THREE ROADS TO CONSOLIDATE

Donnelly, Home From New York Conference, Outlines Mammoth Project.

Minneapolis—Authority to consolidate their three systems into the largest transportation system in the United States, involving a capital investment of more than $1,700,000,000, will be asked by the Great Northern, the Burlington and the Northern Pacific when the interstate commerce commission on Nov. 17, Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific, said on his return from the east. In New York, representatives of these three roads conferred with J. P. Morgan & Co. on railroad merger plans outlined by interstate commerce commission. If the commission grants authority for the merger, Mr. Donnelly announced the roads will go ahead with consolidation plans.

Hearings will open before the commission Nov. 17 on plans for a series of railroad mergers. Plans call for grouping the railroads of the United States into a few large systems to improve transportation.

The approval of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington, announced by President Donnelly puts this consolidation plan beyond the usual stage of discussion.

The total system presented by the merger of these three lines would be more than 23,000 miles.

The capital investment of the property operated as the Northern Pacific is $500,000,000; the Great Northern $700,000,000; the Burlington $700,000,000; and the Spokane, Portland & Seattle $100,000,000.

Therrien Answers

October 23rd, 1922.
Mr. L. C. Peterson,
Askov, Minnesota.

Dear Sir:—
I am in receipt of your open letter in answer to mine of the 9th of October, inviting you to a public debate upon the political question.

You frankly admit that the letter is a personal attack upon me and excuse yourself for this because, as you say, I am not a gentleman. The reason I am not a gentleman, from your viewpoint of course, is because of my effrontery in criticizing your record as a member of the legislature in my speech at Askov. There can be and is no other reason. Your evident irritation at my presumption in doing this proves that you have become one of that class of public officials, so abhorrent in temperament and disposition, as to be intolerant of any criticism or scrutiny of your public record by the people. This disposition on your part is further shown when you state in your letter that, if you were sure you could depend on me to debate on strictly political issues, such as the cause of high taxes, you would gladly enter into a debate with me. This limitation upon the scope of the debate implies that you are not depending upon your record in the legislature, a matter upon which the voters should be fully informed. It is their right. It is my privilege and it is the right of the voters to know what, if anything, you have done as a legislator for the common good.

I expected in the debate to discuss other dangerous destructive conditions facing the people, and especially the farmers. To do so, however, would, to use your own expression, be to "radicalize" legal institutions and private persons." The quotations from your letter show that you have your lesson well learned. The sentiment you express is the notorious propaganda of the "predatory interests," that any criticism of or complaint against the present glaring inequalities in our social and industrial life is radicalism and is, therefore, reprehensible. This propaganda, that many sane and sober men feel embarrassed at expressing their honest convictions concerning present conditions and a few men prominent in public life have become the victims of a sort of senile hysteria, magnifying that every measure for the betterment of the common welfare spells socialism.

To men in this condition of mind to call attention to the fact that at the present time, because of lack of protection, inadequate credit and high freight rates, farmers are being driven from their farms on the market for less than the cost of production while a number of big corporations are declaring dividends of from 200 to 400 percent, these inequalities, instead of shaming and making laws and costly and radical, then I confess that I am a radical. You say that the trouble with me is, I do not take anything seriously. I take the matters I have just referred to seriously enough. If I do not take your work in the legislature seriously, that is a thing I am not to be blamed for.

My invitation to you to a public debate was stated in the editorial comment of your local paper on my speech at Askov. The editorial was crude and amateurish and spoke a somewhat vacant mind. It was no veritable attempt to misrepresent and distort in your favor the statements made by me in this speech. The paper was serving you. You say it is not your "organ" because you have not a cent invested in it. In that you are probably fortunate. But the service of some sheets may be had without the investment of even a cent in its business.

I regret very much that the necessity for changing you to do no more was brought about by this and other deliberate misrepresentations of a candidate speaking in the home town of his opponent.

