THE DRAGON STAFF PROUDLY
PRESENTS THE

DRAGON

1967

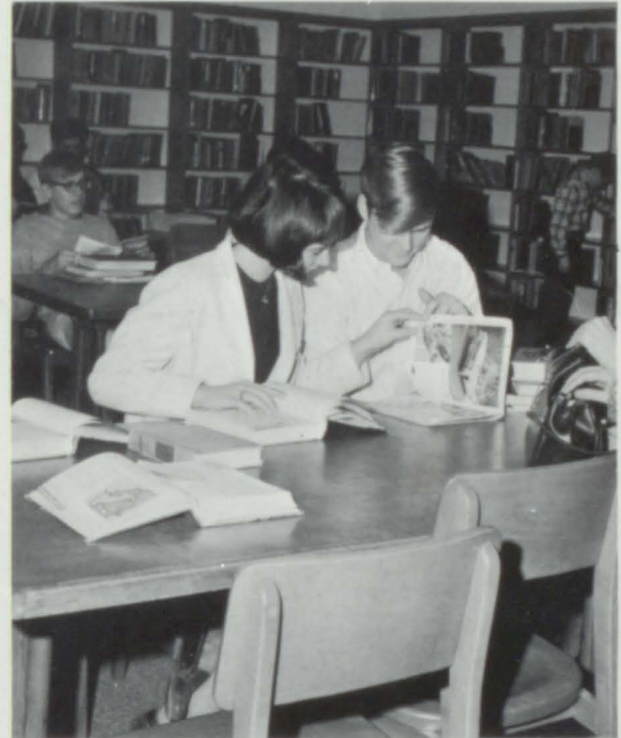

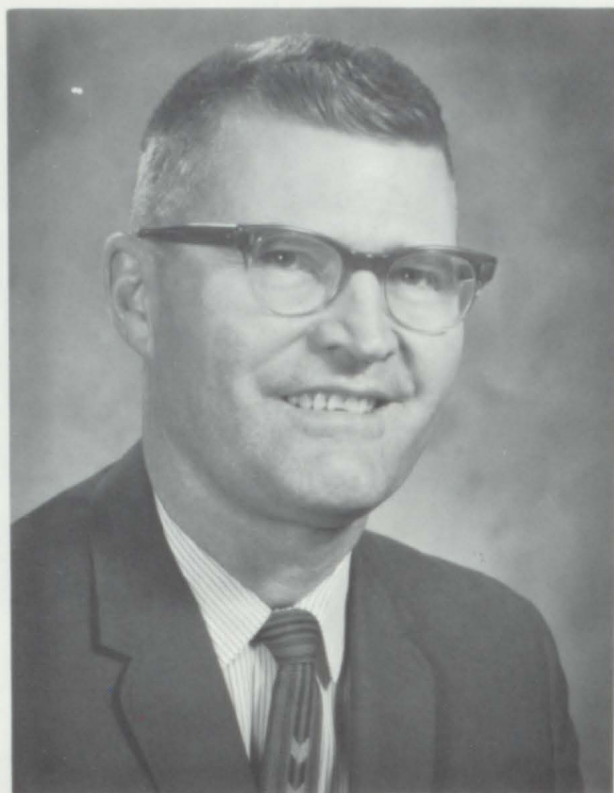

With the passage of years, you may look back upon this school year as the time when the darkness of ignorance suddenly became bright with the gleam of knowledge.

To preserve a record of these moments and the countless other experiences of you and your classmates, this annual strives to capture the "eyes" and "mind" of the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of Pine City High School.

Class Inseparables: Ronnie and Julie

Most Devilish: Allen and Betty

Best All Around: Mike and Judi

The Seniors, for six years now have blessed (?) the halls of PCHS with their various talents. Not all deserving recognition can be listed, but the class of '67 has made an attempt and chosen these people for a place in this year's "HALL OF FAME."

Most Talented: Dale and Donna

Wolf and Flirt: Greg and Peg

Most Studious: Dennis and Mary

Glen plaid, tattersall, and houndstooth, shown on Mike, Julie, and Robbie, with print shirts and poorboys.

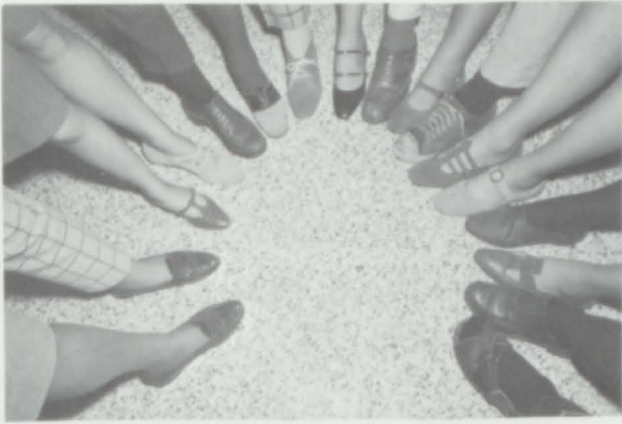

LOOK OF '67

For ah, less formal activities, bermudas or jeans were very appropriate, as Debby and Joe demonstrate.

Sweaters took on all forms - from Penny in stripes to Pat in a ribbed knit pullover, to LeAnn in windowpane checks.

Shoes . . . for guys, loafers, walkers, wingtips, sandals, and for special occasions, tennis. Gals stepped out with suedes and straps, saddles, tig-ups, and the classic loafer.

For school wear . . . Judi in a sashed and bowed cotton print, and Don in ribbed sweater and blanket plaid slacks.

Patty, Debbie, Mr. X, and Candy all wear suits, very popular this year in plaids, prints, and solids.

For outdoor wear, hero jackets like Joe's and Kieth's were most often seen. Roxy's convoy coat and Lana's fake fur coat and window pane checked stovepipe pants were right in with the "Look".

To dress up, a yachting jacket or a voile dress was very appropriate.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service promotes world understanding among all the people of the world. They raise money each year to bring a foreign student to Pine City. Some of the funds are raised by Penny Wednesday, the movie, and the selling of refreshments at basketball games. The student body cooperates with the adult chapter. This year's foreign student is Verena Buenzli, from Switzerland.

