PINE CITY WEL-COMES BANKERS

Pine City is host to the bankers, their families and friends, at the eleventh annual convention of the tenth district group of the Minnesota Bankers Association. It is expected there will be at least 150 visitors here for the meeting.

The meeting was called to order in the Family theatre at ten o'clock this morning by the president, G. J. Stolberg, of the State Bank of Harris.

The visitors were extended a welcome on behalf of the village of Pine City by M. B. Hurley and the welcome was a warm one. It is a pleasure on the part of residents here to have the visitors present today and we all hope their visit will be an enjoyable one and that they will come again some day.

The business part of the convention will consist of an address of greeting from the Minnesota Bankers Assn. by its president, C. A. Chapman of Rochester; report of the secretary-treas., K. M. Bollum of Long Lake; address, "Ethics in Minnesota Banking" by R. K. Rathbun, vice pres. Produce State Bank of Minneapolis; address by W. A. Peck, livestock commissioner of So. St. Paul.

Ray P. Chase, state auditor, will speak in the afternoon on the "Resources of Minnesota"; A. J. Veigel, state superintendent of banks, will deliver an address and there will be a round table discussion conducted by G. H. Richards, secretary of the state bankers association. The business session will close with the disposal of routine business and the election of officers.

The visiting ladies will be entertained by a ladies committee. There will be a banquet at the Hotel at 6:30 and the visitors will be entertained at the theatre in the evening at the showing of "Safety Last." The day's program will be brought to a close with a ball at the hotel in the evening.

Large Crowd Attends

Opening Show
It looked like "circus night" at the fair grounds last evening when the first show of the new Richards North Star Tent Show" was given.

With the large tent, gaily decorated and painted, trucks, and the good natured jostle of the crowd, it reminded one of the old days when the circus came to town, and all that was lacking to complete that feeling was the animals, the side shows and the baby lion spears.

Mr. Richards' equipment and up-to-date outfit was a complete surprise to those who saw it for the first time. Few road shows have the accommodations and comfortable seating arrangement of the North Star Show. The picture shown is one of the best Western features ever filmed and was well worth the small price of admission charged.

Mr. Richards will move his show to Hinckley today for shows there and he will carry with him the best wishes of his many friends here for a successful season. Those who witnessed his show last night as well recommend it to the public as one well worthy of their attendance.

Notice

All those who wish to take a course in normal training next year should see Supt. Brown at once.

Creamery Votes Against Pooling

At the special stockholders meeting of the Pine City creamery held in the village hall, last Saturday afternoon, the members present voted against joining the sales pooling department of the local association. The local association voted to retain their membership in the state association however.

Mr. Meyers, bitter salesman and Mr. Brandt, president of the state association were present at the meeting and explained the working of the state pooling plan and other matters connected with the state association.

There were about 90 stockholders present at the meeting which was called to consider selling the local output thru the state pooling association. At the annual meeting last winter the board of directors were instructed to make an investigation of the plan, which they did recently on a trip to St. Paul, and they gave their report Saturday.

Annual Library Meeting

Monday May 5th, 8 P. M.
As has been announced, the annual meeting of the Pine City Library Association will be held Monday evening at 8 p.m. at the library.

As this meeting is the only one during the year to which everyone is invited we wish it might be better attended than it has been in the past.

It is your library and the officers want you to say how you wish the library conducted. Perhaps the books we buy don't suit your taste, perhaps we spend too much money, perhaps not enough. Come to the meeting and get the reports of all officers.

The library board is beginning to think that it would be a much fairer arrangement if the library could be supported by taxation. This will be brot up for discussion Monday evening. Mr. Therrien will tell us what the legal procedure is, by which this may be done. Miss Clara Baldwin from the State Library will be here, and will give a talk to us.

Lunch will be served, and a social time will be had. Please come out to the meeting.

Mrs. J. P. Miller
President.

Autumn Sells Boat Livery

We are informed that George Phares has purchased the boat livery from Albert Tasmus and will give up-to-date service for tourists and fishermen on the lake and river this summer.

Mr. Phares is the owner of a number of summe cottages on the east shore of Cross lake.

John F. Johnson Files for Fifth Dist.

