'COOL'

JOE

REMINISCIN'

We hope the owner of this diary will excuse us for peeking, but we couldn't resist taking a look into the diary of a senior, class of '55, and looking back into the twelve long years spent in this school.

Sept. 4, 1942 -- today wuz the furst day of skul! It wuz fun. Mis McGuire is nise. I wuz'skard uv the swings. Jimmy pusht me an' then I wuzn't. Oct. 12 -- teecher tol' us about Crisfer Clumbus. he found whare we live. Donna Mae sung a song about him.

Sept. 4, '43 -- teecher's name is Mis Harem. I like her fine. She allus lafs. It was the mostest funn.

Dec. 18 -- We had our Cristmas programe. We played like it wuz toyland. All uv the girls drest up like dollies.

March 8, 1945 -- Miss Bremer past out chawk an we were spoze to draw with it an on a blakbord to. We made purty pictures.

Oct. 11 -- It was homecuming. We was in the prade. It was real big. We got jist so tired an we walked cleer up town then we went alla way back.

Sept. 10, 1946 -- there was a new girl in class. She said her name was Renee Anderson. Miss Szymonik is making us to no how to spell her name.

Jan. 23, 1948 -- Tomorrow is Mike Postens last day of school. I think he is moving away.

May 13 -- Jane and Karin got in a figt. It was over who would walk Danny home from school. Jane won.

Dec. 3, 1948 -- We planed our Christmas program today. It is called "Why the Chimes Rang." It is so funny because all of us girls have to dress up in long dresses.

April 6 -- Mrs. Larson found out about the sunflower seed fad. She found a big heap of hulls under Bev's desk. No more sunflower seeds.

Oct. 5, 1949 -- Cheers! We got second prize on our homecoming float! Mr. Gackstetter came to the float meeting with a big box of chocolates. They sure didn't last very long.

Jan. 18, 1951 -- We had a dilly of a time in math class. Mr. Tolman was eating an apple. He said it was for his ulcer. Just tempting us, I bet.

Sept. 3, 1951 -- Scads of new kids, mostly the Brook Park gang. This year is going to be fun!

Dec. 17 -- Boy was Jane on clouds today! Ronnie Baker gave her a big beautiful box of stationery at the Christmas party.

Feb. 14, 1953 -- Sweets to the sweet -- from Ronnie Baker -- hey, Karin? A box of candy this time.

May 8 -- Some of us got to serve at the Junior-Senior Prom. It was a fine experience from Emily Post's point of view, but I don't think any of us are cut out to be waitresses.

Nov. 13, 1953 -- Class play -- "One Foot in Heaven" -- went over big. Everybody laughed when Father got the giggles in the middle of an explosive scene.

May 1 -- This prom business is really getting on my nerves. What a mess! Alice in Wonderland sure is a problem child, nobody wants to draw her! Maybe it will be worth all the effort in the end, though.

Sept. 7, 1954 -- Now we are Seniors. It doesn't seem possible. I looked back in my Diary tonite and it seems only yesterday that we were learning about Columbus, 1492, and the deep blue sea.

April 8, 1955 -- We're working like dogs on the class play. As it seems now, we aren't going to be ready to give it on the appointed date. Why is it we can't go back stage and play with the ropes?

May 10 -- The Prom was beautiful. Those Juniors are really giving us a fine send off! We surely didn't envy them making their preparations, though.

May 15 -- The annuals arrived! It looks like our nerve-wracking labor to meet deadlines amounted to something after all.

June 4 -- "They are all gone away -- There is nothing more to say."

FUTURE FANTASY

(Apologies to A. A. Milne)

Of P.C.H. Seniors, the great and good,
They told a tale in '65;
Of how these Seniors, one and all,
Heeded opportunity's call
And had themselves a quite a ball.