Last June, when I got the admission from A.F.S., I first couldn't believe that I was the lucky student in my school, chosen to spend a year in the United States. The wish to once cross the "Big Water" a dream so many Europeans dream, came true for me. I had no idea what events the coming year would bring me, living in a new environment together with strange people, speaking in an another language.

If I think back now, I wonder at how fast I felt at home in your town. The Christenson family made their house a home for me, and for the first time I enjoyed having a sister and a brother. All the people here in Pine City, the teachers and students at school have made my staying as pleasing as possible and helped to understand your way of life.

In the past months, I have made many new friends, learned a lot about your country, your customs, and every day I have new things to add. I will take home with me the memory of an exciting year, full of good experiences. Thank you for everything you have done for me.

Sincerely,

Verena

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

FFA chapter sweetheart,
Ellen Rys.

The Pine City FFA chapter has been as active as usual this year with judging contests and other projects. The highlight of the year was National FFA Week during which the group sponsored many activities. Among them were the 2nd Annual Treasure Hunt, in which Mr. Paul Mettling found the miniature milk can and claimed the $75 reward, and the prize of a large ham, which was won by Pam Berghammer.

QUEEN
DIANE

HOME COMING

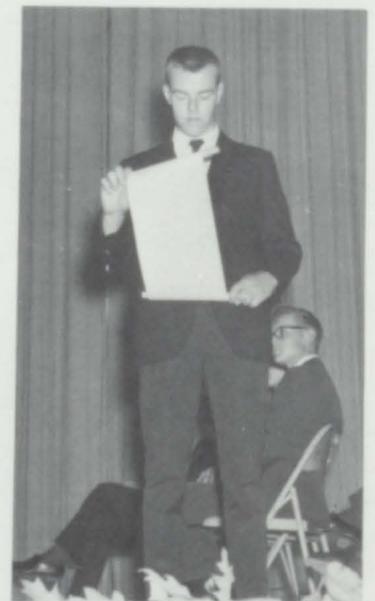

All eyes wide . . . the unbearable suspense breaks . . . screams of happiness for our queen.

Homecoming termed a great success

With their three lovely candidates on stage, the speech class presented a biting (?) satire on the coronation.

The Royal Court: Junior attendants Delphine Miska, Judy Pangerl, and Janet Lauer; Sophomore attendants Debby Tomlinson, Linda Stanzyk, and Janet Greig; Princesses Debby Bjorklund and Betty Kalb, and Queen Diane Mortenson; Escorts Son Scharmer, Don Bruce, Steve Espeseth, Bob Jones, Tim Erhart, Dave Thiry, Rob Thiry, Joe Reiser, and Jeff Henrickson.

Homecoming, 1966, was an event that will stand out in the memories of all. Long hours were spent during the week planning the program, preparing skits, campaigning for queen candidates, and making sure everything was set for the big day.

Amidst screams, laughs, and cheers, the Homecoming assembly opened. A skit proved a humorous tonic for the days fun, and pep talks raised the hopes for victory to new heights. The high point of the assembly was the beautiful ceremony of coronation.

At night a large crowd cheered the Dragons onto victory as we soundly defeated our Taylors Falls opponents. We continued in a festive mood at the dance, which was well attended by students and alumni.

Streamers lay about, the dance floor was empty, but Homecoming, 1966, will remain in every heart.

Speeches and pep talks contributed to the Homecoming spirit.