John F. Johnson of the town of Kerrick has filed for the nomination for commissioner from the fifth district. Mr. Johnson is the third to file from the fifth, the others being E. L. Donning of Bruno and Nels Mattson of Duxbury.

John F. Johnson is one of the old timers in Eastern Pine county and is a former county commissioner. He was a member of the county board for 17 years, retiring from the board January 1, 1917. He was first appointed a member of the board in 1899 to fill the term of O. B. Whitney, who resigned. He attended his first meeting January 2, 1900 and served as a member of the board continuously for 17 years when he was defeated for re-election by N. A. Anderson. Mr. Johnson's long service as a county commissioner made him thoroughly acquainted with every section of the county. He is a good vote getter, is popular in his section of the county and he will be a strong contender for the office.

The other members of the county board at the time Mr. Johnson was appointed were L. C. Simons of the first district, Otto Kowalke of the second, Angus Gunn of the third and Frank Chmielewski of the fourth. Angus Gunn was chairman of the board and he was the father of our present clerk of court, Pine county's own "Sandy" Gunn.

Mr. Gunn succeeded Henry Rath as clerk of court in 1910 and has held the office since that time.

At that time the Sheriff was our present sheriff, R. J. Hawley, who was appointed in 1898 and has served continuously since that time. The late Douglas Greeley served as auditor and he was succeeded by W. H. Hamlin in 1906. Mr. Greeley succeeded the late F. A. Hodge who had held the office for over 13 years. Mr. Greeley served as auditor for 12 years and Mr. Hamlin also served for 12 years. All three of them retired from office and had never been defeated for the office of county auditor. And P. Edin succeeded Mr. Hamlin.

E. Veen Hoven of Hinckley was judge of probate in 1900 and was succeeded by Judge Wilcox in 1902. Judge Wilcox has served as judge of probate since that time with the exception of the time spent in the service when Jos. Therrien held the office.

G. J. Albrecht of Hinckley was county treasurer in 1900. He was succeeded by Nick Perkins who resigned in 1911. Wm Hurley was appointed to fill his term and served until January 1, 1913 when he was succeeded by Frank Pofert who has held the office since that time.

James Wandel sr. was register of deeds in 1900 and has served continuously since that time.

It looked like a small sized convention on the village square last Tuesday morning with all the farmers present who had brought stuff to town for market day. The day was an ideal summer day and many farmers took advantage of the nice weather to bring produce to town. There were a large number of hogs purchased by the local buyers. The last Tuesday of every month is market day in Pine City.

He Found Out.
Why call it Love Day?
He wondered just and over.
But when he saw the girl he fell
You should have heard him roar.

Will Hold 'Little Eight' Meet Here

The "Little Eight track and field meet will be at Pine City on Saturday, May 24th. This was decided on at a meeting of the school superintendents held here last Saturday. It will be the third successive year the meet will have been held in Pine City.

The track and field meet will be held at the fair grounds in the afternoon and the declamatory contest in the Family theatre in the evening. The baseball game will probably be held in the morning.

Declam Contest Wednesday

The declamatory contest of the local high school will be held in the Family theatre on Wednesday evening of next week to decide on the boy and girl who will represent Pine City May 24th.

Following are the students who will participate in the contest next Wednesday evening: Girls' declamatory, Eva Franklin, Evelyn Planer, Margaret Sommers, Helen Carlson, Lucille Valley, Mae Mill Beth Appleby, Gladys Barnum, Margaret Lowe, Gertrude Sommers, Libbie Polivka, Lucille Biederman, Florence Brown, Mary Mach, Clara Korbel and Muriel Heath.

Only six boys' names were given in, they are: Lorenzo Dane, Lambert Beery, Harold Truesdell, James Pofert, Sture Carlson and Merrill Daniels.

Lewis Pacha and Miss Hawkins Married Saturday

A wedding ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage last Saturday afternoon at 2:30, when Lewis Pacha and Miss Evelyn Hawkins were united in marriage by Rev. Lowe. Joe, Shimek and Miss Alice Hawkins, sister of the bride, attended, as did the bride and groom. Only relatives of the bridal couple attended the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins living northeast of Rock Creek. She was born and raised in that community. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Pacha of Pine City and has resided here the past 5 years, coming here from Iowa.

Mr. Pacha is a partner of W. F. Richards in the North Star Tent Shows and he and his bride will accompany the show on their tour this season.