Good Miss Lawler
Pushed up her glasses,
(Horn-rimmed glasses known by all.)
"Isn't that Wanda,
Wrapped in a parka,
Hailing me from her igloo door?
And----why there comes Stratte!
A second Porfirio,
Sporting two ladies----
Or maybe it's four.

"I do think that's Alice,
Opera star Alice;
(Opera "Carmen"
In particular),
Singing to music
Supplied by Danny;
They're rehearsing a concert,
And each is the star.

"Here comes Andy----
Fast down the gridiron,
(Crowds are cheering,
Screaming aloud)
Carrying the football,
Quickly! Quickly!
Carrying the football.
It's a goal; he's so proud!

" 'Tention! 'Tention!
All was silence;
(Deathly silence, as Ikie spoke.)
'Vote for me
In the next election!
Vote for me,
And you'll all go broke.'

" 'Mama! Mama!
That's Esther's kids,
(All or them tied to her apron strings.)
Thirteen children----
Truly, truly,
Thirteen children----
What a change ten years bring.

"Turn on the radio,
Listen to Beverly,
(Advisor to presidents
In years heretofore)
Held in respect
By all the public
Because she stopped
The Third World War.

"There's Jane Blanchard.
Dressed in a swimsuit.
(Quite a figure in the public's eye)
And no wonder----
Marvelous! Marvelous!
She swam the Atlantic----
But I wonder why?

"See in the newspapers
Bob Teich's column.
(In all newspapers----
The "how" of relaxation
Is his specialty;)
Write him today----
You'll come out all wrong.

"Ray and Roger,
The Stevens Boys,
Formed a partnership;
(Tut, tut, now! No laughs!)
Trimming whiskers
Is their pastime;
Trimming whiskers
On red Guernsey calves!

"Franky Peil.
The hot rod king;
Makes 'em himself----
The hotrods, I mean)
Made the headlines.
How daring! How daring!
Made the headlines
In his reckless machine.

"June and Virgene,
The elevator girls!
(The Empire Building
Is their run.)
They race each other
These two naughty girls.
They think it's a sport----
But we don't think it's fun.

"A Fuller Brush girl
There cannot be better.
(I know there's none better Than Donna Mae E.)
She draws all the money
From a dotting public,
And all on account
Of her persuasive plea.

"Michael Selleck,
(Or didn't you know?)
Played a wicked trombone
In the Pine City band.
He won wide acclaim
Quite recently, too,
When he played TROMBONE BOOGIE
Without any hands.

"Banana cream pies,
Extremely delicious!
(Not rivaled by any,
He's the best chef of all.)
Are tested by Earl,
A now famous gourmet,
From what used to be Gaul.

"Mr. America,
(I'll bet you can guess.)
Is muscle man Alf----
A regular guy.
His trainer Bob C.
Feeds him peanuts and nuts,
Roasted by Fischer,
Sprinkled on pie.

"Gladys and Marilyn
The girls from Brook Park,
(That fashionable boom-town on road twenty-three)
Run a lonely hearts club----
Would you care to join?
They say it works fine----
But it hasn't helped me!

"A former student
At Pine City High,
(A cute little student
And make no mistake)
Was named Karin Challeen
Now a plane stewardess.
She makes non-stop flights
From here to Moose Lake.

"Deep in the jungle
Wild and wet,
(The African jungle----
Oh, my! How it scares.)
Imagine! Imagine!
They represent pigmies
On foreign affairs.

"Brave Bob Anderson,
Famous in Zooland,
(Retired trainer of Bengal cats)
Is so tender-hearted,
I think you must know it;
He feeds all the hippos
On thick chocolate malts.

"Atom buster----
What is it you call it?----
(I think it's atomizer----
You can't prove it by me.)
Ronnie's training the atoms----
He's director at Oakridge----
He's training the atoms,
(Each one,) how to sneeze.

"Prairie dog hunter
Down in Nebraska!
(I'm sure that's where Those small puppies grow.)
Fred Hodge is a trapper
Remarkably good----
He'll sell you a fur coat
For a nickel or so.