The queen and princess at halftime

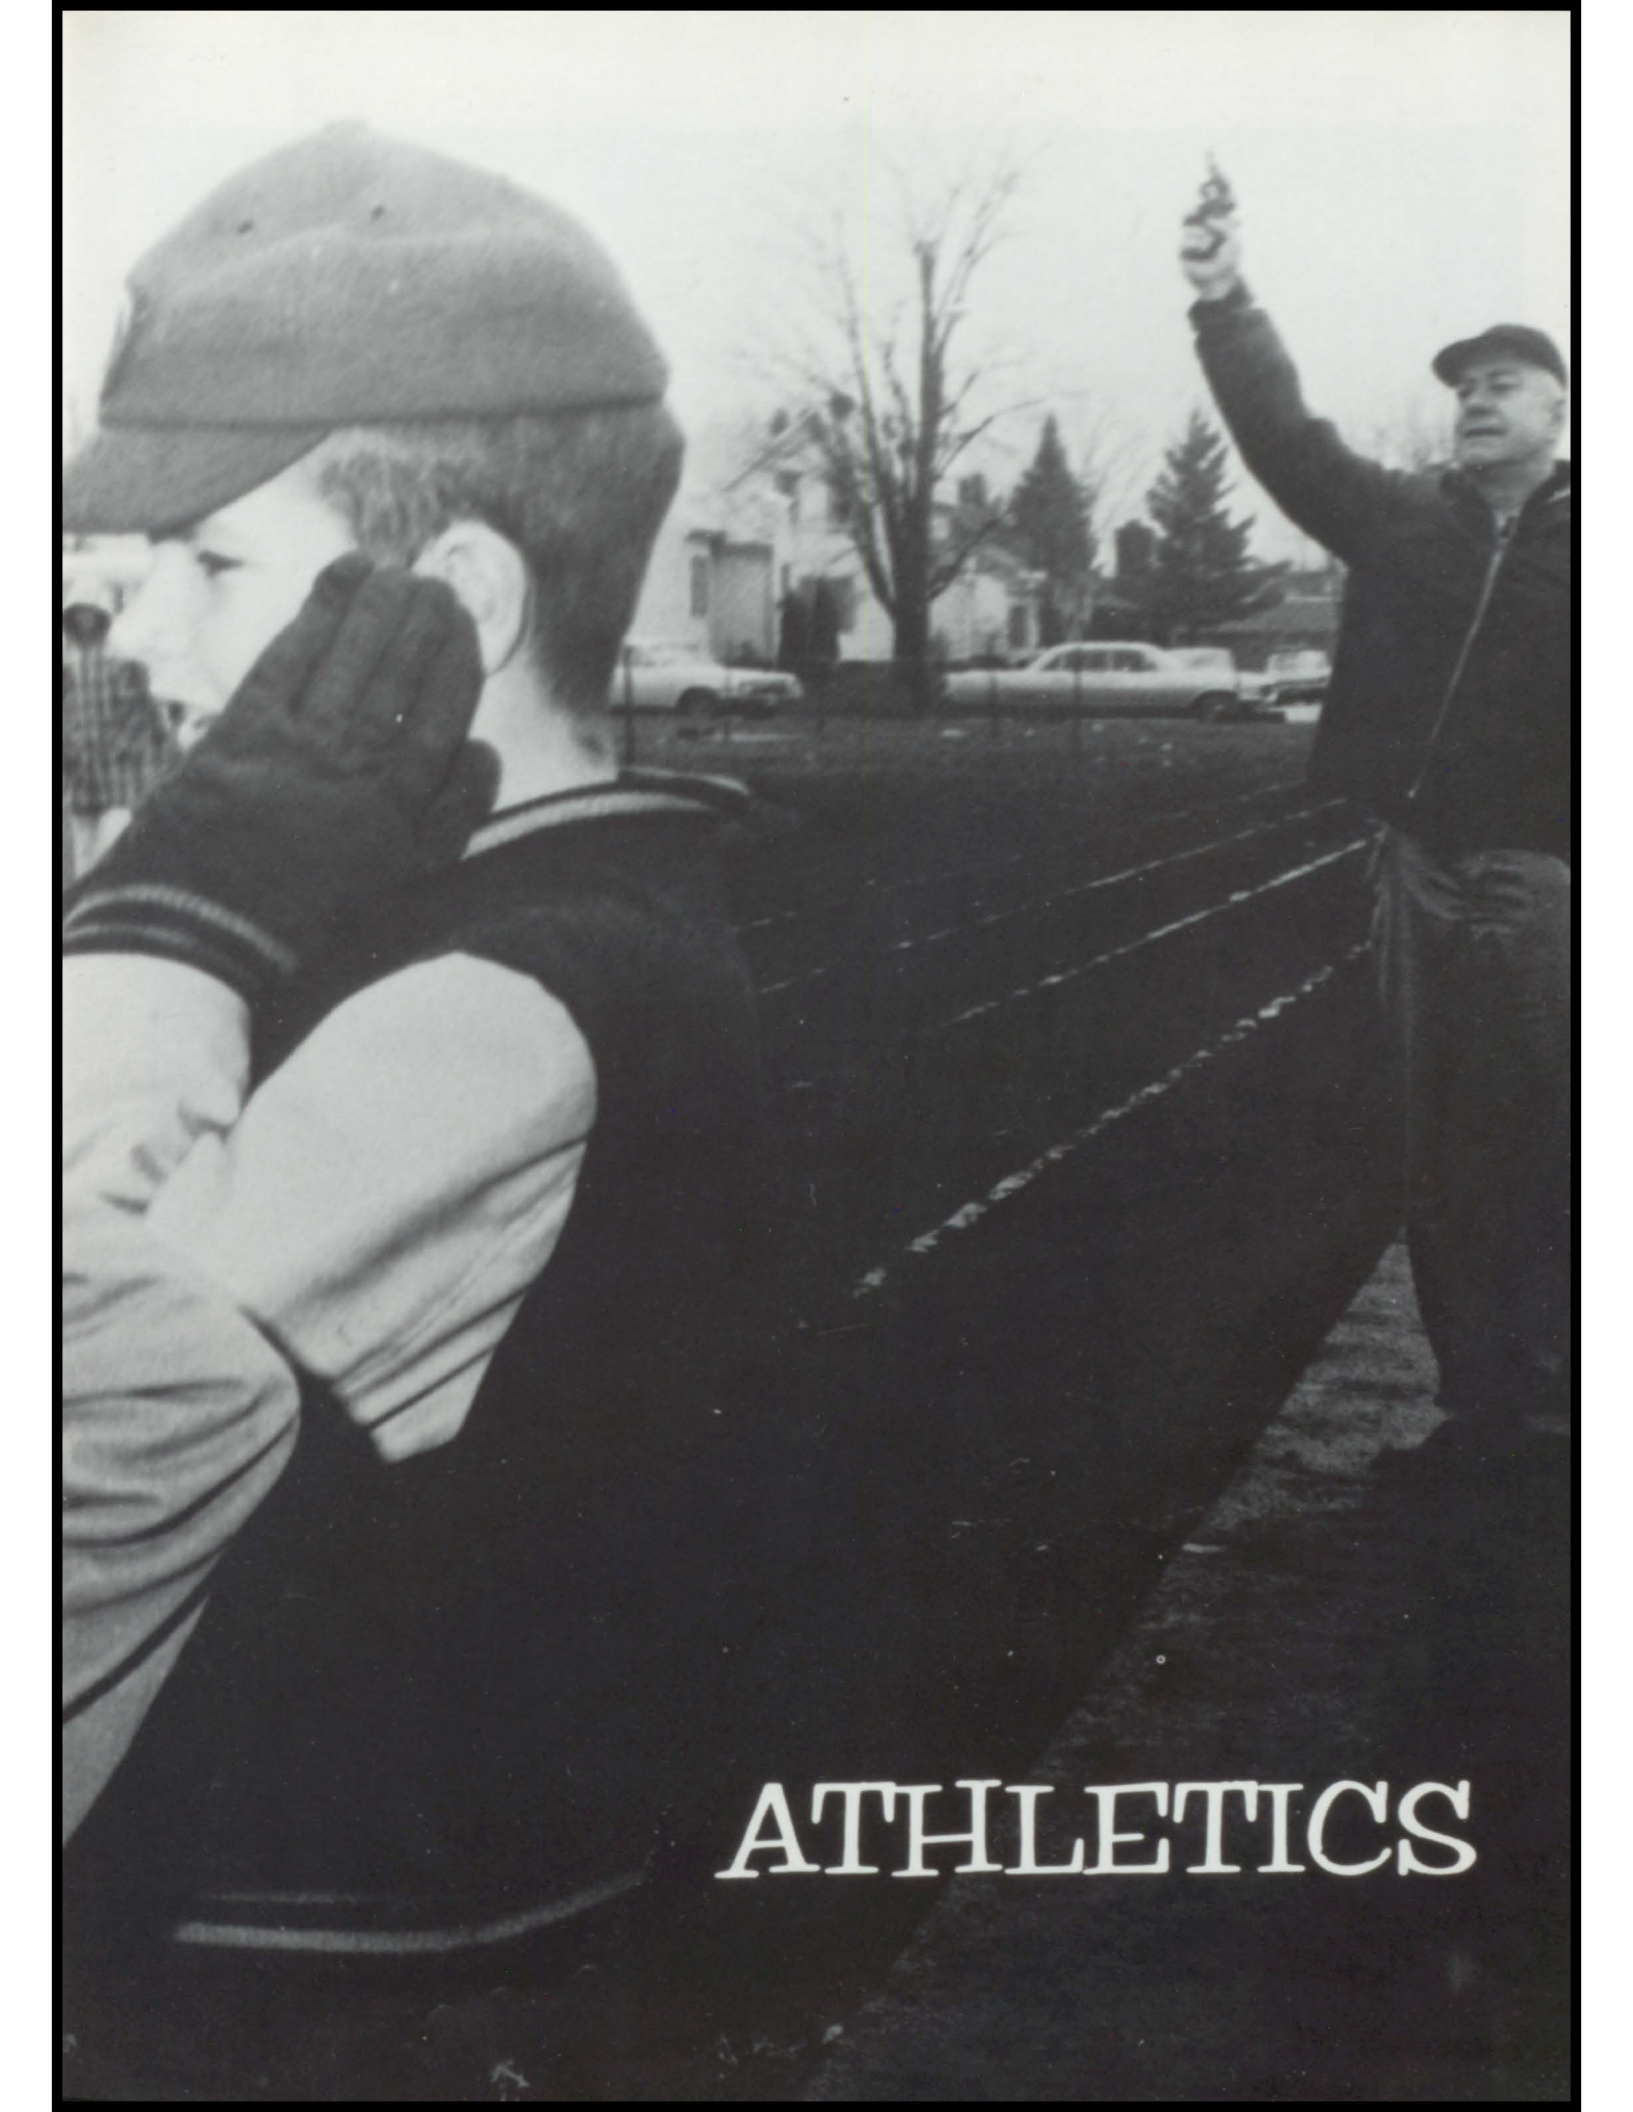

A queen's happy smile and a proud guy compose a perfect ending to a busy and exciting day for Queen Diane and her escort at the traditional Homecoming Dance.

Some mighty irregular things happened at the bonfire.