The newlyweds have many friends in this community who join with The Pine Poker in congratulations and wish them the best of success and happiness through life.

McAllen Building Cottages on Lake Pokegama

P. W. McAllen is having four summer cottages constructed on his lake shore property on the west side of Pokegama lake between his farm home and the Tuxedo Inn.

The cottages are 18x28 in size with an 8 foot screened porch on three sides. They will each consist of four rooms, living room, kitchen and 2 bed rooms.

Mr. McAllen expects to have them completed about the first of May when they will be for sale or rent. Chas. Nyak is in charge of the construction of two of the cottages and C. A. Cummings is building the other two.

Less Delinquent Taxes

One encouraging sign of better conditions in the county is the fact there were only 259 delinquent personal property tax payers this year as compared with over 600 that were delinquent a year ago.

Matt Pofert Will File for Co. Board

The Pine Poker is informed on reliable authority that Matt Pofert has decided to run for the nomination for county commissioner of the second district and will file for the office in the near future.

Mr. Pofert is a native son of Pine county as he was born and raised in Pine City and has spent his life in this community. He has served as an assistant in the county treasurer's office since his brother, Frank Pofert, has held the office of county treasurer.

Mr. Pofert has gained a state-wide reputation with the Pine county agricultural exhibits he has exhibited at the state fair the few years when his displays have been amongst the topnotchers in the prize winners.

Senior Class Play Is Extremely Humorous

The Family theatre was crowded last Friday evening for production of "When A Fellow Needs A Friend" by the senior class of the local high school. The play is an extremely funny one and kept the large audience in an up roar throughout.

The story revolves around the trials and tribulations of a struggling young painter and a pal, an author of ability, but as yet unrecognized by no one but himself.

The curtain goes up for the first act and reveals the painter, Galen Weinberger, and author, Sture Carlson, in their room making a meal off the crackers belonging to the landlady's parrot, and drinking the cat's milk. They are in such straightened financial circumstances that they have pawned everything they own and have only one suit left between them.

The landlady, Hazel Heath, has given them until the next night to produce the back rent. They are expecting a visit from a friend, an ex-army surgeon, Les Hagen, and expect to borrow the rent from him. But he arrives dressed in an overcoat and a sheet, and broke. Someone has stolen his clothes the night before. Fortunately there is a second hand store below their room and they haul up some suits on display on the sidewalk.

The father of Galen sent him a rug which compels the person standing upon it to tell the truth. An aunt of one of the young men has been told he is married and comes to visit him.

An uncle also decides on a visit at the same time. Galen Weinberger then borrows the landlady's daughter, Frankie Motyeka, to act as his wife, and they also borrow furniture on the promise of the rent being paid. The uncle, Harry Larson, and the aunt, Stazie Polivka, arrive and then things begin to happen with a hilarity rapidity that leaves every one gasping for breath.

Virginia Holt arrives with the aunt and is supposed to meet an imaginary husband and picks on Sture Carlson. This puts Sture in a hole when his fiancée, Grace Halsborn, appears on the scene and is introduced to his supposed wife. Tete Blanchard, Frankie Motyeka's steady, also shows up and finds his girl as Galen's wife. About every so often some one steps on the rug and starts to tell the truth, but are just as rapidly and roughly, yanked off the rug by other members of the cast. The mix up is finally straightened out and they all get married to the

Some Information About Bad Roads

This is the time of year when our roads, especially the side roads, are in bad condition. For the information of the public, we asked H. V. Jorgensen, highway engineer, for a little information and he kindly prepared the following article:

With the passing of snow and frost from the ground and appearance of almost steady spring rains, Pine county's roads are in a deplorable condition. Complaints are received daily by County and town officials, stating the bad condition of certain roads. The greatest trouble seems to be found in the so called "Frost Holes." These holes are liable to appear at any spot and are caused by the frost pushing upwards, leaving the road bottomless and in a very soft and spongy condition.

It is the opinion of many that patrolmen can readily repair these bottomless pits of mud and muck, by filling with dirt or gravel. From experience, it has been found that this method is not successful, so it is not the policy of Pine County Highway Department to use Road and Bridge Funds for this purpose, only to see our efforts and money vanish over night.

