There is no way to describe how happy I felt when I heard that I was chosen to spend a year in the United States. After this I had a hard time concentrating on my final exams that all Dutch students have to take at the end of their high school. When I passed that exam, the time passed by so quick that before I knew what happened I had said goodbye to my parents, two brothers and my friends and was on my way to New York.

In New York I had the chance to meet some of the 1,000 other A. F. S. Students from all over the world that were there that day.

When I arrived on the Minneapolis airport I was both very nervous and anxious to meet my family. To make someone feel at home in a new community, New country is very difficult, but I think there is no other family that could have done this better as the Lilja's.

One thing I really had to adjust to were the temperatures here. I had no idea how 30° below felt. Now I know, and I learned to appreciate the 20° above "cold" in the Netherlands. One thing I'll miss is the big amount of snow and the fun we had with snow mobiles.

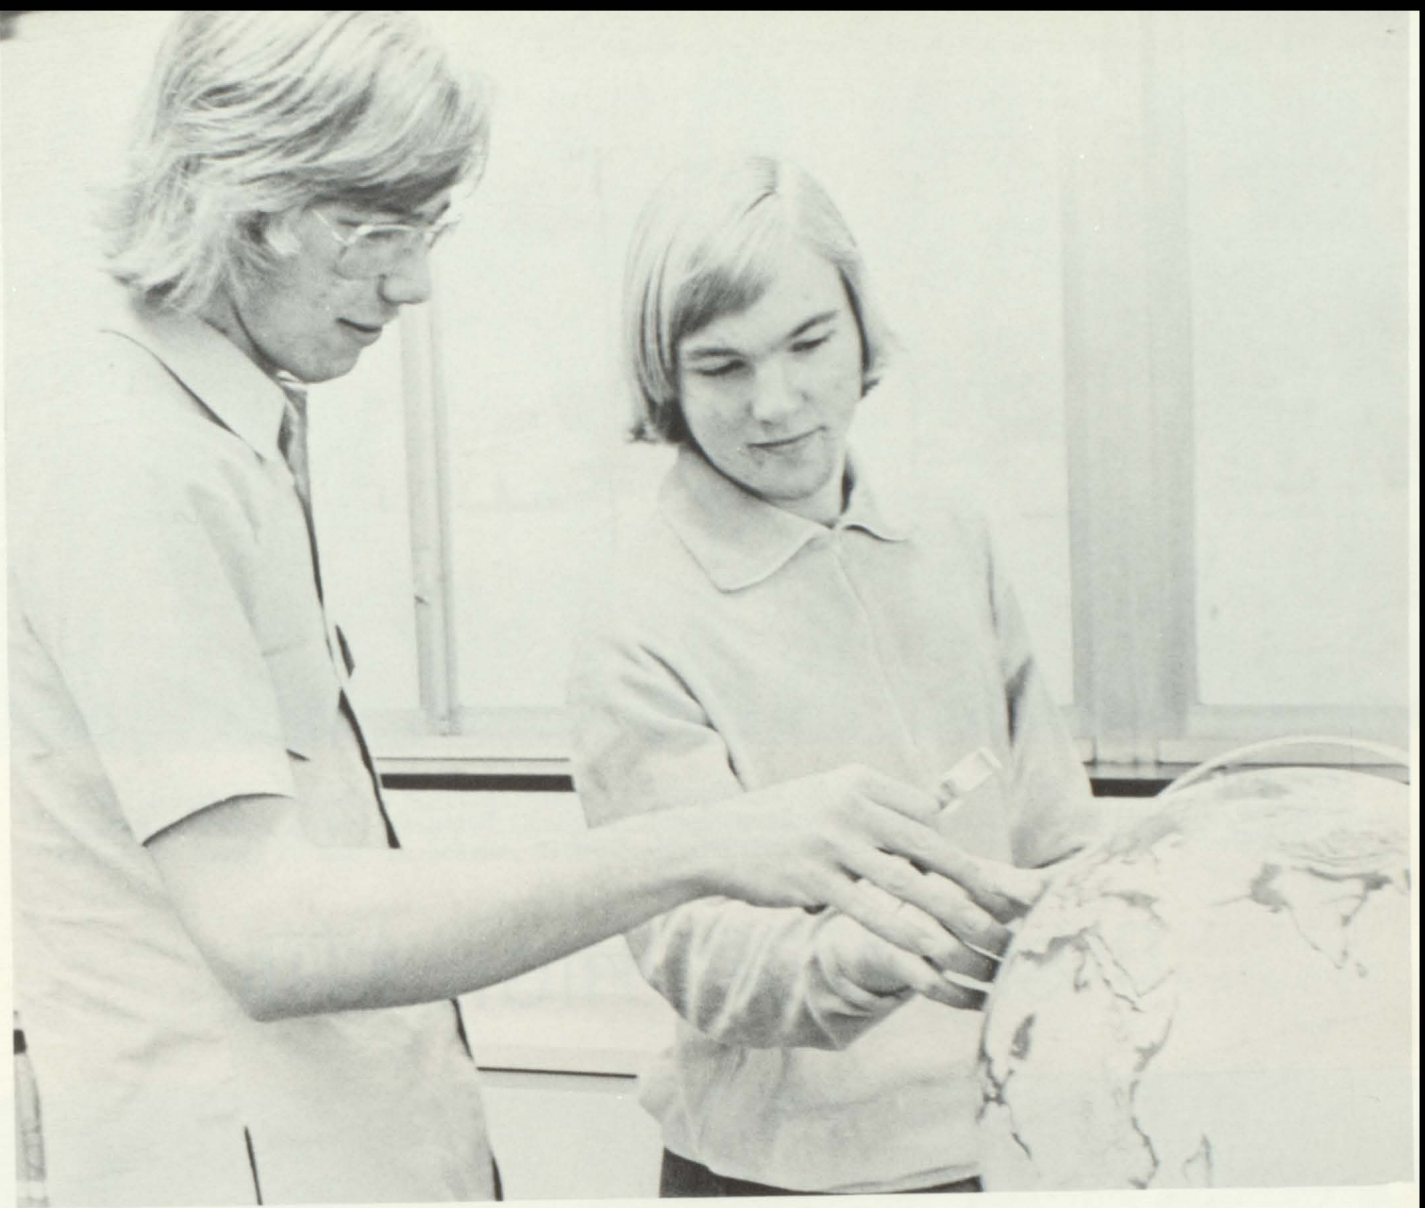

I never thought it would be that easy to make friends, good friends, but the people of PCHS, the students and the teachers are the greatest bunch of people I know.

I know it will be hard to say good bye to Pine City, to mom and Dad and Frank and to all my friends. I wish I could take them all home, but. . . anyway thanks a lot. En tot ziens, het was een enorme tijd.

