CLARA PHILLIPS BREAKS JAIL

Hammer Murderess, Convicted of Brutal Stone Age Death, Free.

Los Angeles—Clara Phillips climbed out of a window in the woman's section of the county jail and escaped. She was under a sentence of 10 years to life imprisonment after conviction of the hammer murder of Alberta Meadows. She was held in the jail pending formulation of an appeal.

Three bars had been sawed from the window in her cell. The cutting had apparently been done by someone on the outside of the building.

PROSPERITY AROUND CORNER

Improvement is Forecast by Secretary of Agriculture.

Washington, D. C.—The still unaffiliated but slightly improved condition of the American farmer is brought out by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in his report to the president. This might have been a prosperous year for agriculture and for the nation, says the secretary, but for the distorted relationship between prices received for farm products and the prices paid for things the farmer must buy. The physical basis of prosperity, he says, is here—good in super-abundance and the raw material which goes into various products, including clothing—but the real satisfactions of prosperity are still around the corner.

400 FACE U. S. JUDGE MORRIS

Defendants of High and Low Degrees Answer to Run and Drug Charges.

St. Paul—Boozers of high and low degree, some poorly clad, others wearing flashy clothes and diamonds, one man wearing a Prince Albert, a walking stick and spats, crowded the corridors at the St. Paul federal building as Federal Judge Page Morris presided at the disposal of 400 liquor and narcotic drug cases.

Judge Morris wound up 300 cases in Minneapolis recently, while the court state clean, but by the time for court in St. Paul federal agents had 100 new cases. Liquor and narcotic drug violations, ready for trial at the April term of court.

Truck Runs Over Little School Girl

Catherine Christopher, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Christopher of Pine City, received a very serious injury today noon, when the doctor fears will prove fatal.

The little girl, who is only 8 or 9 years old, was playing with some children on the north side of the school grounds shortly before school started after dinner. One of the state highway trucks was on its way to the York River pit, and was just turning the corner to the west of the state road. The child ran across the road into the track of the rear wheel passed over the middle of her body. She evidently hadn't seen the truck coming. The truck was evidently going at a moderate rate of speed, as it was stopped by the driver in less than twenty feet from where the little one was hit.

The injured girl was carried into the home of Mrs. Anna Korkei, who immediately called the doctor, and the Essner hardware store, where Mr. Christopher is employed. Mr. Christopher was at home, and Mr. Essner rushed to his home in a car, and took him to the Korkei home. Dr. Wiseman arrived within a very few minutes of the accident. He stated the little one was badly crushed, and the extent of the injuries could not be estimated far as yet, but thought there was a possible chance she might survive, it all depending on how bad she was hurt internally.

After first aid treatment was given she was taken to her home. The child was still conscious when the doctor arrived.

Anna Petschel Laid to Rest

Funeral services were held for Anna Petschel by Father Leo from the local Catholic church, last Monday morning, and the remains laid to rest in the Pine City cemetery.

The deceased passed away at St. Peter last Thursday, where she was taken for medical treatment about two weeks ago, when her health began to fail.

Anna Petschel was born in this community 35 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Petschel. Both her parents preceded her, and are buried in the local cemetery. She is a cousin of Mrs. Petschel, and leaves a brother and a sister—Frank Petschel and Mrs. Frank Sumner living west of town.

Visit School Friday

Our schools—teachers and students—have been observing Education Week as outlined by the National Education Association, the United States Bureau of Education, and the American Legion. Each day has seen the building of a better future citizenry. The school observes, so far this week has included a brief but fitting study and recognition of the following: Monday, American Citizenship; Tuesday, Patriotism; Wednesday, School and Teacher; Thursday, Illiteracy.

Friday is YOUR day. On Friday, afternoon, from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock, you are urged to visit school, to observe how this business institution is run, to see what and how our boys and girls are being taught. It will not be a day of programs and speeches; it will be a working day, with lessons and recitations as usual. You are free to come and go as you please. Arrangements have been made so that you may visit any department or class in which you are especially interested.

Again, this is your day and your school. Your teachers, your boys and girls, are expecting you Friday. Do your duty to community, and country by getting better acquainted with more of the business institution.