"Remember Abie
From Pine City High?
(A favorite with teachers
The students agree.)
He's a coconut picker
In gay Trinidad;
And he flirts with the beauties
That sun by the sea.

"Out in Wyoming
In the wild, wild West,
(Land of cowboys, Indians 'n such)
Rich gets star billing
At the rodeo shows----
A swell bronco buster,
For he's never been bucked.

"Strange mystery man
In magical land!
(It's "Swami" Powers
In a high Indian hat)
He tells you your fortune,
A generous man----
And he'll give you a ride
On a real Persian Mat.

"Tight rope walker
Far up in the sky,
(Across the Snake River and maybe Rock Creek)
Is Gary Rohweder,
The king of the rope,
We'll all cross our fingers
And hope he won't slip.

"Billy Roubinek
Intelligent, wise,
(A social teacher
A swell pedagogue)
Has turned commentator
Over T.V.
He discusses the antics
Of the razor backed hog!

"Huge Yankee Stadium
Packed to the brim,
(Big attraction; Wonder what?)
Oh! It's Oscar Thorson,
A baseball champ.
Just watch his windup
And the answer you'll get.

"Agriculturist Roger
From the F.F.A.
(Works for the government
In Washington D. C.)
He discovered a corn plant----
Saves labor, too----
That won't grow on stalks,
But it will grow on trees!

"Walter's a comic
On CBS
(Summer replacement
For Groucho Marx)
He tells funny jokes.
He's a huge success.
He tells funny jokes
That really are larks.

"Donald Wurm,
A regular "brain"
(Has gone far in the world
With his pep and zeal.)
Apprentice to Einstein,
You know him I think----
They discovered amendments
To this relativity deal.

"Leslie Benson
Has a strange occupation.
(A camel trainer,
And this is no trick.)
He raises the beasts
Where they'll grow plump and fat;
Where else----
But up in the frigid Arctic?

"Vocalist Sammy,
He's really a hit!
(Recorded for Decca Believe it or not.)
Tennessee Ernie,
That popular man,
Is his special trainer
In voice and what not.

"Darlene W. and Laura,
Two talented girls,
(Own a bubblegum shop
Where they close up at noon)
Darlene is the champion
Cook of the two,
While Laura blows bubbles
As big as the moon.

"Two Swiss mountain climbers,
Barbara France and DeAnne;
(They climbed a tall mountain
And never came back.)
I have an idea
What might have occurred----
They thought scaling mountains
Meant weighing! Alack!

"Caroline and Delores,
That inseparable pair,
Are tycoons in the business
World of today.
They both run a charm school,
With lessons by Ruthie.
It's a quaint little school----
The fee's only a penny!

"Look over there--
Neath that large spreading tree,
Carole Carlson sits on a barrel of fun.
She's facing a camera
She's posing so nice--
Hold your breath now--
Click! Click! It is done.

" 'Gone Fishin' is
The sign on the door
Of Sandra Barnes
A raven-haired girl;
While tacked on the door
Of Miss Darlene K.
Is a sign saying simply:
'Gone "Driving" don't wait.'

"Donna Yost and Lucille
Are two fun-loving girls.
Because both are happy
And quite full of glee--
They pooled their money,
And guess what they bought?
Nothing less
Than a giggle recording machine.

"Deep in the depths
Of the briny sea,
Dives Franny Nelson
in a frogman's guise.
She's looking for eels--
Electric preferred--
But if they are not--
"Why, I wire 'em!" she cries.

"A small little miss,
Darlene Anderson by name,
Works in a missile
(Which travels straight up)
Since reading the comics,
She decided to go
To the planet of Pluto
To see Disney's dog.

"Ardis in smock
And with pallet held high,
(She's ready to paint
Should a subject in trot)
When onto the scene
Strolls a challenging one;
It's Margaret
Disguised as a bold Hottentot.