Unless a road has been graded, graded, and given proper and adequate drainage, frost holes are numerous and very speedy in action. Pine County's patrolmen have been notified that as soon as a break-up appears, to first try and drain if possible, all water from the roadbed. Having given the necessary drainage, a crust will soon form, which will rapidly strengthen, thereby allowing traffic to be resumed. It is hoped that the travelling public will assist and do their part in getting the roads back in shape, first by keeping heavily loaded trucks off of bad stretches as much as possible and second to assist patrolmen in any manner towards a speedy completion of repairs. The highways belong to you, so try and save, instead of destroy, them.

Return Engagement of Tinkertown Orchestra

There were so many requests by dance fans, who attended the Easter Ball, for a return engagement of the Tinkertown orchestra that local dance promoters made arrangements for another dance to be held in the armory on Saturday evening of this week.

Sig Strigel will be here Saturday evening with the same orchestra of two weeks ago and present indications are there will be as large a crowd as there was at the Easter dance.

Dancing will last until 2 a.m. and supper will be served at midnight by Mrs. Henry Buirge. Mr. Strigel and his orchestra made a big hit and the dancers are looking forward to the dance this week.

The play was by far the best that the local school has put on. It would be impossible to single out any one member of the cast as deserving of more praise than the others. They were all excellent and each impersonated his or her part to perfection. There was a lack of amateurishness that made the audience forget it was a home talent play.

A Little Fortune Spot

LEGION TO STAGE BOXING MATCH

Wm. Korbel, commander of the Leon Heath Post of the American Legion, is completing arrangements for a boxing match to be staged under the auspices of the local post in the armory, Friday evening, May 10th.

C. E. Doran, fight promoter of Stillwater, submitted an offer to the post for the staging of such a match, and it was acted on favorably by the members at their meeting held in the village hall last Thursday evening.

The fight here will include one main bout between two of the state's first raters in the semi-pro class. There will be two other bouts by good fighters and either two or three locals. The local talent will include two Pine City men, one from Rush City one from Hinckley and possibly a couple from Meadow Lawn.

Mr. Doran has been staging boxing matches at Stillwater every two weeks during the winter and has a reputation for delivering the goods in the way of a fight and has guaranteed the local Legion members a real card here that will please the local fight fans.

All arrangements as to the program for the match to be staged here will be completed this week and will be ready for publication in next week's issue of The Pine Poker.

Fire Does Damage to

Judge Wilcox Home

The fire department was called to the Judge Wilcox about five o'clock. The fire started in a wall near the chimney in the northeast corner of the house upstairs. The room was filled with smoke, when the fire was discovered.

Fortunately the room was used for storage purposes only. Considerable damage was done to the walls and books and other articles that were in the room and clothes closet.

It looked for a few minutes as if the fire would spread to other parts of the house but the department was able to get it under control and extinguished before it had a chance to spread.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Bantleon who happened to be talking to Mrs. Wilcox in the yard in front of the house. She saw the smoke which was pouring out in thick black clouds. Mrs. Wilcox was housecleaning and had been burning old papers, etc. It is thought the chimney became overheated and set the partition afire.

The extent of the damage will not be known until carpenters estimate the cost of repairs. The damage is fully covered by insurance.

Band Concert Next Wednesday Evening

If weather permits, the first band concert of the season will be given in the park on Wednesday evening of next week. Band concerts will be given every Wednesday evening until further notice.

Rock Creek News Department

Hugh Alguire and son Donald spent the week end visiting relatives at Stillwater.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. A. Kneidel and family spent Sunday at the Ludwig home in Wyoming.

Mrs. Gertrude Johnson returned from Superior last Saturday where she spent the three or four weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jonas Strandberg.

A new railing was put on the road approaching the bridge at the A & B Garage corner, the first of the week. This will make it safer for all those that are intent upon running into the creek. J. M. Morrow done the work.

Sig Striegl's Tinkertown Jazz Band will play at the dance at the armory on Saturday evening of this week.

The M. E. sewing club met at the home of Mrs. John Lindgren on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. Harry Miles returned to her home in Minneapolis Monday after a weeks visit at the John Erickson home.

Ruth Berglund, Rose and Elsie Rasmussen, Ed. Peterson and Gilbert Hyland attended a surprise in honor of Miss Alice Hawkins last Saturday evening.