The Seniors
Remembering
Jamie

James Terril Smith
1955—1972

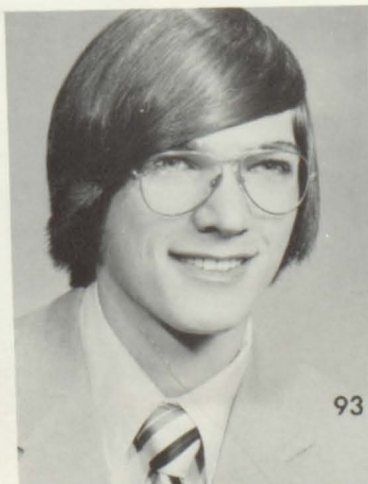

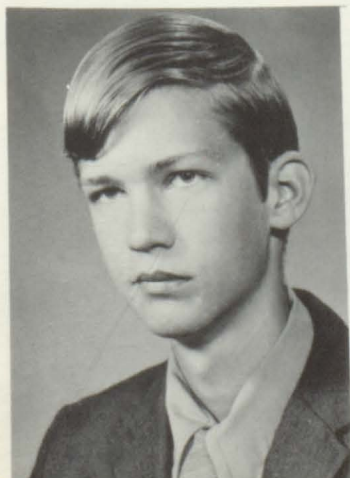

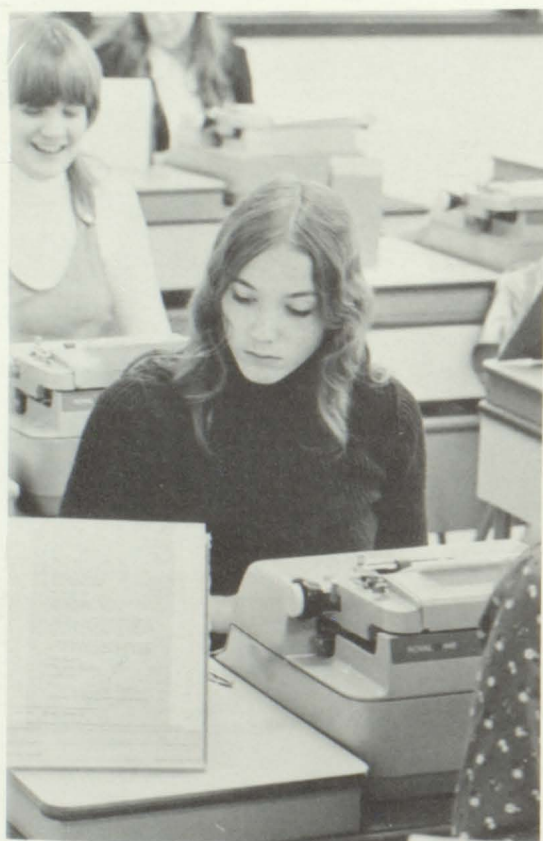

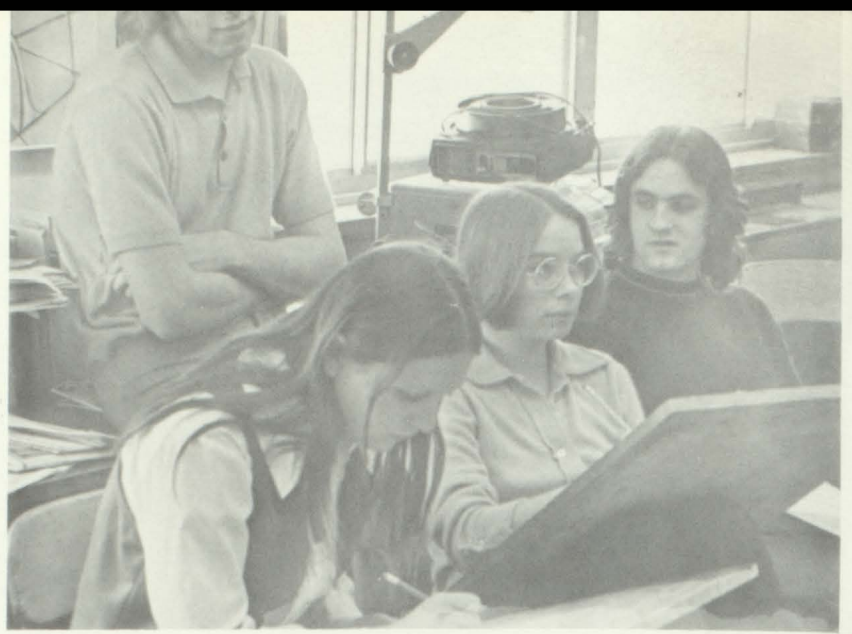

Terry Lee Lundin

Jeff Espeseth

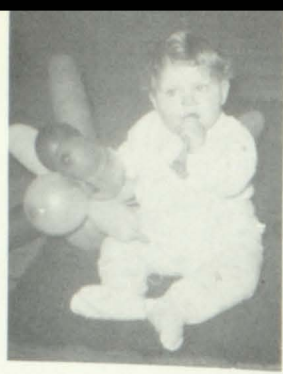

Jr. High Student Council President
Ann Romono

"Senior year

is an indescribable happening... it's a collage of feelings, people, and events... it's a state of constant fatigue, and it's a feeling of pressure and activity... it's suffering through endless hours and piles of homework, and it's also going out to paint the town red... it's starving through fourth hour and complaining when we get to the lunch room... it's so much like any other year, but so uniquely Senior