"Virginia Delaney
Has foresight galore
(For she lassoed her man--
She's not waiting, no sir!
She tied him up good,
And she fastened him well,
She surely won't let Opportunity by her!

"Shirley Bergstrom's a
Dealer in ancient antiques.
(She owns her own store
Calls it "Mye Owne Shoppe")
One day from quite carelessly
Neglecting to watch
A burglar went off
With a grandfather clock.

"Jim Doran and Chuck gave a vaudeville show.
(They blacken their faces
And wear derby hats)
The feet they all beat
And the hands they all clap.
When that pair
Do their famous minstrel acts."

Of P. C. H. Seniors, the great and the good,
They tell a tale in '65
Of how these seniors every one
From the time they had begun
Worked 'til each their fortune won
And had themselves a lot of fun.

AFTER WE'VE GONE

We, the Senior Class of 1955, do hereby bequeath to thee, the underclassmen, all our most worthy attributes and abilities inscribed below.

To the Juniors - our successful parties.

To the Sophomores - the technique of getting along with all teachers.

To the Freshmen - our ability to win the float contest four years in a row.

Carole Carlson - leaves her lively school spirit to the student body.

Doris Caroon - leaves the echo of "Flow Gently Sweet Afton" still bouncing off the walls.

Donald Wurm - leaves his ability to apply himself to studies to Raymond Fore.

June Bettinger - leaves her frustrated air in time of catastrophe to Art Smith.

Robert Anderson - leaves his rather quiet manner to Jerry Nelson.

Dan Boo - leaves his many tardy slips to Mr. Hackman who has quite a few already.

Gary Rohweder - leaves his cool convertible to the school. It wouldn't start so he couldn't take it with him.

Frederick Hodge - leaves a skinned badger in one of the ventilators.

Deanne Clark - leaves her remarkable penmanship to Kay Nelson.

Lucille Saumer - leaves her wolf whistles to John Chalupnik.

Darlene Krube - leaves her corny jokes to anybody who can stand them.

Jane Blanchard - leaves her locker still bulging with papers, candy wrappers, boxes, etc.

Roger Vacinek - leaves his place in the chorus to a junior-in fact any junior.

Marilyn Burmeister - leaves her size 4 1/2 shoes to Roger Schlieff.

Delores Ovick - leaves her fluorescent sweaters to light up the world.

Karin Challeen - leaves her ability to slip out of study hall without passes to Jon--he needs it.

Caroline Najmon - leaves her gleaming smile to anyone missing a few teeth.

Virgene Anderson - leaves her shy retiring ways to Dennis Bowers.

Frank Peil - leaves his amiability to some disagreeable student with a chip on his shoulder.

James Gillespie - leaves his forceful attitude to Robert Benson.

Donna Mae Erickson - leaves her bright, witty sayings to Billy Tuma.

Shirley Bergstrom - leaves her bashful grin to Roger Schlieff.

Shirley Caroon - leaves her wavy locks to John Bauer.

Samuel Carlson - leaves his collection of dead cats to the biology lab-if they'll take them.

Barbara France - leaves her trim waist to any junior girl who can use it.

Darlene Miska - leaves her obliging manner to Dean Stoffel.

Abel Korf - leaves his riot-creating ability to Corinne Johnson.

Michael Selleck - leaves his trombone to the Music Department, where it will be preserved for admiring posterity.

Virginia Delaney - leaves her scarlet blushes to Frances Jacobson.

Alice Osterdyke - leaves her winner's spot in essay writing to any ambitious underclassman who wants it.

William Roubinek - sadly leaves his arguments with Mr. Hanson behind.

Charles Thieman - leaves with regret the underclass girls.

Earl Pixley - leaves an empty date book to Jim Blanchard--may he have fun filling it.

Robert Teich - leaves his ability to catch up on sleep in school to some sleepy junior.

Jon Stratte - leaves his stubby haircut to Jimmy McClellan.