Education week is being observed in the local schools this week. R. P. Allen, president of the school board, spoke to the students yesterday morning on "The necessity of School." M. B. Hurley, member of the state Americanization committee, addressed the students this morning on "Illiteracy and the Opportunity of the American Children." Mr. Hurley left for Kenyon this noon, where he will take part in the program there tonight.

Fire at Challeen's

The Pine City fire department was called to a fire in the Challeen store, last Monday morning about 8 o'clock. The fire started in the elevator shaft in the rear of the building. Only quick use of hand fire extinguishers by the store foreman kept the fire in check till the department arrived, saved the store from a bad fire.

The fire was discovered by Leonard Larson, who saw the flames burst through the doorway leading to the elevator. Quick work with the store hand chemicals soon had the fire under control. The fire department was soon on the job and turned the water and chemical on.

It looked for a few minutes as if the fire would be a bad one. The rear door and the elevator shaft were badly damped but not much merchandise was hurt by fire, although considerable damage was done by water. It is not known how the fire started.

Fortunately the fire started after the store had been opened for the day's business. An hour start, being damped by water, would probably result in the whole building being destroyed.

Bad Fire at Sandstone

A bad fire occurred at Sandstone last Friday night, when the Webb hardware store and the garage adjoining the First National Bank were completely destroyed by fire. The interior of the bank was badly damaged by smoke and water, and the Masonic hall, over the bank, was practically ruined. The lodge furniture and equipment was burned. The bank building is on a north-west corner facing the main street. The garage adjoins the bank building on the west and the store building faces the side street, back of the bank and garage.

The fire was discovered in the evening about 11:30 p. m. in the rear of the hardware store building. Its origin is unknown. The hardware store, burned to the ground and is a total loss, as was the garage building. Four or five cars stored in the garage were also destroyed.

The building that houses the Sandstone Courthouse printing plant is one garage with a vacant lot between. The Courthouse building caught fire but that damage was done by fire, although machinery and type was damaged by water.

The bank and garage buildings were built by the late Alexander McEachern between 25 and 30 years ago, who operated the old Superior market in what was the garage building, which was the two stories and had a store in the other building.

The body was borne to its last resting place by ex-servicemen—Rola, Wilcox, M. B. Hurley, Clark Pennington, Wm. Challen, C. R. Perkins and E. A. Cleaver. Cars were owned by Jos. Dufer.

Hurley appeared for petitioners and Mr. Olofcar Soboka appearing for the Village of Pine City and objected to the hearing on the ground that petitioners had taken an appeal after hearing argument on both sides of the matter last week on January 3, 1923 at 9:30 a. m.

A communication was received from the Wisconsin Highway Department in regard to the site of the proposed bridge across St. Croix River between Pine County that in their opinion this bridge should be constructed at or near the continuation of the east and west section line through the center of Town 28. Th. Pokoramy unit of the Farm Bureau will meet at the home of Mr. J. M. Jewell on Wednesday, Dec. 13th at 8:30 p. m. Play Sandstone Sat.

The Pine City town basket ball team opens the season in Pine City at the armory next Saturday evening, when they will meet the fast Sandstone team.

The game will be called at 8:30. Following the game, there will be a dance. The usual prices will be charged, and both events are sure to draw a big crowd.

Sandstone has been noted for some years as producing first class basket ball players, and their town team this year has already started out with two "wins" to their credit. They have played two games with Hinckley this season, winning both of them. Our local team gained a reputation last year for real play, and Manager Stuck says they are even better this year, so Saturday night's game promises to be a fast one.

The local boys played their first game of the season at Askov last Friday evening, winning by a score of 48 to 7. It was a good game notwithstanding the difference in the scores. The Askov boys will be stiff competition after a little more practice, as they have just started in. The local lineup was Pennington and Arny Kowalek jr., Kowalek and W. Huber jr., E. Huber and Herb Johnson center, Therrien rg., and Babcock lf.

Manager Stuck went to the district Saturday and returned home with eight new suits for the team. The colors are red and white, with the name of the town and number of the player on the jerseys. The suits consist of jersey, cap, trunks and socks. They are nifty suits and will be worn for the first time Saturday evening.

The prices for the game are 25c and 35c, and 50c for the dance.

THREE BILLION TO RUN GOVERNMENT

Federal Budget Submitted to Congress Asks Least Yearly Expenditure Since War.

