A Good Friend A good friend stands by you when in need. Pine City people tell how Don's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mrs. Chas. Spear of Pine City endorsed Don's seven years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony? "I used Don's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and other kidney troubles which I had suffered." "I say Don's Kidney Pills are the best thing I have ever used in the small of my back and I could get out of a chair without the sharp twinges over my kidneys, which used to catch me. I have bought Don's Kidney Pills at Brockton, Minn. Pharmacy and have kept them in the house. I always recommend them to anyone suffering from any kidney complaint." (Statement given October 20, 1917) 60935 P.O. BOX 403. On October 19, 1917, Mrs. Spear said: "It is twelve a few years ago. I then had my kidney troubles which proved that Don's Kidney Pills were a permanent cure." One of all Dealers. For Sale at Pine City, Minn., Brockton, Minn.,

Creamery m'n Talk Shop Pine County Buttermakers in Session at Hinckley, One Week Ago

At a meeting of the creamery officers in Hinckley, June 29th, the following resolutions were adopted: Akov, Pine City, Hinckley, Finlayson, Brook Park and Rock Creek. Extremely valuable ideas were brought out in the talks by J. C. McCarthy, A. J. McGuire and Ludvig Mosback of Akov.

Our space will not permit a complete stenographic report this week, but the following resolutions adopted by the creamery men and the Farm Bureau representatives last Wednesday afternoon, give a clear summary of the proceedings of the meeting which will be published from time to time as space permits.

Resolutions passed by representatives of the county co-operative creameries and the executive committee of the Pine County Farm Bureau. June 26, 1918. Considering the fact that the dairy industry is fundamentally dependent upon the consumption of dairy products, and that the consumption of dairy products—milk, cream, butter and cheese—is increased or decreased by quality or lack of quality in these products, therefore it is resolved that the co-operative creamery associations of Pine county do all in their power to produce and manufacture and get to the consumer, all dairy products in the most pure, fresh and wholesome condition possible.

Realizing that butter is the chief dairy product sold by the dairy farmers of Pine county and that first class butter cannot be made from cream that is held on the farm a number of days and then shipped to distant markets and not made into butter until it is stale and sometimes putrid, and realizing that such butter is not only a disgrace to dairy farmers but a danger to the dairy industry, therefore it is resolved that the practice of shipping cream for buttermaking be discouraged.

Minnesota has the distinction of making the best butter not only in the United States, but in the world. Out of fourteen national contests, Minnesota has won twelve banners and without a single exception the butter that won these banners was made in co-operative creameries. This distinction has given Minnesota butter first place on the largest markets of the country, and thereby given Minnesota farmers a greater price for their butter than they would have otherwise received. Therefore it is resolved that we urge every farmer to support co-operative creamery associations, since it is the 656 co-operative creameries of Minnesota that have made the dairy industry what it is in Minnesota, the most profitable industry of the whole state.

Co-operative creameries have been in operation in Minnesota for the past 20 years. The creamery built in the state is still one of the most successful. During the first year it paid its patrons less than 15c a pound for butterfat. Last year, 1917, it paid its patrons 50c for butterfat per pound. The average price paid by all of the co-operative creameries of Minnesota for 1917 was 45c. First class creamer paid from 46c to 50c a pound for butterfat. Some co-operative creameries that were poorly supported and poorly managed paid as low as 40c and some few even below this. A study of the co-operative creameries of the state shows that where a creamery pays a high price, it has a large amount of butterfat, generally over 75,000 pounds a year. In good condition, not less than three times a week in summer and not less than twice a week in winter and generally three times a week in the spring around. It has good business management, its officers study and understand the creamery business and employ a first class buttermaker.

period of five or ten years. European countries have cut down their livestock for two reasons. First, lack of shipping of import grain feeds, and second, the need of meat to feed their people.

As soon as the war is over they will be coming to us for the best breeding stock we have regardless of price. Just now there is a fiscal price on wheat, but none on dairy products or dairy cattle. When the war is over European people will raise their own wheat, but it will take them years to build up their herds. And in the meantime their demand for dairy products is going to be strong.

N. W. Takes Over P. Co. Exchanges All the long distance telephone lines in Pine county operated by the Tri-State company have been inspected and a complete detailed inventory obtained by a crew of expert telephone men under the direction of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission. The crew which was at work in Pine county was under Mr. Samuel K. Stover of Minneapolis, and covered every foot of pole line in the county, making a complete record of the condition of each unit, such as poles, wires, cross-arms, anchors, and pins.

These reports will be forwarded to the office of Mr. Jurgensen, chief engineer of the Commission, for compilation and will form a basis for making an appraisal of the physical value of the long distance lines in Minnesota. The records also will become a part of the permanent records. The valuation is desired by the Railroad & Warehouse Commission at this time mainly for the purpose of enabling it to determine the reasonableness of the telephone toll rates in the state, against which there have been more or less criticism. If competent telephone men will be available, Mr. Jurgensen hopes to complete the field work in the state this year, but the task is an immense one, entailing as it does the inventorying of fully ten thousand miles of pole line.

