

STATE FAIR

Governor Preus Urges Attendance at State Fair

All loyal Minnesotans are urged to attend the Minnesota State Fair which takes place from Sept. 3 to 19, by Gov. I. A. O. Preus. The governor, in a special proclamation praising the great State Fair and pointing out the benefits to be derived from a visit to the fair, calls for a 100 per cent attendance from all parts of the state. The proclamation:

"The Minnesota State Fair is in many respects the greatest fair in the country. Minnesota is rich in natural resources and her products excel both in variety and in quality and the management of the fair, aided and directed by our state legislature has assembled an exhibition which gives the visitor an excellent idea of the quantity and diversity of our state's products. One fair annually shows growth and progress and even to the seasoned visitor there is something new each year there that is new, interesting and educational. We count the State Fair as an important part of our educational system, because it gives to the people in every trade and profession new ideas and information about what the rest of the state is doing.

"Our fate, however, has a civic value because it brings together people from different communities, gives opportunity for exchange of ideas, and helps to make our commonwealth not a collection of counties, but one great unified state.

"For these reasons, I, J. A. O. Preus, do hereby urge upon the people of our state to attend the fair to be held Sept. 3 to 19, 1921. By so doing, they will not only benefit themselves, but they will make possible the continued expansion of this institution. The greater the number who attend, the greater will be the pleasure and profit each one derives.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed hereto, this 27th day of August, A. D. 1921.

J. A. O. Preus
Governor
Mike Holm, Secretary of State.

A Hot One

One bitter cold morning, while David Hartford was filming "The Golden Share," his latest First National attraction, he asked Ruth Benck, coding lady, what she was thinking about.
"Miss Benck was perched atop her slide, entirely submerged in furs, with her neck tugged tightly into the collar of her parka. "Mr. Hartford I'm thinking of dear old Texas," she said. "It's nice and hot in Texas. Why do you know, Mr. Hartford, my uncle once told me it was so hot in Texas on his ranch that the sun popped a barnful of corn stored for the winter blow off the roof of the place and several cows, seeing the white flecks, thought it was snow and froze to death."

"Let's shoot the next scene with the heat lamp," said the producer and they did.

First Anniversary

H. N. Turner, proprietor of the Barny theatre, will celebrate the first anniversary of the opening of his new movie hall, next Thursday evening, September 8th. For this occasion, he has secured one of the best pictures that money can buy and of the character that has always drawn big crowds.

The picture, "The Golden Share," is from a story written by James Oliver Curwood, one of the most popular writers of the present day. It deals with the man-hunt of a Royal Northwest sergeant in the far north country. Practically the entire picture is laid in the open country in the dead of winter. In celebrating the first anniversary, it was Mr. Turner's desire to give his patrons the best picture that money could buy and we feel justified in recommending this picture to the readers of The Pine City Herald.

It was Mr. Turner's desire to give his patrons the best picture that money could buy and we feel justified in recommending this picture to the readers of The Pine City Herald.

Notwithstanding that business conditions in general have not been of the best the past year, the theatre patronage has been very good and Mr. Turner takes this opportunity of thanking his patrons through the columns of The Pine City Herald for their patronage since he has come to Pine City.

It is hard to have a star picture every week but some big releases have been booked for this fall and winter. Following are some of the pictures that will be shown in the near future:

Charles Ray in his latest picture "Midnight Bell"; "Eastern Flavors" starring Norma Talmode; "The Stealers" an all-star cast; "Sky Pilot" a King Vidor picture; Geo. Cooper in "The Wonder Man"; The big 9-reel production "Man, Woman and Marriage" featuring Dorothy Phillips Jackie Coogan-- "The Kid" in "Peck's Bad Boy" (1921 model).

Plan now to see the "Golden Share" next Thursday evening. Be on hand early as a James Oliver Curwood picture always draws a capacity house. Watch for the dates of the other pictures given above. You will always find full particulars under the "Theatre Notes" in The Polar each week.

Arrested for Shooting the Bull

Frank Petersdorf living north of Heonette, was arrested last Monday charged with cruelty to animals. The complaint was sworn out by Paul Schultz who owned the bull that the defendant had persecuted with knuckles.
The case was heard before Judge Atkinson, Monday afternoon. Petersdorf claimed the bull had entered his yard last Thursday evening and had chased him and his wife into the barn. He said they had to remain in the barn until the bull had departed, as he wasn't in a bull fighting condition that evening. He further stated that the bull had returned the following evening, but he was ready for him that night and when the bull attacked him he loaded the bull with knuckles. He shot into the air the first time and then gave it five more shots to hurry it on its way. The plainiff testified the bull was unable to use its hind legs and was badly crippled.

