"Lumber Jacks" Scarce This Year

That the old-time "lumberjack" is conspicuous this year by his absence from the north woods of Minnesota, that hundreds of his kind are "shacking" and other hundreds are being offered in the wages being offered in the camps of the northern country, the camps of the northern country, according to Mr. Logan. He may return to this city to pick up a return to this city to pick up a crew. "I could pick up a thousand men in the cities of Duluth and Superior tomorrow," Lappone, said Logan last night. "Most of them, however, are in no condition to go into the woods. They haven't worn clothing sufficient to permit them to go to work. It would require quite a little to outfit them. Hundreds of old-time lumberjacks are shacking this winter and other hundreds are tramping about. There are plenty of men willing to accept employment at these terms." - Virginia Enterprise.

Kerrick to Have a Bank

Arrangements are being made to open a bank of business at Kerrick about May 1. There has been a demand for a bank there for some time and its opening is no surprise to those who know the situation. This will make a total of fifteen banks in the county and about finish the claim that includes every point along the N. P. and Great Northern lines in old Pine.
The only portion of the county remaining without banking facilities of its own is the northeastern section, along the Soo line and it seems improbable that they will lack long.

Entered as second class matter at Postoffice at Pine City, Minnesota, on THURSDAY, JAN. 28, 1915.

The howl that has gone up in every county of the state over "high taxes" bids fair to bear this fruit: to cost Pine county, for its stance, a good share of the more than $15,000 it got back from the state over what it paid to the state in the shape of taxes last year. A lot of the people of St. Louis county are awakening to the fact that they are paying the state about $1,500,000 a year more than they get from it and the same thing is true of Hennepin and Ramsey counties. And now Blue Earth county in the extreme southern part of the state is discovering that it pays more than it gets. Again we remark that, with a lot of people, a change means progress. Some people can only learn by hard experience.

Many of our exchanges in this and Chisago counties either plainly state or infer that Hon. Adolph S. Larson's bill allowing county commissioners to change the name of a county on petition of 20 per cent of the voters "calls for" changing the name of Pine county to Clover county. It does not. We haven't found any sentiment in the county in favor of the change and we haven't a suspicion that the name of our county will be changed, even should the bill become a law. We believe Mr. Larson is on the wrong course in this—but he's entitled to fair treatment.

Down in Illinois, where they don't give any bible teaching in the public schools, they are trying the experiment of giving the children certain hours off each week to attend their own church schools. It might not be a bad plan in Minnesota. Religion may not always make a crooked man honest, but we never knew it to make an honest man crooked.

Teachers' Retirement Fund

Prepared under the direction of Atty. E. T. Young, by the Teachers' Minnesota Educational Association co-operating with the General Legislative Committee:
1. The bill provides for a flat rate for all teachers, principals and supervisors in all the public schools of the state, and in all educational, charitable or correctional institutions supported in whole or in part by the state. The annuity is the same for rural school teachers as for any and all others.
2. Teachers now in the service have until Sept. 1, 1917, to decide as to whether or not they desire to become members of the fund association.

3. The bill does not apply in any way to cities having a population of more than 75,000. These cities already maintain their own retirement fund and are therefore made exempt from the proposed tax of one-tenth of one mill.

4. The legislatures of twenty-six states have endorsed the Teachers' Retirement Fund idea in one form or another. Three states furnish all of the fund, but the most prevalent plan is to have the teachers furnish a large part of the fund and the state and private philanthropists the balance. The Wisconsin law is of the latter type.

5. Teachers are employed for only five to nine months of the year and their average annual salary is $485, while that of the common laborer is $513, factory workers $550, coal miners $600, carpenters $802. The average expense account for nine months for a teacher is about $425. This leaves a margin of $60 to cover expenses during the summer vacation and for self improvement.

6. Such a law will help to make the great teaching body of Minnesota more secure, more efficient and more serviceable to the thousands of communities in which they work. It will give boards of education an honorable way to retire faithful teachers who have served their time.

7. The Minnesota Educational Association, 6,000 strong, adopted a resolution, without a dissenting appendix, endorsing the bill. The teachers and the 10,000 other teachers in Minnesota will appreciate your

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is." A temperance sermon will be preached in the evening, and you are invited to be present.

The prayer-meeting of the church held every Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. All members of the church are expected to be present. Everyone invited.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper will be held in the church one week from next Sunday, Feb. 7th, at 11 o'clock. Anyone wishing to unite with the church either on profession of faith or by letter will please communicate their desire to the Pastor.

On Friday of last week Dr. Marquis, representing the Presbyterian United Movement in eight of the central states, met with the pastors and officers of the churches of the southern end of Duluth Presbytery. The conference proved a profitable one and will be an aid in the financial part of church work. The churches of Hinckley, Sandstone and Pine City were represented.

On Friday evening Rev. Wm. Bell of the Mesaba and Vermilion Iron Ranges gave us a very interesting Stereopticon talk upon doing for the foreign speaking peoples there under the direction of our Board of Home Missions. The views shown were excellent and there should have been a large audience to appreciate the address.

Another social evening was enjoyed by the Knights of Pythians and their ladies and friends at their hall last evening. There were over seventy present. They presented a fine program and a delicious lunch for their guests and all pronounced it one of the pleasantest evenings enjoyed there for some time and are looking forward to the next occasion.

Word from Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Boyle brings the news of the death of Mr. Boyle's mother last Monday at her home at Rodney, Ont. She has been ailing for some time but was not considered dangerously ill and the Boyles were intending leaving for their return trip home last Tuesday. They will be detained now until next week. They have the sympathy of all home friends in their bereavement.

Manager Frank Smith of the Smith Hardware Co. believes in improvement and purchased the old fixtures of the Pine City State Bank, which he installed in the rear end of the store "annex", giving him one of the neatest store offices to be found anywhere in this region.

The dance in the Armory this week Saturday evening will be under Militia auspices and that means it will be a fine one. The excellent Remlin's Harp orchestra from Red Wing will furnish the music and many who have danced to their music report that there is none better.

Charles Nasin of Thief River Falls was in town last Saturday and old friends were all glad to see him. He was attending the Lumbermen's convention at Minneapolis but found time to run up here. He reports his mother's health about the same and said that Mr. Hay is very much improved which is good news to our people.

A. T. Yonke of Sheridan, who has been visiting at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. Borchers, left last Friday, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Vera Borchers, to Minneapolis, where she remained until Sunday. Mr. Yonke went on to Columbus, Wis., to visit his folks and intends returning home via New York, New Orleans and California points.

"The Play Singers" at Stekl's hall this week Saturday evening, will be one of the best of the excellent entertainment course that is given here this winter. The four young ladies play, sing and recite delightfully and their appearance should draw a large crowd. Everyone is urged to go early as it is desired to have the entertainment begin promptly at eight o'clock, so as to close in time for those desiring to attend the dance afterward plenty of time.

Our readers are urged to read the ads in The Piker if they would save money. A couple of weeks ago one of our advertisers offered a certain article of common consumption at just one-third of the special cut price that he intended to name, making the price quoted about one-fifth of the regular selling price. If you had noticed the price you would have saved about 75 cents on an article that you are buying most every week. It pays to read Piker ads.

The state furniture dealers' annual meeting program is out and shows our townspeople, the Pipers, billing a prominent place in this important trade organization.
