For Co. Commissioner—1st Dist.

I wish to announce to the voters of Commissioner District No. 1, comprising the Townships of Royalton and Rock Creek, that I am a candidate for County Commissioner for the term ending in 1921. I had hoped to be able to see you all before election, but owing to the fact that both of my sons are in the service, I find it impossible to leave the farm, and therefore respectfully ask your support at the polls on November 5th. Assuring you that if I am elected I will devote my time to looking after your interests and see that you get a square deal all the time. I am,

Respectfully yours,
Gust Anderson.

Pine County Should Have One of the Two Representatives

It has been customary for Pine and Chisago counties to each have one representative from this the 56th legislative district which is equal rights so both and should be followed up until each county elects its own representative separately. I wish to express my appreciation for the splendid vote accorded me at the primaries and hope my friends will all remember me again at the General Election Nov. 5.

My record along co-operative work in Pine county and elsewhere in the State is open to your inspection.

Yours truly,

L. C. PEDERSEN

One War-Rule for All.

"When the Congress of the United States calls 2,000,000 soldiers and 400,000 sailors that they are not to take liquor, it cannot be argued that you are encroaching on the rights of the individual when you make these restraints universal. We ought not to use a handful of wheat for anything which is not a price necessity, much less to tolerate a business which is not essential and which causes unemployment."—Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

Petroleum in New Zealand.

The government of New Zealand is inaugurating the development of petroleum deposits in the islands which constitute its domain. It has paid one company $40,000 for the first 1,000,000 gallons of petroleum produced. One field on the west coast of the South Island contains, it is estimated, at least 25,000,000 gallons of crude oil in situ. Other prospects are to be investigated soon with government assistance.

ALLIES' TRUCE TERMS DRAWN

Some of Conditions Agreed on Are Submitted to President by Versailles Council.

PRACTICAL SURRENDER

Germany to Give Up All Guns, Shells, Captives and Vacant Fortresses. Included Demands on Supplement Fee.

Copenhagen, Oct. 31.—The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, a copy of which has been received here, says Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, former German secretary of foreign affairs, will be one of Germany's representatives at the peace conference.

Washington, Oct. 31.—An armistice with the Central powers has been pronounced practicable by Marshal Foch and his military advisers. Allied interests are properly safeguarded. The military advisers of the Allied nations are now formulating the terms of the proposed armistice, and some of the conditions already have been submitted to President Wilson for approval.

Surrender of military power and guarantee for the truce are the essence of contract sum up the terms on which Germany will be permitted a cessation of hostilities.

More Fighting Foreseen. Whether Germany will accept terms tantamount to a surrender remains to be seen, but with Austria and Turkey seeking a separate peace with the Allies, the impression is strengthened that the end of the war is not far distant. Military officials here, however, are still predicting it will require further fighting to force Germany into submission to Allied terms, unless these terms should be weakened.

The conditions so far formulated are not complete and only those on which Great Britain, France and Italy are in accord have been cabled to President Wilson, according to the understanding here. Additional terms are under consideration by the supreme war council sitting at Versailles.

Quick Withdrawal, All Fronts.

The article on the evacuation of invaded territory by Germany as tentatively drawn provides that the armed forces of the Central Powers shall be withdrawn from Belgium, France, Serbia, Montenegro, Rumania and Russia within a specified time. The article of which has not been definitely fixed, German officials have said it would take six months to evacuate Belgium and France, but Marshal Foch and his associates are known to regard a fraction of this time sufficient.

The military advisers propose further that Germany shall be required to withdraw all forces beyond the Rhine, leaving the territory between the river and the German frontier either unprotected or in the hands of the Allied troops.

Surrender Fortresses.

The Tenth armies are to be required to surrender all light and heavy ordnance and ammunition upon beginning the withdrawal from invaded territory, according to another article in the tentative armistice terms. Whether this condition also extends to surrender of side arms by the enemy troops could not be clearly established. It appears, however, that commanders is to deprive the enemy of the means of re-arming themselves to which the possession of ample artillery resources would be essential.

