

THE PINE CREEK OKER

Vol. XXI

PINE CITY, MINN., OCTOBER 3, 1918.

Shoots Self With Rifle

Mother of Three Children at Bruno Commits Suicide-- Was 34 Years Old

Mrs. Ben Miller shot and killed herself at the family farm, about 3 1/2 miles southwest of Brimo, at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The deed was committed with a rifle, the first shot piercing her heart and causing death. Despondency caused her to commit the rash act. Her husband works in the field at the time. She leaves three children, the eldest 8 years and the youngest a baby of 3 months.

State Tax is Reduced

The state tax for next year will be the lowest for some time. It will .0055, as follows: State Revenue fund .0055, Soldiers Relief .0001, Road and Bridge .0001, Prison Building .0001, Historical Society building fund .0001, Iasca State Park land fund .0001, State School fund .00123, Teachers Insurance fund .00005. Total .0055. This year's total state tax was $598, last year it was $657, and the year before last was $915. There were some demands for money on the legislature last winter that those in authority were compelled to refuse many appropriations that they personally wished to make in order to hold the tax within reason.

The '01 state revenue—general excise—tax will raise about $1,600,000, but the fund gets liberal amounts from other sources—the railway gross earnings, corporations, inheritance, and other special taxes. It is fortunate that it does for out of it are spent this year nearly $5,000,000 for educational purposes and over $2,500,000 for our state insane and other charitable and correctional institutions as follows: State institutions, including the prison, reformatory, insane hospitals and asylums, reform school, schools for deaf, dumb, blind, hospital for crippled children, etc. $2,670,550.00. Educational purposes, aided and unaided, semi-graded, semi-high, and normal schools, including university and state normal schools $4,877,725.00.

Take a peek at these figures so as to see what the state money is being spent for—and then when a would-be lawmaker comes around yelling "better schools and better roads and lower taxes," tell him to go take a rest for his mind. Mind you, these above amounts come out of the revenue fund and that all the other taxes enumerated in the first set of figures above are additional. The revenue fund is the core of the '01 tax for the purpose of the state income tax, the corporation tax, etc.

Congressman Thos. D. Schall will speak in the Armory at Pine City at 2:30 in the afternoon of Wednesday, Oct. 23, on politics whatever being talked on his interview experience in the War Zone in France and also of his experience on board the torpedoed transport M. Vernon, on which both Fred and Henry of Brerau was a stoker and was killed, as you know. He will come under the auspices of The America First Association and will speak in accordance the same evening at 8:30 "dark while enroute to Duluth.

County Teacher's Institute Oct. 28 An institute for the teachers in graded and rural schools of the county will be held at Hinckley on Monday, Oct. 28. The teachers in these schools will be required to attend and will be paid their regular salaries for the time by the district where they are employed.

Spide Mostly Dug in This Region Most of the potatoes in the Pine City locality have been harvested and the same condition prevails generally over the county as was understood. There are only a few remaining fields left unharvested. A few more potatoes are to be harvested the week of Oct. 11-12 last which might mean more or less, causing some concern here.

Most Quaintest Are Retained Remnants in the new draft, however the ages of 14 and 21 and 21 and 21, however, have been raising the idea of questioning the new week and members of the county board of health have been discussing the matter. Fred A. Spiering, Pine City, says: "Last June I had an attack of kidney trouble. The way my kidneys acted annoyed me and the secretions passed much too often. My back ached a great deal, especially after I had been standing over for any length of time. I didn't feel like myself at all. A tired, drowsy feeling would come over me and last for a long time. Dean's Kidney Pills soon gave me fine results and it wasn't long before they cured me. I haven't had any kidney complaint since."

I Am Public Opinion

All men fear me. I declare that Uncle Sam shall not go to his knees to beg you to buy his bonds. That is no position for a fighting man. But if you have the money to buy and do not buy I will make this country No Man's Land for you.

I will judge you not by an allegiance expressed in mere words. I will judge you not by your mad cheers as our boys march away to whatever fate may have in store for them.

I will judge you not by the warmth of the tears you shed over the lists of the dead and the injured that come to us from time to time.

I will judge you not by your uncovered head and solemn mien as our maimed in battle return to our shores for loving care.