Ronald Baker - leaves his theory of the atom to Judy Nell.

Walter Weis - leaves his collection of green absence slips to the office. He can keep them supplied for years.

Alfred Grandt - leaves his harem of gorgeous juniors with a sigh.

Sandra Barnes - leaves her fishing tackle to some eager freshman. She got her "Fisch."

Dave Fisher - leaves his chicken-picking ability to Lloyd Swanson.

Beverly Kutzke - leaves her collection of alibis for being late to Louis Shumway.

Jim Doran - leaves a bottle of hair tonic to Albert Harvey, with instructions to use.

Richard Kosik - leaves his slow, easy-going walk to Gege Gillespie.

Ronald Hawkinson - leaves Ellen.

Esther Bell - leaves her freckles to Jean Johnson.

Darlene Wanous - leaves her book-keeping in a mess.

Andy Edin - wills his well-worn Latin book to some foolish sophomore.

Oscar Thorsen - leaves his record of two no-hit games to Dean Stoffel.

Gladys Burman - leaves her knowledge of all the answers in Social to Kenny Hady.

Donna Yost - leaves her vivid shade of lipstick to Janice Hischer.

Roger Stevens - leaves his "Tiger" reputation to David Miska.

Laura Grover - leaves her album of boys' snapshots to Delores Becvar.

Ray Stevens - leaves with a scream of joy.

Margaret Rasmussen - leaves her bright yellow hair to Shirley Orvis.

Ruth Turgeon - leaves her cornet to a future Harry James.

Ardis White - leaves her bubbling giggles to Henry Cornelius.

Frances Nelson - leaves a supply of gum under a desk in 207 to Sue Prairie.

Leslie Benson - leaves his strong, silent manner to Andy Neville.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team had another unsuccessful season this year but the boys tried hard and were fighting all the time. Jon Stratte and Andy Edin were co-captains. Stuart Skoglund coached the "A" squad and Charles Hackman coached the "B" squad.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME.

Completing its best season in several years, the 1954 baseball team had a record of five wins and one loss, under Coach Les Nell. Captain Oscar Thorson chalked up two no-hitters against Hinckley and Chisago City.

Season's Record

Hinckley	0	Pine City	6
Chisago City	0	Pine City	6
Rush City	1	Pine City	4
Forest Lake	11	Pine City	5

HOLD THAT LINE!

For the second time in eleven years the Pine City football team failed to win the District Championship. They finished the season with a record of four losses, two victories, and one tie. One of the best games of the season was played against Superior East, the score-20-7-Dragon's favor. Jon Stratte captained the team and Andy Edin was elected Most Valuable Blocker, while Dennis Bowers was elected Captain for the 1955 season.

"ARE YOU WITH US?"

Carole Carlson, Sue Prairie, Sharon Janke, Janet Bell.

Fifteen great big cheers for the cheerleaders! Pine City High School echoed with new cheers this year thanks to the efforts of our four cheerleaders. Without them the pep of Pine City High School would have been like a hamburger without onions. Good work, gals!

"FORWARD MARCH!"

Freshman Joy Doran took over and capably led the band during its marches and maneuvers this year. The six majorettes worked out attractive baton routines to enhance the appearance of the band and ended the marching season with their participation in "A Square Dance", the bands' contribution to the Homecoming festivities.

CHORUS

Under the direction of Miss Ditty, the mixed chorus took part in several programs--among them were for the Armistice Day and Christmas Programs during the year. A representative group appeared in the All-Star Chorus at Hinckley, and the entire chorus joined with the band for an entertaining Spring Concert.

SECOND SOPRANOS: 1. M. Olson, J. Rypkema, J. Vosika, P. Gebert. 2. S. Janke, S. Roubinek, J. Janssen, S. Prairie. 3. G. Gillespie, F. Nelson, M. Soukup, B. Tuma, D. Yost.