Another article provides for the surrender by Germany of the entire chain of frontier fortresses, including Metz and Strasbourg, all of which immediately will be occupied by Allied troops and held pending the peace negotiations. This would be a guaranty for the reoccupation of Alsace-Lorraine to France and would place in Allied hands the strategic keys to the interior of Germany, so that the Tims would be compelled to accept peace terms under the guns of the Allies.

HAS CONFIDENCE IN NAVY

Secretary Daniels Says Americans Are Doing Great Work. Boston, Oct. 31.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who is making a tour of New England, paid a visit to the navy yard and went aboard a vessel which he delivered on a salute. He said that he had never been so thrilled by the souls of the American navy as he had been in this war and that he was confident that whatever the navy had to do would be done, as it always had, with dispatch and valor.

Bover Dams Endangered.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 31.—With a record-breaking October flood rushing down the Tennessee river from mountains in North Carolina and from the Virginia water shed, the Tennessee river has reached a flood stage of unusual proportions. High waters on the little Tennessee river are endangering several concrete dams near Alton, N. C., which furnish power to the big aluminum plant at Marysville. Washouts are reported on the North river, returned on the French Broad river.

"For the education of the workers by the workers"

April 5, 1917

Mr. Wm. D. Haywood, 164 W. Washington St., Chicago, Ills.

Fellow Worker:—

Have just returned from Des Moines, Iowa, and am very glad to be able to report that all of the cases there are disposed of favorably and the boys at liberty. I think the Defense Committee is satisfied with the handling of the case. Of course, it was not one in which any labor principle was involved, and, therefore, the fight was simply made to get the boys out.

My expenses for the trip were $34.50 and if you will send me check for that it will clean the matter up.

How are you coming with the Minnesota proposition. I hope you don't start anything until the year has expired. This damned war business is going to make it mighty hard to do good organization work or good radical work of any kind, but I think the fight should be now centered against spy bills and conscription.

Have you heard from Pennsylvania with Powers of Attorney?

Yours for industrial freedom,

Arthur DeSeuer

AL:Y
The above letter, which is a facsimile of one of the Government's Exhibits introduced in evidence at the recent trial in Chicago of 100 members of the I. W. W., was written by ARTHUR LE SUEUR and shows his connection with Wm. D. Haywood and the I. W. W. Haywood, with ninety-two of his associates, was convicted of violating the espionage act, interfering with conscription, hampering the Government of the United States in the prosecution of the war, and sentenced to 20 years imprisonment and fined $20,000. In his testimony Haywood identified the above communication as genuine. ARTHUR LE SUEUR is also SECRETARY of the NONPARTISAN LEAGUE. The above letter is published for the information of the public and explains the stand taken by the Public Safety Commission pertaining to certain dangerous and un-American activities within the State of Minnesota.

These are the fellows—friends and "fellow-workers" with the I. W. W.—who are opposing the re-election of Senator Knute Nelson and Attorney General Hilton. Do you want Arthur LeSeuer and the I. W. W.'s to "run" the state of Minnesota?

These are the fellows who are going the limit to misrepresent Senator Knute Nelson's position on matters affecting you and me. One of their lies about Senator Nelson is exposed on the editorial page of this paper.

These are the fellows who are trying to "get" Governor Burquist because he has stood by the President and by Your Boys. They want to trade him off for David D. Evans, the canny Scotch-Irish hardware merchant and money-lover of Tracy. They are trying to fool the farmer into voting for Mr. Evans who has made a fortune out of the farmer—"going and coming"—since he came to this country as a poor young man.

These are the fellows who want to elect a long haired, sharp-nosed, weak-chinned, theatrical acting young man as Attorney General for the state of Minnesota and oust Attorney General Hilton, the man who has advised township, school, county and state officers. Has he ever advised you wrong? Do you know that he has anyone else? Then why think of changing for a long-haired, pointed-nosed, weak-chinned, actor-lawyer?

Do you want these fellows who are the friends and "fellow workers" of the I. W. W. to dictate your officials for you?

You will find more about Arthur LeSeuer, close friend of Townley, and high in the Nonpartisan league councils, on the seventh page of this issue if you are interested in learning about him.

Lots of Influenza in County
Influenza is very prevalent over the county, generally in a mild form. The City has had only one death while three are reported from Sandstone and Cloverton, which has been most severely dealt with, has had about half a dozen. The disease is quite prevalent in the fire alarm portion of the county where exposure and fatigue have been common.

