

BOARD PASSES

BOARD PASSES

C. A. Forbes of the State Highway Department appeared before the board yesterday and addressed them in regard to the Highway Department. Following his presentation of the merits of the present form of administration the following resolution was passed by the county board. We understand that practically every county here in the state has taken similar action.

WHEREAS it is reported in city papers that the Legislature in its present session propose change in the administration of the road program by the present Commissioner of Highways by a Commission consisting of several members.

WHEREAS the under Board of County Commission Pine County have had occasion to show how road work has been conducted by the Highway Department during Mr. Babcock's term of office, and also noted the systematic and business-like methods in the distribution of funds, both Federal and State, and

WHEREAS we are of the opinion that the administration of the plans for the construction and care of the State Trunk Highway system would not be efficiently handled by a new organization headed by a Commission consisting of several members.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: that we ask and urgently request of the Legislature now in session assembled, that the present Highway Department be continued, and that the Commissioner of Highways be empowered with authority to direct and have charge of all work connected with the Trunk Highway System, and of all other work of the present Highway Department, and that the present Commissioner of Highways, Mr. Chas. M. Babcock, be retained in office.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Governor J. A. O. Prews, Lieutenant Governor Louis E. Collins, Speaker W. I. Nolan, Senate S. L. Larson, and Representative I. C. Pedersen.

Nels Oakland, Chairman Board of County Commissioners of Pine County, Minnesota.

Franchise Wanted

Is the western part of Pine County falling behind the eastern part? Has that fertile tract along the Soo to the east of us developed cities of which we have not heard? Is there a rival of twin cities and the twin ports springing up in our midst?

The Cloverton Union-Enterprise contains the following notice: "Notice is hereby given that I shall move for a franchise for a street railway from Four Corners (also known as Lams' corner) to Cloverton Minnesota. All objections from abutting property owners must be in writing and filed with Mr. H. H. H. who has been employed as a conductor, or with the undersigned on or before Friday, the 23rd day of December, A. D. 1920."

Want Route 3 Divided

O. E. Blood and others living on the City R. F. D. 3 are circulating a petition which will send to the postal authorities asking that route 3 be divided into 2 routes.

There are 35 miles of route to be traveled by the carrier and in the winter he can only cover about half of it in a day. These people are entitled to delivery every day and favorable action will no doubt be taken in regard to the petition.

Electrical Wizard Coming Soon

Harry L. Starnes, the electrical "Wizard" scheduled to appear at the Family Theatre, Tuesday, Dec. 28, was unable to keep his date owing to sickness. Word was received from him recently, an announcement that he would give his program here in the near future as soon as his health permitted.

WAS ELECTED CHAIRMAN

The board of county commissioners met at the court house yesterday noon—Frank Stepan, and J. C. Hancock, Frank and Gust Anderson. Nels was elected chairman of the board and Frank Stepan vice chairman.

The meeting was practically an organization meeting and the receiving of various reports. Salaries of all county officers were left the same as last year. Two school petitions up for hearing were laid over until the next meeting.

The Askov American submitted a bid for printing the financial statement, delinquent tax list and board proceedings as follows: 75 cents per folio for the first publication, 35 cents for subsequent insertions and 15 cents per description for publishing the delinquent tax list. This bid included the publication of the financial statement in The Pine Piker, Pine County Pioneer, Hinckley Enterprise, Sandstone Courier, Willow River Farmer and the Askov American. The bid was accepted by the board.

The county doctors appointed by the board were Dr. Dredge and Bohling of Sandstone, Dr. Enke of Willow River, Dr. Stephan of Hinckley and Dr. Walker of Pine City.

The building committee of the board is composed of Commissioners Hancock, Anderson and Oakland. A communication from Donald MacKenzie for help on a road in Ogema town was referred to Commissioner Oakland.

F. M. Stuck, H. W. Daley and W. S. McEachern appeared before the board in behalf of the Pine County fair association, and asked for $1,000 for the association instead of the $500 which was received last year. It is necessary that a new barn be built as owners will not exhibit blooded stock unless they are properly housed. Commissioner Hancock was in favor of the $1,000 appropriation but owing to the financial condition of the county the board felt that amount was a little high and compromised at $750.

Farm Bureau Notes

Annual Meeting of the Pine County Farm Bureau will be held at 8 p.m. on Friday January 14th at 8 p.m. Hinckley. S. B. Cleland, Assistant County Agent, Leader, will preside. The Farm Bureau and the University of Minnesota will speak on the Home and the Farm. Miss Koch's address should be of interest to all the Farm Bureau women and it is hoped that they will be well represented at the meeting.

