"Who's a chow mag with feet?"

Dedication

We never know how much we love
someone until they're gone.
We don't realize their worth
until they aren't here.
We never give enough or ask enough in return
And when they're no longer
there we won't forget.
Because we never gave enough,
We'd like to dedicate our annual
to Rolanda, Kitty, and Colleen.

The Seniors of 1980

A large, dark silhouette of a person wearing a graduation cap, shown in profile facing right. The silhouette is set against a light, textured background. The top of the cap is a flat square, and the tassel hangs down. The person's face and neck are also in silhouette. The overall image has a grainy, artistic quality.

Homecoming 1979

Pam

"This Moment In Time"
October 12, 1979

"Once upon a time there was a king and queen. They had to leave town and needed a new king and queen to reign over the Homecoming festivities. Which prince and princess would they choose?"

The night before the coronation, a pep fest was held — with skits, cheers, the band playing, and pep talks.

The next afternoon was filled with excitement as Page Jeff Kukzel introduced the princes and princesses. Former Queen Beth Feist stepped forward and crowned Prince Joe Kessler as the new king. Princess Pam Carlson was crowned as the new queen.

The ceremony continued with the theme song, "This Moment In Time", being sung by Ruth Johnson and Julie Jahnz. Tom Syver-son, Master of Ceremonies, and Mr. Sloan welcomed everyone. The Concert Choir, directed by Mr. McAfee, sang "Everything's Coming Up Roses", and "Football Hero". Joan Mettling, representing the Girl's Athletic Association, presented Queen Pam with roses. Other gifts were presented by Carilee Sutton for FFA, John Thiry for Lettermen's Club, and Ben Novak for Student Council. Speeches were given by Mr. Al Wanous, Mr. Andy Rohweder, and Mr. Hamlin Nelson. Rosie Sundin played piano for the processional and recessional; music. Usherettes were Colleen Reynolds, Peggy Henderson, Karen Kozisek, Sandy Sigurdson, and Pam Povondra. Ushers were Jon Kaldahl, Ben Novak, and Craig Saari.

That evening the king and queen had a victorious reign as the Dragons defeated the Chisago Lakes Trojans 48-9. After the game, a Homecoming dance was held at the old armory, which was sponsored by the junior class. The dance ended and everyone lived happily ever after!

"Nights Are Forever Without You"

Allison: You've got to be kidding! Pat: No! Scholin really has an Amleater! Would ya look at that!

Grand March

Recognition to some of the decorators

M.C. Tom Nelson

"It's a sleeping bag."

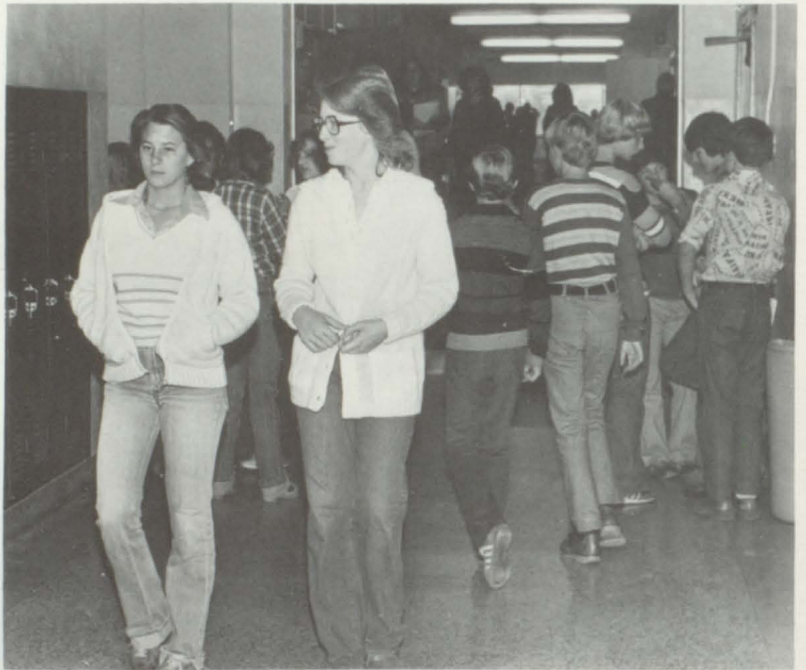

"Nights Are Forever Without You" was the theme for the 1979 prom, held at the Pine Camp Ballroom on May 11. Tom Nelson, Jr. Class President, was Master of Ceremonies. Acknowledgments went to Mr. Borschke, Mr. Scholin, and the decorating committee. Before the Grand March, Kaye Pals sang the theme song, "Nights Are Forever Without You." The dance followed, with music played by the band R & R. It was a fun night for all and it made many happy memories.

P.C.H.S.

ATHLETICS

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.

As editors of the 1980 Dragon, we would like to thank all of the people who have helped contribute to the production of this year's book. Thank you to the faculty for their patience on picture-taking days; the patrons for their financial support; and the students for helping make this yearbook possible. A very special thanks to our advisor, Mr. Jasperson, for his time and patience in helping us. We hope the 1980 Dragon will help you to remember the many great memories of this past year at PCHS!