CLINCH IT.

National Prohibition as a war measure is about to come. Minnesota, along with the other states, will reap the benefit. Already they are saying to us—"Now that you have war prohibition, why agitate any longer? Let us drop the liquor question until the war is over." If any reader of this article has such sentiments in mind, we have one question to ask: If the saloons are closed, do you want them opened again when the war is over? Do you want the booze business restored in times of peace, when it could not be endured in time of war? Is there any intelligent reason why we should tempt our young men in times of peace in a way that we would not allow in time of war? If we as a nation refuse to weaken his physical, moral and mental force through intoxicants in order that a young man may fight better, why not protect him in the same way in order that he may work better when the war is over? It is just as desirable that we should have sane and sober producers of the beverage as that we should have sane and sober fighters.

If these assumptions are correct, and no man can doubt it, out duty now is to elect the candidates who are in favor of adopting the Constitutional Amendments for Minnesota and the Nation at large. The stakes are all that is in the game, the election is coming anyway. It cannot be avoided, for the law requires that we vote upon the question. Let us die to the polls and as one man vote to clinch the action of Congress and banish John Barleycorn from Minnesota forever. We will then have done with this vexing question and removed the cause of the vexation from our political and social life. One more assault—all together—over the top and the last diabolical of the liquor business will fall, good-citizenship will have triumphed and the saloon and its breed of crimes will be no more.

THE SITUATION—SERIOUS.

The Minnesota situation in reference to the liquor traffic is now critical—intensely so. Though sixty-four counties are dry and only twenty-two are wet, the voting population in the twenty-two wet counties is almost equal to the voting population in the sixty-four dry counties. Furthermore, at the last election, upon which calculations can be fairly based, it appears that the wet majorities in wet counties may be larger. There are still counties in Minnesota so dominated by the liquor traffic that it is practically impossible to hold a temperance meeting in any church or public hall in the county.

In addition to this, the laws of our state make it so difficult to carry through a constitutional amendment successfully that every available draft vote will be needed if we are to succeed. In many of the dry counties, the friends of the dry movement have gone to sleep, thinking that the job is done and their work is over. All such people must be aroused to definite and vigorous action, if we are to win.

DRYS OF MINNESOTA, DO NOT ALLOW THE WETS IN ANY WAY TO DIVERT YOU FROM YOUR GREAT TASK!

Candidate for re-election to the office of REPRESENTATIVE

For the 56th Legislative District, Chisago and Pine Counties

General Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1918

My dear Voter—I was born and raised on a farm, educated in common school. I feel myself qualified in legislative work for all classes having worked on common laborers, on the farm, in the woods, on railroad, on the drive and in the store. I have held official positions as a merchant, bookkeeper, school officer, town officer, county clerk, and served two terms as State Representative. My chief interest has been in the most important public questions, and through my efforts several measures of interest to our district and state were passed through the lower branch of our state legislature.

ELIAS NORDGREN

My present occupation is that of a farmer, as well as director of several co-operative enterprises. I have been a resident of Sturgeon, Chisago county for 28 years, but also lived and struggled with hard work and both winter and summer, long enough, to fully appreciate what a country of the future is. It is in the hope that the home of my children, is under the protection of State and Nation.

I have tried to perform my duties honestly, faithfully and efficiently in the past. If you believe in my record and principles, as they are set forth in addition to my experience, please vote for me at the general election, Nov. 5, 1918, and support at the General Election, November 5th.

DISLIKES TO ABDICATE

German Emperor Says Time Has Not Yet Arrived.

Kaiser Says He Will Step Down When Interests of Nation Demand It.

London, Oct. 31.—"If the moment comes when the interests of Germany demand it, I should abdicat without hesitation, but the moment does not seem to have come."

Emperor William is quoted as having said this in an address to a number of members of the German Reichstag, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam, quoting advices from Berlin.

The emperor said the people must not think that he had decided to remain on the throne at all costs.

The dispatch adds that it is generally believed in Berlin that if the emperor abdicates it will be in honor of Prince William, eldest son of the German crown prince.

ADVANCES NOVEL GAURANTEE

German Paper Mentions Emperor's Fateful Nature.