Washington—President Harding sent a special message to congress announcing that the federal budget for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1923, will run approximately $2,000,000,000—the lowest yearly expenditure of the government since the days before the war.

Prattling the rigid economy which the budget bureau has enforced during the last year, the president pointed out that the government is now back to prevent days in general expenditures.

Of the $2,000,000,000 asked, two can be attributed to the war. He made it plain that his administration will continue to fight for greater economy. The president indicated that because nearly two-thirds of the government's yearly bill represent the last charge resulting from the war, it will be difficult to reduce taxes in the near future.

A surplus of $150,000,000 in the government's financial operations for the next fiscal year was estimated, as compared with a probable deficit this year of $74,925,712.

RED CROSS PUTS UP $9,739,872

Year's Budget Stresses Relief and Services at Home and Overseas.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID Over $3,000,000 Allotted to the Disabled—Foreign Work Lessons.

Washington—Expenditures totaling $4,739,872.47 for carrying through its program of services and relief during the fiscal year in the United States and overseas are authorized in the budget of the American Red Cross, effective July 1, 1922. This total is $2,780,075 less than the expenditures for the last fiscal year, when disbursements reached $12,478,947.61, it is announced at National Headquarters in a statement emphasizing the necessity of continued support of the organization by enactment during the annual Roll Call, November 11-November 30 inclusive. This total for the budget is exclusive of the large mandated operation of the 3,000 active Red Cross Chapters, which, it is estimated, will more than double the total.

War Veterans Have First Call First call on Red Cross funds is for the disabled ex-service men of whom 27,487 are receiving treatment from the government on June 1 last. This work for veterans and their families in a wide variety of services which the government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither funds nor facilities has the call on $3,000,000 during the current year, or about $200,000 more than was expended last year for soldier service. Adding the funds disbursed in this humanitarian work of physical reconstruction following the World War by the chapters throughout the country will approximate a total for the current year approaching $10,000,000. This work, in the opinion of the American Red Cross office, will not reach its peak before 1923.

Through its Chapters the American Red Cross is equipped to find the individual ex-service man help him in his problems and difficulties, provide immediately for his necessities, and open the way for him to the Government compensation which he is entitled. The extension of this work to the families of such men proves to them that the Red Cross has lost none of its sympathy and will be service manifested in wartime. Similarly the service goes out to the men still in the Army and Navy, 11,087 of whom are under treatment in Government hospitals on June 1, 1922.

Greater Domestic Program This year—after five years of constructive effort during the war and after the armistice—brings with it a greater responsibility for domestic service to the American Red Cross. The budget for foreign operations, however, totals $3,404,000, but of this amount $1,835,000 is for medical relief and hospital supplies for Russia, which is a part of the gift made by the American Red Cross in 1921 to the League of Red Cross Societies, $22,000 for nurse training schools instituted by the Red Cross abroad, and $600,000 for liquidation of the general Red Cross foreign relief program.

Prepared for Emergencies For disaster relief the Red Cross has set aside $700,000, and for emergencies in Chapter work $400,000 is available for domestic, insular and foreign demands. This is more than $200,000 above last year's expenditures. For service and assistance to the 3,800 chapters and their branches $12,838,000 is provided by the National organization.

Other budget items of importance in the domestic program include $200,000 for assistance to other organizations and educational institutions for training Red Cross nurses and workers; $100,000 for Roll Call assistance furnished to Chapters; $100,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

Of the total budget less than $500,000 is allotted for management in the National organization. No cash estimate of the value is possible to weigh the value of the service by volunteers in the Chapters.

Get ready for Fall—now
LAST Fall thousands of home-owners who had counted on an ARCOLA hot-water heating-system to heat their homes, were disappointed. They waited until the last minute and there weren't enough ARCOLAS to supply the demand. We predict the same thing this Fall. But today, we have plenty of ARCOLAS on hand and more time to do the work. Our advice is to take no chances. Don't wait and get caught in the rush.
Save money on ARCOLA now
(These figures, though rough, will show how reasonably ARCOLA can be completely installed—despite the fact it pays for itself in the first 6 weeks.)
3-Rooms Arcola with 2 radiators $174
4-Rooms Arcola with 3 radiators $215
5-Rooms Arcola with 4 radiators $256
6-Rooms Arcola with 5 radiators $310
Phone or call and we'll gladly give you the exact cost of putting ARCOLA in your home—but, for your own good, do it now before the Fall rush.

