No official information has been received by the county board of control on this yet but it is likely that the statement is about correct and that the call will be received in time for publication next week.

Texas-County Looks Good to Them

The Duxburys from here and John Richards and wife from Sandstone returned, last Friday, from a 10-day trip to Texas, mostly spent in the vicinity of McAllen, about 40 miles west of Brownsville near the mouth of the Rio Grande river. They found the Beresta and several other families from the Kerkrik and neighboring region, all doing excellently and greatly pleased with the country and both Mr. Duxbury and Mr. Richards plan on going to that region to live as soon as they can shape their affairs. The country has considerable rainfall and irrigation from the Rio Grande is used to make it an absolutely sure crop producer. Messrs. Duxbury and Richards are certainly enthusiasts over the country and they are going to take a number of Pine countymen down there, starting Tuesday, April 30.

Mrs. Minnie Blank Passes Away

Mrs. Minnie Blank passed away last Sunday morning at the family home, on the Brunswick road, after an illness in bed since last September when she was taken down almost at once after the funeral of her husband, Ferdinand Blank. Funeral services were held at the home at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Clark speaking. The home was filled to overflowing with old friends and there were hosts of flowers. The remains were buried in the village cemetery, the funeral procession being entirely of women, many of which were contributed for the occasion by friends. The pall bearers were Mike Pangerl, John Heyda, A. R. Heyn, Frank Saumer, Harry Reppert and Joe. Heintzer.

Mrs. Blank was born in Germany, Apr. 8, 1850, and came to Chicago in 1868. There she was married on Jan. 1, 1867, to Jacob Blank who died in 1881. The following year she and her children came to Minnesota when she was united in marriage to Ferdinand Blank, brother of her deceased husband. The family home has continued since that time to be on the farm on the Brunswick road where she passed away.

She is survived by four daughters and four sons—Messieurs H. S. Conger of Ogilvie, M. M. Barnes, of Sturgeon Lake, Sylvester Dorr of Ancker, Minn., J. A. Jettings of Potosi, Minn., Blank who lives in town and Jacob, Henry and Perry who still reside at the home place. There are also 17 grandchildren.

Ed Olson Wins Suit

Sturgeon Lake Man at Last Wins Off Fought Law Suit

Court recessed last Friday morning to Tuesday morning of this week and recessed that afternoon for one week, to April 23, when the trial of cases not requiring a jury will be taken up, the jury having been excused this week.

The case of Joseph Wunewich against Ed Olson of Sturgeon Lake for damages, charging that Olson sold to Wunewich's son liquor which made him drunk and caused his death by being run over by a train, was decided by the court in favor of the defendant. Only about an hour's consideration of the case was given.

The case was brought through the district court here twice.

The case of John Pused against the N. P. Ry. for damages because of the loss, below the knee, of the right leg of the plaintiff's son in an accident while the local freight train was switching at Willow River on Sept. 15, 1916, was dismissed on motion of defense after plaintiff had examined three witnesses.

Joe Suk of Denham pleaded guilty to a charge of burning an unlicensed drinking place and was fined $100 and costs—a total of $182.12. The case came over from the last fall term, Suk all the time pleading "not guilty."

His lawyer was loud in his claim that Suk could not be convicted, but he evidently changed his mind when he saw the array of witnesses that County Atty. Ervin had in court for the prosecution. He paid the fine.

James Benjamin and John Sutton from the Cloverton region, partially of the pure blood of the forest, pleaded guilty to having venison in their possession out of season and are now spending a 30-day vacation in the Washington county bastille at Stillwater in lieu of a $50 and $15 costs in each case.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend to all neighbors and friends our thanks for their aid, sympathy and the flowers which showed the kindly interest during the illness of and at the death of our mother, also those whose thoughtfulness and aid at the time of the funeral made it hardships easier to bear.

Plans and specifications for same may be seen at the home of the clerk of said board. Certified check for $50 must accompany each bid. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Why a Book of these "A. B. A." cheques is the handiest way to carry Travel funds

American Bankers Association Cheques are readily accepted by hotels, railroad and steamship companies, and the best merchants. This makes them as convenient to use in payment of travel bills as cash or currency.

Another convenience is in the simplicity of identification. All that is necessary is the counter signature of the owner in the presence of the person accepting the cheques.

The compactness of a wallet containing convenient denominations of $10, $20, $50 and $100, makes the Cheques easy to carry.

They are the safest travel or emergency "money" also.

Service Banner in Their Honor

Following is the list of men from the Pine City community in the service of Our Country who are honored with a star for each man on the service banner. Possibly there are some on this list who do not get their mail, when at home through the Pine City post office and rural routes, but it is much more likely that, notwithstanding the efforts of the service banner committee to have a complete list, some young men whose names should be there have been missed. If you know any such you would confer a favor by phoning or writing Mrs. Howard Polson as soon as convenient as it is desired to have the list complete.