The M. E. ladies aid will meet at the church on Friday afternoon of this week. Mrs. Frank Peterson and Mrs. Chapel will be the hostesses.

Mrs. Frank Peterson and son Lyman drove to River Falls, Wis., last Friday, to visit his mother who is quite ill. Gilbert Hyland visited at the home of his parents in North Branch last Sunday.

Mrs. O. A. Hartz who was on the sick list last week is feeling fine again.

The soft spot in the road north of the garage has been a nemesis for trucks as several have found it necessary to dig themselves out. Patrolman Harry Mills has the mud hole in good shape and it is now possible to go through without getting stuck.

Thieves entered the A & B garage sometime last Saturday evening and made off with the tires on the car belonging to Tom Adametz. Nothing else was taken although the money drawer had been pried off but the ill was empty. The loss of the tires were covered by insurance.

Owing to our limited amount of capital, we wish to announce that after May 1st, 1924, this store will sell for cash only.

We really feel very sorry to discontinue an account which has been taken care of so nicely as yours. At the same time, however, you will understand that to be fair to everybody alike, we cannot make any exception in the way of giving credit in the future. If it were not for that fact we would be pleased to carry your account just as we have been carrying it in the past with your very prompt payments.

Still we can hardly write you without saying something about the advantage of buying from us in the future for cash. There is nothing which contributes more to the expense of merchandise than long-extended credit, and nothing which helps low prices so much as cash for the goods. You may expect to buy more cheaply from this store, because it is a cash store, and we shall not disappoint you.

NORTHERN LIGHTS MYSTERY SOLVED

Savant Makes Green Line Like Aurora Borealis.

London.—Until now there has been no satisfactory explanation for the phenomenon known as the aurora borealis or the northern lights.

For a long time they were regarded as the spectra of a hypothetical gas, a tenuous mixture of hydrogen and helium, which was assumed to exist in the upper atmosphere. This gas was called geocoronium because the spectrum bore a close resemblance to that of the spectrum of the sun's corona.

In the winter of 1912 Lars Bergard, professor of physics at the University of Christiania, made a special photographic investigation into the northern lights. He came to the conclusion that the red, blue and violet rays were due to nitrogen that was being bombarded by electric rays emitted by the sun. But the spectrum also had a dark green line for which he was unable to account.

Subsidy by Norway.

About a year ago he again took up his investigations and received a subsidy from the Norwegian government which enabled him to carry out some very elaborate and expensive research. He succeeded in identifying at least thirty out of thirty-five lines in the spectrum as being due to nitrogen, so that the geocoronium theory could be abandoned.

He found that the green line reached its greatest intensity nearest the earth, but its true nature remained a mystery.

As he could not conceive that nitrogen gas of sufficient density could exist at such a height as to produce a luminous or brilliant aurora borealis, he came to the conclusion that the nitrogen was not present in the form of a gas, but in the form of a fine dust made up of infinitesimally minute crystalline particles that were kept suspended by electric charges.

The temperature one or two hundred miles above the surface of the earth approaches the absolute zero—that is to say -273 degrees C. In such a temperature gaseous nitrogen would condense into crystals such as those imagined by Bergard.

Went to Leyden.

To confirm this of his tentative assumptions, Bergard tried to reproduce artificially the conditions under which they were observed. He went to Leyden and worked in the famous laboratory of the Dutch scientist, Hake Kamerlingh Onnes, a winner of the Nobel prize, who in the year 1908 succeeded in liquefying helium at a temperature of -271.95 degrees C. Nitrogen freezes at -210 degrees C. With the help of liquid hydrogen Bergard was able to reach this temperature and produced a thin plate of solid nitrogen. He subjected this plate to cathode rays of varying swiftness, and found that with a certain swiftness the spectrum was identical with that of the northern lights.

Even the green line, which may now be taken as characteristic of the solid nitrogen spectrum, was present. It would therefore seem that the mystery of the northern lights has been solved at last.

Paroled to Pay Victims

Los Angeles.—"I will work a year for nothing for each of the persons I wronged," said Anita Pell to Judge Hahn in asking for probation on a charge of grand larceny. She was granted probation for three years, with instructions to repay persons she admitted having robbed.