Theatre Notes

Friday & Saturday—
"The North Wind Malice." A Mighty Drama of the Romantic North! The famous Rex Beach "Smash" is evident in every foot of this wonderful story of Gold Fields of Alaska. You'll see—two men at death grips in the snow, snarling like wolves, clutching at each other's throats, with fingers of steel rolling over and over to the edge of the glacier!—Vera Gordon, the wonderful mother in "Humoresque," play the greatest part of her career—Tom Santschi, the husky, fearless star of "The Spoilers," in a role that will thrill you to the core. Also a comedy and Movie Chats.

Sunday & Monday—
Monroe Salisbury in "The Great Alone." The sensational story of a half-breed's fortitude and his gallantry on the football field—his gratitude and his chivalry at the top of the world! His prowess on the gridiron brought him the mockery and derision of jealous teammates; and a young girl won his undying gratitude by upbraiding his tormentors. Then he was entrusted with a hazardous secret mission in the Alaskan far country. And there, at the risk of his life, Pete gave him opportunity to prove his gratitude. What follows is a drama sweeping in its scope—drama teeming with thrill, tempestuous in action, pulsating with romance—charming love stories—and heart-stirring with the tenderness of the pathos. Also Larry Seamon in "The Grocery Clerk" and Fox News.

Tuesday—
Alice Joyce in "The Lord and Master." A sparkling comedy drama. Our Gang in a two reel comedy "Saturday Morning." "Winners of the West." Family night all the family for 4c.

Wednesday & Thursday—
"A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court." The stamp of Mark Twain is on the production; this in itself will draw the crowds to any theatre. For those who want sentiment there is the love story between "The Yankee" and Sandy and then there is the "crazy" Queen Morgan Le Fay, who tries to poison "The Yankee" because he does not love her. The interest is sustained and holds to the finish. CAST— Harry C. Meyer as "The Yankee" is screamingly funny. He does not overact the part. Everyone in the cast is uniformly good. To single out any particular person would be unfair to the rest. Seldom has a cast of players been assembled that just suits, as this one does, each respective part. A big production with no advance in price 10 & 25c.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

John Lowe, Pastor.

Sunday school 10 a.m. Morning worship at 11. Evening service at 7:30.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

Everybody not attending church elsewhere is most cordially invited to come to any or all of our services.

LUTHERAN CHURCH NEWS

Paul Heinke, Pastor

If you are troubled about your spiritual welfare; if you are restless and dissatisfied; if your conscience continually accuses you; if you are uncertain as to whether you are going to happen to you after death; if you have been asking yourself questions which you or anyone else could not answer, then you are in need of a good Lutheran sermon. During the winter months you are cordially invited to attend our services. Come once, and you will come again; also bring your friends. All are welcome.

English services next Sunday at 10:30 a.m. Sunday school at 9:30.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

T. J. Buckton, pastor

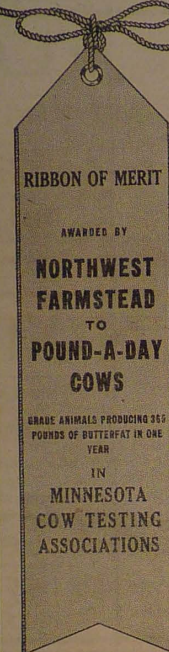

At the morning service, next Sunday morning the pastor will continue his address on The Bible. The subject being "The Moral Difficulties of the Old Testament." If you have wondered about the crude conceptions of God as of a mere tribal deity, who cared only for Israel, and who had in his own nature, as pictured in parts of the Old Testament, if you have wondered about the slavery permitted in the Bible, and generally of wives. If you have read the 109th Psalm, and been amazed at its hatred and cruelty—Why not come to church next Sunday morning and hear the proper explanation of these things.

Local Men Get Ribbons

Four cows in the Pine County Testing Association, of which Egbert Hedblom is tester, recently have qualified for ribbons of merit issued by Northwest Farmstead, Minneapolis, to grade cows in Minnesota cow testing associations producing 365 pounds or more of butterfat in one year.

