U. S. WARNING JOLTS ALLIES

Child's Attack on Preferential Rights Deemed "Undue Interference."

Lausanne—America gave Great Britain, France and Italy a hard jolt when her spokesman, Richard Wash Child, declared that the United States government has the support of the American public in its opposition to all secret treaties and agreements, particularly those designed to create zones of economic and commercial influence, such as the San Remo tripartite agreement of 1920, which apportions the Mesopotamian oil fields among the three big powers.

Mr. Child's exposition was merely a restatement of Secretary of State Hughes' aide-memoire of October 30, in which he declared for the benefit of the British, French and Italian governments the functions of the American observers to the Lausanne conference and broadly outlined American policy in the Near East—but it was a restatement under conditions that made it sensational. It came as the conference was about to begin consideration of Turkey's Asiatic frontiers and it was a clear warning that America will not remain silent when the three invading powers insist upon preferential rights in oil, mineral, railway and power development to present Turkish territory or in that which was lopped off by the war.

MICHIGAN DEFEATS MINN.

Big Ten Series Leaves Three Tied for 1st Place.

Minneapolis—Displaying an aerial attack that would not be denied, Michigan went into a line with Iowa for the western conference football championship by defeating Minnesota, 16 to 7, in one of the most spectacular games ever played on Northern field. It was a typical Wolverine-dolphin battle, filled with thrills from start to finish. It found the underdog holding the upper hand against an eleven that was undefeated, only to lose the advantage when the more seasoned combine hit its stride. Any one of a number of breaks might have turned the tide of victory the other way.

Chicago and Wisconsin battled desperately before 32,000 surprised spectators on Stagg field and closed the conference season with a scoreless tie, which to the hopes of the Midwestern states was almost as crushing as defeat. Outplayed, outmarched and fighting on the defensive.

Unable to withstand the shattering blitzes of Louie and Miller, the Northwestern line weakened, then crumbled and fell, permitting Iowa to batter through for a 37 to 2 victory.

U. S. TO SUE CAMP BUILDERS

Washington—Orders went out from the department of justice to federal district attorneys for the institution of suits against the contractors who built the country's encampments, under which Attorney General Daugherty hopes to recover the enormous sum of $78,246,000.

SUBSIDY BILL WILL PASS

Washington—Billings on through powerful and then through turbulent seas, the shipping bill is now in the House as House bill No. 10,000. Its voyage and arrival tonight to Seattle.

Amelia—A girl and a boy, 8 and 6 years old, walked from their home in a country road near Oakes to carry home boxes of an automobile accident in which their father was killed. The children had escaped injury.

Flu Epidemic Breaks Out on Steamer Plymouth, England—An epidemic of influenza has broken out among the officers and crew of the American steamer Plymouth. The chief officer of the vessel and the nurse are among those ill.

Canada Spends $40,000,000 on Roads—Ottawa, Ont.—Fourty million dollars are being spent on road work in Canada this year. Highway construction is being done on a larger scale than ever before and the appropriations for work are the highest on record.

R. P. Allen Elected Pres. of Co. Fair

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the County Agricultural Society, held in the club rooms at Pine City last Tuesday afternoon, R. P. Allen was elected president of the association for the ensuing year. Henry Daley, 1st vice president, George Dorn, 2nd vice pres., W. S. McEachern secretary and W. A. Sauer treasurer. The directors elected were W. A. Sauer, W. S. McEachern, George Dorn, H. W. Daley, Frank Smith, of Chawatana, J. J. Madden, Chas. Gass of Hinckley, George Schmidt of Rock Creek, R. P. Allen, J. F. Pehler of Chawatana, and J. G. Hancock of Brook Park. The officers are elected by the directors.

Former president, Frank Stuck, asked to be excused from any office as he plans on going to Oregon for the rest of the spring. The stockholders passed a resolution thanking Mr. Stuck for his faithful service and hard work for the association while president, and congratulated him on his past success as head of the fair.

Delegates elected to the state federation of fairs meeting, which vary, are W. S. McEachern, F. M. Stuck and H. W. Daley. The auditing committee appointed was C. P. Jackson, J. J. Madden and H. W. Daley.

An amendment to the articles of incorporation was passed increasing the capital stock to $50,000 and the limit of indebtedness to $25,000. At the directors meeting following the stockholders meeting, plans were made for a meeting to be held in January, to which all business men and farmers of the county will be invited, when plans will be discussed for the coming fair and for a stock campaign.

J. M. Stuck, R. P. Allen and J. J. Madden are a committee to meet with the county board at their annual meeting in January, to take up the proposition of an appropriation for a barn on the fair grounds. The county board has a building, with the exception of fair week, for a garage to house county machinery.

