RHINE OFFICIALS

"Disobedience" Charged to German Authorities in Formal Accusation.

Essen—Large numbers of German officials were ordered deported from the Rhineland by the French military authorities. The formal accusation against the Germans was "disobedience," but the real reason for their expulsion was their obduracy in refusing to obey the orders of the French government to the original suggestion came from the formation.

The French are annoyed and angry when they hear from their leaders in Düsseldorf, but it is understood that the original suggestion came from the French general staff at Paris.

The French are annoyed and angry over the failure of their policy to produce material results. Practically no coal is being obtained, and there are growing destruction properties increasing and the passive resistance of German civilians becomes a bigger problem every day.

Greeks of 1923 Class Ordered to Prepare for Call to Colors
London—Interest in the near east situation, revived by the delicate state of affairs at Lausanne, was intensified here by a Times dispatch from Constantinople reporting an economic conference of Mustafa Kemal Pasha from Smyrna for Ankara amid such demonstrations as usually take place before the outbreak of war.

The Turkish nationalist leader is reported to have visited the graves of his father and mother where he swore that he would rather join her in death than allow the sovereignty of the Turkish people to be imperiled.

The Greek minister at Berna, through the newspapers, has notified Greeks of the class of 1923 to hold themselves in readiness for a call to the colors. He said there would be no exemptions.

Toboggan Slide On Cross Lake

Pine City now has a first class toboggan slide with about a half mile run on the ice out on the lake. The slide, is located near the bath house and is for the use of the public, both old and young.

Dr. Olsen, chairman of the committee appointed at the last Pine City Development Association meeting to provide winter sports for the public held a meeting in the club rooms last Sunday afternoon, this was attended by about thirty of the young folks, in addition to the committee.

Owing to the lateness of the season, it was decided to just make the slide this year. Under the supervision of Phil Slesky and with the help of a couple of men and a number of young boys, the slide was cleared on the bank the first of the week and the lake is being used today. It is a fine place for a party for old and young. It is exhilarating sport, as well as very healthy sport. Get out your toboggan or sled and try it out some night. The development association wants it thoroughly understood that the slide is for the whole community and country folks are invited to make free use of it.

County Printing in Court

Judge Seales conducted special court here on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday of this week at the hearing of the county printing award, made by the board of county commissioners.

The hearing of the case was completed yesterday afternoon, but it will be day or two before the judge will be ready with his decision.

Flapper Band
Makes Big Hit

The Legion benefit show at the Family theatre last evening, drew a capacity house, and the large crowd left for home after one of the heartiest laughs enjoyed for some time.

The entertainment, and the big laugh—or succession of big laughs—really started when the curtain went up and revealed the flapper band, which lived up to the advance notices, and then some.

At the view of the band broto on the audience and the eyes swept over the beautiful damsels, there was a moment of hushed silence, and then a spontaneous burst of laughter that grew in volume, as the picture of the varied and assorted roles and plump figures of the musicians were registered.

There were flappers galore! Dainty, they flappers and young lappers, skinny flappers and fat flappers, nifty flappers and dandy flappers. As a real flapper would have said, they were, the candy, and keen stuff.

Leader Duffee made a "buxom look" flapper at least from the rear of the band with his back to the audience. This position was most imperative as he hadn't had a shave for a week. He made a fine motherly, substantial, proud-looking dame that would make a good wife for most any down trodden man. Of course he had his skin on wrong side to, as the pockets were in the back, but that was all right as he had his back to the audience.

Starting at the left, the eye encompassed a cross between a scrawny and a Russian. Below that looked like the end of a hard winter. A second look revealed this personage as George Staacke. He may have been a flapper once, but he or it had flapped his last flap many moons ago.

Next in line, was Lawrence Threinen dressed in a plaid skirt. There may be Scotch flappers, but they have to be full of Scotch. Lawrence had a sidekick, a French flapper. His sidekick, Eric Larson had a woe-be-one look as if he had just come over and wondered what it was all about. Clever was the young flapper, with her wiles and green bloomers peering out below his skirt. Naughtily.

Judge Wilcox was a healthy, well looking flapper. Attired in a simple black dress, he kind of mothered the youngsters and leads a dignified chaparral. Dewey Gottry had all the eye make up and wild young thing had had trouble getting his dress down to pass the stern inspection of the chaperone.

Then came the flappers. It really made you hold your breath. Old Spick and Young Spick. They were the "tomcat whiskers" and were keen stuff. Old Spick looked like the wreck of the Heppner, and Young Spick looked like the wreck of the wreck. Mr. Spickler made the "supreme sacrifice" as he shaved off his moustache for the occasion, but it didn't improve his an old battle scar that had been victorious in many a heated argument.