But, as wise as I am just, I will judge you by the material aid you give to the fighting men who are facing death that you may live and move and have your being in a world made safe.

I warn you—don't talk patriotism over here unless your money is talking victory over there.

I am public opinion. As I judge, all men stand or fall.

—Ramsey Co. Liberty Loan Com. in Pioneer Press.

aged with the work. The last of the questionnaires were sent out last Saturday and about 900 of the 1638 had been returned to the county board up to this afternoon. Probably very few will be delayed.

County Agent's Notices

October 25th and 26th Hinckley Minn. Remember the necessity of saving some of your best specimens. The County Agent will buy you sort them down to the last half bushel, provided you make arrangements with him to come to your farm for this purpose. The best 15 samples at this show will represent the county at the State show held in Grand Rapids November 20th to 22nd.

Will all of the farmers clubs in the county send to the Farm Bureau office at Hinckley the names of your officers and when you meet.

Mission-Creek Town Board Meets

A joint meeting of the town boards of Mission Creek and Brook Park towns was held Sept. 16. Chairman Bakkeberg of Brook Park town was chosen to preside. The records on the town line road between the two towns not being complete, it was voted to proceed to lay out the road anew. The meeting adjourned.

The Mission-Creek town board met at the Frank Koop place, Sept. 21, all members being present. Chairman Goss assigned the job of clearing 1 1/2 miles of road right of way as follows: one mile through section 9 and 1/2 mile through sections 8 and 9, town 40, range 21, road to be cleared full Creek ways, brush to be cut not over 3 inches from the ground and all brush and logs to be piled so as to leave 2 rods wide in the center of the roadway clear. Albert Proulx bid $165 and Frank Koop $150, the contract being awarded to Koop at his lowest bid. Whereupon the board adjourned.

Regular meeting of the board was held in the German state bank, Sat. Sept. 28, all members being present. Minutes of the meetings of Aug. 31, Sept. 10 and 21 were approved, except motion by Supervisor Sherman on Sept. 10 directing new proceedings in laying out town line road between Brook Park and Mission Creek, said road being found to be properly recorded at Pine City and in the town of Mission Creek. Bill of Howard Folson was laid on the table for correction. Motion was carried to pay into the county treasury $800 on this town's share of work on the Federal highway through the town on motion, J. J. Kryzer's petition for road between sections 13 and 21, 49-21 was granted and hearing on same set for 10 a. m., Oct. 10, at the courthouse corner of 13-40-21 on Government road. The board reviewed the road reported completed by Henry Bouma between sections 22 and 26, 49-21, and voted not to accept until completed according to contract, the clerk being directed to notify said contractor to finish the job. On motion Henry Bouma was allowed $27.26 as part payment on said job to serve for labor claim of Miss Cahak. Several bills were allowed as per order register and, on motion, board adjourned to meet in State Bank of Brerau Oct. 29.

Pine County Goes Over

Large Percentage in All Districts Responded to Notice at Once

Pine County is going over the top in the Liberty Loan drive which opened last Saturday. Not all of the $360,000 to be sold in the county have yet been taken, but most of them have, and the rest of them are being taken as fast as the residents who were unable to answer the first call are able to respond. There is no doubt but that Pine will be "over the top" within the week set for the sale. In all districts but one, the large percentage of buyers responded to the calls sent out and bought the first day. In Pine City this percentage was over 80 per cent of the total sent out. In many cases, here, buyers bought more than they were asked to buy. Everywhere, over the county, the predominant spirit is fine. Of course there are some slackers.

Gold Star on Service Banner

The first gold star on the Pine City service banner has been placed on it to commemorate the memory of John J. Neville, second son of Mrs. Mary Neville of this place, whose death at Quebec on Sept. 23 was recorded in The Pine Oker last week.

Funeral services were held in Immaculate Conception Catholic church here on Friday, Sept. 27, at 10 o'clock a. m. with mass by Father Leo. The big church was crowded with relatives and friends of the deceased and others who wished to honor the memory of the departed. A detachment from The Pine City home guard acted as a guard of honor for the remains and a military salute was fired over the grave.