TRACK '66

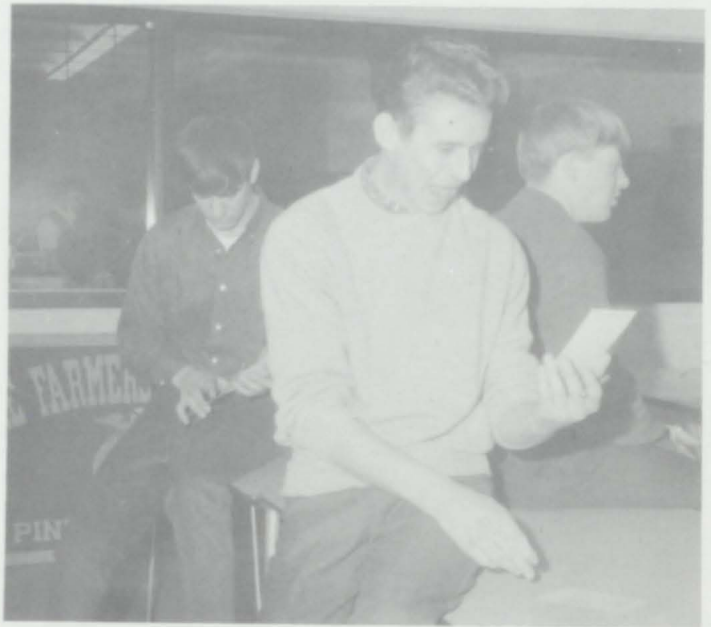

"To everything there is a season . . ."

Autumn TO May

These things you don't forget . . .

...willing faculty

guides our efforts...

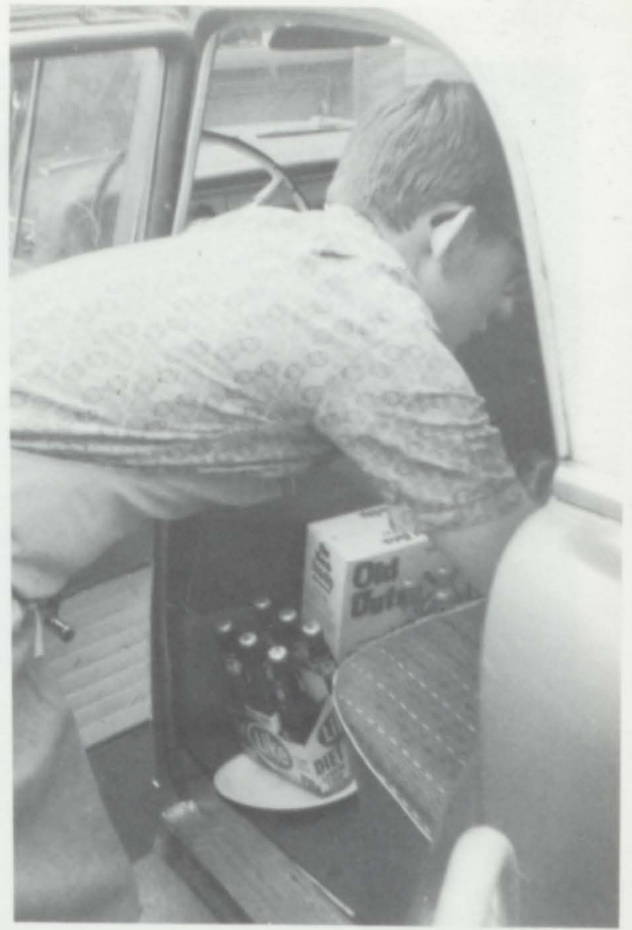

.. a time to laugh ..