The business meeting will be a very important one among other things the question of amending our articles of incorporation and constitution and bylaws so as to provide representation for the local Farm Bureau Units on the Board of Directors.

The Great Northern has promised to make special stops at Bruno, Kerrick, Duquette and Nickerson and also Brook Park and Herrick. We are also hoping to get similar favors from the Northern Pacific R. E. so that everyone can get to Hinckley and back to their homes that same day by train.

Remember the annual poultry show Jan. 10-11-12, Hinckley. Entries close at midnight Jan. 8th. Get all entries in mails before that time. Send to L. F. Appleby, Pine City.

Also remember that Mr. W. E. Stanfield will judge the poultry and give a culling demonstration and poultry talk after the judging.

Political Dope by Chapman

The forty-second legislature is now a reality. It duly convened on Tuesday of this week and for the next three months will be deep in the task of adding to the states already long list of laws. That Minnesota in over sixty years of statehood has enacted into law over 20,000 legislative contributions will have effect on the output this session as enough advance measure have already been drafted to keep the law makers busy for some time. From 1,000 to 1,100 bills is about the quota of the legislature.

Reserved seats are now on sale and Manager Turner has reduced the regular price of the show down to 50 and 25c and war tax, so that all may be able to attend this production. A real treat is in store for those who attend.

Will Ship Jan. 11th.

The Farmers Terminal Shipping Association will ship 2 car each of hogs and cattle on Tuesday, January 11th, from Pine City. Those wishing to ship at that time should notify Oscar Westman, manager, or Frank Drimmel before that date.

clerk and the only task that confronting it when Secretary of State Mike Holm called the body to order was to make official record of the selections so made. This included all other needed employees. The same procedure practically featured the convening of the senate over which Lieut. Governor Collins and of which Geo. W. Peachy of Owatonna and J. H. Stoneberg of Cambridge will again be secretary and sergeant-at-arms respectively. To the credit of both houses it must be said that these in control approach the legislative task better equipped and with the law making machinery in another running order than of any previous legislature in years. The house, thanks to its early disposal of the usual organization squabble, is now well on to completion in the matter of a number of important legislative problems while the senate has also not been overlooking any bets in this respect. True there are a number of members who look up on this early activity with suspicion and may try to block what some of them call a "frame up" but they are a decided minority. It looks very much as if the Fort-second was going to make history and history of the kind that will rebound to its credit—Vance Chapman.

Lohnbakken Going to St. Cloud

L. Lohnbakken tendered his resignation as hattermaster of the local creamery to the board of directors at their meeting yesterday, to take effect Feb. 1st. He has been in charge of the creamery for the past three years.

Mr. Lohnbakken and Walt Peterson have purchased a creamery at St. Cloud and both will move their families there in the near future. Both these gentlemen have had a great deal to do with the Pine City creamery and we feel sure their new undertaking will be a successful one.

Hamline Players Coming

On the evening of January 13th the Hamline Players of Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota will appear here at the Family theatre. One of the best dramatic offerings of the year is promised. The players have been making short trips for several years, but this year they have been booked for a month's trip thru Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wisconsin and southern Canadian towns. Every effort is being made to present a play that will surpass last year's appearance in "The Melting Pot."

"The play is a modern one. The story, depicting the present day aspects of the age-long struggle between the masses and classes in England holds the audience from beginning to end. A love-plot, featuring the struggles of a young member of the nobility, who has become enamored of a worthy girl of humble station, against his ancestral traditions as exemplified in his aristocratic mother and friends, is the center of interest. The action hinges upon the estrangement and final reconciliation of the aristocratic Marquis and the "Ball Mall" Captain Hawtree to the simple ideas and sometimes rude habits of the working class.

The characterizations are distinct and true to life. They are not the creations of the playwright's fancy, but the actual portrayals of people as they are. The dialogue, especially, marks "Castle" as a great play and is largely responsible for its continued success as an acting piece. It is full of poignant pathos and scintillating. The repartee is sprightly. At a time when the thoughts of the English workman are of so much importance to the world as a whole, as our papers attest, the play has a special intrinsic interest.

Reserved seats are now on sale and Manager Turner has reduced the regular price of the show down to 50 and 25c and war tax, so that all may be able to attend this production. A real treat is in store for those who attend.