Your reasons for rejecting my challenge to a public debate are somewhat vague and unsatisfactory. If they are your belief that I will misrepresent your record in the legislature or fail in other ways to conduct myself as a gentleman, you show little faith in the intelligence of the voters of this county or their spirit of fair play. I am quite certain that I would gain no friends by that kind of tactics and that you would profit by it.

To clear up the situation somewhat, I might say in conclusion that I have, in common with others, the highest regard for your character as a man and citizen. I have as no time, either in public or privately assailed it. It is principles rather than men that are on trial today.

Yours very truly,
J. E. Therrien.

On the Road of Good Intentions

Political Notes

The Pine Poker is not liked by a few who think we are "horning in" where we don't belong, when we discuss county affairs, and county taxes. We venture to say however, that most of our readers feel we have the right, and they have the right, to know what is going on in this line. Anyway we pay taxes, and they are too high too and there are a few thousand others who feel their taxes are also too high. We have a large number of subscribers in the first district who would like to see the balloon come down for a change, also one or two in other parts of the county. It has been a great voyage for the balloon and it's time for someone to stick a fork or something in it, let out some of the gas and hot air, and bring it back to earth.

Amongst other expenditures of county money that a few in the first district are trying to justify, is that of the county printing award last January. One of these justifiers in Rock Creek corralled a few voters last Monday, and used his best efforts to clear up the matter. But it can never be cleared up to the satisfaction of the taxpayers, whose money paid the surplus award. It is quite a coincidence however, that those who are doing the most justifying are those who did so much boasting for the paper that got the printing last winter. There's a nigger in the woodpile somewhere.

CHAOTIC FLIGHT-THRACE HORDES

Moving Columns Blocked By Frantic Exodus of Refugees.

Adriano—The exodus of refugees increased disorder. The moving columns are repeatedly blocked by the frantic efforts of the refugees and by new columns arriving from side roads or across the field.

A French official declared: "The governor general has incurred a terrible responsibility, because many more deaths will be caused by the precipitate flight than by any other thing."

The governor general explained that he was refusing to use his power to control the exodus and keep it orderly, but was helpless against the overwhelming mass.

A Turkish band of 200 attacked Greek refugees on the road near Hatroboli, killed 20 and robbed them of their goods.

The British forces at Rodosto have established a cordon around the town and refused entry to the refugees until the 25,000 gathered there have been evacuated. Evacuation is a large problem at Rodosto as most of the Christian population from the district south of Adriano must depart by way of the city owing to the impossibility of crossing the Maritsa marshes.

The Greek consulate has instructed all Greeks in Germany belonging to the military classes from 1917 to 1921, who hitherto have been exempt from military service, to report within six days in Greece. Six of the 1922 class have received similar instructions.

Osman Minstrels Here Sat.

Present indications are that every seat in the Family Theatre will be taken by the big Shire minstrel show to be given by Osman Tammie of St. Paul on Saturday evening of this week.

Over 50 tickets have already been sold in Rush City and large parties are coming from White Bear, North Branch, Cambridge, Brainerd, Moose Lake, Sandstone and other nearby towns. All seats are reserved, the price being $1 per ticket. The show starts at 8:15 and anyone planning on attending should be sure and get their tickets in advance, as there will be no stand alone room.

The Osman Minstrels have been giving shows all over the state, and newspapers state they rival the George Primrose minstrel of national fame. They have been in great demand, and it was only through the persuasion of Otto Soibka and his committee that the Shireners were induced to cancel another date and come to Pine City.

There are 35 members in the troupe and orchestra. Their program lasts about 3 hours, consisting of 25 numbers. There are vocal quartet, banjo and xylophone numbers of real Southern Harmonies. The end men are real comedians that will keep the audience in a roar of laughter. It is the treat of the season. Be sure to attend.

The town has been decorated with the Osman colors and emblems. The Shireners will arrive on the limited Saturday afternoon. They will travel in a private car. See the camel parade following the arrival of the train.