Maintaining a tip-top condition in the library is a big job for one man, so Mr. Huber used the help of the Library Club to good advantage. The big job of the year was the January inventory and with its finish the club again resumed helping students in their choice and use of books.

CLUB LIBRARY

PEP CLUB

Putting spirit back in the Pep Club was the club's goal, and they succeeded. With an initiation of thirty new members they swelled the cheering section at basketball and football games, sponsored a candy sale for the March of Dimes, and wrote and produced several skits for the entertainment of the student body.

Officers of the Pep Club: President; Carole Carlson, Vice President; Gege Gillespie, Secretary; Barbara France, Treasurer; Sharon Janke.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Pine City looked to its laurels this year and came out with a record of which they might be proud.

Several teams won state top honors and went on to compete in the national contest held at Kansas City. Star of the show was Dave Fischer who won first place in poultry judging, while the team as a whole ranked second.

Vegetable growing held the spotlight too. However, while they strove for first place in the National Junior Vegetable Growers Contest at the State Fair, they lost to Ramsey County by two points.

The seniors of 1956 will have to shoot high to break this record.

STUDENT COUNCIL

School problems got an airing in the monthly sessions of the council. With the help of Mr. Oldenburg, their advisor, the council sponsored noon-hour activities for the students and supervised the Homecoming Day activities.

SEATED: Co-editor Bev Kutzke, Adviser Mary Ellen Lawler, Co-editor Dan Boo.
 STANDING: Ardis White, Donna Mae Erickson, Sandra Barnes, Karin Challeen, Jim Gillespie, Andy Edin.

CHENGWATANA

Flash! The Chengwatana has celebrated its second successful year under the direction of Miss Muck. Without it, keeping up on the news and gossip around school would have been a little more difficult. The "Senior Issue," published in the spring, was an immediate success with the student body.

DECLAMATION

This year Miss Rousseau supervised the declam activities, and a great deal of promise was shown by the forty participating members of the student body. Eliminations were held here on March 10-17, and the sub-district contest was held at Hinckley on Tuesday, March 22. The winners from that contest then went on to the district contest at Sandstone on Monday, March 28.

"ALICE IN WONDERLAND"

May 7, 1954

True to form, for months we debated on our Prom theme, and from "Springtime in Paris", "Alice in Wonderland", "Chinatown", and "South Pacific", we finally chose "Alice". From then on a state of confusion reigned until almost Prom time.

Committees ran from one place to the next--selecting crepe paper, arranging for invitations, ordering food, and trying to get an orchestra.

Gradually things took shape, and we moved into the armory--setting up frameworks, hanging streamers, arranging tables and chairs--all the time keeping one eye on that big day, May 7.

The day arrived, and that afternoon saw juniors doing last minute jobs like setting tables, sweeping up, and testing lights--Then home to clean up, pick up our dates, and back to enjoy-----

THE PROM

Seniors pose with astonished Alice.

Mr. Cheshire Cat has an eye for beauty.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

Alice-amazed at Wonderland.

Tweedledum or Tweedledee?

Karin, Queen Darlene, and Sandy, reigning royalty.

HOME

Here comes the Queen!

DRAGON VS TIGER

Festivities began with the coronation of Darlene Krube' as 1954 Homecoming Queen and ended with the Homecoming Dance in the auditorium--the new Queen and Princesses presiding.

Weeks in advance, the Student Council, Band, float committees, and performers started preparing for the gala day by practicing routines and planning floats. The theme for the day was "Black Sambo Did It, and So Can We," and the team did their best to make butter out of Rush City's Tigers.

After the coronation, the parade wound through the town (Senior float got first prize) and returning to the school, the students disbanded until game time. Unseasonal cold moved in that night forcing Queen Darlene, Karin, and Sandy to wear heavy coats while watching the 7-7 tie game and the band's half-time performance.

Such a hot float that it caught fire.

COMING

The acceptance speech-

The big moment.

Sophomore version of Black Sambo.