The inventorying of the toll line property of the Northwestern company in Pine county was completed by the same party earlier in the month.

Work will be begun, the first of next week by the Farrah-Boo Lumber Co. on the fine new, partly fireproof stock

Says McGee Was Right

Hon. V. L. Johnson Says He Was Wrong in Letter to Judge McGee Hon. Victor L. Johnson of Center City, former state senator from this district and well known throughout Pine county, gave the following interview, which appeared in the Minneapolis Journal of last Friday, in which he corrects the estimate he put in a letter to Judge McGee of the State Safety Commission on certain statements made by the judge relative to the loyalty of some of the people of the state.

"It is impossible," Mr. Johnson continued, to feel anything but the deepest mortification and humiliation at the astounding returns from some of the Swedish counties like, for instance, the spelling of this county's name should be changed to 'Isanti.' A county which will give such a large vote to a convicted delinquent, as against grand old Knute Nelson, whose 18 years of age exceeded his market, fought and bled for his country, and ever since has stood like a beacon light of true blue Americanism, should be bodily lifted out of Minnesota and transferred to Prussia.

"But I still hold the fault is not wholly with the people themselves, and I still hold that we of Swedish blood are the most susceptible of all people to the wiles of the agitator, advantage of which weakness is always taken by the professional demagogue.

"The body of Mrs. Amelia Feury was found lying on the bed in her home on 8th street in Hinckley, following by her son, Henry Vogelsang of Brook Park and Sheriff Hawley, following an investigation into her mysterious disappearance. The body was in a rather bad state of decomposition, but was cared for and kept until 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon when the funeral was held from Piper's undertaking rooms, remaining here in the village of Hinckley.

Mrs. Amelia Feury was born in Germany, Dec. 18, 1858, and came to America when about 20 years of age, where she was married to Henry Vogelsang, who passed away after about 20 years of married life and, in 1912, she was again married to Andrew Feury of this place who died about two years ago.

She had been in rather poor health for some time before her death. It was understood that she was about to come to Pine City to visit unless a spirit of nationality is fostered and nurtured. The soldier boys on their return will be a potent influence for good. They will take care of the copperhead and will be a most thoughtful attention must be given along many lines of our old customs and habits.

IS IT WORTH SUCH PROTECTION, THIS YEAR

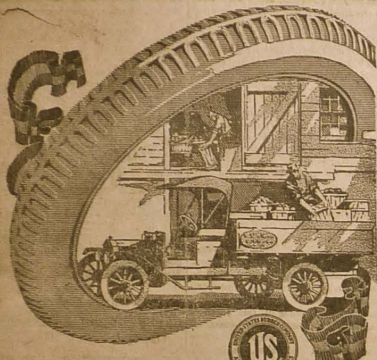

Next to the hay mow in your barn, this kind of a permanent hay shed is the safest and in the long run the most economical hay protection.

Hay that is kept in A 1 condition makes better feed or brings a better price if you sell it.

Next winter a shed like this full of hay will look mighty good.

It won't take long to plan and build one, and it won't cost much. Let us give you figures on one large enough to store your surplus.

JOAN OF ARC

A GIRL and a man are the idols of the French people.
Joan of Arc—a mere child in years, ignorant, unlettered, but possessed of a soul of holy patriotism—roused a nation to her standard of liberty in 1429 and won lasting freedom for France.

OVER in the war scarred sections of fair France today a man holds the destiny of a nation in his hand.
He is General Nivelle, pride of a nation in 1919.
The army he leads—the greatest army in his nation's history—is fighting to preserve for the people that which Joan of Arc gave to them.

WHY IS THE FOURTH OF JULY

This is the Fourth of July. One hundred and forty two years ago today, delegates of the British colonies in America, gathered in Continental Congress at Philadelphia, adopted the Declaration of Independence—and there followed the actual separation of the colonies from the mother country and the final establishment of the United States of America—Our Country.

The Declaration itself attacked in every way the motives and the methods of the practically purebred German King of Great Britain, George the third, whose father could not talk the English language and who spoke it himself only in broken dialect. And the War of the Revolution, which followed the Declaration as it had led up to it, was stopped only when Lord Pitt, the earl of Chatham, and other British blood in the British parliament refused to furnish harbor means for their King for venting his blind fury in the persecution of the colonists. The war had been so unpopular in Britain that Britishers had refused to enlist in it to fight against their kinsmen on this side of the Atlantic and King George had hired the use of several thousand German soldiers from his relative, the Prince of Hesse-Cassel, with which to carry on the fight. Britishers on both sides of the Atlantic fought with their backs to the wall—and won.