Deceased was born on the family farm, south of town, Sept. 29, 1894, and had always lived here, where he learned the carpentering. He enlisted in the aviation branch of the navy, last May, and had been stationed at Buffalo where he received training. The last letter received from him was on Sept. 11 when he notified his folks that he was about to go across. The next heard from him was on Sunday, the 22nd, when word from Quebec announced his serious illness with pneumonia at that place. He followed shortly by another message announcing his death. Mrs. Neville prepared to go to St. Paul, following the first wire, intending to go on to Quebec but Miss Julia, who was teaching there, took the responsibility of the trip and was about to start when the subsequent telegram, announcing death, was received. The remains were received here last Thursday.

Among the relatives who were able to reach here before the funeral were his sisters, Miss Julia from St. Paul, Mrs. Koop from Jamestown, N. D., and Mrs. T. R. Fursman and daughter of Crookston, also his brother Henry from Tacoma, Wis. Miss Lucille from LeBo, Mont., and Ben from the battleship Massachusetts were not able to reach here until Saturday. Mrs. Fursman, Henry and Ben left Tuesday night and Mrs. Koop yesterday. Miss Julia will return to her school duties at St. Paul and Miss Lucille expects to remain at home with her mother.

Card of Thanks We wish to thank our friends for their many kindnesses and the beautiful sympathy extended to us at the death of our beloved son and brother, John J. Neville and family.

Forward! With no thought of bursting shrapnel and poisonous gases into which they plunge—with every muscle tense, with every faculty of mind alert, with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

Forward! The same sharp challenge to battle is sounding for us. We must answer in the same proud way—the way of our fighting men—the American way. We must lend the way they fight.

Forward! We must show the war-maddened Hun a united American people moving forward shoulder to shoulder, irresistibly, to Victory.

Our task is to supply the money, the ships, the guns, the shells that we must have to win. It is a tremendous task. We must do it as our fighting men do theirs—with the indomitable spirit of Victory.

We must work, and save, and lend with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

Get into the fight—with your whole heart. Buy Bonds—to the utmost!

USE MORE ROLLED OATS.

Everybody Likes These Delicate Oatmeal Cookies.

ANOTHER WAY TO SAVE OUR WHEAT

Rolled Oats May Be Ground at Home With Food Chopper or Hand Mill.

USED AS BREAKFAST CEREAL

For Making Bread and Cakes It is Best to Combine With Fine Flours—Recipes Given Have Been Thoroughly Tested.

Rolled oats have long been used as a breakfast cereal in American homes, but the use of the ground rolled oats in place of wheat flour in bread and cake making is now so common.

Oats flour is procurable in some markets, but in most cases it does not differ materially from that made in the home by grinding the rolled oats in a hand mill or through a food chopper.

Since oats flour is more granular than wheat flour, better texture can be obtained by using it in combination with one of the finer flours, such as rice flour, potato flour, or corn flour.

Either the home-ground rolled oats or the commercial flour may be used in the recipes that follow.

Shortcake.
1/4 cup rolled oat flour
1/4 cup flour
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup butter

FRAGMENTS OF ENEMY REVEALED

Through the cooperation of the department of public instruction of France, it has been possible to distribute 120,000 of these pamphlets in the schools. A large percentage of the literature so distributed has been taken directly into the homes and a tremendous influence for good is thus being exerted.

The Y. M. C. A. became convinced some time ago that a general distribution of concrete information regarding things and ideas American would be greatly appreciated not only by the French people but would also do much to promote confidence and understanding between the two nations.

The French are always eager to hear about the United States and never tire of asking questions about their great ally. Much information of this kind of course had been spread by individuals but, unfortunately, all of the Americans in France have not a clear and accurate conception of their own national ideas nor even a very wide variety of exact information regarding their own land.

Consequently it was decided that pamphlets giving such information in a small compass would serve an excellent purpose. Three of these pamphlets were prepared.

One, for the high schools in the United States, is titled "Their First Glimpse of France".

The second folder, "The Help Brought by America to the Allies," was prepared by the Y. M. C. A. of Paris.

The third folder, "The Help Brought by America to the Allies," was prepared by the Y. M. C. A. of Paris.

The Y. M. C. A. of Paris, America's post-attainment and America's definite mission for the successful prosecution of the war are being presented to the French people in a trenchant, convincing manner through the medium of pamphlets prepared by the educational bureau of the American Y. M. C. A.