Methodist and Presbyterian Notes

A Service Flag will be dedicated in the Presbyterian church at the morning service next Sunday, April 21, with appropriate exercises and a patriotic sermon by the pastor. Inform all your friends, especially those who have boys who are near relatives or close friends in the service of the country. Let us fittingly honor our representatives at the front. The C. E. meets at 7 p. m. Sunday, followed by the evening preaching service. All are cordially invited to attend all services.

Rev. P. J. Barackman, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at Sandstone and of recent years pastor-at-large of the church in this presbytery, is quite feeble at his home at Duluth, following a long illness from cancer of the pancreas, for which he underwent an operation at Chicago last fall. Mr. Barackman is a thoroughly good man and every such a Christian. His illness is a matter of deep sorrow to his many friends in Pine county, who hope fervently for his recovery.

"Any man of wealth and influence can commit murder and then get off if he hires a competent counsel," said John Coburn, famous lawyer, to his bosom friend, Dr. Richard Hyde, at their club, "I could kill my wife, and then they would hang me," was Coburn's closing remark to his friend as he was leaving for Boston. See it at the Family theatre. Barney Sherry plays the leading part. Matinee at 3 o'clock, night at 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

Kills Common Law Wife

Sturgeon Lake Man Then Attempts Suicide Twice, But He Dodged It

Stephen Forster, residing one mile south of Sturgeon Lake village on the state road, shot and killed his common-law wife, Josephine Sokolowski, between 11 and 12 o'clock last Saturday morning. He gave himself up that afternoon, was brought to Pine City by Sheriff Hawley that evening and on Monday waived preliminary hearings for Justice Atkinson and was bound over to the next grand jury, being at once taken to the Washington county jail for his safe keeping.

Forster shot his victim three times—one shot cleaving the heart, one tearing a hole in the left arm breast and one entering the head near the ear. He later went to town for his mail and, at about 3 p. m., went to the front gate of his place to mail a man driving an auto toward town, whom he requested to notify the authorities in the village that "Steve Forster has shot his wife."

Capt. Chas. Olson of the home guard at once drove back with the man to the Forster place. They found the house full of powder smoke and learned that Forster had apparently made two attempts at committing suicide after he sent notice to the authorities. He had attempted to shoot himself, he said, with the last remaining bullet in his revolver but the cartridge failed to explode. He then got down the trusty old mulek, loaded with "four fingers" of powder and shot and placed the muzzle beneath his chin before he pressed the trigger. But the thing slipped somehow, or Forster silently dodged when he thought what he was doing, and the auto charge went straight through the ceiling with a "bang," singeing the would-be suicide's chin whiskers a bit but otherwise leaving him whole and hearty.

Following are the names of those enrolled for one reason or another, were honorably discharged from the service:

Editor Colby of the Sandstone paper accuses us of telling untruths about him but, instead of pointing out any instances, follows his bald statement with a libelous personal attack on the editor of this paper. All of which shows how hypocritical Carl is, beneath his whiney coat. If his "Screaming Sledge" picture show bills were not pasted over the Government posters for men and money in the postoffice at Sandstone, why didn't he come back like a man and say so instead of entirely evading that question? If he didn't prove his patriotism during the Spanish-American war by playing in the band or show his valor in the present war by attempting to get into the officers' training camp at Fort Snelling why doesn't he say so like a man? We earnestly desire not to misrepresent any person and, if any of these statements are not true, though we have every present reason for believing them to be, we shall be more than glad to correct our position.

The United States and the Allies, using the proceeds of the Liberty Loan, are the greatest purchasers of American agricultural products. In supporting the loan the farmers are enabling their best customers to purchase goods and at the same time securing the best investment in the world.

Pine City School News
A primary class for beginners, to continue for seven weeks will be started on Monday morning 9:30 in the normal department. They will be kept for an hour and a half each morning. Those having children to send will please confer with Miss Goodwin. Only a limited number will be accepted.

The "Liberty Motor" attracts considerable attention in "Clam Allowed," the up-to-date play which is now being prepared by the Senior class.

Pine City Red Cross Notes
Miss Annie Sherwood, in Dist. 18, will have an entertainment for the Red Cross on Friday evening, April 19th. Mr. Harte and the Red Cross girls will assist. The proceeds go to Rock Creek branch.

Following is the list of new Red Cross members during the past week: Joe Smetana, V. J. Kozak, Otto Grant, Fred Minze, Mrs. Fred Minze, L. S. Larson, Oreta Larson, Mrs. Casper Kruse, Renata Hines and Chas. Johnson.

There will be a basket social, program and dance at the Chegwatana town hall, Saturday evening, April 20, for the benefit of the Red Cross, given by District 18. Music will be furnished by the Rock Lake orchestra. Miss Alma Schultze is the teacher.

Mr. Harte and Misses Nora Wilcox and Lulu Hale have been presented with banners in recognition of the excellent work they have done for the Red Cross in this region. As chairman of the school campaign for funds and membership in this region, Mr. Harte has secured each meeting in every school house in the Pine City territory and several outside. He has spoken and the young ladies have furnished music at every one of these about 35 of them.

