built in its place, and the church is dedicated a little over a month ago. It has a seating capacity of 350.

Emigration was on the increase last spring, the number of persons emigrating during the second quarter of this year being 2,401, as against 1,259 for the same period in 1915.

Twelve hundred men applied for the position of watchman at the new coal port at Sodertorna, Stockholm. A special watchman at the national bank got the place.

Hudolf Sorenson has started a peat factory at Stockeryd, Smaland. The machinery was made up in every particular.

The price of tin plates is so high that the canning industry of Sweden is seriously threatened. The price has gone up about 40 per cent during the year.

Sugar cards have been introduced in Mankfors and Kil, the maximum allowance being three pounds for each person per month.

Infantile paralysis is epidemic in the country around Mora. Sixteen cases have been reported, and two of them were fatal.

Representatives from the different Scandinavian countries recently held an interparliamentary convention in Stockholm.

Lisa Teit, a ninety-two-year old widow at Geve, Norrbotten, was out in the meadow raking hay last summer. One of her neighbors, Erik Nilsson, is ninety years old. But that does not prevent him from chopping wood and walking home a distance of four miles, after his day's work is done.

Mrs. Lovisa Sellstrom of Medelpad, had won her whole fortune in the Swedish Baptist union. Her riches turned the property over to them. The case involved $60,000.

The program of a teachers' convention at Ymerum, Ostergotland, was disturbed in a unique manner. It was announced in the convention that a moose was stuck in a tree and the whole convention went to the bog. By means of beams and ropes the poor animal was pulled out and its life saved.

Two ships that escaped the British cruisers brought 1,000 bushels of wheat from Iceland to Gathersburg. The cargo was sold at public auction and brought from $27 to $30 a barrel.

The city of Gathersburg will celebrate its three hundredth anniversary in 1913 and already plans for the day will be laid in connection with the celebration, which will be held in the fall. Thousands of visitors from all over the Scandinavian North and from other countries.

A monument of Zakarias Topelius, the Swedish-Finnish author, is to be erected in Finland, and $1,800 has been raised in Sweden for the monument fund.

An inventory of sugar stored up in Sweden has proved that there is no danger of a sugar famine.

The loss in the sewers of Haparanda did not show out until August.

DENMARK.

Both houses of the Danish parliament passed the bill providing a plan for the sale of the Danish West India to the United States. It is believed the matter will be decided definitely by the end of November.

The rate at which Danish ship owners are making money is so stuporously high that the bill providing a plan for the sale of the Danish West India to the United States. It is believed the matter will be decided definitely by the end of November.

Wooden legs are generally looked upon as a drawback in a stumpy view was not held by a Copenhagen man, who is named Andersen. For a long time he kept a wooden leg, but without being detected, for no one suspected him on account of his wooden leg.

A Russian lieutenant who had been interned in southern Germany recently reached Denmark, after 45 days on the way. When he came home, his wife told him that he had finally reached the promised land, but was interned at the Birup hospital.

NORWAY.

Arne Garborg, the noted author, used to live in Kollstoen, in the very heart of his native Kviteseid, in Telemark, near his birthplace. In an instance he has stated that he has spent most of his time for six or eight years just in translating Homer into dialect, or pure Norwegian. He prepares his books in his native dialect, and his boring farm keeps his hands busy. "The sun mink that I get here is so good that I remain here longer than I really intend to do," he says. He keeps the old Garborg clock in his house. It does not run, however. This clock is made of brass and is very accurate. At the time of the interview he thought it must be Sunday, or else the friend who interviewed him must not have had time to come and see him. The friend burst out laughing and said: "No, my dear, it is not Sunday. When Garborg found out that it was Sunday he would not have joined in the laughing. He would have said: 'Always been a trifle odd, and in his old age he is really going to extremes. Being a fanciful linguist, he is translating Homer in order to advance the cause of a pure Norwegian language.'"

Many of the Englishmen who are interested at Jordstaden are trying to make a little money under the hand. The London policeman bought two small pigs, which he is taking good care of. The treatment is to be carried out against the pear-leaf blight, which is usually present on pears and apples. Several kinds of plant food are necessary for the work.

The line-sulphur spray is very effective in destroying most scale insects, and one application will usually be sufficient, though the San Jose scale requires several treatments. The common oyster shell scale, the cherry scale and several others are easily held in check by a single treatment. The treatment is also effective against the pear-leaf blight, which is usually present on pears and apples. Several kinds of plant food are necessary for the work.

WHAT'S DOING IN OLD HOME

Summary of the Most Important Happenings in the Land of the Kalevala—Timely Items for the German Readers.

Increased agitation in Germany for a complete resumption of education. The German government has refused to allow the return of the German students to their native land, but at least, the government has created a hard unpopularity among the German people.

ADULT ROUND-HEADED APPLE-TREE BORER.