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, a member of the foreign relations committee introduced a resolution in the senate the other day which seems to contain large possibilities of forcing a reading. The result will be forth all sorts of trickery had in dealing with the Government of Guatemala who was deposed by revolution last April, and called upon the secretary of state to transmit to the senate such information as is in his possession on the subject.

According to a memorandum accompanying the senate resolution, it was to be lodged in the military academy and his property was to be stripped of $10,000,000 of property, even to his false teeth.

Two species of itch mites attack fowls, one of which is the cause of scaly leg. While this mite commonly remains on the feet, burrowing through the scales and causing their enlargement, it also attacks the comb and the wattle. A crust of loose tissue is formed above the burrows, and intense itching results from this mite infestation. The feet of the birds often become badly distorted, and in some cases the feet can scarcely walk or get to the perch. Sometimes terminal joints of the toes are lost.

As the mites are transferred from one bird to another, scaly-leg fowls should be treated promptly and should not be introduced among clean birds. Investigations made under the supervision of the United States Department of Agriculture show that carbolic acid or crude petroleum used on the feet of the birds will kill the mites from one fowl to another. Applying crude petroleum to the feet with a brush or dipping the legs into this oil is very effective. One application usually is sufficient, but if the series are not largely abated after a lapse of 20 days the treatment should be repeated. Carbolic acid is applied by some farmers in the same way, but is less effective than crude oil. In some other cases, carbolic acid is taken to get the oil on the upper part of the leg or on the feet. A less consistent of soaking the feet in warm water until the scales are loosened and then pressing the feet and legs with the hand, or hand containing 6 per cent crude carbolic acid.

The other itch mite, commonly called the depluming mite, is a very small creature which burrows into the skin near the base of the feathers. The itching sometimes causes the fowls to pull their feathers until they are almost naked. The mite is found in all fowls of an infested flock in a tub of water containing about two ounces of flowers of sulphur and one-half ounce of kerosene soap to each gallon.

Continuous Selection for Health and Vigor Will Insure Flock That Will Produce Fertile Eggs and Strong Chicks Capable of Making Quick Growth.

Good kinds of green feeds for hens in winter, recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture, are alfalfa and clover hay, cabbage and mangold hay. Cabbages may be hung up in the poultry house; the hens are usually split and stuck on a nail on the side wall of the pen about a foot above the floor, to keep the feet clean. Keep water fresh, grit, charcoal, and plenty of clean drinking water before the hens all the time.

The only absolutely true history of the world is found within the pages of the Bible. The history of the world is not a mere chronicle of events, but a revelation of God's plan for the redemption of man. The Bible is the only book that contains the truth about God and His will for the world.

Without Christ the Bible would never have been written. It is the Light that reveals all its hidden mysteries. The Bible is the only book that contains the truth about God and His will for the world.

Standard-Bred Most Valuable. Eggs and marked poultry produced by a flock of standard-bred chickens are more uniform in size, shape and quality, and are consequently worth more on the market.

Feed for Mating Fowls. There is little chance of molting birds becoming overfat and fat in that season it is safe to feed corn in its green condition as the fowls care for it.

Speaker Nolan was nominated by Representative Christian of Lac Qui Parle county, who made an effective speech, pointing out Nolan's fairness as speaker in the 1919 session and his peculiar fitness for the position.

Representative George Norlin of St. Paul placed Swenson, the Nonpartisan league candidate, in nomination.

Arceus Swenson was re-elected chief clerk and Henry Rubel, sergeant-at-arms. The league named no candidates for these positions, as the state agreed upon at the caucus last year.

In the Senate the ratification of the caucus was ratified after Lieutenant Governor Nelson had been given the oath of office by Chief Justice Calvin L. Brown.

Two St. Paul ministers, Father W. J. Harrington, former chaplain of the One Hundred fifty-first field artillery and Rev. Walter F. Howard, Episcopal rector, officiated at the Senate and House, respectively.

Its feminine grace? We may praise at length upon the practical in dress, but the practical minus beauty and artistic appeal never finds real favor.

The cape has considerable romantic and historical background. This probably bears a subconscious influence in its favor. Coming down to the purely practical, a coat is made much warmer by a cape falling over the back, but I cannot say that this has anything to do with its bold on fashions.

It can be claimed, however, that its youthfulness does much for it. Certainly a coat of this type gives its wearer at once a younger and less staid appearance than the old-fashioned, practical toget, which put the finishing touches in more ways than one.

The Oil Well and the Oil Whale

THE miracle of mechanical development which has revolutionized the world and has changed man's habit of life, even in the remotest wilderness, was made possible by the discovery of oil in 1858, and the development of oil refining, in which the Standard Oil Company was a pioneer and leader.