The secretary's report for the past year showed a total receipts from all sources of $5,401.88 and total disbursements of $5,043.52, leaving a cash balance of $358.06. At the beginning of the year, the cash account was overdrawn $44.49. The 1922 fair made a net profit of $406.70. The premiums paid this year amounted to $1,388.40. The amount of money is paid by the state. When this year's fair is over, it will leave the association with a total indebtedness of $1,421.99, which is little over $400 less than a year ago. The total indebtedness in January 1920 was $194.6.

Will Hold Bureau Meetings

S. L. Allen, former president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau, who has been meeting farmers in the interest of the Bureau in Pine City for several weeks, will hold a number of meetings in this community next week. Mr. Allen is thoroughly familiar with the work, the local, state and national organizations are doing. He is an interesting speaker and knows what he is talking about. The meetings are open to all who are interested in the work and those who are looking for information relating to the Farm Bureau. Ladies are invited to all the meetings. Following is the schedule:

December 6th, 8 p.m. Pokesra town hall
December 6th, 8 p.m. Tesh school house
December 7th, 2 p.m. Henriette

Meet with Auto Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Ben of Minneapolis and Mrs. Henry Watson and Miss Tillie Hayes had quite a serious accident while driving up from the Twin cities last Saturday. Their car hit a rock near Hugo, bounded into a cut and upset. Henry Watson, who is a son of Sam Hayes, went right through the car and escaped with only a broken finger. His sister, Miss Tillie, suffered a dislocated wrist. Mrs. Ben had a tooth knocked out and fractured a small bone in her hand. Mr. Ben, who was driving, was jamed between the steering wheel and the back of the seat and it was necessary to lift the car before he could be released. The car was quite badly damaged. They came on to Pine City and spent Sunday at the Sam Hayes home, where before and the appropriate work was the highest on record.

Cause for Thankfulness

FOR what and to whom, Thanks should I render,
When I wake on the dawn of Thanksgiving?
For glorious Nature in the morn of its splendor,
For health in the world I'm living!

FOR the sun, "Old Sol," the fire of my days,
The silvery moon and stars of the night,
One warming the earth with its brilliant rays,
All filling the skies with heaven's own light.

FOR the breath I breathe and the winds that blow,
For flowers that bloom, so fragrant and fair,
For what I believe and for what I know,
For fields and forests and birds of the air.

FOR the friends I have and the friends I've had,
For the thoughts I think and the dreams I dream,
For the days gone by when I was a lad,
For this Thanksgiving—this hour supreme!

FOR peaceful America, home of my birth,
A soul acquainted with sorrow and mirth,
For a dear old mother whose hair is white,
Her thoughts of the day, her prayers of the night—
I render Thanks to God on high.

Education week is next on the program at the Pine City High School for the 1922-23 season: December 8, Cambridge at Pine City. December 15, Lindstrom at Lindstrom. December 21, Cambridge at Cambridge.

Basket Ball Schedule

Following is the basket ball schedule of the Pine City High School for the 1922-23 season: December 8, Cambridge at Pine City. December 15, Lindstrom at Lindstrom. December 21, Cambridge at Cambridge. January 12, Hindley at Hinckley. January 19, Moose Lake at Pine City. January 26, Forest Lake at Pine City. February 2, Mora at Pine City. February 9, Forest Lake at Pine City. February 16, Mora at Mora. February 21, Lindstrom at Pine City. February 23, Hindley at Pine City. —The Pinnacle.

Sale Thursday

Everything will be in readiness when the doors open for the big annual sale of the Presbyterian ladies aid, which will be held in the church next Thursday afternoon, December 7th. They will have one of the largest and best assortment of fancy work and useful articles that has been prepared by the aid for some time. It gives an opportunity for folks to buy many beautiful Christmas presents at a very reasonable price. One of the main attractions will be the Japanese booth, containing many Japanese articles for sale. Tea will be served at the booth during the afternoon. The big event, that is always looked forward to with considerable pleasure by the men, is the chicken supper at six o'clock. Lots of good things to eat. Everyone invited. —The Pinnacle.

Girls to Renew Basketball

There is great rejoicing among the girls of the Pine City High School. The joyous news is out—basket ball practice is to be resumed this year after Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Joyce, who has coached the girls for the past two years, met all those who were interested in basket ball, Wednesday, Nov. 15 at her home. There were over 20 girls present and all the classes were represented. This was a much larger turnout than last year. In all probability there will be no games with outside teams played but each class can have a team and interclass games can be played. This will be almost as beneficial as outside games. Basket ball is a great sport and there is no reason why girls should not have the benefit of it as well as the boys. So let's all get together and boost basket ball for the girls. Everyone come out to practice after Thanksgiving and then—Girls' let's go! —The Pinnacle.