From now until the end of December is the best time for killing insects in orchards, though the work may be continued during mild weather until the end of the year.

From now until the end of December is the best time for killing insects in orchards, though the work may be continued during mild weather until the end of the year.

Line Sulphur Spray.

The spray which is now most widely used for killing orchard insects is the line-sulphur combination. Full directions for its use are given in the accompanying article.

Other Work Needed.

There is other work besides spraying which should be looked after during the winter while there are no leaves on the trees. The cooling mold, the cause of wormy apples, passes the winter in silken cocoons under scales of bark, in crevices and in knotholes in the trunk, and trees having such bark should be scraped with a dull tool to destroy the hiding places.

Look After Borers.

Peach and apple borers should be looked after at once, as their presence is quickly recognized by the borings which they throw out of their holes. Several grape insects winter under the fallen leaves, which should be removed and burned.

TURN UNDER SECOND CROP SAYS EXPERT

Gain to Soil in Both Organic Matter and Nitrogen Is at Once Apparent.

By M. F. MILLER, Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station. A ton of clover contains an amount of nitrogen equal to that in four tons of average barnyard manure. At fertilizer prices this nitrogen is worth between seven and eight dollars. A man can cut the first crop of clover for hay and by turning under the second crop, which usually weighs about a ton, he can add this nitrogen directly to the soil. Since on the average soil contains only one part of clover plant above the ground comes entirely from the air, this nitrogen is pure gain to the soil.

DIFFICULT JOB TO CHECK FIRE BLIGHT

Only Known Means of Controlling Disease Is to Cut Out All Affected Parts. The only known means of checking fire blight is to cut and burn all the affected parts before the disease has carried to the rest of the orchard by bees and other insects, or has a chance to spread through the twigs themselves.

The pruning tools may carry the fire blight, but not carefully disinfected or other dipping them into a 1 to 1,000 solution of corrosive sublimate, or wiping them with a rag or sponge which has been dipped in such a solution carried in a small bottle for this purpose.

Beneficial of Sweet Potatoes.

Sweet potatoes remove a small proportion of the elements supplied by fertilizers that a large part of the fertility is left for subsequent crops.

Cutting Alfalfa for Hay.

Cutting alfalfa when slightly less than in full bloom makes the most hay and keeps down the weeds.

PROHIBITION BENEFITS MILKMAN

A Massachusetts man, investigating the dairy business in Danvers, found that during the first four months of state prohibition there was an increase in milk sales of $27,000.

One dairy had a milk route in a district where 47 saloons had been in operation. But with the closing of the saloons came the opening of more than 100 new milk routes in that district, an increase of $15 a day.

There has been little increase in the number of dairies in Danvers. In the North and South sides, where, if it were not for at least they could not buy milk. But a route around the city stocks has an increased business of $5 a day; one around the railroad has an increase of $8 a day; one in the district between Curtis and Larimer street, an increase of $3 a day.

BEER DRINKER AND HIS FAMILY.

"It is difficult to find a heavy beer drinker who does not have a family of children who are suffering from pneumonia or other febrile disease that taxes the heart and kidneys, and who have but three chances out of ten to make a recovery."

GOOD BEGINNING.

Alabama's state-wide prohibition law went into effect July 1. Saloons in Birmingham closed their doors at 12 noon on the night of June 30. A dispatch reporting the business of the recorder's court of that city for a morning of July 5, says there was not a single case of drunkenness, assault and battery on the docket, the first instance of this sort within at least a year.

LAST AND FIRST.

The last to be hired, the first to be fired, the drinker. The drinker who is hired last and fired first is the one who is hired last and fired first.

DECREASE DISEASE.

Dr. Richard C. Cabot of Boston, chief of the medical staff of the Massachusetts General hospital, and one of the most distinguished physicians in the United States, says: "Alcohol and you will cut disease in half."

DRY TAX RATE.

Spokane has 11.5 mills in dry Spokane does the work of 13 mills in other saloon laws.—Charles M. Fassett, Commissioner of Public Utilities, Spokane, Wash.

Taking a Run in the Country

It is plain to be seen that the farmers hereabouts could use some lumber to good advantage. Some need a new barn—others a corn crib or granary—while many other buildings can stand some needed repairs.

How is it with you, Mr. Reader—anything lacking about your place? If so, better let us fit you out with what Lumber you need—AT ONCE. We have lots of good common lumber that is just the thing for building sheds, barns or granaries, and if you can use some, here is your chance to get it at right prices.

Of course, we have the better grades of Lumber too, if you want any, as well as everything else in Building Material.

Try This As An Experiment

Tie a piece of string around your finger and see if the shutting off of the nerve power to the finger does not cause it to swell and become painful and in time if you leave it there long enough the finger will become useless (paralyzed).

The same thing happens to any part of the body when the nerves that are carrying the life to that part become pressed on. What causes this disease and that? We are asked every day.