Soviet Dupes Refugees With Czarist Money

Prague.—Russians in Prague and various other centers where the refugees from the Bolshevik regime are gathered in large numbers, have discovered that the soviet government victimized them cleverly by loading them down with alleged czarist money, which really was printed by the Bolsheviks.

Russians outside of Russia believed for a long time that the Russian money of the old regime was much more valuable than Bolshevik paper money and would some day be redeemed. Consequently there was considerable demand in European money exchanges for the old-time Russian money, and it brought better prices than red rubles.

As the Bolshevik government had a large quantity of the water-marked paper used in the old money, and had the plates for bills of large denominations, it started its money presses and supplied the demand for czarist bills. They continued this practice until last January, when the water-marked paper was exhausted.

Campaigning by radio will not please the politicians as there are no wires to pull.

What the safety razor did "to" the barber business, bobbed hair is doing "for" it.

What has become of the old fashioned man who used to help his wife clean house?

He who can devise a way to prevent a fool and his money from parting will make a fortune.

Skill required in eliminating material is apparently a big item in the present cost of women's clothes.

Modernists who claim that Adam and Eve never existed make it necessary to hunt up someone else to blame for the world's troubles.

Theatre Notes

Saturday—
Grace Darmond in "Day-time Wives."
It tears to quivering shreds the poses and delects of the jazz-age—it smashes to smithereens the hollow superficiality of the jazz bubble—the gold diggers—the lounge lizards—and all the rest of the over-sophisticated men and women who mock humanity and make of Civilization a sham!
Also a comedy "Their Love Grows Cold" and Movie Chats.

Sunday—
Elinor Fair in "Driven."
Helpless to defend the girl he loves from the brutality of his brother, the boy knows that only strength of his love will save her! This is a situation in a powerful drama that will hold you fascinated by its stark realism! Which will win? The boy with his pure love—or the other with the primitive passion of the mountains? It is a battle you will remember.
Also a Dan Mason in "The Skipper's Policy."

Tuesday—
"The Santa Fe Trail."
"Ocean Swells."
"Yellow Faces."
"Kinggrams."
Family Night.

Wednesday—
High School Declamatory.

Thursday—
Hoot Gibson in "Hook and Ladder."
Also a comedy "Sisters."

Friday—

This play consists of three acts and a prologue. Just finished a successful tour of the entire west playing such cities as Portland, Denver, Salt Lake City, Santa Fe, Long Beach and Colorado Springs.

YEAR-ROUND SCHOOL FAILURE IN NEWARK

Pupils Need Rest to Assimilate Education.

Newark, N. J.—Schools must close for the summer vacation if the children are both to get and assimilate their education, Dr. David B. Corson, superintendent of schools in Newark, reported in a survey of all-year instruction. Several of the schools in Newark tried the twelve-month system, the experiment proving a failure, said Dr. Corson.

The all-year pupils were expected to complete the public school work in six years. Instead, it was found they were graduated at an average age of fourteen, seven-tenths years. The small difference was more offset in the superior physical and mental state of the latter group, Doctor Corson asserted.

Particularly noticeable is the defect in the all-year school when the boys and girls are ready for high school work, the superintendent said. A large proportion of them, through being "forced," have been "retarded" in other ways during the primary grades work. On reaching high school their deficiencies become more obvious, and there is a large percentage of "mortality," or dropping from classes, among them.

An argument that favored the all-year school was a greater economy to the school board and city. Doctor Sevier declared, "Had it been possible to graduate the pupils in the six years, as was contemplated, this saving would have been made for the year of the failure to accomplish this, the expenses proved as great as, if not greater than, the vacation school system."

Doctor Corson's report was originally read before the meeting of the department of superintendence of the National Education association. His experience tended to end the putting forth of suggestions to apply modern efficiency methods to primary children, or to force education by intensive methods.

In the all-year school there are five recitations of classes in the course of each twelve-month period. These cause considerable confusion in the matter of examinations, requiring of new teachers and turning to a new subject, to be taught in a slightly different method.

By special arrangement, the Eastern Oregon Light & Power company was allowed to buy the dredge by paying $10,932 in cash, the amount due.

WHY BANKS?

REVIEW

By J. H. PUELICHER, Chairman, Committee on Public Education, American Bankers Association.