Three of these cows are grade Holsteins owned by Gust Grand, whose address is Pine City. They made respectively 405 pounds, 373 pounds and 367 pounds of butterfat in 11 months. August Wickstrom owns the other cow which made 381 pounds of butterfat in that length of time. Mr. Hedblom reports that there will be several other records of over 365 pounds before the year's work is completed.

The cost to each dairyman in an association for testing his entire herd during the year averages between $3.00 and $4.00 per month. By means of cow testing associations many valuable and high producing cows have been saved from the butcher as the association records have disclosed their capacities, which otherwise would have gone unrecognized. By the same means, boarder cows, perhaps of excellent appearance, but really producing less than their cost for feed and care, have been eliminated from herds to the profit of their owners. When it is realized that the average production of all cows, including grades and purebreds, in Minnesota is only about 166 pounds of butterfat a year, it will be seen that a cow which will produce a pound of butterfat a day is nearly two and one-half times better than the average.

HANDS INDEX TO CHARACTER

Still Reveal Much, Though Probably Less Than Was the Case Some Few Years Ago.

Once it was possible to tell a "hand" by her hands—that is if you regarded a lady as "a female of the favored social class." She had well-kempt hands because she did nothing to rough them out or enlarge their knuckles or cause pressure wrinkles. Even if fortune had been adverse for she was completely avoided the work that would mar the symmetry of those hands. She did without sugar for her teeth and did not do needlework for money in order to avoid the work that she regarded as menial. And because a woman of this class knew that it was at her hands that others looked for an index to her social position it was her habit that she saved, wearing gloves by day and night to keep them white and to protect them and repair them from the ravages of wind and dust.

The situation is rather different now. The young woman of illustrious parents who sells tires in the department store no longer has elaborately manicured nails and hands that are smooth, but the wife of the college president has hands that clearly show the effects of work that we would once have regarded as menial.

Perhaps still in the best observer hands have something to tell of their owner's rank or pedigree. There are some hands that no matter how different they may always look a little grimy at the corners, and others, lacking entirely the luster of the manicure that is always scrupulously clean.

Reducing the Hazard

"The enlightened employer interests himself in the conservation of the health of his employees and in their safety, so far as he can provide them," says the Chicago Tribune.

For many years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has followed this plan as a part of its established policy.

This Company maintains an exceptionally high standard of safety insurance. It not only provides safety devices but by encouraging the organization of safety committees in all of its refineries, it has been successful in reducing accidents in its refineries to a point which actually is below that of many businesses naturally less hazardous.

As an example of its efforts in this direction is cited the fact that all Standard Oil Company (Indiana) refineries are provided with elaborate fire-fighting devices, of which live steam and chemicals are notable refinements.

The Directors of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) recognize that an employee who believes himself to be well-treated and secure, is a better worker and is more interested in giving full service both to the Company and to the public than is the employee who lacks this feeling of security.

The management of this Company believes that every constructive measure for the benefit of its employees is a definite factor in lowering the cost of doing business, in securing greater efficiency, and ultimately lowering prices of its products to the consumer.

Hazard reduction is not one item, though an important one, in the Company's complete program of attention to the well-being of its employees. Other items include liberal compensation, good working conditions, steady work, and insurance in so far as possible against unemployment. In addition, this Company has devised an annuity system to provide for the protection of those who have grown old in its service.

The efforts of the management to provide ways and means of eliminating the dangers of a highly hazardous occupation is reflected in the enthusiasm of the workers and the whole-hearted endorsement of 26,500 employees in securing greater efficiency, and ultimately lowering prices of its products to the consumer.

Business Woman Feared She Had Heart Trouble

"After Taylor has overcome a bad case of indigestion and nervousness of three or four years standing for me, my work here in the store is a pleasure, and I am certainly grateful for the good health I have given me."

"I was so run down that I felt miserable all the time. My sleep was broken and restless. I had no appetite, and the gas from undigested food caused my heart to palpitate so I thought I had heart trouble. For a time I had a swelling in my legs, too, and it was an effort for me to get about."

"It is wonderful how Taylor has given me such perfect relief from these troubles. I feel healthy, now, sleep like a child at night, and feel just like all the time."

"You're lucky that you think. The boys here is willing to let you go your way intact provided you start home in a few days. They won't be any gun play unless you linger. The big luck for you is the fact that you happened to see 'Sartorius' week for your performance at this here card table."