Amsterdam, Oct. 31.—Commenting on the present political situation in Germany, the Frankfort Zeitung says: "The broad circles of the German people it is made quite clear the people would have been thankful, if in the radical changes at the home and foreign policy now begun, Emperor William had drawn personal consequences from those changes, especially for his own sake."

The newspaper considers Emperor William's strong religious nature is a strong guarantee of his good intentions in Germany's past policy, and it acquires him of having planned the great war, but it adds that he has made himself a symbol of the old regime."

OPPOSES AUSTRIAN SCHEME

Roumanian National League Demands Federation Plan.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The Roumanian National League of America, representing the Roumanians of Transylvania, in a declaration made public here vigorously protests against both the scheme of federation of Austria-Hungary mapped out by Emperor Charles and the plan of the new Hungarian government to retain the oppressed nationalities within the control of that government, "because this would only be a new mask, under which the oppressors of the past would continue their work of oppression in the future."

The Ukrainians intended to move into Poland whenever the Germans and Austrian groups withdrew. German authorities in the Ukraine it is added, support General Skoropodski.

AUSTRIANS ARE FULL FLIGHT

Allied Armies Are Attacking Enemy Over a Front of About Sixty Miles.

AMERICANS IN ACTION

In the Mountain Region For Retain His Ground, but on the Plains is Defeated—Prisoners Now Total 33,000.

Italian Army Headquarters on the Piave Front, Oct. 31.—American troops, under Major General Charles G. Treat, have crossed the Piave river. The Third army has established three bridgeheads on the lower Piave.

Italian Headquarters on the Piave Front, Oct. 31.—The American troops on this front are operating with the Tenth army, composed of British, Italian and Americans, under Lieut. Gen. the Earl of Cavan.

London, Oct. 31.—Italian, British, American and French troops are violently attacking the Austro-Hungarians over a front of 60 miles from the Brenna river in Northern Italy to the vicinity of the Adriatic sea.

In the mountain region the enemy is resisting desperately and holding his ground fairly well, but east of the Piave river he is in flight across the lower Piave, shaping his course over the same territory through which he drove the Italians a year ago and reached the eastern edge of the plains of Venetia.

32,000 Prisoners Taken.

Already numerous towns have been liberated, 32,000 prisoners have been taken, and large numbers of guns and machine guns and huge quantities of stores have fallen into the hands of the Allied troops. Far behind the lines Allied aviators are having the leading enemy columns in dense masses, which are in retreat over the badly congested roads leading eastward toward the Austrian frontier.

Judging the situation from the rapid advance the Allies are making, it would appear that the German retreat has been broken east of the Piave and that with the cavalry operating far in advance of the foot troops the enemy forces will be unable to reform their battle line until the Austrian border is reached. It is unlikely that many of the Austro-Hungarians are doomed to capture or extermination by the Allies.

On the Western front in France and Belgium there has been a marked diminution in the intensity of the infantry activity. Along the British line there have been only patrol encounters and reciprocal bombardments.

The French, however, are engaged in another attack on a front of seven and eight miles between St. Quentin, Le Petit and Hery, in the general direction of the enemy's communication lines running eastward from the old St. Quentin and Laon sectors and also with the purpose of driving a wedge into this part of the Southern battle line and thereby compel the enemy to readjust his front through Champagne to the Meuse.

The fate of the captain and eight men of the crew was not known by those who reached this port.

Turkey Is Preparing to Defend Constantinople.

Hotels Use Women Waiters.

New York, Oct. 31.—The Hotel Astor began hiring woman waitresses following the strike called by male waiters at the McAlpin, Waldorf-Astoria and Claridge hotels. Hundreds of young women hurried to the McAlpin, Waldorf-Astoria and Claridge hotels to secure the jobs abandoned. The management said the experiment with women waitresses had resulted in improvement of dining room conditions, and said they expected to keep the women permanently.

TAKE SERIES OF HILLS

Americans Also Capture Village of Aincreville.

Resistance by the Germans Consists Principally of Machine Gun Fire.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Aincreville has been captured by American troops operating north of Verdun and they have established their line north of that village, General Pershing reports. After capturing Aincreville the Americans advanced north of the town and established a new line on the series of ridges in that region.