Following is the program:

County Printing

We understand that the report is being circulated that the county printing cost $470 this year. In referring to the records of the county, we find that the first check to the Askov American in February was only $344. But the following month in March the bill passed was for $1,163.98 and so on down the line until in September it totaled $2,114.58. And there are still three months to go. Figure it out for yourself. The Askov bid was almost double the Paker bid for doing the county printing.

Albert Johnson of Sandstone

Albert Johnson of Sandstone is being circled that the county printing cost $470 this year. In referring to the records of the county, we find that the first check to the Askov American in February was only $344. But the following month in March the bill passed was for $1,163.98 and so on down the line until in September it totaled $2,114.58. And there are still three months to go. Figure it out for yourself. The Askov bid was almost double the Paker bid for doing the county printing.

There doesn't seem to be much interest in the commissioner's race in the third district. Nett Oakland of Princeton is being opposed by George Wallick of Hinesdale. The political posters of that district seem to feel sure of Nett's re-election.

One week from next Tuesday the people of Pine county will go to the polls and cast their choice for a representative of Pine county in the state legislature. Will the majority of those votes be cast for a man who has the ability to get up on his feet and make a fight for laws that will benefit the farmers and the working man or will the vote be for a man whose boasts of helping to place an additional burden on the farmers in the shape of the "weed inspection law" and a few such. What the farmers need are a few laws that will tend to relieve the present tax burdens, instead of real laws that will tend to increase the tax burden.

The biggest drama of the season at the armory Saturday evening.

BRITISH CABINET COMPLETED

President Bonar Law Makes Cabinet Commissions—Election Nov. 15.

London—Premier Bonar Law has issued a list of the principal members of his ministry.

Marquis Curzon retains his post as secretary for foreign affairs and will be leader of the House of Lords. Viscount Peel retains the Indian secretaryship.

Stanley Baldwin, as expected, goes to the exchequer, but it has not yet been announced whether he will be leader in the House of Commons.

The Earl of Derby, as the war effort resumes a post which he has held before. This member had the greatest difficulty in the law office. It is noticeable that Lord Curzon's name does not appear in the new ministry. Viscount Cave becoming lord high chancellor.

Parliament is to be dissolved Thursday and the general elections are to be held Nov. 15.

Eyes of all political parties are on Lloyd George, "the unknown quantity" today.

Premier Bonar Law Thursday plans to announce in greater detail his policies when he addresses his constituents at Glasgow. In the interim, the premier, who stands for election to the house of commons, will be opposed by a labor candidate and Sir George Paish, Independent Liberal.

Poultry Show Dates Set

The Pine County Poultry Show will be held in the Pine City armory on Dec. 14, 15 and 16th. W. E. Standfield, poultry editor of the Northwest Farmerstead will be the judge again this year.

Secretary L. F. Appleby, in speaking of the coming show, stated he expects this year's show to be the largest ever held in Pine county. A much larger number of entries are expected from outside this county, and the interest already being manifested by local poultry breeders assures a big county exhibit.

Must Get Trapping License

The following letter to Sheridan Greig is self explanatory.

Dear Sir:—
The game and fish laws require a person to take out a trapping or fur-bearing animal license before taking gray, fox or black squirrels.

Yours truly,
Harry J. La Due,
Assistant Commissioner.

Farmers Ex. Meets Saturday

The Farmers Exchange will meet in the village hall at Pine City on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., October 28th. All members are requested to be present.

Can Get Picric Acid

As a Christianian informs the Pine Poker that orders for picric acid are now coming in and anyone wishing to order their local bank, the order shall be filled.

Testing Assn. Meets Saturday

The Pine County cow testing association will meet at Hinesdale next Saturday afternoon at 5:30. All members are urged to be there, and any wishing to join the association are invited to be present.

New Mail Route

Beginning November 1st, there will be five rural mail routes running out of the Pine City postoffice. Pete Swanson will be the temporary carrier for Route No. 5.

The new route is made up by changes in Pine City routes 1, 3 and 4 and about 7 miles from one of the Brook Park routes. This will give patrons of Pine City that have had to get their mail through the Brook Park office, much better service from this village.