It's reading Mr. Pera's endless Newsweeks... suffering when cold air blows through the registers, or when the rooms are too hot... deciding how we could solve all the world's problems if only they'd listen to us... trying to hit all the high notes in Chorus... staying late to work on the play and the get together afterwards... it's sitting in Mrs. Gaustad's Bookkeeping class trying to find a mistake that you made in the beginning... it's flubbing an 80 word per minute timing in Steno... and being the only one in Band still playing when the rest of the Band has stopped.

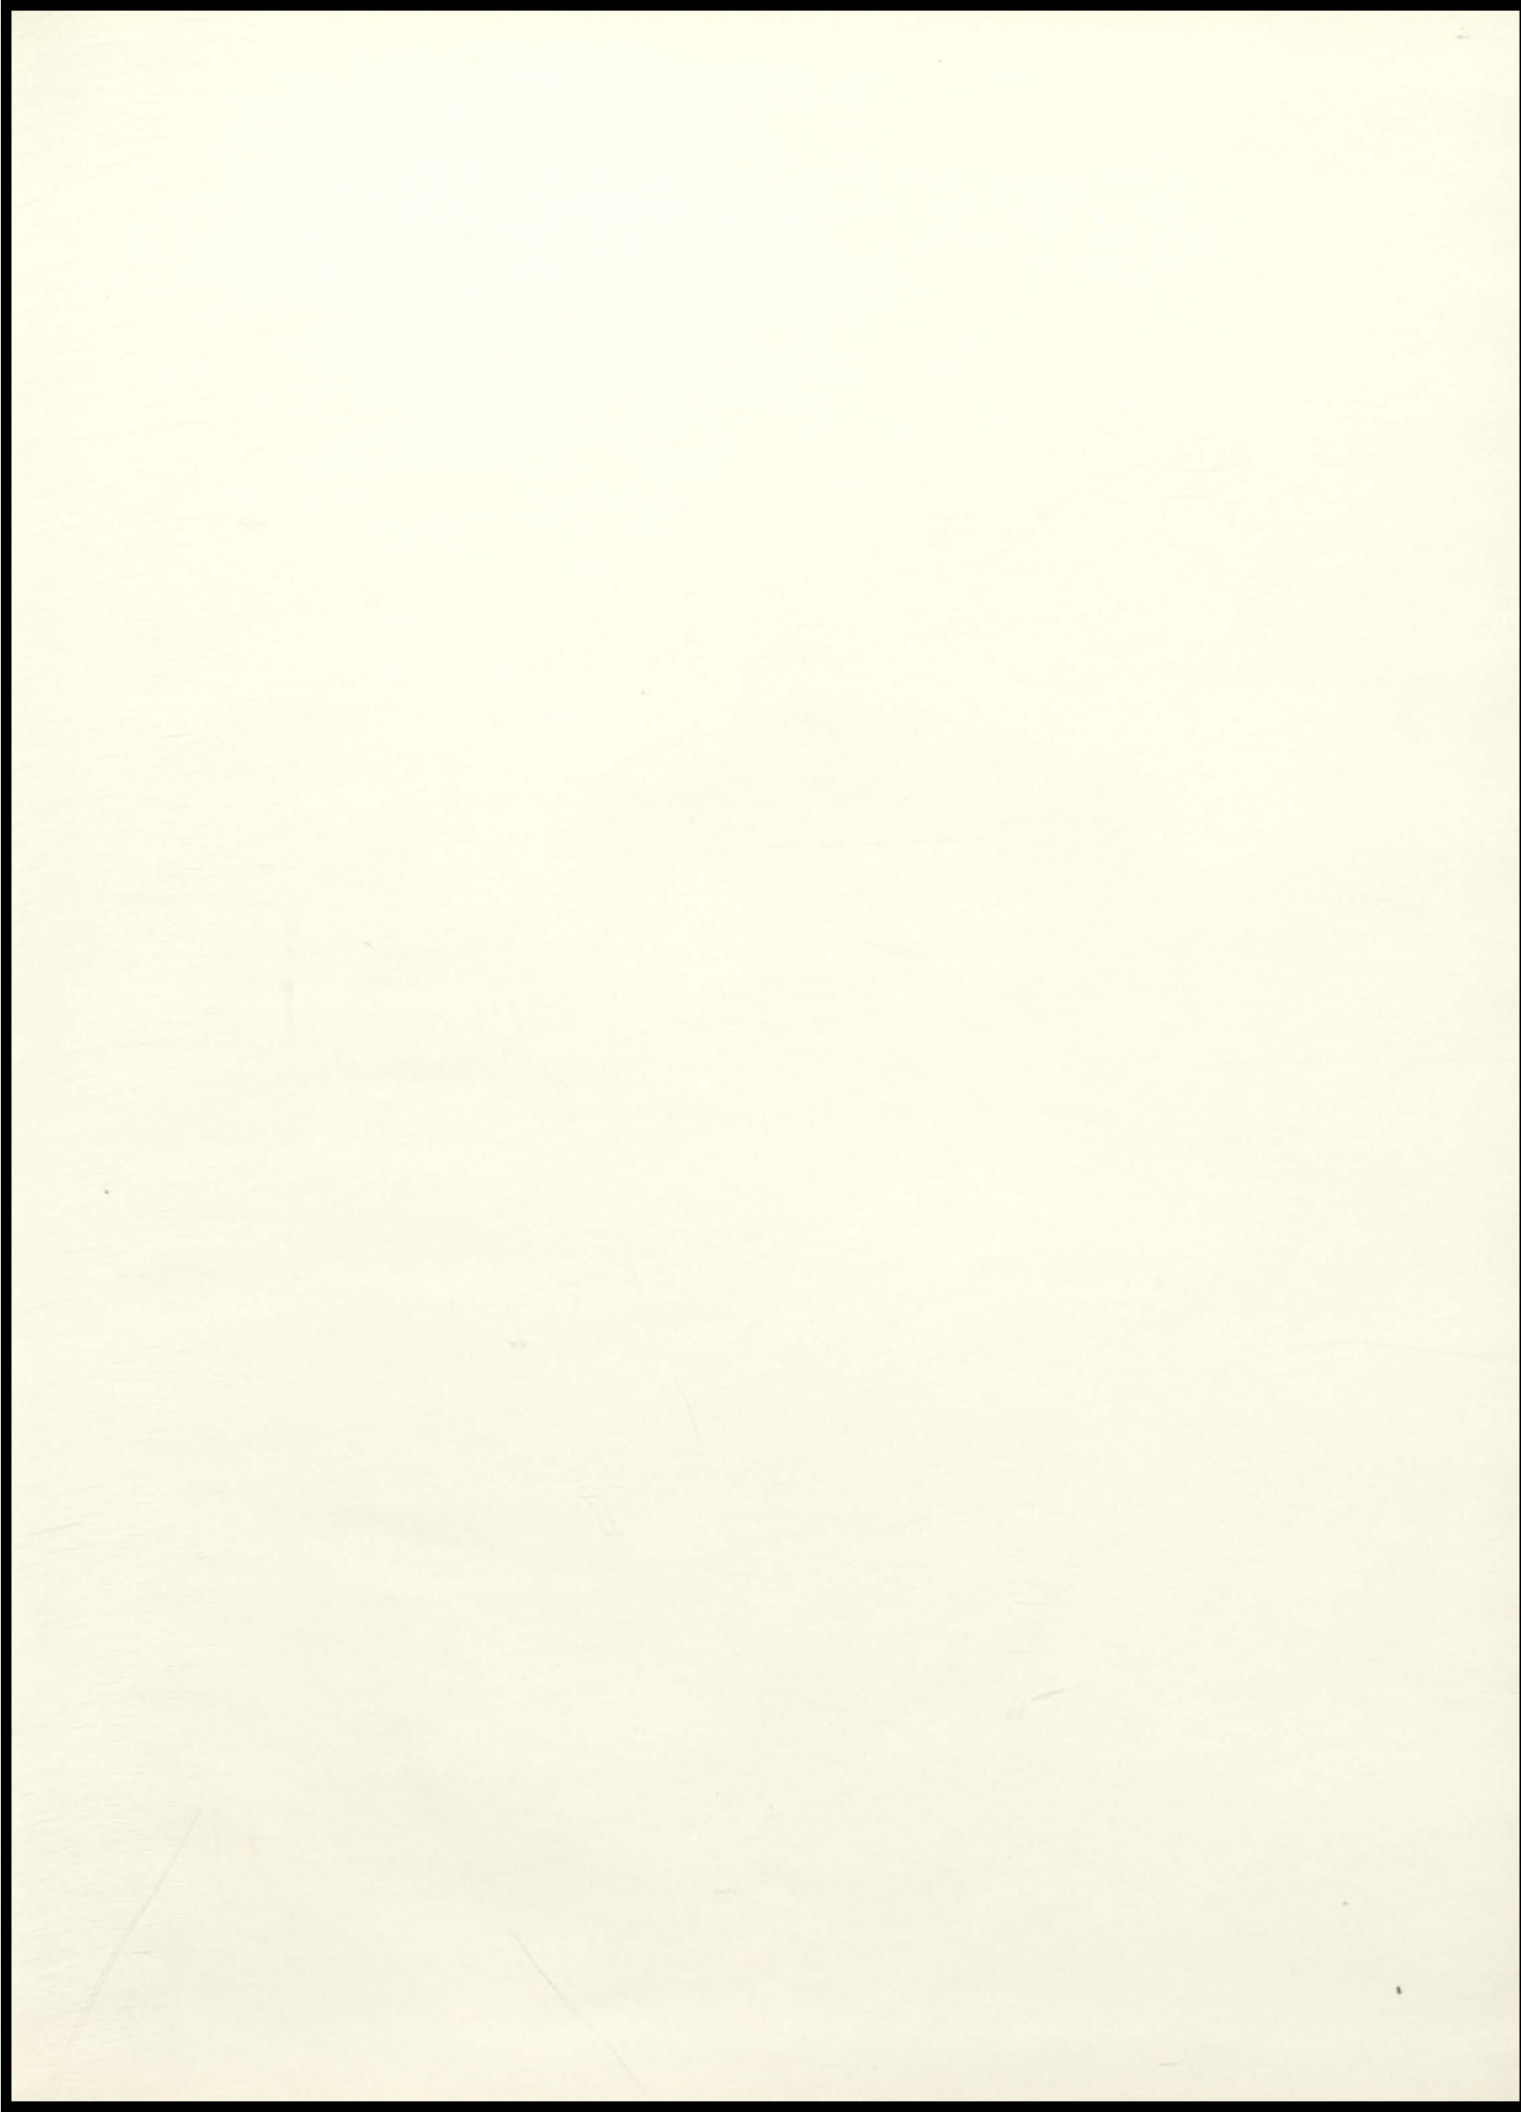

It's discovering the individuality of persons... smiling at someone you never noticed in the halls before... feeling a deep unity with other Seniors... laughing and arguing all in the same day... sharing the sorrow of Jamie's death together... pausing to look back at the pains and joys that went before, and looking to the hope of the future and a time when we'll be graduated (FREE)!... it's searching, growing, becoming... it's feeling needed or useful, it's feeling the nowness of now... it's an unmistakable attitude of beginning and ending at the same time... it's just being alive... it's being a Senior!!"