Will Play at Askov

Manager Frank Stuck announces the first basket ball game to be participated in by the town team will be with Askov team at that place tomorrow evening. The local team met with a fine record last year and was one of the strongest teams in this part of the state. Mr. Stuck is looking forward to a big season this year and plans on looking games with some of the strong Twin city and Duluth teams, in addition to the surrounding towns. The boys have been hard at practice the past few weeks and are in pretty good shape. The lineup for this week's game is not definitely decided, but will be made up from the following: Army Kowalko, Archie Babcock, Lawrence, Thendell Clark, Pennington, Eli and Wendell Huber, Dr. Scott, Walter Smith and Dr. Olson.

Big Picture for Thanksgiving

Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight? the melodramatic offering that comes to the Family Theatre Thursday and Friday, promises an unusual treat for lovers of the dramatic. It is a splendid photograph production and tells a story that touches every human heart and does it in a way to grip the interest and hold it in its clutch to the last flicker of the picture. "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," as one can conjecture from this sentimental title, has heart interest in abundance. And the strain on the feet is lightened at times by situations calling for quiet chuckles rather than laughter. Buy Christmas Seals and help fight Tuberculosis.

Circus Proves Huge Success

With a shriek of the trombone the haze of the drum and with the screaming notes of horns and cornet, together with a jazzy harmony and discord of the brass band, the big circus started. Everyone yelling "This way for your hot dog" and "Here's where you get your candy and ice-cream" was enough to draw any crowd. And draw them they did. It kept the people busy taking in all the sights and patronizing the various stands, from candy booths on the top floor to the poultry show in the basement. The circus ring proved to be the central attraction. Here was where the antics of the clown, the jazzy songs and snappy jokes of the minstrels and the Honorable Andy Gump himself, captivated the audience. Honorable Gump, recently elected to Congress, proposed to bring about many reforms, which will aid every American citizen in Pine County. He is 100 per cent for the people and he greatly impressed his listeners with his stirring remarks. Other features of the circus ring were the "Kitchen Brigades" was the poultry show, one of the best ever shown in Pine City, when the quacking geese and the snobbling turkeys could be heard there. These were also at auction here. They will no doubt prove to be tender and juicy at some Thanksgiving dinners. The play "The House Across the Way" was presented to delighted audiences. The performances in the ring were concluded by a number by the Brass Band. BRITAIN BACKS U. S. ON TURK

Separate Treaty is Proposed Between United States and Kemalists.

Lausanne—Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, authorized an official statement to the press that England supports the American "open door" policy in Turkey and regards the San Remo agreement for division of the Mosul oil district as null and void. Paris reports that preparation of a separate treaty between Turkey and the United States is under consideration at Lausanne, says a dispatch to the Times. The correspondent suggests that this perhaps was the subject of a long conversation between Richard Wash Childs and James Fisk. Lausanne reports Mosul oil fields are a part of Turkey proper and when the time comes to make oil concessions to foreigners in that rich district Americans will get the first chance. Mr. Riza Nur Bey, one of the Turkish plenipotentiaries at the conference here, declared. "We need American capital in Turkey and prefer to deal with Americans because they work their concessions on a strictly business basis without the usual political considerations that rich districts Americans will get the first chance. Mr. Riza Nur Bey, one of the Turkish plenipotentiaries at the conference here, declared.

BRITISH FIGHTING SUBSIDY

Plummer Charges British Are Supporting Opposition by Propaganda.

Milwaukee—British and other foreign shipping interests and journals are engaged in a studied campaign of misrepresentation and propaganda to defeat the American ship subsidy bill, Edward C. Plummer, commissioner of the United States Shipping Commission, declared in a speech prepared for delivery before the Atlantic West merchant marine and foreign trade conference. "Almost if the possibility the American ships will take from them some 68 per cent of American orders which are now carried in foreign ships, the leading shipping interests are using every possible means to discourage the application of the merchant marine in this country. Mr. Plummer said. "They're been feeding their little in our papers so long that they've come to think they own the land," he declared. "So when we start to put in some stock of our own, they proceed to change us with about every thing from trepass to manslaughter."

Attend the Poultry Show

On another page of this week's issue will be found the complete program list of the Pine County Poultry Show, which will be held in the armory at Pine City, December 14, 15 and 16. Road the list over. All poultry raisers are urged to exhibit. This year's show will be one of the best ever held.

Quaint Song of Thanks
Through the hard days of the World war while the men were fighting the women at home were waiting, ever waiting, ever waiting, ever waiting...

Day of Joy
The Lord above, in tender love, hath willed us from the East and West, through Washington the thing is done: The war is at a close.