RAIDING PATRONS OF TERROR ENEMY

London—The progressive effectiveness of the allies, both in the construction of airplanes and in the air fighting, has never before been more clearly proved than in the recent operations on the western front. In last month's offensive the allies, marching infantry and transport by low-flying airplanes was the first example of a really large scale co-offensive of the air.

From a R. A. F. officer of long experience it was learned that it is now a deliberate method of air fighting conducted on the tip and run principle of one swooping drive to earth, bringing the airplane into close range only at the lowest point of the dive, but by machines which fly undisturbedly low and at a high rate of speed, so low that pilots have identified the regimental insignia of the troops attacked, so low that the airplane wheels have been known to skim the earth.

Plan for Large Yield of Lambs

Special Effort Should Be Made to Secure Rams of Desirable Type and Individuality.

The best time to begin preparation for a large crop of lambs is early in the fall, several weeks before the mating season begins.

At that time the ewe flock should be culled closely with the idea of eliminating ewes that have proved themselves to be unprofitable breeders, due to barrenness or having produced small and weak lambs at birth, or having failed to produce milk enough for the rapid development of the lambs.

After the first mating-up of the flock is determined, the ewes should have access to fresh pasture.

Some kind of force crop especially grown for the purpose is desirable. A little grain may be provided at this time.

The idea is to have the ewes gain slightly in flesh a few weeks previous to and during the mating season.

Experiments conducted by the animal husbandry division of the United States department of agriculture have shown that the extra trouble and feed required in flushing the ewes is repaid several times by the added number of lambs obtained.

With ewes already in good condition the effect is less marked than with thinner stock. Young or dry ewes that are in high condition will not be benefited by flushing.

Ewes gaining in condition at breeding time the lambs arrive more nearly to weight in spring. This lessens the labor of lambing season and gives more nearly uniform ages and weights in lambs to be marketed later.

The Ram.

The number of twin lambs is apparently governed more largely by the ewe than by the ram.

It is important, however, to keep the ram in strong vigorous condition, for if he is overfed in low condition some ewes may be unable to get in lamb.

At the beginning of breeding the ram should be in good flesh, but should not have been overfed or kept too active.

It is best if he can have grain feed and be separated from the flock for at least a few hours each day.

Flock Management.

The breeding season over, the flock under any system of management will insure health and a gradual increase in weight of from 10 to 15 percent a head lambing time.

The increase in weight is desired to counteract the loss of weight at parturition time, and will have the effect of insuring greater ability on her part to provide the necessary quantity of milk for the rapid development of her lamb.

This management produces lambs that are larger and stronger at birth and are ready for marketing.

Do this suitable quarters must be provided for the flock against storms, wet floors, drafts, and lack of ventilation.

Paris—He wore a rough doughboy's uniform, fuzzy and wrinkled, but there were epaulettes on his shoulders. Every doorway passing the table at which he sat upon the Paris terrace seemed at the bare, then at the uniform, and though not required to do so, saluted respectfully.

They knew at a glance he was a captain of infantry, proud of titles.

"We had gone ahead ten kilometers," he reminded to a companion, "when we stopped for a moment to consult our maps. I had a few seconds a couple of lieutenants and a sergeant with a few men."

"That night Sergeant Casey opened his door of sack. With my head in my hands I was sobbing like a kid. I had tried to write a letter to his mother, but I could not get it through for he coughed and went away."

MUST SUBMIT UNCONDITIONALLY
In 1916, Germany and Austria were in almost as bad straits as they are today—they were being pounded hard in France, the Italians had driven them back into Austria, the Allies had assembled a dangerous force at Saloniki, the English had defeated the Turks at the Suez canal and were encroaching in Mesopotamia, and Roumania was fresh in the war while the Roumans were carrying on winning campaigns against the Turks, south of the Black sea, and against the Austrians and Germans in Galicia and around Brest Litovsk. Germany saw her "invincible" armies being defeated on all sides—and she sat up the cry of "Kamerad."