Those who have been reading these lessons have found banks to be semi-public corporations, chartered, regulated, and examined by State or Nation, but owned by private stockholders.

We found that banks

1. Receive deposits.
2. Make loans.

We found deposits to be of two kinds—

1. Savings Deposits.
2. Commercial Deposits.

We found that interest is paid on Savings Deposits; that the people's savings loaned by banks to farmers, merchants, manufacturers, produce and profits, which make more savings.

We found that were it not for the savings of the past, there could not be capital with which to build schools, railroads, ships, telephone and telegraph lines, and the many things which are a part of civilization.

We found that the banker pays the savings depositor interest for the use of his savings and that he loans these to business but charges business more interest than he pays the saver, so that he could defraud.

We found that bank stock is sold in order to provide capital for the establishing of the bank; that a stockholder in a bank is compelled to pay, in case the bank should fail and the assets not enough to pay deposits, an amount up to 100 per cent of his stock, that anyone who is able to buy and willing to assume the risk, may purchase bank stock when it is for sale, and that the banks of America are owned by many men and women scattered throughout the country, who have purchased bank stock.

We found that banks render in these ways essential economic services to their communities.

Provisional Escape. A Wallflower.
The old lady had had a severe illness, and she was relating its vicissitudes to a friend or two in the grocer's shop when the minister came in.
"It's only the Lord's mercy," she piously declared, "that I'm not in heaven tonight!"
"And how do you like codfish balls?"
"She said I really couldn't say—I've never been to any."
"Hard to tell."
"Father—What's your mother doing?"
"Water (who has just come down stairs)—she's either dressing for a party or going to bed."

Capital's Service To The Consumer

Says James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor, "No matter who owns the capital, capital works for everybody. The oil companies own the gasoline, but they have to tote it to the roadside where everyone can get it. Equal division is the goal which capitalism constantly approaches. No man wants all the gasoline. He wants six gallons at a time with a service station every few miles. Capitalism performs this service for him. Under 'capitalism,' so-called, wealth is more equally divided than under any other system ever known."

The so-called "capitalists" who control the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are 46,016 stockholders, the majority of them small investors who earned and saved the money to buy stock.

This capital, because it is brought together in a large aggregate, is able to service the community more effectively than if it were divided up and parcelled out into 46,016 separate holdings.

In 1923 this capital brought millions of barrels of crude petroleum from the oil fields, so that during 1924 the 4 1/2 million automobiles of the Middle West may be supplied with gasoline and oils.

This capital has erected large, modern, scientifically equipped refineries, in which to apply the most efficient cracking processes, so that the maximum amount of gasoline may be produced from the crude oil.

This capital has built up a distribution system, with storage depots and service stations at strategic points, throughout the Middle West. By means of this enormous and complete distribution system, petroleum products are delivered to the ultimate consumer with the utmost economy, and the motorist who needs but one gallon at a time receives as efficient service as the manufacturer who buys thousands of gallons.

Without capital the oil would stay in the ground, or at best would serve but a few people adjacent to the oil fields.

By serving the thirty million people of the Middle West with petroleum products, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) makes it possible for you, wherever you may live, to enjoy the benefits of the petroleum wealth of the United States. Without the employment of the capital of the stockholders of this Company this would not be possible.

Under efficient management of a highly experienced Board of Directors, the capital of the 46,016 stockholders of this Company is working night and day for the service of the community.

Consider This Sedan at $1445

THIS Oakland Six Sedan incorporates more advanced construction than you will find in any other Sedan selling at a similar price. You can verify these facts for yourself.

Oakland's new six-cylinder engine is compact and powerful. It's advanced design gives it the smoothness so desirable in a closed car.

Oakland's four-wheel brakes are sound. In the Sedan, a family car, don't overlook this safety feature. The body is Fisher-built—beautiful and complete. Comparisons will increase your desire for it.

Oakland's new "Dico" finish is a revelation. In no other car, similarly priced, can you obtain this finish.

The control system is exclusive. Horn, throttle, ignition switch, choke and light controls—all are on the steering wheel.

Disc steel wheels are standard. They are safer, better looking, more desirable.

These are the facts and the Sedan price is $1445 at factory. To insure complete satisfaction you don't need to pay more. Consider the Oakland Sedan, drive it—and then decide for yourself.