My Goodness! Who is that innocent looking girl, Dewey Wilcox, step to the front. You little devil, don't you fit with me. Girls want to be cute. Too bad he is married. And then Jim Hawley was sure the "cat's yimbow." Jimmy you rascal, you're dress was too short. And he had head flapper legs. Fat but nice.

much too young and innocent for that crowd and you shake a wicked hip. Stewart did mama know you were going out with those girls, be careful and go home early. Frank had a week hospital look. The girls look wild drunk, but they wasn't. Poor Frank forgot to bring his stockings, and was horror struck when told he had to appear, stockings or no stockings. One flapper took compassion on him and wound a leg around his pant legs. He looked all right, but he felt uncomfortable.

But speaking seriously, it is a real band. They play fine, and the conductor Duffee and his organization are to be congratulated. In addition to their make-up, their concert was greatly enjoyed and is a credit to the town. The Legion committee and the feature were both good, and both were laugh producers. The movie orchestra, under the leadership of Otto Sobeloff, also contributed toward the success of the evening's program.

We predicted the first of the year that Wm. Challenor would make a live-wire commander for the Legion and he has not only done so, but we congratulate him. The post and the officers are right back of him and there will be things doing this year.

Pine City High Will Play Mora

The Pine City high school basketball team and the Mora high school will meet at the arena in Pine City on Friday evening of this week. Both teams are out to win. The game will be an advantage. Mora is going to be a hummer for the beginning to end. The boys need your support as we are on hand for the opening.

In a game played with alternate teams and hopes of the local basketball constituency, the high school team bowed in defeat to the Forest Lake school unit, scored 47 to 12. Friday night in the armory. The first half of the game finished with the Pine City boys on the negative end of a 10 to 1 tally. The first half showed marked improvement on the part of the local team, the line-up being one with Eric Wilcox and Weinberger playing the forward positions. Eleven counters were captured by the locals in this half, and that was until the closing minutes when the game was definitely lost. Wilcox and Weinberger were the outstanding figures in the Pine City team; Tracy did the largest share of the scoring for Forest Lake, making 14 points for his side.

Attend Funeral

Funeral services for Frank J. Fremel were held at Hinkley, last Thursday. Rev. Wilson officiated. Short services were held at the home of his parents, and from the Episcopal church in Hinkley. Interment was made in Rosehill cemetery where the remains were laid to rest beside those of his brother Albert, who was buried there January 20, 1921, just two years ago the date of Frank's death.

Members of the Hinkley and Pine City Legion posts attended the funeral. The deceased was a member of the Hinkley post. The remains were borne to their last resting place by former comrades of the Third Division, of which the deceased was a member. They were Julius Wilhelm, Albert Oman, Joe Kunesch, Art Hoffman, Dewey Wilcox and Wm. Korbel, all members of the local post.

A color sound and firing squad from the Hinkley post, and the color squad from the Pine City post took part in the last sad rites. As their departed friend and comrade was lowered to his last place of rest, the band was given by the firing squad and tape command by Joe Duffee of Pine City.

Frank J. Fremel was born in Sae county, Iowa, 35 years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Fremel. He accompanied his parents to Hinkley about 22 years ago, when they settled on the farm where they now reside, 4 miles south of town. He grew to manhood in that community and attended the schools there. When the local naval militia left for Philadelphia in April, 1917, he was a member of the company. He was on the U. S. S. Massachusetts for awhile and also saw service on other ships. He received his discharge at Brooklyn in November 1919, when he returned home and remained there over the winter. In the spring he went to work for the union depot company in St. Paul and was still employed there at the time of his death.

He had undergone two operations for internal troubles, and while not in the best of health, he was able to do his work alright. He was operated on the third time at the Mounds Park hospital on January 20th, where he had been for about a week. Death occurred on January 22 at 7 a.m. His parents were sent for and arrived a few minutes before the end came.

He leaves behind his parents, two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Shanda of Alberta and Mrs. N. B. Lewis of Iowa, and one brother, Jos. A., who has been working with him at the depot since last fall.

His death came as a severe shock to his many friends who extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Announcement

The Eastern Minnesota Power Company have not pushed the sale of Electric Ranges heretofore for the reason that we wanted to make sure of their practicability before offering them for universal use.
 We have had a number of ranges in use on our lines for the past five years, and they have demonstrated not only a great convenience to the user, but that they can be operated economically and no more costly than the old method, when you take the convenience into consideration.
 When you cook by electricity you eliminate all fuel supply worries. To start the fire you simply turn the switch. There is no expense when not operating. Our customers who are using electricity, exclusively for cooking, are very much satisfied.
 We will make our customers a special proposition on Electric Range installation, which will be announced next week. This will be your opportunity to secure a modern Electric Range at reduced cost.