Her deceit put Russia where she is today, brought about an all-but-fatal defeat of Italy and did terrible injury to the morale of the French and English nations. That cry of "Kamerad" would have won the war but for the entry of the United States into the conflict. During those two years the armies of the central powers conquered on almost every hand, and they fought their friendly professions of 1916 and again became arrogant conquerors. But today they are again fighting with their backs to the wall, and again the craven cry of "Kamerad" comes out of their trenches and from behind their series of cannon. They are again trying to fool the world.

In 1916, Russia was their "best bet"—and they won. Today they look with longing eyes to America—but they'll find we're not in Russia's class. That "Kamerad" Russia doesn't go in this land until the one who yells it shows the goods. America demands of Germany the same "unconditional surrender" that Grant demanded of Lee at Appomattox. If the Germans really want to be "Kamerads," let them "come through."

The military situation never looked better for the Allies than it does today. They are forcing the Germans back all along the western front and Russia is gradually coming to a realization of how she was hoodwinked by the Germans at Brest-Litovsk and showing a desire to get back into the war. Bulgaria has quit, thus throwing a million soldiers out of the war, besides exposing Austria's "back door" and cutting off Turkey's supply of arm ammunition and guns from Austria and Germany because there is no way open to send them through this condition is fraught with vast possibilities. Roumania, which has been absolutely cut off from any connection with the Allies, will now be reached and will likely get back into the war—and this condition will aid Russia in reestablishing the eastern front. Austria will be forced to withdraw men and materials from the Italian front to defend her lines on the south and east, and the result can be guessed at. There never was a time when the war condition looked so favorable to the Allied armies and navies—nor a time when Germany was trying harder to hoodwink the Allied people.

Someone has patly called attention to the fact that a man can do only one thing at a time—and do it well. We are at war and should give our entire time to that matter. After we have successfully concluded that business, we can then turn our attention to making a real peace—after the war is over. Don't let anyone get your attention off of the war while we are engaged in war.

It reads like a Marie Corelli novel to listen to the various excuses of people for violating the Government's useless Sunday rest. Marie had a most fantastic imagination.
Don't find fault with the government. That is just what Germany wants us to do.

I solicit your patronage.—Mrs. A. A. Laahoy. 44t.

Work on the fill at the north end of the new bridge will be completed by the end of this week and the floor of the bridge will be completed with the exception of one span. During this time there will remain the concrete railing at each side of the bridge and the fill at the south end to make it possible. The concrete retaining supports to complete the job, work after next, having had weather or other unforeseen delays.

A very enjoyable social affair was given by the ladies of the Methodist Presbyterian congregation in a rooming house to the teachers of the public schools which was given in the Methodist church last Thursday evening. The church was very prettily decorated with the national colors and with autumn leaves and harvest products. A pleasing program was rendered and fringe and coffee were served. There was a very liberal attendance.

The Alex Kelly, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Kelly's sister, Mrs. N. Perkins, and elsewhere about the county the past six weeks, leaves today for their home near Atlanta, Georgia. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kelly are of the "salt of the earth" and their many Pine county friends are always glad to see them and know of their health and happiness. Before leaving, Mr. Kelly received word from his eldest son, Alex, saying that he had been raised to the position of captain in the national army—a position he has many old friends in Pine county know he will fill with credit.

Mrs. J. M. Beechel and son, Kenneth, are expected home today from St. Paul where the lad has been treated the past week, following pneumonia. He is returning from a playmate's 22-calibre rifle. The bullet, which was found flattened against the spinal column at the back of the neck, was left, as it was considered that it would probably do no damage and a later time would be better to operate in any event. The lip, tongue, tonsil and throat, which were cut, are healing nicely and Kenneth seems to be on the way to an early and complete recovery, all are glad to know.

Pine City is getting a liberal business over the new road west, crossing the river at the mouth of Pokegama Lake. Of course the road is not in first-class condition for its entire length yet, but it is passable for automobiles and will make good road. The country that it opens, on the west side of Pokegama, is an excellent one and is brought within 3 1/2 to 6 miles of town, whereas it previously had to travel from 10 to 16 miles to reach its county seat and its natural trading point. It puts the big Taylor Sanatorium, which is one of the best built and equipped and one of the best managed institutions of its kind in the country and largely patronized from all directions, within less than ten miles of town. Within ten days after the threshing season opened there was more than $3,000 worth of grain from that locality marketed here, at a dollar's worth of which would probably have come here but for the new road. Pine City business men contributed $500 toward the project but County Commissioner Dorr is entitled to the real credit for putting it through. We get your auction bills at Poker office.