With the development of the petroleum industry came a cheap, efficient, easily secured lubricant, capable of keeping the bearings of the heaviest machinery running cool and without friction.

It is the thin film of mineral oil which has made possible the great mechanical inventions of the modern world. When population was scarce and widely scattered, the surplus animal and vegetable fats were sufficient to grease the simple machinery of that day, but with the vast development of mechanical power these sources of lubricants would be quite inadequate.

The old system and the new may be visualized by comparing the "grease rag" of Madeira with the marvelous automatic force feed lubrication in your automobile. In Madeira the native walks ahead of his team, ensuring the oiledness with a grease rag, while you drive comfortably, because petroleum has made automatic lubrication possible.

Correct lubrication is the life of industry, and correct lubrication depends entirely upon petroleum. All other products of crude oil, while adding much to the prosperity, comfort and safety of the world, could be given up without the disastrous consequences which would follow the elimination of the petroleum lubricants.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) manufactures a large number of oils and greases, each designed to meet an especial need. To serve industry better, the Company maintains a staff of lubricating experts whose business it is to study the problems of individual industries, and determine the lubricants necessary to increase the efficiency of machinery, and to prolong its life.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of its position as the manufacturer of the lubricants used by so large a number of important industries throughout the nation.

Theatre Notes

Dancing one's way into the heart of a man is an ordinary experience for a graceful woman, if fiction writers are to be believed, but Mary, the ward of Old Thomas, a fisherman widely known in the South Sea Islands, danced her way to the knowledge of which one of two young men's heart, she wanted to occupy.

This dance is one of the most fascinating scenes from the latest photo-drama production of D. W. Griffith, entitled, "The Idol Dancer" which will be the attraction at the Family theatre Friday and Saturday.

The world to Live In, at the Family theatre is one of the best Alice Brady pictures that has ever appeared upon the screen. Miss Brady has a role for which she is well fitted—that of a typical American girl whose one ambition is to get all the fun she can out of life without paying for it, to be shown here Sunday.

William Russell in "Eastward Ho," and a Sunshine comedy is on for Tuesday at bargain prices. Gladys Brockwell will be in the feature Wednesday "Chasing Rainbows."

Thursday "The Hamlin University Players in the modern play "Gates." Friday William Farnum in "In Jungle Trail" and Chas. Chaplin in "The Count."

Catholic Church Notes

Services for Pine City next Sunday morning at 10:30. No services at Beroun this coming Sunday.

Miss Agnes Detlaiff returned from Detroit, Mich. last Tuesday morning, where she was called by the death of her mother, last week. Miss Detlaiff's niece returned with her for a visit here.

Lutheran Church Notes

Services at Pine City next Sunday morning in German at 10:30 and at Henriette at 2 p.m. Sunday school as usual.

Rev. Leuker has accepted a call to Butterfield, Mo., and expects to leave here on the 17th of this month. He has been the pastor of the local church for the past 10 years and it will regret that his parishioners will see him no more.

Presbyterian Church Notes

As the county chairman of the Near East Relief fund, I am glad to report to date that over 100 dollars has been sent in, mostly from school children throughout the county. If the children of Pine county can give as freely, and they are still giving, surely we older ones ought to keep on giving. I have recently received a letter from a chum in the near east and he says that conditions are frightful. Hundreds of children abandoned without a known living relative, living in the streets or roaming the country side. Undernourished, clothing ill fitting in rags, suffering from all sorts of diseases they looked like little old men and women. One little girl starving said to her sister, "God has forgotten us." "No," answered the girl, "God has not forgotten us. He told someone to help us, and that someone has forgotten." Are you that SOMEONE? Send if its only the price of a meal, but sacrifice—send a check to Rev. T. Buckton, Pine City.

The subject of Rev. T. Buckton's sermon next Sunday morning is, "Off the Bleachers and into the Game" and in the evening at 7:30 "The Frivolous Spirit."

Miss Anna Vanickly field worker for the Minnesota Christian Endeavour Union stopped off at Pine City Wednesday afternoon to rally the young people of the church.

Methodist Church Notes

Services for Sunday January 9 1921, Sunday school at 9:45. The vacation days are over but try to have a full attendance of our coming Sunday. Preaching service at 10:00, subject "One Reason for Failure." There will be the regular services of the church at Rock Creek at 2:30, 4:35. There was a good attendance at the Watch night service New Years eve and all present had a good time.