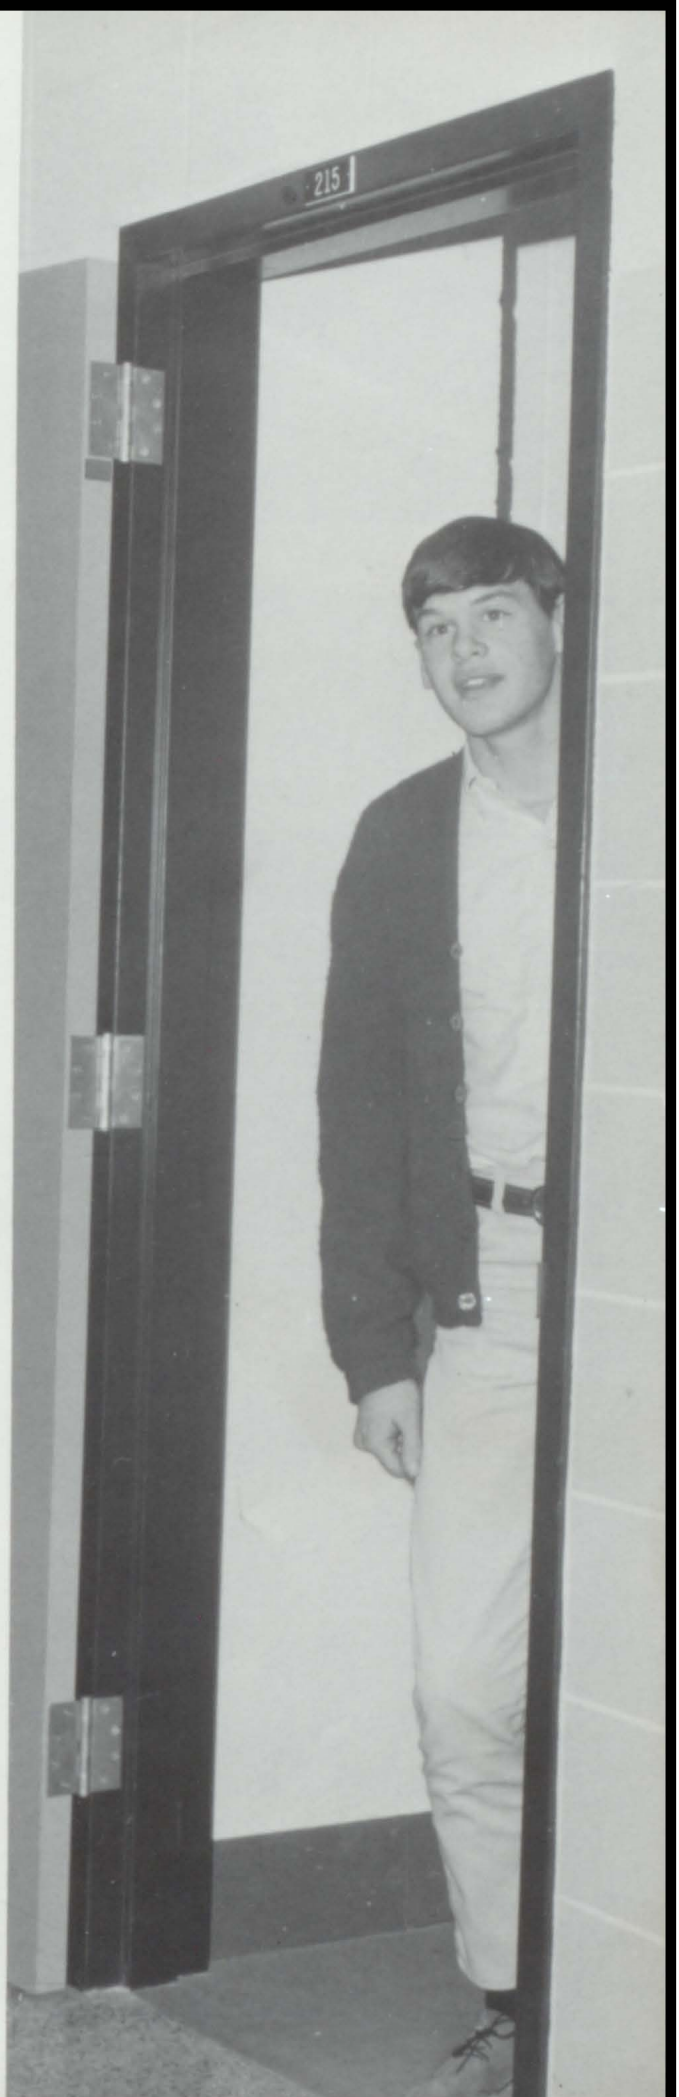

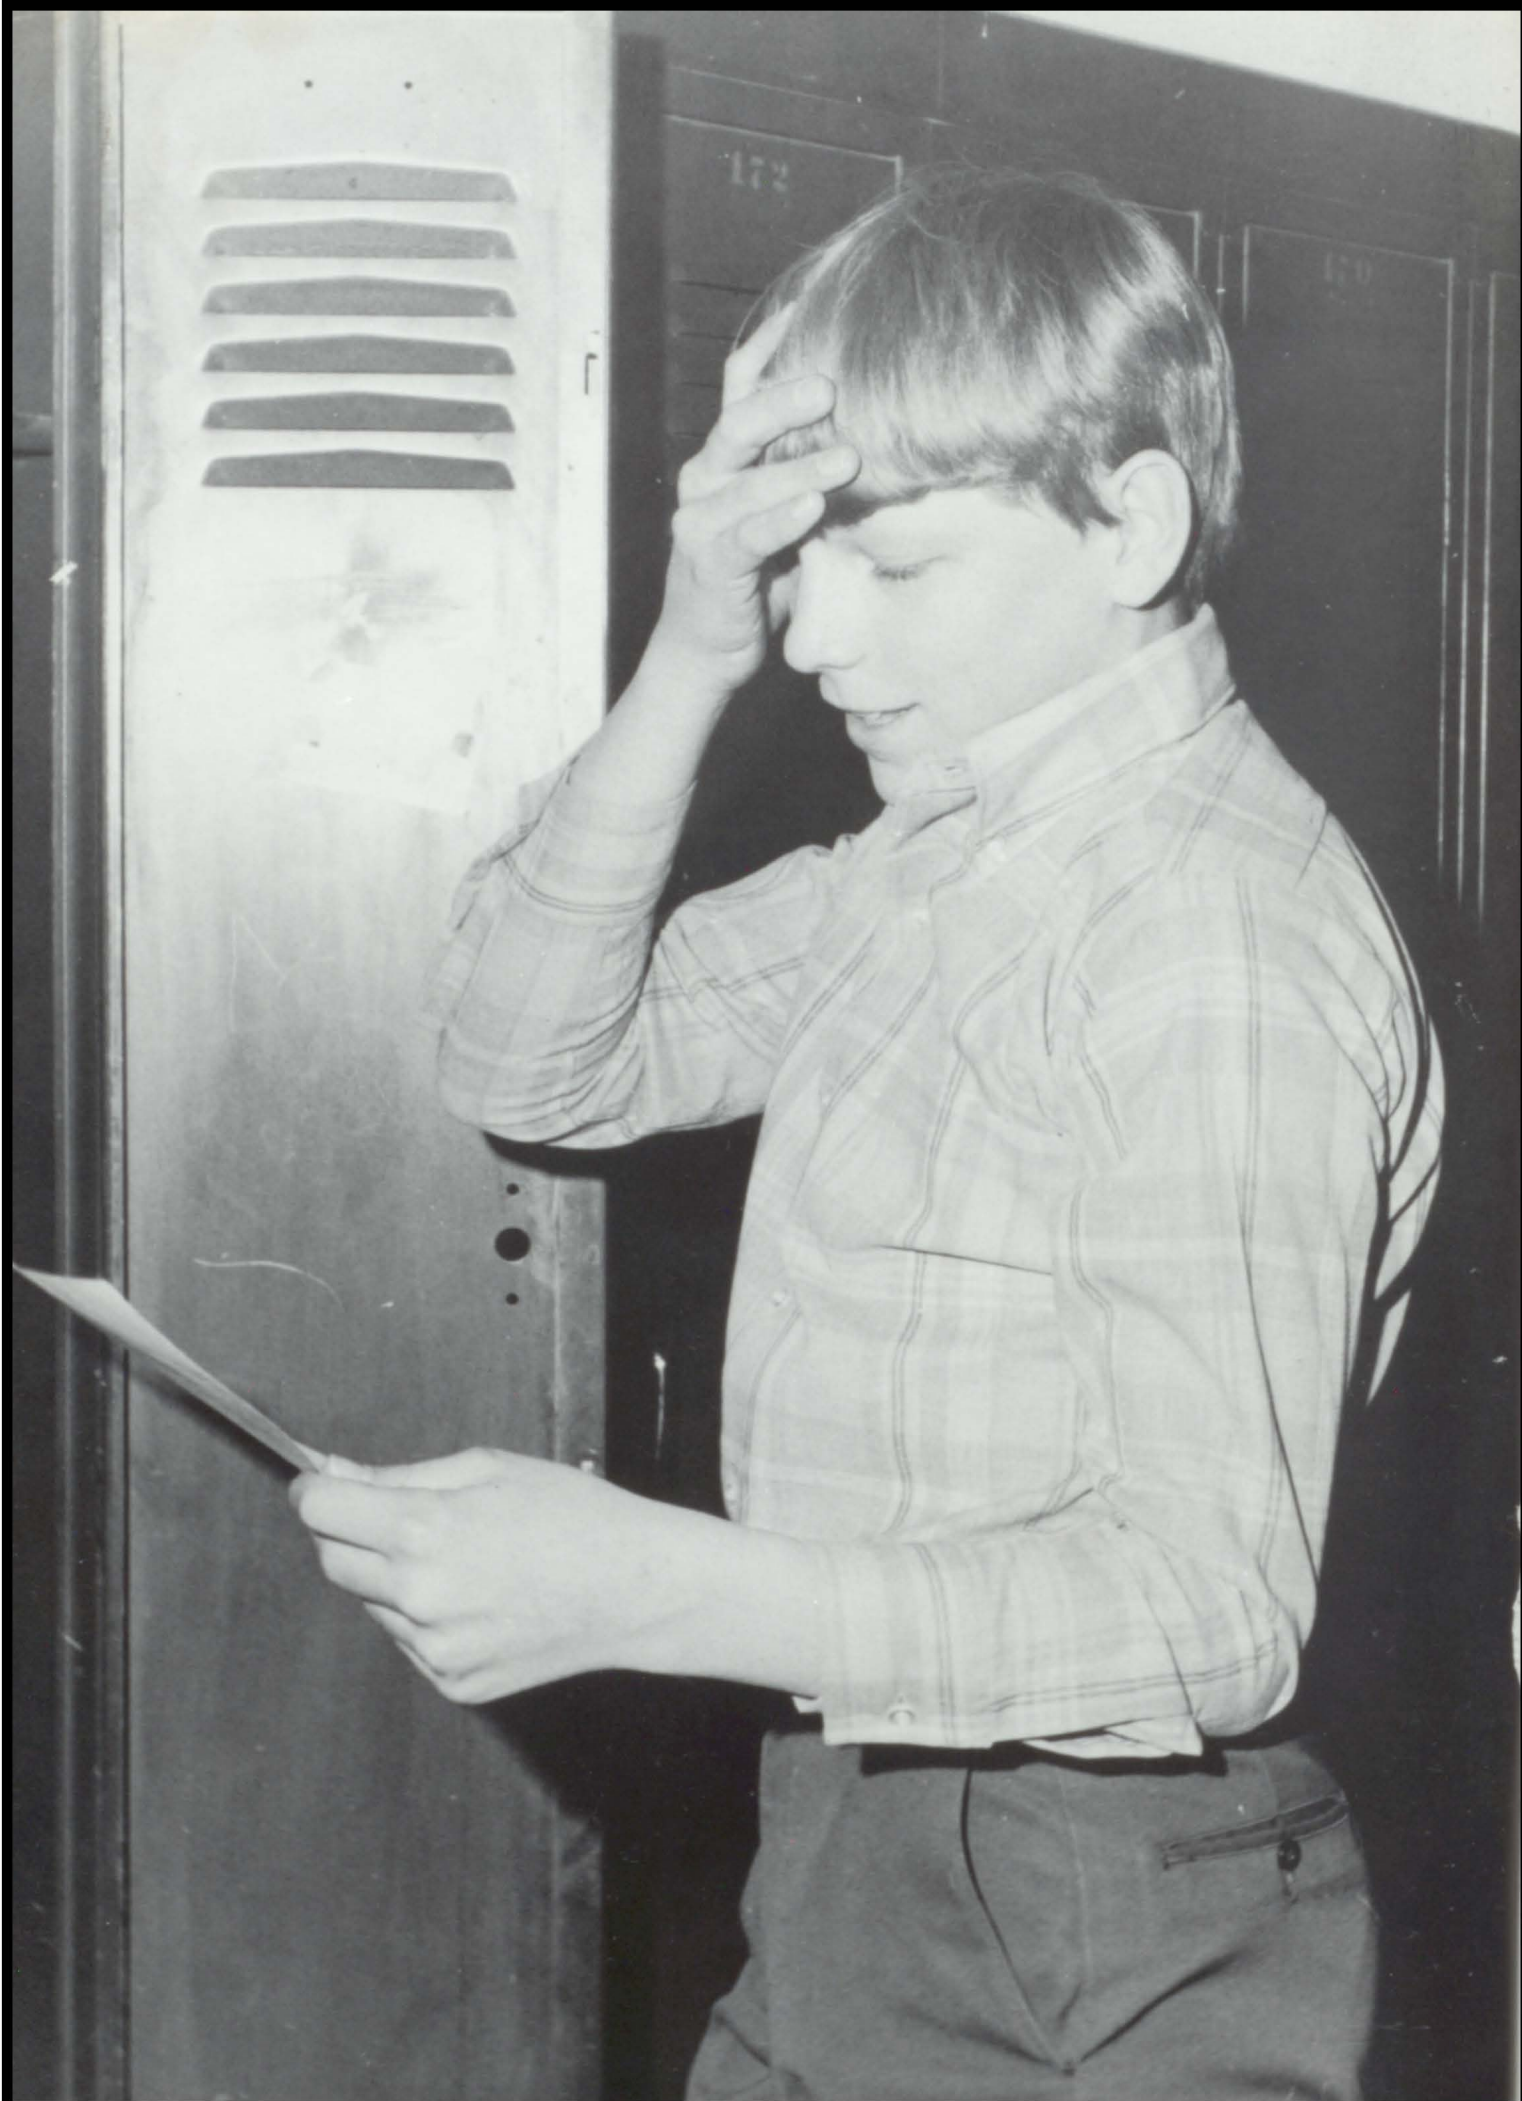

..simple joys found

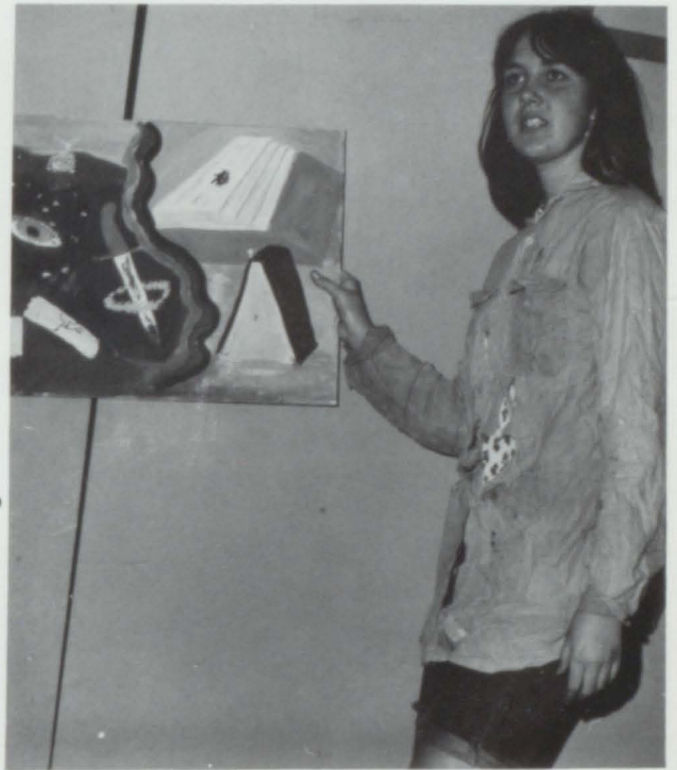

in everyday events

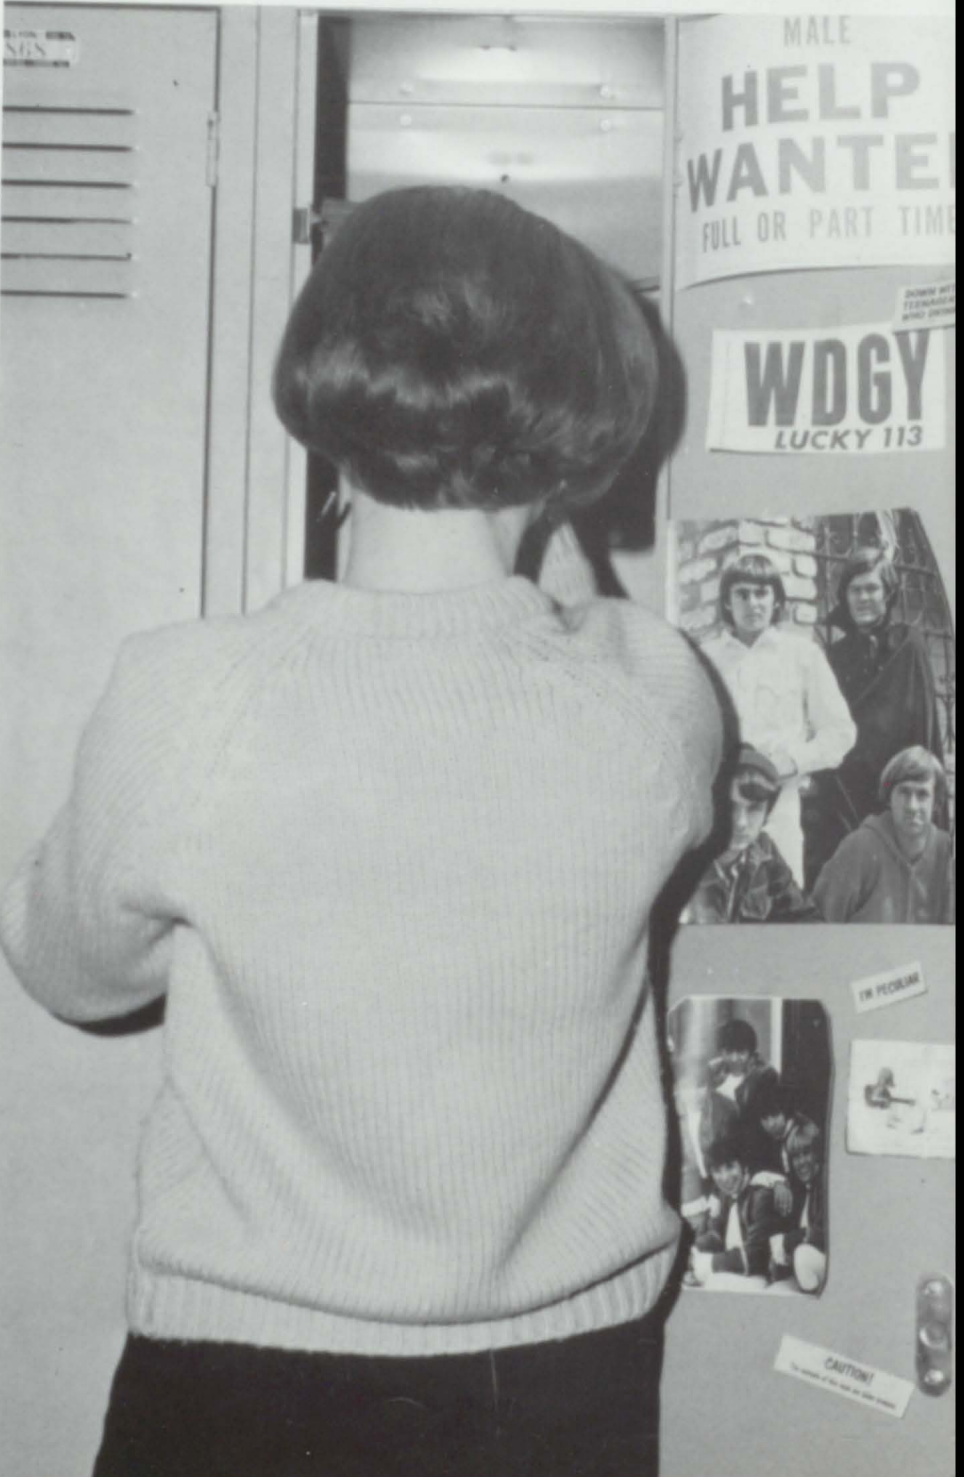

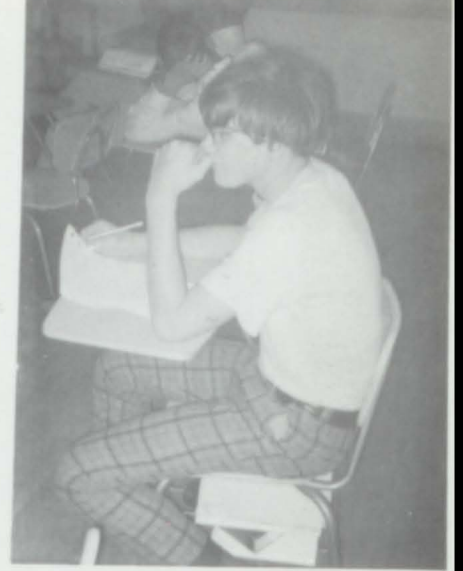