Judge Atkinson said that in his opinion both parties were guilty, the plaintiff for allowing the bull to roam, and the defendant for shooting more than was necessary--said shots both be fined, but he just assessed the costs, amounting to $10 and suggested they each pay half. That arrangement was satisfactory to the defendant, but not to the plaintiff. Judge Atkinson then found the defendant "guilty" and assessed the costs against the plaintiff.

Close Bowery

No more dances will be held at the Wm. Cort pavilion this fall. Owing to his cool evenings the dances have been almost a failure this year. The bowery has been occasionally well patronized this summer and Mr. Cort wishes to thank his many friends who have attended and helped make the dances a success.

Big Loss From Fire

About $50,000 worth of lumber was destroyed by fire at the McGrath mill on the St. Croix river, last Thursday night. The fire resulted from a spark from the No. 1 engine on the Grantsburg line. Thursday afternoon, when the train was on its way to Grantsburg, sparks from the engine set fire to a haystack near the company barn. This was extinguished and then the train on its return trip set fire to the barn. A railroad crew which was working near the haystack, saw the sparks and about eleven o'clock they thought the fire put out and they went to the cook house to get some out from eating they found a lumber pile on fire and before they could get water, practically the entire yard was doomed. They did succeed in saving the mill however.

Called by Death

Louise W. Cort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cort of Pine City, passed away at the Bethesda hospital, at St. Paul, last evening, August 28th. She was just a month, going to the hospital July 28th. Death resulted from an abscess of the brain caused by blood poisoning. Her condition was not thought so serious until a few hours before she died. Her parents were sent for but reached the hospital after she had passed away.

The remains were brought to Pine City, last Tuesday and funeral services will be held from the Methodist church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. Orval and internment made in the local cemetery. The pall bearers will be Wm. Schultz Wm. Hein Fred Blank, Geo. Peters, Harry Davis and Louis Stoenig.

Louise Cort was born on the old home farm, west of town, 27 years ago and lived there with her parents until 6 or 7 years ago when she went to the Pine City to make her home. She has been employed at the New Capital theatre in St. Paul as chief usher, since it opened a year ago.

Besides her father and mother she leaves three brothers and three sisters: Chas. H. of San Francisco, Calif.; Frank J. and Wm. H. of Pine City; Mrs. Fred Williams of Eau Claire, Wis.; Mrs. Raymond O'Conner of Edmonton, Can.; and Christine W. Cort of St. Paul. All the family with the exception of the brother in California, were for the funeral. The deceased had many friends here and at St. Paul, who extend their sympathy to the bereaved family for the loss of a loving daughter and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bantleon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gehl and Dave Hoefler son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoefler, returned home from an 800 mile auto trip last Friday. They left here a week ago last Sunday and drove to Kramer that day, coming there over night. They went to Fort Williams, Can. where they stopped at short time and then continued on to Kankakee, Ill. They spent a night staying in that region and put in a day visiting relatives of Mr. Gehl at Fort Arthur where a family reunion was held. The trip was very enjoyable one as was the idea. The trip was made in Mr. Gehl's new Nash car. Mr. Bantleon doing the driving and he says they had a number of very kind car having an abundance of speed and power.

Nelson-Hinze Wedding

A beautiful wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hinze, Wednesday, August 28th at eleven o'clock when Miss Rena Hinze became the bride of Mr. Ray Nelson. Rev. Hinze of the Lutheran church of Pine City performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white georgette crepe over white satin, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Hinze, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of Copenhagen blue museline and carried a bouquet of white asters and ferns. Mr. Alva Nelson, brother of the groom, served as best man.

The house was very beautifully decorated with ferns, greens and flowers.

Following the ceremony a buffet wedding dinner was served.

Only relatives and close friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hinze, living southeast of Pine City. The groom is a son of Mr. O. Nelson, living southwest of Pine City. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are both popular young people and have hosts of friends who extend their hearty wishes to the happy couple for the success of their marriage.

The happy couple left the city for a 2-weeks honeymoon trip to visit relatives and friends in the northern part of the state and other points.