On Wednesday evening of last week the whole congregation came to the parsonage and treated the pastor and wife to an old fashioned home warming. It seemed as though everybody was there and they brought their suppers with them and also enough groceries, etc., to last the pastor until grass comes in the spring. We thank you one and all. The official board met at the parsonage Tuesday evening and outlined a program of activities for the coming year, that will be of interest to all.

The young folks will meet at the parsonage on Friday evening to organize an Epworth League. The ladies aid will meet Wednesday the 12th with Mrs. W. F. Schumacher and Division No. 1 will entertain. The special feature of this meeting will be a plate shower to refresh the club members. Each lady is asked to bring one or more plates. Let's all go and have one of those good old times.

The music by the orchestra last Sunday was greatly enjoyed by those present, come again boys, we like you.

Mrs. C. F. Jackson left for the Twin cities yesterday to visit at the home of her son, Chester.

W. A. SAUSER
of Pine City, says:

De Laval cream makes the best butter

WHETHER you make butter yourself or sell butter—let us be a creamery, the value of your cream depends largely on the kind of butter it will make.

It is easy to prove that De Laval cream makes better butter. Every fat spot awarded at the Convention of the National Buttermakers Association it was started twenty-eight years ago. It has gone to butter made by De Laval users, or from gathered cream largely De Laval-separated.

The De Laval Separator is more satisfactory in bowl run at lower speed and delivers the butter-dribbles unbroken. It is used in practically all of the world's creameries, because it gives not only more cream but better cream as well. And the fact that the De Laval runs at lower speed adds years to its life.

Let us demonstrate to you why the De Laval is the World's Standard Cream Separator

What music lovers discovered in the Brunswick Method of Reproduction

When all is said and done, every comparison is made, final judgment of any phonograph rests in the tone. All else is secondary.

And it is in this important particular that the Brunswick Phonograph won its fame.

Its cabinet work was taken for granted as of the finest, for the House of Brunswick has been noted for its craftsmanship in wood-working for 76 years.

A surprise for all

What a revelation, however, came when music lovers became acquainted with The Brunswick! Old harshness is gone.

Much of the improvement is due to the Brunswick Tone Amplifier, built entirely of selected, seasoned wood.

Another great advancement, and exclusively Brunswick today, is the Ufona, an all-record reproducer.

These and other advancements have been combined and related in an instrument made entirely by the House of Brunswick.

Proof of the superiority of Brunswick Phonographs is coming in, hearing them and making comparisons.

EX-CHANCELLOR DEAD

Dr. Von Bethmann-Holweg, German Statesman Passes.

Coler of Famous "Scrap of Paper" Phrase Succumbs to Pneumonia.

Berlin.—Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Holweg, former chancellor, died after a brief illness at his estate at Hahnenberg, near Berlin.

Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg was 74 years of age and was married to the wife of the secretary of the Prussian legation in Munich, and a son Felix, a student at Berlin.

He was killed in 1914 and he lost his eldest son in the war. He is survived by a daughter, Gretchen Zech, wife of the secretary of the Prussian legation in Munich, and a son Felix, a student at Berlin.

On the last of his frequent visits to Berlin in mid-November, Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg was seen walking in Unter den Linden.

One of the most famous utterances during the war was his remark, "I am not a politician, I am a statesman."

He was born in 1857 and served in the Prussian army during the Franco-Prussian war.

He was a member of the Reichstag and served as minister of foreign affairs from 1909 to 1913.

150 PERISH OFF SPANISH COAST

Passengers Caught Below Decks When Vessels is Dashed Upon Rocks.

ONLY 45 ARE RESCUED

Telegraphic Messages From Corunna Lack Details But Give Little Hope of the Rescue of Any More of Those Aboard.

Madrid.—From the wreck of the Spanish steamer Santa Isabel there are only some forty-five survivors so far known to the authorities.

Prof. Charles Edward Guillaume of France, has been awarded the 1924 Nobel prize for physics.

He is the head of the international bureau of weights and measures. The photograph was taken in the office at Avignon, near Paris.

Passengers Were at Dinner. Telephone and telegraphic messages from Corunna and Vigo lack details, but they give little hope of the rescue of more than one-fifth the number of those aboard the vessel.

The Santa Isabel grounded while the captain and passengers were at dinner. The stormy weather kept the vessel washed upon a rocky ledge of the coast with a few minutes' delay.

The catastrophe had culminated before the rescuing boats started for the wreck. The rescued knew nothing of the fate of the others.