—MAKE W.S.S. PLEDGES—
Lutheran Church Notes
On Sunday services will be held at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All are invited to attend.

Remember that, beginning next Sunday, Oct. 3, Sunday school will be held at 9:15 instead of 9 as heretofore.

The Lutheran club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Lones, last week Wednesday, there being a good attendance. Next week Wednesday it will be entertained at the home of Mrs. N. P. Lars n.

Our new church service flag, presented by the Lutheran club, was dedicated on Sunday, Sept. 22, with appropriate ceremonies. It bears 23 stars in memory of young men from the congregation who have gone to fight for Our Country.

—MAKE W.S.S. PLEDGES—
Methodist Church Notes
Rev. Hare drove to Minneapolis, Monday, taking Mrs. Hare and Ruth to that city where they are visiting and also taking Misses Carol St. Germain and Laura Cottrell to St. Paul where they entered Hamline university. Mr. Hare returned the following day with some other ministers of this conference and they drove on to Duluth where he is attending conference, this week.

Owing to the absence of Rev. Hare at conference, the pulpit will be filled, next Sunday morning, by Judge Long who will deliver a patriotic address. In the evening the congregation will join with the Presbyterians at their church services.

—MAKE W.S.S. PLEDGES—
Presbyterian Church Notes
At a meeting of some of the young people on last Sunday evening it was decided to start the Christian Endeavor work along with new enthusiasm. A president ad interim was chosen in the person of Miss Mabel Johnson and plans are being perfected for a real beginning of the fall and winter work on Halls Sunday. Meetings will, however, be held each Sunday evening in the meantime at 6:45. Notes the earlier hour.

All the regular services will be held next Sunday, the 5th of Oct., at the usual hours except the evening service which will be set forward the half hour to 7:30 p. m. It is planned to make the evening service of special interest to young people. All are cordially invited to attend all services, but the young people are urged to come out in the evening.

The ladies aid is being entertained today at the home of Mrs. Folsom.

BARN CLEANING Without the LABOR

Make this
Irkesome Task
Pleasant and Profitable

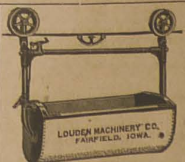

Why spend from half an hour to an hour each day shoveling manure and toting it out onto the pile in a wheelbarrow when it can be done in half the time, and with less than half the drudgery?

Why allow this valuable by-product to lie in the barnyard for months, losing half or more of its fertilizing value when with one handling it may be dumped direct into pit or spreader?

Why not conserve the liquid that oozes out through the cracks of your wheelbarrow and fertilizes your barnyard? It's worth from $7 to $10 a ton.

Man alive! We can fit up your barn with a Loudon Manure Carrier outfit, complete, at almost any price you want to pay? Prices range from $35 to $50, according to size of your barn, style of carrier, etc.

Without obligating you in any way, we'd like to submit an itemized quotation for your barn. May we do it?

If it isn't convenient to come to the store, call us by phone or drop us a card.

DEATH CLAIMS JOHN IRELAND; ILL FOR YEAR

Eminent Catholic Prelate Aware of Approaching End of Forty-eight Hours.

MONUMENTS TO ZEAL

The eminent Catholic prelate had been ill almost continuously for nearly a year. He suffered a relapse ten days ago and became gradually weaker until his death. The end came peacefully.

Knew End Was Near.

Archbishop Ireland was aware for more than 48 hours before his death that the end was near. His countenance was continually bright and smiling, which throughout his life has been one of his most charming characteristics. He said several times during the last two days of his life that he had been accomplished and that he was ready to go.

Went South for Health.

The first information that the archbishop's health was failing came last January when it was reported that he was going to Florida for his health. His route, he was snowed out of Chicago for one day. This is believed to have been very detrimental to his physical condition.

Failed From Illness.

Archbishop Ireland died from that illness and was able to leave his bed late in May. It was moved to his new home at 226 Summit avenue, which had been bought by communications of the St. Paul diocese.