The big American guns all were active, bombarding cross roads and railway junctions far and wide. By the occupation of Aincreville the Americans have brought within their lines a series of hills and natural positions dominating the country for miles. Aincreville was taken with but little opposition, the resistance being principally from machine guns.

NEW GERMAN NOTE ARRIVES

State Department May Make Contents Public Soon.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The opinion among officials and diplomats here is that the German proposal for an armistice and peace, while having its origin in a plan to gain time for strengthening the army and restoring its shattered morale, now has gone beyond the control of the military party, and that the German people are the force which is driving the German government to seek an end to the war.

Another note from the German government, explanatory of the changes that have been made or are projected in the German constitution and form of government, was received through the Swiss legation, but the State department did not make it public.

No Mystery in Meat

Some things are so simple that they have to be explained again and again. When things are obvious, people keep looking for mysteries behind them.

So it is with the packing business. The mere size of Swift & Company confuses many. Because their imaginations are not geared up to scale, they believe there must be magic in it somewhere—some weird power.

Swift & Company is just like any other manufacturing business run by human beings like yourself; it takes in raw material on the one hand and turns out a finished product on the other.

Swift & Company keeps down the "spread," or the expense absorbed between raw and finished material, to as low a figure as possible. (If it didn't it would be put out of business by others who do.)

How much Swift & Company pays for the raw material, and how much it gets for the finished product, depends upon conditions which Swift & Company does not control.

It depends entirely upon how much people want the finished product, and how much raw material there is available to make it from.

The profits of Swift & Company amount to less than one cent per pound on all meats and by-products—less than one-fourth of a cent on beef.

The following subscriptions for the Fire Relief Fund have been received by Wm. Fisher, collector since the report of a week ago: J. Zlotosky $2, J. Shatara, 5, H. S. Johnson Jr. 1, J. The camp of the Federal road workers was moved to Mission Creek station last week and work is being pushed from a short distance this side of that place, north. The grading is now complete from the Kubsh corner, south of town, to near Mission Creek and the grading, we understand, is coming down from the Hinckley way, though this is not authentic.

When the call came from the county chapter for funds, the Beroun branch of the Red Cross gave every cent it had in the treasury—$380—for the relief of the fire sufferers. We do not believe any chapter in the county gave more, considering its membership and territory, and certainly no branch could give more than all it had in the treasury.

Jess Munson does not know yet just when they will leave here, depending on when they are able to get onto the farm in the southern part of the state. Henry Frost from east of town has leased the farm here, the contrary statement in the Pine Piker last week being inserted on hearsay and being incorrect.

School is remaining closed this week and will next week, also, during the influenza scare. There is not much of the disease here but the closing of school is a preventative measure. We understand that the Patsold and Wm. Schumacher homes, east of town, are suffering from the affliction.

The roads are pretty "fierce" this week and everybody is staying slow at home, attending to their knitting, these days. So news is scarcer than the proverbial hens teeth. If you know of any will you help us to know about it—tell us, phone or write. Thanks.

Mrs. Pilsa returned to her home at St. Paul, last Saturday, after a few days visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Horejs. She was accompanied by her mother who will remain there for some time.

John Pavek is putting the finishing touches on the second floor of his house, east of town, doing the plastering and putting on the finishing.

Ernest Rohlf had an auction near Hinckley, Tuesday. Ernest is getting considerable business and is getting excellent satisfaction.

David Davidson is erecting a 16x18 addition to his house, about 4 1/2 miles east of the village, which he has enclosed at this writing.

Sam Carlson, southeast of town, who has been quite sick with influenza, is reported much better.

Frank Kadavy is holding an auction at his farm east of town today and will move into town at once.

Ned Hawkins is putting up a 12x16 granary on his farm, 3 miles west of town.

The musical at the Wilson home on Saturday evening was well attended and those present enjoyed a rare treat in music. Miss Lillian showed her ability in arranging an excellent program and it is hoped that it will be repeated in the near future.

The Boys and girl's club met in school house 109 last Friday evening. Miss Alma Schultz, the teacher, had arranged a fine time. The young folks continued their study of knot tying under the direction of Mr. Ayers of Pine City and a social hour was enjoyed after the meeting.