The riding of the new routes will also give every day service to a large number of farmers on the Flats east of Pine City, who have been getting their mail every other day.

All rural mail patrons are supposed to have their mail boxes on the right hand side of the road with their name on it. Anyone who does not know where to put the box or desires any information, may get it from your present carrier.

Postmaster Collins has been working on this change for the past three years, as it will mean much improved mail service in the surrounding country.

Patrons on the rural routes are reminded of the fact that cold weather will soon be here and that placing pennies in the boxes for stamps for letters mailed necessitates the carrier removing his mittens and fashing around in the bottom of the cold box for the money. This results in mighty cold fingers. The carriers are anxious to be accommodating and will gladly furnish stamps, but will appreciate it if the patrons will buy a number of stamps at a time.

Meet at Carlson Home

The Pine City Farm Bureau Unit will meet at the home of C. O. Carlson, northeast of Pine City, next Sunday October 29th. Visitors are cordially invited to be present.

Don't miss the "hallow'en" dance at the armory Saturday evening.

Petschel Installs New Tank

A new gasoling tank and pump has been installed by Joe Petschel proprietor of the Petschel garage. The new tank, which cost approximately $600 installed, is one of the latest designed pumps on the market. Not only is it an ornament but it assures the quickest service in filling automobile gas tanks.

The new tank was made necessary by the large volume of gasoline business done by the garage. They have sold this new one this past season than they did a year ago.

IMPORTANT POINTS IN COWS

Missouri Expert Tells Just What to Look for in Buying High Producing Cattle.

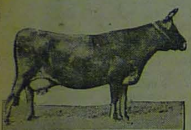

"The man does not live who can pick the good cows from the poor ones without ever making a mistake," says W. W. Sweet, of the Missouri College of Agriculture. "Even the best judges sometimes make a mistake. But there are certain points about the dairy cow that are almost always associated with high production."

The udder should be deep, wide and long with good attachments. It should be evenly developed, level on the floor and equipped with teats of good size, uniform size, symmetrically placed. It should also be soft and pliable, indicating that it consists of secreting cells rather than flesh.

A good set of milk veins indicates that the udder is well supplied with blood. Long, crooked milk veins entering large wells or openings through the body wall are usually associated with high production.

A cow cannot be a maximum and continuous producer unless she has a strong constitution. Vitality and strength of constitution are indicated by broad, open nostrils, and a chest which is deep and broad.

Food capacity is essential. In order to produce heavily a cow must consume large quantities of feed and water. A barrel which is large, broad and deep indicates a large capacity.

Money is Made Where Cows of This Type Are Used.

Good production. A large cow nearly always has the advantage in production, provided she is not deficient in other points.

Alertness in temperament is an asset, and a sluggish cow is seldom a high producer. Dairy temperament includes those characteristics which indicate that the cow's feed is used for the production of milk rather than for body fat. Anxiously, prominent points, lack of heaviness and flesh, and the presence of the triple veins are good indications.

Quality refers to the handling or pliability of the milk, the refinement of bone, and the character of the animal, which cannot be described but which have to be seen to be appreciated.

HERDS TESTED DURING JUNE

Of a Total of 250,686 Examined 8,210 Reacted, Disclosing 3 1/2 Per Cent Tuberculous Cattle.

Cattle officially tested during June, 1922, for tuberculosis numbered 250,686, according to a summary issued by the bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture. This figure exceeds the normal amount of tuberculin testing by several thousand. Of all the cattle tested, 8,210 reacted, thus disclosing about 3 1/2 per cent of tuberculous cattle.

The removal of such cattle from herds otherwise healthy is gradually bringing about better health among farm live stock, safer milk supplies, and many economic benefits. The popularity of tuberculosis eradication is evidenced by the length of the list of herds waiting to be tested. At the end of June there were applications on file for the testing of 85,239 herds, containing more than half a million cattle.