We will enumerate a few of them. If you TROUBLE is not listed cut on any Graduate Chiropractor and they will be glad to tell you the cause, explaining fully the Science as a whole.

First—What is the cause of Infantile Paralysis? Pressure on the spinal cord by the Atlas being subluxated.

Second—The cause of Cataract? Pressure on the nerves from the seventh cervical, causing accumulation of mucus in the region of the throat and nose, the mucus being unable to throw it off until these nerves are free to carry the nerve force.

Third—The cause of Indigestion? Pressure on the nerves that control the action of the stomach, and the proper flow of the juices in the stomach.

Adjust the subluxation in each and every case and normal flow of nervous energy health, same as removing the string from the finger will let the finger become normal again.

Build It of WHITE PINE

Whether you're going to build a home, barn, garage, or henhouse, White Pine will give you longest service and greatest satisfaction.

No wood equals White Pine for all exposed surfaces. Three centuries of building experience in America prove this. It does not warp, sag, twist or split after years of exposure even in closest mortises and in delicate mouldings.

Its popularity has never waned since the Pilgrims used it, but many people who know the desirable qualities of believe it is difficult to obtain. Such is not the case, as the ample stocks in our yards bear witness. And its longer service makes it most economical, even at a slightly higher first cost.

Get our prices on this kind of all structural woods and—if you don't already know its advantages—let us tell you more about them.

It costs no more to buy your lumber at home—often less—fright considered, and you can see what you get before you pay for it. They, too, we are "on the ground" to serve you—always as near as your phone.

The accordion entertainment given in the Armory, last Saturday evening, did not draw a very large crowd, only 40 or so being present. A fine concert was enjoyed, however, and all present felt that their money was well spent.

Sunday's rain put the "kikosh" on several contemplated auto trips, that day but did not prevent the Bentleons and Mrs. Arthur Anderson from starting out for Mrs. Bentleons' old home near Bruce, Wis. They returned Tuesday.

Owing to the "Birth of a Nation" at the Armory, next Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, the ladies of the Pythian Sisters lodge have postponed their intended party for their husbands and gentlemen friends until the next regular meeting night, Nov. 7th.

Mrs. John McKay leaves for Hinckley today, after a week's visit at the Harts home, before returning to Everett, Wash. As Miss Anna Anderson, Mrs. McKay once taught in our village school, having one of our present day teachers as her pupil of that time.

See "The Birth of a Nation" in the Armory next Tuesday afternoon and evening. It is the greatest moving picture play on earth. People have been going to the cities to see it. Now we will have the same thing here at home. A fine orchestra will accompany it.

The parcel shower given for Mrs. C. O. Daniels at the Haynes home, south of town, last Friday, was quite largely attended and a considerable amount of building, canned fruit, dishes, etc., was left with the best wishes of all. Enjoyable refreshments were served by Mrs. Haynes.

Many of our townspeople, as well as members of the Methodist congregation are pleased to note the return of Rev. Hare to his appointment. His abilities, education and breadth make him a factor in much more than denominational affairs, without slighting the interests of his congregation or church.

Carl Brandes is expected this week from La Moore, N. D., to join Mrs. Brandes who has been here a couple of weeks with their baby which was taken to the Northwestern hospital at Minneapolis by Miss Alvina Brandes for treatment, last week. The length of their stay will depend on the condition of the child.

School Boys' Potato Contest

The school boys, who have been competing this week in the "potato contest", due their product last Friday and H. W. Harte awarded the prizes at short exercises in the high school auditorium yesterday afternoon.

The winners of the two cash prizes—$5 and $1—for the largest individual yield in the two rows which were allowed them in the contest held, were Harold Glasgow, 7th grade, whose potatoes weighed 217 pounds and Harry Larson, high school, who raised 194 pounds. Both these boys were on the winning side—the "south" side in the contest, the nine boys of which averaged 166 1/4 pounds apiece.

Some of the boys on the losing side produced more than some of the winners but their side suffered, among other things, the disadvantage of having a low spot where the spuds were entirely drowned out. The winners were: Harold Glasgow, Harry Larson, Alonzo Schofield, Lawrence Thierion, George Roberts, Howard Blankenship, Albert Herdina, Edwin Swanson and John Corrigan.

The losers were: William Johnson, Frank Johnson, Edmund Klockner, Ted Fitzgerald, Harry Petzel, Thomas Summerville, Harry Spickler, Chester Greenly and Archie Babcock.

In all 47 bushels of Carmen No. 35 were produced on 2-5 of an acre these treated for blight at a cost of 40 cents producing much the best.

Mr. Harte made many good points in his talk, among them that there is no disgrace in losing in a contest if one is pleased about it and resolves to do better next time. An exhibit of the potatoes may be seen at J. J. Madden's.