The authorities regard the sinking as an unlikely event. The Santa Isabel struck only a short distance from the mainland, and the victims, they believe, reports would have been received before now.

ROM PLOT UNEARTHED AN OPEN LETTER TO WOMEN

Italian Arrested on Charge of Bribing "Dry" Agents. Pappano Alleged Member of Ring Who Are Said to Have Paid Officials Huge Sums of Money.

WASHINGTON

A nationwide plot to obtain liquor through permits obtained by bribing high prohibition officials was revealed today in the arrest of "Professor" Antonio Pappano, a dapper Italian and fencing master, in Washington, and of simultaneous arrests in New York of James M. Parkins and three men employed in the New York prohibition office and alleged to be his accomplices.

Pappano is alleged to be a member of the New York "whisky ring." Hundreds of thousands of dollars are said to have been paid to government officials by his group. At least one bribe is understood to have been for $50,000.

Pappano claims he is the victim of a frame-up. Captain Elias, a sense he is right, but the frame-up claim is denied by the officials. Pappano came after he had received liquor from the New York officials.

Pappano is said to have first appeared in Commissioner Kramer's office several months ago and offered him $10,000 per month for certain designated permits, most of whom resided in New York.

The official protestant to accept the bribe was said to be the one who would be the victim of a frame-up. He would not discuss the activities in obtaining liquor permits.

At the city jail Pappano denied that he had attempted to bribe prohibition officials and declared that he was the victim of a frame-up. He would not discuss the activities in obtaining liquor permits.

DOES YOUR BACK ACHE?
It's usually a sign of sick kidneys, especially if the kidney action is frequent. Don't wait for more serious trouble. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Pine City testimony.

B. G. Heas, harness maker, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and I am glad to recommend them. I had a steady dull backache and my kidneys acted irregularly. Sometimes the kidney secretions passed too frequently and again they were just the other way. Mornings when I got up, I felt all tired out. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief and soon made me well. I have used them several times since when I have noticed such attacks coming on and each time, Doan's have prevented any return of the trouble."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Heas had. Fosterburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"NOW-A-DAYS" says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind. He finds it costless, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

The following poem was found in an old almanac and handed to us for publication. The author is unknown.

"ROCK CREEK"
I've heard folks talk of countries across the ocean wide,
I've heard them talk of waters with their beautiful ebbing tide,
Of cities far and near, and scenes that can't be seen;
But the little town of Rock Creek is good enough for me.

I've lived in other places, strange people here I met,
But the ones right close around here are the best that I've seen yet.
They are true and brave and loving,
And now to fellows down and out they lend a helping hand;
I can't wish for any better than what I now have got.

I look in every spot,
I can climb the highest mountains and search the foaming sea,
But I come to the conclusion, "Old Rock Creek for me."

Can Guessing Win?

Between the prices paid to the producer and by the consumer there is a staggering difference.

There is one way to assure both farmer and consumer a fair price for food—that is through careful Farm Cost Accounting. The Farm Bureaus are instituting a national campaign to hurry the Government investigation of the costs of actual food production and distribution. Once the whole problem has been carefully and publicly sifted, it will be possible to put prices on a basis of justice to both producer and consumer and to eliminate the unreasonable unearned profits that are made "in the dark."

Every farmer owes it to himself to further the cause by lending his individual support to the work of the Farm Bureau. There's only one sensible way to run the race for fair profits. Leave in the stable the willing but crippled mule, Farm Cost Guessing, and make the running on the thoroughbred, Farm Cost Accounting. It's the only way to win.

This conclusion is not a snap judgment by THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, but the result of careful study. Our editors and investigators travel 300,000 miles a year to study farm problems and to report the best farm opinions of the country. We voice the honest opinions of the American farmer. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN contains famous fiction, striking pictures, great cartoons, and lots of smiles—it comes 52 times in a year—but perhaps it is most appreciated for its practical helpfulness. The Dry Goods Economist remarks that while the financial authorities in the speculative district of New York City take somewhat pessimistic views of the business situation, yet out among the retail traders who deal with ordinary people, there is a much more cheerful spirit.

One reason why many people get blue over business, is that the financial reviews in the big newspapers are usually written by men who get their ideas from stock market operators and other authorities in the speculative centers.
The people who know the most about actual business are the retail merchants. A great many of these find that trade has been very good all through the fall and Christmas seasons. Many of them have one more than ever before, in spite of temporary setbacks, the country as a whole is very prosperous, and 1921 ought to be a good year for business.