A shower was tendered the young couple last Friday night when they received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Steal Automobile

George Durice and Dave Clesett were arrested near Sturgeon Lake and brought to Pine City, last Thursday by Sheriff Hawley. They pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile and were bound over to the district court, by Justice Stephan. They were released under bonds of $1,000 each.

The local supervisor north of Sturgeon Lake, saw a fellow in a Ford sedan driving toward Duluth, Wednesday afternoon of last week. The car stopped and the driver kicked the starter button a couple of times but couldn't start the motor. He then jumped out and took off the license plates. He told the supervisor he had another car at Willow River and was going back to get it. A short time later, two fellows drove up from the north, looked into the stalled car, and found the car. They went back to Moose Lake to be repaired. They returned in a few minutes driving south. The road man had become suspicious by this time and followed the car. They turned north. He located the sedan in the woods on a side road and was then convinced that there was a "nigger in the woodpile" somewhere.

He notified the authorities at Sturgeon Lake and they went and hid near the car that night. A fellow came along with a search light about ten o'clock. They hid from him to hid, but he beat it through the tall timbers and got away. The watchers then looked around for another car and found it about half past ten o'clock. They waited there for a few minutes and succeeded in nabbing three fellows who came to get it. One of them claimed to have nothing to do with taking the car in the afternoon and was released.

The others said that they were on their way to Moose Lake for some medicine, and knew nothing about the stolen car. One of them was identified by the road maintenance men however.

Sheriff Hawley was notified and after he brought them to Pine City, they admitted having taken the car in the afternoon. They said they were driving north and saw the car handling by the road and came back and got it.

The stolen car was taken to Sturgeon Lake where it is being held until the owner is found. Sheriff Hawley does not believe the car was purchased in this part of the country as the Ford distributors here have no record of the motor number. In all probability, the man who drove it up where it was stalled, had most likely stolen it or knew it had been stolen, as he was in a hurry to get away when it stopped. The motor was heavily scored, as it had run out of oil.

Arrested on Iowa Complaint

R. Draps was arrested by Sheriff Hawley Wednesday evening at 11 o'clock on a sedition charge from Waverly, Iowa. He was taken into custody west of Finlayson, and brought to Pine City and lodged at the hotel, where he was kept until Friday.

Sheriff Hawley had received a telegram from the Waverly sheriff, who thought Draps might be found at Kincaid, and asked that he be arrested, as he was wanted for sedition. Mr. Hawley located him near Finlayson. A deputy sheriff from Iowa came Friday morning to take him back to Waverly where he will be tried.

Albert Pangel's Weds

Albert Pangel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pangel of Pine City, and Miss Luella Barnes of New Jersey were married in the Episcopal church at White Bear, last Tuesday. They went to St. Paul, following the ceremony, and expect to arrive here the last of this week when a reception will be given the newlyweds at the home of their parents, next Sunday. Many friends here attend best wishes, and are planning a regular reception for the happy couple.

League Season Closes Sun.

The Eastern Minnesota baseball league schedule closes next Sunday with a double game at Pine City, with City Club at North Branch and Pine Lake at Mora. Mora now leads the league, leading Rush City by one game. If Rush City wins and Mora loses next Sunday, they will be tied for first place. Pine City defeated Pine Lake on their ground, last Sunday, by a score of 11 to 0. The local boys enjoyed a regular sipping festival, on their then hitting the ball for long drives. Some of the Pine City fellows said it was the first time they had been shut-out for years.

Pine City got to Mora at the start, yesterday, by a score of 11 to 5. Johnson of Rush City did the throwing for Mora and our boys had no trouble in hitting the

Joe Kunes Married

Cards were received this week announcing the marriage of Joe P. Kunes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kunes of Pine City, and Miss Ruth E. Dunbar of Newport, R. I. The ceremony was performed Monday August 29th, in St. Joseph's church at Newport, and the newlyweds will be at home after September 6th at 20 Mill street of that place.

Joe entered the navy about six years ago, and now rates "first class cook." He has been stationed at the naval station at Newport the past 4 years and has recently re-enlisted for another 4 years. During his service, he has made a number of trips abroad.

It's many friends in this community, the happy event, and extend congratulations to the newlyweds.

ENFORCE LAW

Local Authorities Notified By Secretary of State Holm

Sheriff Hawley and local authorities are to begin immediately the strict enforcement of the new state motor vehicle license law following notice this week from Mike Holm, secretary of state, that virtually all license applications are filed.