Mrs. Martin Hoag Dead

Mrs. Martin Hoag passed away at their farm home, 7 miles east of town, last Friday forenoon, after a lingering illness from liver trouble. The remains were interred in the Millburn cemetery, Monday afternoon, Pastor Opdahl of Duluth conducting funeral services in the Norwegian Luth. church at 2 p. m. There were large numbers of flowers. The pall bearers were John and Erick Lindquist, Peter Jacobson, Samuel Merriman, Eric Sandberg and Sven Nelson.

Mrs. Hoag was born in Norway and married there, coming to Kenyon, Minn., in 1881, later going to Granby, and settling on the farm where she passed away in 1904. She leaves her husband and five daughters and four sons—Messrs. Andrew Clementson and Anton Jacobson living east of here; Arthur Clementson of Clovotter, Alfred Hanson of White Bear and P. E. Peterson of Minneapolis, and Messrs. Peter, Otto, Milton Hoag at home and Ole who is an inmate of the state school at Fairbault—besides six brothers—S. O. Brekke, east of here, Andrew Brekke of Fairbault and four brothers in the old country, where she also leaves two sisters. She also leaves a numerous family of 19 grand children.

Special Grand Opera Arrangement

Special arrangements on all railroads, centering in St. Paul, are being made to accommodate out of town patrons to the grand opera, who will come for the performance of "Carmen" on October 20th and "Il Trovatore" on October 21st. It is planned to hold all the evening trains during the nights of the grand opera season so as to accommodate all those who will attend the opera from nearby towns. Special sleepers will be arranged for, for those who live in distant parts of the Northwest who will come here, and arrangements have been made so that any ticket agent on any of the railroads in or out of St. Paul can take orders for Grand Opera at any station along the line.

The Ellis Opera Company, numbers among its principals, such well known stars as Geraldine Farrar, Helen Stanley, Rita Fornia, Lucian Muratore, Clarence Whitell, Leon Lothier, Emmy Destinn, Louise Homer, Morgan Kingdon, Giovanni Polese, Constantin Nicolay and Alma Peterson. The Premiere Danseuse will be Signerita Albertina Rasch.

Pine City News

Mrs. A. S. Knight spent the week end at her home at Taylor Falls after a few days in the apartments to be occupied by her and her daughter in the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Seavey, which they will occupy this winter. The arrangement is a happy one for all, Mrs. Knight having been alone in her Taylor Falls home and Miss Marguerite teaching here.

The John Vojtas who sold their farm about 5 1/2 miles east of town last May to Frank Suokup, and who expect to move to town next week, were given a surprise by just 119 old friends at their home Sunday evening, Oct. 1, when they were presented with a set of silver, including knives, forks, spoons, butter knife and sugar shell. A fine time was had and the Vojtas wish to extend their thanks to all who participated. The Suokups, who formerly lived here but have resided at LeSueur for the past three years, expect to move on their new farm at once.

The North Branch Review says that E. G. Waldhoff is putting steam heat and electric lights into his hotel building at that place and otherwise revamping it in readiness for the time, the latter part of the month, when Wm. Rushlow of this place will reopen it. Mr. Rushlow has conducted the City hotel here the past couple of years and only closes because there is better opportunity for him elsewhere. He will continue to operate here until about the middle of the month. Mr. Rushlow is a good hotel man and will give North Branch a good hotel.

Fred W. Hales of St. Paul was here last Friday in connection with the Odebrasko trial. Mr. Hales was cashier of the Sturgeon Lake bank in getting it started and made hosts of friends over the county during his residence here. Since he moved to St. Paul last spring he has been with the Capital State Bank, of which he is vice president. He is one of the prime movers in the new Nicollet Avenue bank at Minneapolis, to which he will transfer his attention as soon as it opens its doors. Mr. Hales is wide awake and has the reputation of being a cracking good banker.

Mrs. Bert Brackett, of Eveleth, arrived last Saturday for a visit at the Anna Madden home but was called to Mora, a Monday, by the death of John Brackett which followed an operation for intestinal trouble in the University hospital at Minneapolis, last Saturday. The funeral being held at Mora, Tuesday of this week. Mr. Brackett, who was 22 years of age, was a resident of Pine City in the early days. He was the father of Miss Maud Brackett who was employed in the post-office here at Taylor Falls. Mrs. Bert Brackett is expected back today for a few days stay, her husband having arrived from Mora yesterday before returning to Eveleth. Since this paragraph was put into type, Mr. Brackett's death has occurred, as noted above.

Simply by requiring every Maxwell dealer to carry a full supply of Maxwell parts—so that he can replace any damaged or worn part at once, without waiting for parts to be shipped from the factory.

If you are a Maxwell owner your car will always be in running order because our dealer—any Maxwell dealer—can give you real and immediate service. If he couldn't, he wouldn't be a Maxwell dealer.