Preparations are being made to make the "White Elephant" auction in Pine City for the Red Cross a veritable "bazaar." Roy Carlson is manager and Roy never does anything that is open into by history. He actually has the following articles promised for the sale: A sack of wheat and 100 eggs by Frank Zastava, a month's oil call by A. H. Ahmanson of Hokrogren lake, practically all her remaining household furniture by Mrs. Jaa. Nelson, and others will come in as soon as they know that it is available—everybody will. All sorts of things—whatever you can give—is wanted. There will be two auctioneers on the job of May 4th. Even the sale is to include a "Washday" Mr. Carlson of what you will give as soon as possible. Articles that will keep may be brought in as soon as the Economic storm let off. The stock may be kept at home until the day of the sale as there are no means for taking care of it in town. If it is hoped to receive $1,000 by the sale, which will be for cash as well as for postal notes.

DE LAVAL
CREAM SEPARATOR

Users of De Laval Cream Separators have carried away every first prize awarded at conventions of the National Creamery Buttermakers' Association during the last twenty-five years. The record is unbroken.

That ought to be proof enough that cream separated by the De Laval is superior to any other.

The reason is that De Laval bowl design together with low speed, enable the delivery of butter-fat globules unbroken in their natural condition.

The NEW De Laval is the "blue ribbon" separator.

You can buy a NEW De Laval from us on 30-day terms. Come in and look it over and see how the Blue Ribbon Separator works.

Co. coming southeast from Atlanta. They will not give possession of the place, however, until Sept. 1 and Mrs. Graham will not leave before that.

In their advice to farmers to "raise better horses," the state authorities call attention to the startling fact that, during the three years of war, the Allies have imported from this country 1,850,000 horses and mules. How many more will be sent across before the war is won, nobody knows. Besides the prospective shortage in our country as a result of this drainage, Europe will have to be restocked. Even now, good draft horses sell in the British Isles, Belgium and France at from $500 to $1,000 apiece and in Germany the price is said to be even higher.

The Chas. Sparring barn was destroyed by fire, shortly before noon last Saturday. The loss was complete but was covered by insurance. How the flames started is a mystery, the report being that Mr. Sparring was burning the manure being incorrect. The fire department was delayed some in getting water on the flames by the fact that a freight train had the south crossing blocked but arrived in sufficient time to save the nearby buildings from destruction.

There was a fair attendance, last Saturday evening, at the farmers' regular meeting in the Pine town hall.

Mr. Corwin, manager of the county farm bureau, Asst. County Supt. of Schools Miller, Mr. Giberson vice state, Mr. Roberts and Mr. Duxbury spoke. Many matters of vital interest to the farmers were discussed and the time was so interestingly occupied that the matter of engaging a farmers club was deferred to the next meeting to be held in the same place on Saturday evening, April 27.

Attorney Roberts, who has acted as receiver for the Lorentia Creamery Co. of Rush City, which went into bankruptcy some three years ago, bears a unique distinction in that he recently sent checks to all creditors of the defunct corporation paying them the full balance they had coming from it. It is almost as scarce as the proverbial "hens teeth" to find a receiver in bankruptcy who is able to make such an excellent showing and the outcome is a credit both to Mr. Roberts and to W. B. Hoppe, formerly of Rush City but now of Farmington where he has reengaged in business and is doing excellently, who has made such a settlement possible under Mr. Roberts' willingness to grant necessary time.

Miss R. Hay received word of the death of her brother Tom at San Antonio, Texas, from pneumonia on Friday, April 5, after a very short illness.

Hay had visited at Pine City only a couple of times but, owing to his brothers and sisters who lived here in the old days and the present, was quite well known of. His home was at Monterey, Mexico, where he was engaged in railroad work, occupying an excellent official position. He was imprisoned for a revolution and when released, was driven in an auto by a brother of the then President Madero to Texas where he has since remained. He was about 47 years of age and leaves a wife and five children from 9 to 16 years of age.

When J. H. Worley was repairing the barn he recently purchased from Mr. Radley and moved from the property occupied by the Chas. Laings to his own home on Second ave. and 6th street, a number of letters and other mail, to or from residents along route 1, Pine City, dated about Feb. 15, 1918, was discovered between the studding where they had evidently been dropped, either by mistake or intent.

No report was made to the postal authorities but, as soon as the matter reached the ears of Postmaster Collins, he made an investigation, gathered the mail together, secured one letter which had been opened by boys, and notified the postal service to send inspectors to go over the matter. Two men were here for that purpose about two weeks ago. As a result of their investigation, Charles Stephan who has carried the mail on route one since its inception was suspended and John Tate has, since then, been handling that work. When a most enjoyable time was had with dancing until well along toward morning, a delicious supper being served by the ladies at about midnight. There were about 40 present, among them many fine looking girls, which helps to account for the excellent time that everyone reports. The dance was for the benefit of the newly christened Cedar lake ball club, for which a neat little sum was netted. The club will meet others of this region and do its part in keeping fresh the memory of the evergreen shores of Cedar lake.