Thanksgiving Day
This is a good day to have in our mind. None of us would ever be troubled, whether there is such a little to be grateful for. At least there is always the day to be glad of--Thanksgiving day.

Get ready for Fall--now LAST Fall thousands of home-owners who had counted on an ARCOLA hot-water heating-system to heat their homes, were disappointed. They waited until the last minute and there weren't enough ARCOLAS to supply the demand. We predict the same thing this Fall. But today, we have plenty of ARCOLAS on hand and more time to do the work. Our advice is to take no chances. Don't wait and get caught in the rush. Save money on ARCOLA now (These figures, though rough, will show how reasonably ARCOLA can be completely installed-- despite the fact it pays for itself in the fuel it saves.)

Why Not a Little Novelty?

Theatre Notes

Thursdays & Friday—
"Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight?"
Saturday—
Corinn, Griffith in "Divorce Coupons" The guarantee that goes with advantageous marriage—the story of a girl who married for the sake of alimony—the unusual turn in events that gave her a different conception of marriage. Also a comedy "Chicken Hearted" and Movie Chats.

Sunday & Monday—
"When Romance Rides" a Zane Grey story taken from "Wildfire." It's a Zane Grey story—that means action—a clean atmosphere—a moving love story. And it's all that a motion picture should be. "Wildfire" wins! And it was not alone the victory of the race, but of love and justice. Also Larie Seamon in "Dew Drop Inn" and Fox News.

Tuesday—
"Neal Hart in 'Tangled Trails.'" A stirring tale of the great northwest. Our gang comedy "One Terrible Day" "Winners of the West" Family night the whole family for 4c.

Thursday—
Constance Talmadge in "Folly of the Follies." Stage-struck country girl hits New York, and strikes Ziegfeld for a job. Follies wardrobe mistress gets out Cleopatra costume and panic reaches height when wearer gets shocked at her own audacity. Also comedy "Fat & Sassy."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS
T. J. Buckton, pastor

Did you see that, President Harding reviewing his experience of a year in the White House said: "There has come to me no other such unwelcome impression as the manifest religious intolerance which exists among many of our citizens." "I hold it to be a menace to the very liberties we boast and cherish." He asserted. Declaring his belief in the part which religious reverence has played in American achievement, the president added: "If I were to utter a prayer for this republic tonight, it would be to reconsecrate us in religious devotion and make us abidingly to God-fearing God-loving people." There is nothing that adds more to the spirit of religious devotion than the knowledge of what God has revealed. Come to our service next Sunday morning and evening. It will strengthen your impression that our God is a speaking God. "Martyrs to the English Bible," is the morning topic. "Christ in Genesis," is the evening topic.

Thanksgiving on the Farm

Oh, the farm was bright, Thanksgiving morn.

With its stacks of hay and shocks of corn.

Its pumpkin beds in the rambling sheds, And its apples brown and green and red; And in the cellar, the winter store, In bins that were filled and running o'er With all the things that a farm could keep.

In barn and bin and coolly heap, Home to the rafters and lid away— Oh, the farm was a pleasant place to stay!

And here and there was the Jersey stock, The sheep and horse—old time and Jack— The turkeys and geese and awkward calf, And the goat that made the children laugh.

A pair of mice that a friend had sent Out to the farm for experiment, Figs and figs and a guinea pig, Dogs that were small and dogs that were big.

Chickens that were white and black and gray, Oh, the farm was a lily sight that day!

Out back of the house the orchard stood, Then came the brook and the chestnut wood.

The old sawmill where the children play, The fodder bins with its pile of hay, The walnut grove and the cranberry bog, The woodchuck hole and the herring bone.

The watermelon and the rubber's cave— Where was the entrance and the hidden grave— The skating pond with its fringe of hay.

Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

The life home barn was a place of joy For the rumpling girl and the climbing boy.

With beams and mows and ledgers to mount, Horses and oxen and sheep to count, Huming of saws and the old bellows bang, Tinkling hay and fashioning bang, Helping the men to do up the chores, Busting windows and locking doors, Lathing some work come in with the day.

Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

On the pantry shelves were loaded down With cures that were plump and rich and brown.

With apples and pumpkins and mince, And jellies and jam and preserved quince, Cranberry sauce and puddings and rice, Yeast-buns, breads, and bonbons sweet, A great brown turkey and plates of meat, Stuffed in the dainties way.

Oh, 'twas a glorious sight that day!

Oh, the farm was bright Thanksgiving morn.

The sun shone clear on the hay and corn, The cattle came merry with laugh and snort.

And the boys and girls wattered about, Seeking the pets they had known before, Climbing through windows instead of doors, Basking from barn to corner of mill, Snorting and laughing with noise, until The dinner-horn sounded. Oh, I say 'Twas pleasant upon the farm that day!