Wm. Schlep and wife are visiting this week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Brackenburg. They have sold their farm near Willow River and are moving to Oswego, N. Y.

Democratic Officials, headed by that great patriot and statesman, WOODROW WILSON, are laboring ceaselessly in behalf of the Democracy of the world, and bearing the heavy burdens of the war with such fidelity to the trust imposed upon them and efficiency of service as to confound all criticism.

Two years ago 179,152 Minnesotans voted for WOODROW WILSON for President. If the men who so voted are still behind the president, they can declare themselves in no better way than by supporting the Democratic Ticket in Minnesota in the present campaign as the democratic Party in this state stands solidly behind the President in all his policies and is working in entire sympathy with his administration.

You will be supporting WOODROW WILSON if you vote the Democratic Ticket in Minnesota. A falling-off of his vote of 1916 will be construed by our political adversaries—and probably by the President himself—as a lack of confidence in his administration.

Don't be satisfied with polling your own vote, but make it your business to see that all of your neighbors who believe in supporting PRESIDENT WILSON also vote the Democratic Ticket.

PINE AND CHISAGO COUNTIES

Friends:—The affairs of the Sandstone Cooperative Company, and the absence of some of our most trusted employees who are at the front, have kept me very busy this fall and I have been unable to get about as I had wished. It was not long however, to me of this week making a hurried trip out to the district in the company of the county board of supervisors. I had wished, hence I am taking a moment to say to you greeting and asking your support at the next Tuesday.

I have been in the lower branch of the legislature for three terms and my record there is on my book. I should like to see the people who send me here want the county out of the legislature and moral law, co-operative and farm legislation, extension of the primary election laws, good county, good schools, etc.

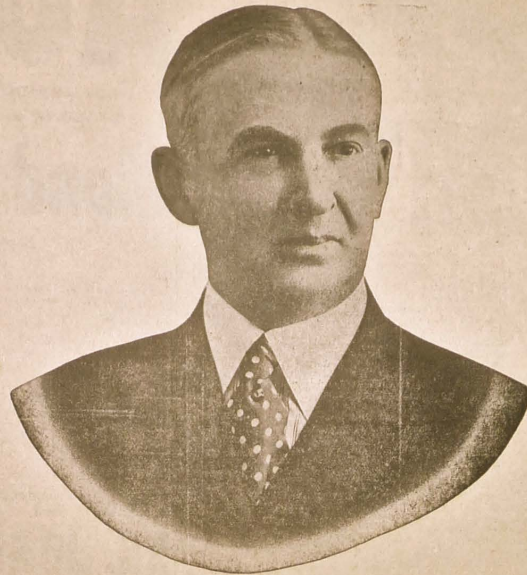

If you believe in the things I have done or helped in doing and if you believe that Pine County is entitled to the State Senatorship after its having been held 12 years in Chisago county I will appreciate your support and endeavor to represent you honestly and faithfully, to the best of my ability of Hinckley, Minnesota, the

People's Candidate for County Auditor OF PINE COUNTY

John T. Craig, of Hinckley, Minn., the people's candidate for County Auditor of Pine county, is a native of Minnesota, born in LeRoy, Mower county in 1871. He is 47 years of age and has been for 32 years a resident of Pine county, having moved to Hinckley in 1886.

He passed through the awful experiences of the great Hinckley fire of 1894 and naturally was moved by sympathy for those suffering in the recent disastrous fires at Cloquet, Moose Lake and vicinity, and has not been able to see the voters of Pine county or devote much time to his candidacy, by reason of his spending the past two weeks in relief work in burned districts in Carlton and Northern Pine counties, feeling that the call of the needy was to be heeded rather than his political ambitions. For the past year Mr. Craig has been employed in the State Auditor's department engaged in timber surveys, with headquarters at Virginia, Minn. Mr. Craig has always been a generous and live booster for his home town and community and for all the interests of Pine county during his long residence here. He has spent lavishly of his time and money in advancing every public enterprise. For many years every public subscription in Hinckley was headed by John T. Craig, and no citizen or firm in his home town has given more than he to charitable and public projects. He has never been a candidate for any political office and while he has given liberally to campaign funds in the interests of his political friends has never before asked at the hands of the voters for any position carrying a salary. If elected, Mr. Craig's effort will be to furnish the best service possible and his constant aim will be to please all the people of Pine County whose suffrage has placed him in this position of trust irrespective of sectional interests or party affiliations.

