DEDICATION

LISA NENTL- BLOOM

We dedicate this book to you because we were your first class, and you are our favorite teacher. Thanks for being an important part in our lives. We will always remember you.

Love, the class of 1988

We've been through so much together that it's hard to remember what life was like before we knew you. Together we've shared some pretty good times, and even when times weren't so great, we always knew we could count on you for support and understanding. You've been a comforting constant in a totally unpredictable world. And though we think you already know how important you are in our lives, we could never say too many times . . .

Thank for being you, you mean the world to us!!

— Linda L. Elrod

"Cherish the past; Dream of the future" was the 1987-88 Homecoming theme. This year the excitement started out on Wednesday with the hall decorations. Students were released from their morning classes to work on these decorations. As per tradition, Coronation was held on Thursday night and the parade, pepfest, football game and dance were held on Friday.

Thursday evening was one of the great excitement when Queen Gina Magel and King T.T. Sommer were crowned. The week ended with a very tough loss at the hands of the Milaca Indians and an evening of dancing in the high school gym.