"Ample time has been given to all to comply with the requirements," said Secretary Holm, "and it is only fair to those who have paid their just share of the taxes that all should be required to do their part."

Misdemeanor charges are to be made against automobile owners who delay or neglect to register and pay the tax with intent to evade payment; operate a motor vehicle not properly taxed and registered; use a number plate or certificate on another car that that for which it was issued, or who fail to surrender plates or certificates when required by law. Attempt to evade the law is rated the most serious offense.

Letters "A" and "B" on the license plates indicate that the certificate is for a passenger car, bus or hearse, the first letter denoting the $12 minimum and the other the higher tax payment. Truck license plates carry the letters "T" and "CY" and must be displayed on all machines carrying other things than passengers. Roadsters with boxes are taxed as trucks. Dealers' plates can be used on cars being demonstrated to prospective purchasers.

EARLY SEASON CALLS FOR EARLY SEED CORN SELECTION

SEED CORN TIME

SELECTED

PROFIT YEARS

SEPT. 5-15
1921

Special Harvest is Five Days
Ahead of Normal.

It is always wise to select seed corn early in Minnesota—early enough to escape killing frosts. That is why the agricultural extension division at University Farm, St. Paul, has year after year fixed on September 15-20 as Seed Corn Time—a period for the special harvesting of seed corn for the following year's planting. Killing frosts do not come in Minnesota usually until after September 20.

This year, because of the early season and the advanced stage of the corn crop, farmers have an extra chance to beat the attacks of the frost king. The corn crop has matured earlier than usual because it got an early start, and to get corn that will mature in about the same number of days next year selection should be made somewhat earlier than usual. Corn may have to be planted later next year than it was planted this, and if it is not early-maturing it may not come through in time to escape next year's frosts. FOR THESE REASONS SEED CORN TIME THIS YEAR HAS BEEN SET FOR—

September 5-15.
So between September 5 and 15 this fall—

Select your seed corn.
Store it at once in a dry well ventilated place where it will dry quickly and stay dry.

FARM DEPARTMENT

Indications are that the man who has planned to raise fat pigs this season has struck it right. Census figures and other reports from corn belt states says E. E. Ferrin in charge of the swine section of the animal husbandry division at University Farm, "show a decrease in the number of hogs. By next spring a summer when fall pigs are ready for market the pork shortage will be pronounced. This situation accompanied by cheap feeds mean profit in the fat raised pigs. Mr. Ferrin believes there is no economy in keeping fall farrowed pigs on light rations. "Their life should be short," he says, "and 200 pound weight reached in not more than seven or eight months. Especially during the fall the pigs should be well fed to get as much size and growth upon them before winter as possible. It is at least much harder to keep young growing pigs in thrifty condition during winter than in the summer. Liberty in the kinds and amounts of feeds given is advisable. Use milk for the pigs until they reach 75 or 100 pounds in weight. In case ordinary skim milk or buttermilk is not available, it will pay to use some one of the commercial milk feeds. Not a very large amount of these milk by-products is necessary, but a little is a big help."

"Corn is the most satisfactory grain at present prices, if it is properly supplemented with feeds like milk, tankage, wheat shorts or linseed meal. Instead of using only one of these last named feeds, it is a good plan to feed two or three. In this way the lack of green feed is more apt to be obviated than if the pig's diet is confined to two feeds. Feed bills this season are not going to be large and returns are sure to be good with anywhere near an average price for finished hogs."

Good storage of potatoes begins at the time of harvesting. The digger should be adjusted so as to furnish sufficient vibration to separate the dirt from the tubers—and no more. Danger of bruising in digging and handling will be lessened if the potatoes are allowed to remain in the ground a few weeks after the vines are dead. This will give the corky layer composing the skin opportunity to reach its normal development.

The potatoes should be dry and not warmer than the cellar into which they are thrown, for otherwise the air may become charged with moisture. While air saturated with moisture is not injurious to the potato, it is favorable to the growth of molds which in time cause softening and decay.

The method of storage should be governed by the prospective use of the tubers—whether for table stock or seed. A good cooking potato should be dry and mealy, not sweet or watery. Prevention of sprouting in storage is the object sought in handling seed potatoes. This can be brought about by keeping the storage temperature at from 35 to 40 degrees F. and allowing circulation sufficient to eliminate the surplus moisture given off by the tubers. All living things require oxygen for their growth. Storing potatoes in dead air retards sprouting indefinitely. The air circulation should, therefore, be reduced to the minimum requirement for good moisture conditions.