A vote for Craig is a vote for a generous, whole-souled, liberal, live-wire booster for the best interests and advancement of every village, every town, and every resident of our county.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT MR. CRAIG

Craig a Strong Candidate

The candidacy of John T. Craig of Hinckley for auditor of Pine county has aroused widespread interest because of Craig's wide acquaintance over the state. Craig went through the Hinckley fire in 1894 and was one of the hardest workers in boosting Hinckley and Pine county after that holocaust.

This year his friends induced him to file for the nomination for auditor and at the June primary he was one of three high men.

Mr. Craig has lived in Hinckley for 32 years. Probably no man is known to more people in or out of pine county than he. For the past two weeks as a member of the staff of State Auditor J. A. O. Prens stationed at Virginia, he has been working among the forest fire refugees at Cloquet and Moose Lake. Because of his experience in the great fire in his home city 24 years ago, the state auditor asked him to give the Moose Lake-Cloquet burned over district his expert attention.

As usual, the suffering and the depressed found in Jack Craig a big hearted older brother, and scores of those who lost their all, and some of their dear ones, in the tragedy of the second Saturday in October, have had occasion to be thankful that he was detailed on such special duty by the state.

Mr. Craig is one of those kind of men who is a spontaneous booster for his home county and city. He is known as a man of singular ability, rugged and ever faithful to his friends.—Duluth News Tribune.

Craig Boosts For Pine County

J. T. Craig, representative of the state auditor's office, who is now in Virginia, has filed for the county auditorship of Pine county, a matter of interest to many Range friends. Mr. Craig, it is generally held, is peculiarly fitted for the office he seeks, and there is no gossamer but what those who know him here will wish that he is elected.

For thirty-two years Mr. Craig has been a resident of Pine county, residing in Hinckley, where his home is still maintained. He was born in Minnesota and by virtue of qualification and residence is worthy of the best office that Pine county can give him, it is declared by Virginia friends. Among some of Mr. Craig's Virginia friends who have known him for decades and more are Douglas Greeley, Postmaster, J. B. Fleming, Alderman Charles Olson and many others.

W. H. Hamlin, for the past several years auditor of Pine county, is not this year a candidate, the sequence of which is that a situation has arisen that makes the election of Mr. Craig a probability. Friends in Hinckley and other parts of the county in which the battle of ballots will be fought urged Mr. Craig to make the run, his acquiescence made several days ago with subsequent filing.—The Daily Virginian.

Craig a Pioneer Resident

John T. Craig of Hinckley, representing the land department of the state auditor's office, has returned to the city after a two weeks visit at his home and on a business mission in Pine county, and is making his headquarters at the New Fay hotel while looking after the interests of the state in this part of the county. While at Hinckley Mr. Craig filed for the office of county auditor of Pine county and will make the run against two other candidates for the nomination at the primaries to be held on June 17.

Mr. Craig is a pioneer resident of Pine county and resided at Hinckley at the time of the big fire which destroyed the entire city more than a quarter of a century ago. At that time Douglas Greeley, president of the State Bank of Virginia, was a resident of Hinckley and he and Mr. Craig are old-time friends and during the stay of the latter here they swap many pleasant and unpleasant reminiscences of the old days of Pine county business and political ups and downs. Mr. Craig knows Pine county and its needs thoroughly and while he will have little spare time from his state duties in which to make the campaign for county auditor his host of friends there are out working hard for his nomination, and he has many friends on the ranges who would be pleased at his success at the polls.—Virginia Daily Enterprise.

Craig Will Be Elected

J. T. Craig of Hinckley passed through here Wednesday on his way to the stricken districts to do relief work. Mr. Craig has been connected with the land department of the state of Minnesota for the past summer with headquarters at the Fay hotel, Virginia. He has started his campaign for auditor of Pine county. Mr. Craig is a man of exceptional ability and is well prepared for a number of years. Mr. Craig has a host of friends in the county and there will be no doubt but what he will be elected auditor by a large majority.—Willow River Farmer, Oct. 18.