Stimulants Prolong Life.

It was learned Saturday night that stimulants had been used to prolong the archbishop's life since last November. Druggists also used during the past week in an effort to sustain life. Mother Superior Superior Sister of the Archdiocese of Ireland, Bishop Thomas O'Donnell, of Sioux Falls, and Bishop James Treloar, of St. Paul, have been at the bedside of the prelate since Saturday.

Foremost Figure Gone.

The passing of Archbishop Ireland removes a foremost figure in Minnesota and the Northwest, a national figure for many years. He was a warm, genial, tolerant, temperate, moderate, educator, diplomat, friend of presidents and popes, a man of religious fervor, he had been among the most widely known Americans of his time.

Handerson Announces His Leader.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The Democratic Party has long been divided between the two wings. The one wing is the Progressive wing, which has been the dominant force in the party for many years. The other wing is the conservative wing, which has been the dominant force in the party for many years.

The Owners of "Swift & Company"

(Now Over 22,000)

Perhaps it has not occurred to you that you can participate in Swift & Company's profits,—and also share its risks,—by becoming a co-partner in the business? It is not a close corporation.

You can do this by buying Swift & Company shares, which are bought and sold on the Chicago and Boston stock exchanges.

There are now over 22,000 shareholders of Swift & Company, 3,500 of whom are employees of the Company. These 22,000 shareholders include 7,800 women.

Cash dividends have been paid regularly for thirty years. The rate at present is 8 per cent.

The capital stock is all of one kind, namely, common stock—there is no preferred stock, and this common stock represents actual values. There is no "water," nor have good will, trade marks, or patents been capitalized.

This statement is made solely for your information and not for the purpose of inducing you to buy Swift & Company stock.

We welcome, however, live stock producers, retailers, and consumers as co-partners.

We particularly like to have for shareholders the people with whom we do business.

This leads to a better mutual understanding.

Quitting Business Forever, Final Goodbye A. M. CHALLENGE CO. GIVES UP

All Should Know It! All Should Heed It! Nobody Should Miss It!

for this is a sale of mighty scope and magnitude. A. M. Challen Co.'s $40,000 stock of Seasonable Merchandise--Men's and Boys' Clothing, Furnishings, Dry Goods, Shoes for the whole family, and Groceries and Hardware, thrown on the market for what it will bring. Entire Stock now on the bargain block, and may never again be duplicated for it's low prices

Would you? Could you? Dare you miss this chance?

Only the Most Terrific Price-Flashing can accomplish our object. Only a short time and "Challen Co." store will be a thing of the past.

COME NOW

LISTEN TO ME

I've started and I can't stop. I'm bound and determined to sell. This is no sham or make believe. I am going out of this business forever. My own boys, 3 in all, headed their country's call as well as my men will be called in the present draft, also my oldest employe's son, had to leave the farm, taking him away from me. All these circumstances has made it very hard to get efficient help to carry on my large business. And as my own health is not of the best it is with regret that I have to give up at this time. Was there ever a better time for a Sale? Now is the time you need warm clothing and I am right here with the Goods. Load up. Come to me. Barrels of money to be saved!

A. M. CHALLENGE

Everything must be sold to the bare walls and empty counters.

It is the end of the A. M. Challen Co. store. Nothing reserved.

Our Platform and Policy

It has never our policy to describe our merchandise in lurid language; we have too much respect for the common sense of the people on whom we depend for our patronage. The success of the A. M. Challen Co. store has been built on honesty—the straightforward, honest policy that has formed our relations with our customers. Statements which will not bear the searchlight of reason have never been tolerated, nor will they be during this $40,000 clearing out sale. For years past, A. M. Challen has enjoyed the confidence of the people and will continue to do so right to the end.

SALE STARTS SAT. OCT. 5

Store will be closed Thursday and Friday, October 3rd and 4th, to prepare stock and Cut Prices to the Limit

Everything as advertised. You may come from many miles to this sale, absolutely without fear of disappointment. The storehouse and ware rooms have been invaded and hundreds of things brought out and placed in bargain bins and stacked on tables for final dismissal to the public, which will stampede the store. It's a bargain sensation that you mustn't miss.