Potatoes for table stock require a slightly higher temperature in storage, 40 to 45 degrees F., as they tend to become sweet at low temperatures, the starch changing into sugar. Potatoes that have become sweet in storage will lose their sweetness when stored for a short time at 58 degrees F.—F. A. Krantz, horticulturist, University Farm.

We welcome these new arrivals to this community.

Two farm sales were closed last week. John Tate has sold his farm north of town, to Theodore Hawkins of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who will take possession March 1st. Chas. Johns of Cedar Rapids has purchased the Ellwood farm, west of the old Dan Hoffman place and will also move on March 1st. Both deals were made through Wm. O. Daniels of Potosi, Mo.

The warm weather the past few days has brought the bathers out again and last Monday evening there was quite a crowd enjoying a swim at the bathing beach. The beach has been one of the most popular places in Pine City this summer and the bath house was the big accomplishment of the development association this year. Next year arrangements should be made for a tourist camping grounds near the village. Many towns have already seen the advantage of having a camping grounds for it is not only good advertising for a community but is also a means of bringing many dollars to the merchants.

Henry Peterson and his sister, Miss Alice, left yesterday for Deerpark where they will visit friends for a few days. They made the trip by auto and expect to return home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Breckenridge have moved into the rooms upstairs to the Adam Bideman home. Although they are undecided as to their future plans they may leave Pine City in the near future.

Joe Peterson, accompanied by Sam Miller and Lawrence Therrien drove to St. Paul, last Sunday. Lawrence came home the following day. Mrs. Peterson and Mr. Peterson and Mr. Miller returned early Tuesday morning.

The "Snake River Snakes" had been defeated by the local Junior team on the local diamond, last Sunday by a score of 15 to 13. The "Snakes" team were able to snake over a couple of runs too many for the local boys.

The St. Paul Dispatch under date of August 29th had the following item in its editorial column which will be of interest to local folks: "J. Adam Bede says in effect, that it requires only a little common sense to put a nick in the panic."

Mrs. Elizabeth Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berger and daughter, all of St. Paul, returned to their homes there last Monday after a 10-day visit at the A. O. Garbush home here. Mrs. Lee is a sister and Mrs. Berger a niece of Mrs. Garbush.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Appleby, living south of town, drove to Bruce, Wis., on Tuesday of last week, visiting there and other Wisconsin points until Saturday. Upon their return they found E. R. Putnam and family of Winona, who had driven up for a week's visit at the Appleby home. They all drove to Dauth Tuesday for a visit with friends there.

Miss Agnes Crowl, specialist from the state board of control, attended a hearing before Judge Wilcox, last week when Albert Novak of Rock Creek, 14 years old, Theodore Rupp of Bruno, 14 years old and Joseph Kriz of Brook Park, 10 years old, were turned over to the guardianship of the state board of control. They will be left at home until there is room for them in the school for feeble minded at Parkville.

Local graduates of the normal school last spring are preparing to leave for the various schools, where they will teach the coming term. Miss Mahon Flaten will be in charge of the 5th and 6th grades in the consolidated school at Cerveron. Miss Florence Duvall will teach in a school near Carlton, and Miss Anna Dippert will teach near Moose Lake. Miss Victoria Wiederman has not accepted a position as yet, but expects to take a position before school opens.

Mr. Lessard of Princeton is figuring on buying the Lawrence bakery and expects to close the deal next week. He owned a restaurant in Princeton which he sold about six weeks ago, and since that time has been looking for another location. He has had many opportunities to buy but thinks the best place he has seen is here. Dick Lawrence and family expect to visit at the home of his parents in Waunawa, Wis., for a short time and they then intend to tour the country. Fred Lawrence is undecided as to his plans.

Tom Ling, superintendent of the court house grounds and building, has been busy and spent most of his friends busy this week, chopping down the trees on the lawn. Three trees were cut down, which makes a big improvement in the looks of the grounds. White Tom has been with the work, he received lots of advice as to how it should be done so he hit on the idea of having his advisors demonstrate the proper method of felling trees. The result was that the trees were soon cut down and Tom had the pleasure of watching the boys do the work. Anyone can do hard work but it takes an artist to get the work done by others, and make them enjoy it.