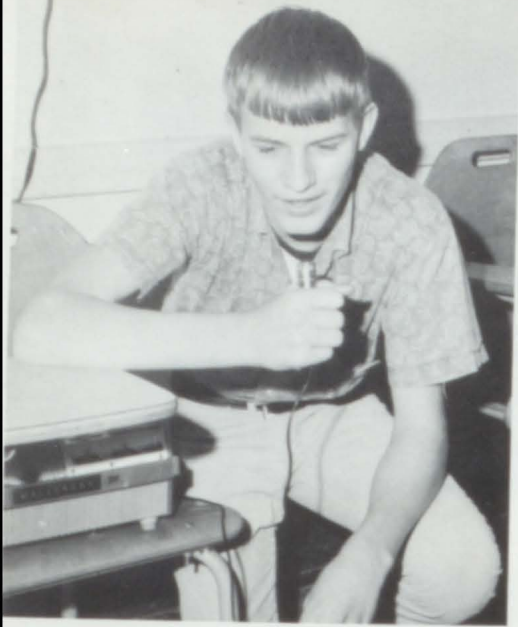

the beat goes on...

on ... on ... on ...

*For I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.*

EXIT

Our high school days are filled with memories . . . favorite teachers and cramming for tests, carved initials, assemblies, and stut-tery, stammering oral reports. Our emotions are mixed as we leave - al-though we have attained one important goal, we can't help but feel a twinge of sadness as we do everything for "the last time."

Other students will walk the halls of PCHS; other Dragons will wear the Green and White. We must go on - there are countless new things waiting to be discovered, countless new goals we must reach. We place our hopes in the future, and as we face the world and seek out every opportunity, we carry our memories of Pine City High School along with us.