Who were the members of this Continental Congress who, on July 4, 1776, signed the Declaration of Independence and sealed their treasonable position to the crown—when John Adams of Massachusetts said, "Now we must all hang together or we shall all hang separately." Here is the list of delegates:

- New Hampshire: Josiah Bartlett, William Whipple, Matthew Thornton.
- Massachusetts: John Hancock, Samuel Adams, Robert Treat Paine, Elbridge Gerry.
- Rhode Island: Stephen Hopkins, William Hooper.
- Connecticut: Roger Sherman, Samuel Huntington, William Williams, Oliver Wolcott.
- New York: William Floyd, Philip Livingston, Francis Lewis, Lewis Morris.
- New Jersey: Richard Stockton, John Witherspoon, Francis Hopkinson, John Hart, Abraham Clark.
- Pennsylvania: Robert Morris, Benjamin Rush, Benjamin Franklin, John Morton, George Clymer, James Smith, George Taylor, James Wilson, George Ross.
- Delaware: Caesar Rodney, George Read, Thomas McKean.
- Maryland: Samuel Chase, William Pacer, Thomas Simons, Charles Carroll.
- Virginia: George Wythe, Richard Henry Lee, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Harrison, Thomas Nelson, Jun. Francis Lightfoot Lee, Carter Braxton.
- North Carolina: William Hooper, Joseph Hewes, John Penn.
- South Carolina: Edward Rutledge, Thomas Heyward, Jun., Thomas Lynch, Jun., Arthur Middleton.
- Georgia: Butcher Gwinnett, Lyman Hall, George Walton.

upon his own footing, with Opportunity spread out before him.
The Fourth of July means more to the American people than mere noise or celebration—it means praise or celebration—it means thanksgiving to "whatever Gods there be" for its inestimable gift to Our Country and the world, and it means willingness to give all that we have—to life itself—that what was gained at Lexington and Yorktown may still be maintained for those who are to come.

During the past week The Pine POKER received a request to publish a paid advertisement attacking the personal character and motives of a citizen of Pine County and those associated with him in his work. This paper is not in that business. There is a difference between public questions and individual squabbles. The advertising columns of The Pine POKER are always open to any individual to express any opinion or argument on any public question so long as he refrains from personalities and does not express views that we deem contrary to good government or the public welfare.

When it comes to publishing attacks on the personal character or reputation of another, no matter who it be, for the pay that there is in it, we draw the line. That sort of thing used to be deemed perfectly permissible 25 or 30 years ago among those "editors" whose chief qualification was their ability to "lick up the booze," but today no self respecting publisher of any brains at all will so far transgress the obligation that he owes to the public in return for the privileges accorded him by the laws of our state and nation as to sell the use of his columns for such a purpose. We are not profiteering by handling that class of business.

The candidate of the socialist party for president at the last election, has resigned from the party because he says that he can't stand its anti-American policies. Probably Editor Colby of the Sandstone paper, who is a candidate for county superintendent of schools, thinks that man is crazy, as Colby has lost no opportunity to defend the Socialist party since the war broke out.

Farmers Attention!

Where did you market your milk and cream?

Do You Know That

- If it were not for the Co-operative creameries of the state of Minnesota you would be getting 10 cents per pound less than you are at the present time, as the farmers are getting in Oklahoma and other places where no co-operative creameries exist.
 - We have paid highest market prices for butterfat as you will find by comparison with prices paid by other creameries. New patrons are starting in each week. With the support of every farmer in the community we could pay several cents more per pound than we are already doing, for the greater the volume of business the greater the profit.
 - Aside from sinking fund and running expenses all money received for milk and cream products goes back to the patrons.
 - We make regular payments and always strive to give fair and accurate tests and correct weights. Satisfied patrons are our greatest asset.
- By patronizing the Farmers' Creamery you will be loyal to your own interests and the interests of your community.

The subject of the sermon for next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. will be "Heaven," the third of the series bearing upon the destiny of a soul. In the evening at 8 p. m., the first of the union park meetings will be held, the weather permitting. Rev. Hare, of the M. E. church is to be the speaker. Let everyone make a special effort to come and bring a friend. These meetings will do the most good when they are most largely attended and most enthusiastic. All can help in these particulars. If the weather is bad the union park meetings will be held in the buildings. Watch for notices in such a case.

Since today—Thursday—is the Fourth of July, the prayer meeting will be omitted this week.

Among those present to assist Father Leo in celebrating his 15th year in the priesthood, last Friday, were Fathers Placka and J. Herck of Royalton, who drove across, and Fathers Roy and Stojer and Mr. Arth from St. Paul.

Members of the choir and teachers and members of the Spinkley school surprised Father Leo at the parsonage, Friday evening, and presented him with a beautiful Knights of Columbus watch chain on the occasion. The house was full and the evening was spent socially with fine refreshments.

Father Leo was surprised by his brother priests of St. Paul, last Friday, on the occasion of his celebration of the anniversary of his entrance to the priesthood, by presenting him with a couple of sheep. The Father intends pasturing them on the parish lawn and has hopes that their increase will, ere many years, make the renowned flock of Abraham look like the proverbial '90 cents.