RAIL UNION HEADS DENY STRIKE TALK
 Any Action by Workers Hinge on Additional Decisions of Railway Labor Board.
WALKOUT IMPOSSIBLE
 The Main Bone of Contention Between Shop Forces and the Board is the Abolishment of Overtime Pay for Sunday Work.

St. Paul—Railroad employees desire to avoid a strike, and a walkout is impossible until further action has been taken by the railway workers after additional decisions of the Railroad Labor Board, relative to working rules, have been made, executive of Northwest railway unions asserted.
 "Any reports that a general strike has been voted are erroneous," said R. A. Henning, general chairman for the Federated Shop Crafts for the Northwest. This organization, composed of the membership of the six largest bodies of railroad shop workers, numbering approximately 20,000 members throughout the Northwest.
 Still Await Decision.
 "The only vote taken by the shop crafts was late in June, when the wage reduction of 12 per cent, authorized by the Railroad Labor Board, was repudiated. We still are awaiting for a decision from the board on additional working rules. Then it will be up to the heads of the unions to call for action. It is probable that a specific ballot will be submitted on the whole situation before a strike vote will be considered to have been taken," he said.
 Railroad executives here do not believe that there will be a general strike owing to the abnormally large number of men out of work, claiming that it would be an easy matter to hire men to fill the vacancies occasioned by a strike.
 Other Crafts in Same Position.
 Other railroad labor organizations, including the maintenance of way employes, locomotive firemen, engineers, trainmen, conductors, oilers, telegraphers and stationary firemen, are at present in practically the same position, according to their heads. The clerks union now is completing a vote on the Labor board decision.
 Questions at Issue.
 Some of the questions at issue are: The letting of certain classes of work to so-called contractors, who hire their own men. Under this plan the employes are not governed by the Labor board.
 The refusal of some railroads to meet with the men to draw up working agreements, and other refusals to abide by the decisions of the board.
 The abolishment of overtime pay for Sunday work for shopmen, except in emergency cases. This is the main bone of contention between the shop forces and the board.

MINNEAPOLIS BANK ROBBED
 Two Armed Bandits Line Up Seven Persons as They Grab Cash.
 Minneapolis—Two bandits, armed with all the revolvers they could carry handily and wearing motorist's goggles, held up the Chicago-Lake State bank, lined up five men and two women against a wall, and escaped with $4,500 in cash.
 The desperadoes, one short one tall, one surly and practical, the other suave and polite entered through a rear door barred only by a screen, an hour and a half after the bank had been closed for business.
 They lost no time lining up the persons at work over the accounts, interposing witty remarks with brusque orders as they stuffed their pockets with currency.

"Halcyon Days"
 The seven days preceding and the seven days following the winter solstice, which falls on Dec. 21 or 22, were the halcyon days of the old world. In modern dictionary halcyon has come to be a synonym for idyllic, peaceful or happy, but among the ancients it was the name of a bird now called the kingfisher, and the 14 days nearest the winter solstice were called halcyon days because it was at that period that the bird deposited her eggs on the rocks by the margin of the sea, or in a floating nest in the midst of the waters. Out of consideration for the halcyon bird, which was supposed to be favored by the gods, it was expected that the sea would remain calm, that the nights might not suffer injury. The superstition persisted in spite of the storms that often prevailed at that period. Some of the ancient writers attributed to the kingfisher the power of arresting the violence of the waves.

GOOD PROOF OF RETICENCE

Testimony Should Have Convinced Jury That This Woman Was Able to Keep a Secret.

In a suit recently tried in Boston it happened that one of the witnesses was a personal friend of a lawyer on the other side and that, when his duty to cross-examine her, by reason of their friendship he was, if possible, a trifle more personal than he would have been with another witness.

"Can you be trusted with a secret?" he asked at one juncture of the cross examination.

The woman threw herself up proudly. "You have known me for twenty years, haven't you?" she asked in turn.

"Well, do you know how old I am?" "Yes."

Labor Day

The hands that labor and the mind which plans

Have laid aside their burdens that they may

Commemorate the power which is man's

The power of the elements to stay

Well may we tribute lay at Labor's feet

Well may we laud her many virtues sing

Without her magic touch naught is complete.

For lo, her hand has fashioned everything.

Labor, the force by which Progress is wrought!

Our debt to her the nation's ne'er repays.

This day of time we set aside is naught.

For she to us devotes her other days!