SKIM CREAM MORE CLOSELY

Keeps Better During Hot Weather and Makes Better Butter—Keeps Skim Milk on Farm.

If it's to keep best during the warm weather and to make the highest quality butter, cream needs to be skimmed closely. Better butter is made from heavier cream as the fine, sandlike grains that are precipitated in churning are more solid than the butter resulting from this cream. Also it will pay to ship the heavier cream, as there is no use in paying shipping charges on skim milk. It will make better food for the farm.

Tester is Big Aid. Nothing compares to a good cow tester in helping get the herd in the way of bringing profits.

Get Rid of Poor Cows. Dairyman are now realizing more heavily than ever the necessity of getting rid of the cows that are wearing out their board. These cows place the heavy tax upon the herd to make the dairyman go as it should.

Cows to Keep Up Fertility.

The cows in milk need to be about the logical number to keep up the fertility on a 100-acre farm where commercial fertilizers are used, none of which are there to fertilize, some being stock, and some horses.

KEEP DAIRY UTENSILS CLEAN

First Thoroughly Rinse With Warm Water and Then Brush Well Inside and Out.

Clean all dairy utensils by first thoroughly rinsing them in warm water and then clean inside and out with a brush and hot water, in which a cleaning material has been dissolved; then clean and finally sterilize by boiling water or steam. Use pure water only.

After cleaning dairy utensils invert and in pure air, and, if possible, well washed for use.

ROCK CREEK NEWS DE'T

Roy Carlson went to Duluth on Monday where he expects to be employed for some time.

The Royal Neighbors met in their regular meeting on Wednesday evening of this week.

Nora Pepin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Pepin, left for St. Paul last Monday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hultgren of LaPorte spent the week end with her niece, Mrs. Frank Stevens. She left Monday for Forest Lake for a visit.

Mrs. Jones Stranberg, Leonard and Mabel Johnson and Fred McNeal drove to the Twin cities last Friday.

J. C. Smith and wife spent the week end in Minneapolis visiting and attending to some business matters.

R. J. Van Dyke and wife and son Clyde returned from Iowa last Sunday after a three weeks' visit with relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Johnson and family and Mrs. Dahl spent Sunday at Grasson, visiting with relatives.

W. P. Friday started grinding feed in his mill last Saturday and from now on will grind every Wednesday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herman left for Brahm on Monday of this week, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Herman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Erickson.

Barney Greenman left for Duluth last Monday after getting his business matters attended to. His many friends wish him much success.

Mrs. Andrew Olson underwent an operation at a hospital in the Twin cities last Friday and from all reports is getting along in good shape.

There will be a big Halloween social at the Woodman hall next Tuesday evening. The ladies aid of the Lutheran church is putting on the big time and all are invited to attend.

Miss Ruth Berglund is now employed at Erickson Bros. store, starting work on Monday of this week. Mrs. Baker gave up the position as the factors expect to have the Twin cities in the near future to remain for the winter.

The Creamery Board of Directors met at the bank on Monday evening of this week to take up some business matters. The business for this month will entirely clean up all old debts. This speaks very highly for the present management of the board.

Mrs. C. G. McNeal and family moved to Pine City on Monday of this week. The McNeals have made Rock Creek their home the past seven or eight years and their many friends are sorry to see them leave here. Fred McNeal left the first of the week for St. Paul where he will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, living east of here celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Wednesday of this week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Axel Glaser.

A big dinner was served at noon and a celebration was held in the Dayist church in the evening in commemoration of the event. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson received many congratulations in honor of the happy event.

A big Halloween dance will be held in the armory at Pine City on Saturday evening of this week to which all dancers in this community are invited. The orchestra that plays for the Shrine minstrel show will play for the dance after the show. Dancing starts at nine p.m. with the symphonic orchestra as entertainers until about eleven o'clock when the Shrine orchestra will play.

Westman-Hendrickson-Wed Friends of Mrs. John Hendrickson and Halmer Westman were surprised to hear of their marriage last Saturday at Pine City.

They were attended by Miss Ethel Hendrickson, sister of the bride and Fredah Anderson. Judge Robert Wilcox performed the ceremony.

Miss Hendrickson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hendrickson living east of town and clerked in the Fred Hartz store up to a short time ago.

Halmer Westman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Westman living east of Rock Creek and is well known in this community.

They will make their home on the Westman farm for the present while many friends here wish them the best that life affords.

West Rock News

John Johnson has been ill for the last few days.

Mrs. Edward Peterson and little daughter returned from the Twin cities last Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Martin went to Rush City hospital yesterday to undergo an operation for her tonsils.

EVERETT AKINS

ROCK CREEK, MINN.

This is mighty good advice

If you're counting on ARCOLA, the wonderful new hot-water heating system, to heat your home this winter—give us your order today. Last Fall, there was a big ARCOLA shortage and thousands of people were disappointed. This Fall the same thing will happen. But today we've got ARCOLA on hand and we have more time to install them. So take our advice. Don't put it off.

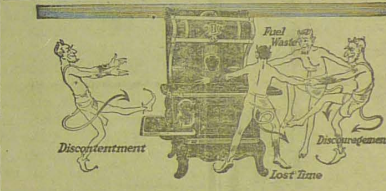

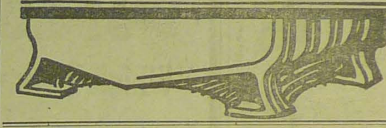

Save money on ARCOLA now

(These figures, though rough, will show how reasonably ARCOLA can be completely installed—despite the fact it pays for itself in the fuel it saves.)

- 3-Rooms Arcola with 2 radiators $175
- 4-Rooms Arcola with 3 radiators $215
- 5-Rooms Arcola with 4 radiators $250
- 6-Rooms Arcola with 5 radiators $350

Phone or call and we'll gladly give you the exact cost of putting ARCOLA in your home—let us, for your own good, do it now before the Fall rush.

Is Your Kitchen Infested With Evil Spirits?

If so, a Monarch Range will clear them out.

And what's more, they will stay away, for a Monarch is not subject to the many ailments most ranges suffer when they get to be a few years old.

The way to prevent trouble in future years is to build a range RIGHT! to start with,—so it will stay tight.

We sell the Monarch because we know it is built right. If you will come in, we will be glad to show you exactly what we mean. We will show you why the only way to build a range for permanent satisfaction is with unbreakable malleable iron and hand riveting at every joint. There is only one right way to do anything—and that is the right way to build a range.

You will be delighted at the handsome appearance of the Monarch—and also to know how easy it is to keep it clean and looking like new. The moderate price will surprise you.

Ray Chase state auditor and candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket, has a record in office that should give him a big majority when the voters are counted for that office on November 7th. No man in the state capital has a better opportunity to become thoroughly acquainted with state business, and state taxes, than the state auditor, and Mr. Chase has made ample use of that opportunity, to work for more efficient handling of business and spending of money through the county auditors of the state. A vote for Chase is a vote for a man who watches closely the spending of state and county money.

Theatre Notes

Thursday & Friday—
Wallace Reid in "Too Much Speed" and comedy "Crowning Turkey."

Saturday—
Orman Minstrels.

Sunday & Monday—
Betty Byrle in "Queen of Sheba." The most beautiful woman in the world will appear at this theatre in "Queen of Sheba," a great William Fox super-special production. Christ races and great battle scenes are part of the great love spectacle "Queen of Sheba." See the most beautiful woman ever known made love to the wisest man in history, at this theatre on Sunday and Monday and Fox News.

Tuesday—
Ethel Clayton in "Sham." Society kisses and false friendship! Ethel show of wealth and culture! Social Climbers! Tondal Such was her world. A world which she hated for its hollowness—and loved for its ease and luxury. Then came the crash—the great awakening—and at last she found her soul! A beauty picture that plays on the heartstrings of its.

Harold Lloyd's comedy "Captain Kidd's Kid" and "Winners of the West."

Thursday & Friday—
Houses Peters and Claire Windsor in "Rich Men's Wives." For the girl who is dissatisfied with her lot, there is a photoplay of real value at the Family Theatre. It is

A Preferred Picture by Gansner, the maker of "Kinnet." No woman—or man, either, for that matter—can sit through this photoplay without being the gainer in moral stamina for the story, written by Frank Dacey and Agnes Christine Johnson, is based on sound logic and displays a keen study of the lives our so-called social butterflies lead. As a matter of fact, it is reported that the story was actually inspired by the breaking up of two couples of notable rich men's wives recently—one in New York, the other in Chicago. The play carries a charming girl from her finishing school days, on through the debauched period, then into a triumphant social life, marriage, motherhood, irritation and unhappiness—and a climax that is an interesting holding up it is surprising and unexpected. Also a comedy "Moonshine."

Art Wallen, coach at the high school, was taken into the field of local partridge-hunting celebrities, last Sunday and promptly initiated in the gentle art of the nimble nimrod. Under the able tutelage of the nimrod of the nimrods, Roy Carlson, and with the assistance of Jim Wandel and Sig Bekke, the quartet hied themselves to Blue Berry island, northeast of Beroun, where the day was spent in bagging a stray old partridge that one of the boys had straggled on. Of course they tell a different story, and talk about bagging the limit, etc. etc. Roy says they would have done much better if they had had a dog to retrieve for them. But no dog living could retrieve their lost reputation as hunters. Now we are not up on birdology, but we do know the difference between a crow and a partridge, and when a fellow shoots a crow, taking it for a no species of partridge, why then "it is to laugh." Roy says he was only trying out his trusty old double barreled twelve gauge shot gun. But the other fellows say that Roy was quite surprised when he picked the crow up, and said, "This partridge must have come through smoky Pittsburgh." Sig and Jim claim there were a lot of birds shot, and claim they got them. Personally we would like to see the said bird. Anyway Art came back a much older, if not wiser man, and says it was a treat day for a hike, and he sure enjoyed the scenery, and in of the opinion that Jim Wandel can drive rinks around any flivver that ever lived in this neck of the woods.

What Standard Oil Company (Indiana) Distribution Means to the Home

JAMES J. STARROW, fuel administrator of Massachusetts, says, "Don't burn a pound of coal in October. Cook and heat water for your household with a kerosene stove. It will save you money. It will perhaps keep you out of the coal line next winter. Cooking by kerosene is cheaper than coal. Kerosene can be bought anywhere."

"Kerosene can be bought anywhere"

This statement is particularly true throughout the Middle Western states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), whose distribution service is 100% complete. Kerosene is delivered to the home, whether on a distant farm, in a small town, or in a big city.

Imagination and foresight were required to anticipate the demand for petroleum products which exists today. Permanency in organization, efficient management and close attention to the minutest detail has resulted in establishing within this Company a spirit of service which is expressed in the far-flung system of distribution and delivery which makes every user of petroleum products in the 10 Middle Western States feel certain that his needs will be instantly supplied.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) distributing system represents an investment of over $45,000,000. It includes 25 main stations where complete stocks of products are kept on hand, 3973 bulk stations, 1605 service stations and 7167 tank wagons. It has grown to meet the needs of the present and to anticipate the needs of the future. It is highly flexible and capable at all times of meeting emergencies, such as a coal shortage, in any section of the territory served. This service is available at every home.

To meet the needs of the public it serves is the ideal which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has held at all times. It is alert to foresee a possible need for its products, and when the demand comes it is prepared to supply it; for example, the possible coal shortage has resulted in an unusual demand for a burning oil for use in home-heating plants, and the Company was ready with Standard Furnace Oil, which it had developed for this particular service.

Standard Furnace Oil is equal to kerosene in heating value and sells at a lower price. This is another benefit accruing to the public at large, through an efficiently managed big business.
