

RIVAL CREDITS BOARD IN MEETING

Naming of Ludvig Gullickson, Spring Valley, and T. O. Osh- thun Compties Personnel.

St. Paul—Minnesota's new rural credit board, entrusted with the loaning of $10,000,000 on Minnesota farm land has met for the first time.

Mr. Gullickson is an attorney and was appointed by Attorney General C. L. Hillen. He ranks as an assistant attorney general.

Mr. Oshthun is a representative of the Federal Land bank of the seventh district and is a bank official.

Under the law the board may loan on first mortgages on partially im- proved or improved Minnesota farm land.

LAUSANNE CONFERENCE OPEN

Question of Near East Oil Fields Con- fronts Allied Delegates.

Lausanne—The question of the near eastern oil fields especially those cov- ered by the Chester concession, is an active foreground as the Allied and Turk- ish delegations meet in another ef- fort to draft a peace treaty acceptable to both sides.

Whether the general subject of con- cessions comes before the conference formally seems to depend on the suc- cess of direct negotiations between British and French consuls both of which were advised by the Allies when they agreed to detach economic questions from the treaty.

It is believed, probably will insist on the rights accorded in 1914 by the French government to the British.

2 CONVICTED IN BOND PLOT

Judge's Ruling Free 2 Others— Case Against Woman Diminished.

Mississippi—Verdicts of guilty against Stanley G. Gorman and Arthur W. Lindholm, defendants in the $20,000,000 bond conspiracy trial, were returned by the jury before Judge John F. McGehee in United States district court.

The jury deliberated less than an hour and a half.

Verdicts of not guilty on behalf of Ed Gimberg and James Connolly, as directed by Judge McGehee, were also in the same report.

Mrs. Margaret Connolly, wife of James A. Connolly, went to court before Judge McGehee when Federal Judge John M. McGehee granted a motion to dismiss the case.

RAIL OPERATION QUIP OPENS

U. S. Commission to Study Service, Expenditures of Big System.

Washington—An inquiry into the economy of management of the rail- roads of the country has begun by the interdepartmental commission.

All the big railroad systems have been made parties to the investigation and in addition to hearings before the commission, a series of questionnaires has been sent to each railroad calling for detailed information about labor conditions, growing out of the ship- ment of a strike last summer, and con- ditions of the locomotive, freight cars, and other rolling stock.

ADD 453 NEW STATE LAWS

Four Amendments and 15 Resolutions Also Work of Session.

St. Paul—The 1923 Legislature was instrumental in adding 453 new laws including four constitutional amend- ments to the statutes of the state. It was learned when Governor J. A. O. Prons unveiled digest of the bills and the ways of registering them to the secretary of state office in St. Paul.

The previous session of the Legisla- ture was instrumental in passing 25 laws or 26 laws this session.

The recent Legislature also passed 15 resolutions.

Missouri Guard Called Out. The 140th Infantry, Missouri National guard, stationed at Berne, Missouri county, has been mobilized and is being sent to reinforce the National Guard at Berne to preserve order, according to Adjutant General Haupt of Missouri.

Douglas Greeley Dies at Virginia

Douglas Greeley passed away at his home in Virginia last Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

He had been ill for some time and two months ago he went to Excelsior Springs, Mo., in an effort to regain his health, returning home three weeks ago.

Funeral services will be held at Spring Valley, quite a number of local folks will attend the funeral.

Mr. Greeley was one of the early Pine county pioneers. He was born in Stillwater November 24, 1860, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elam Greeley.

He received his education there and came to Pine county when a young man and became the proprietor of a hotel at Hinckley, which he owned and operated until the great fire destroyed all his property.

Surviving him are his widow, a sister, Phoebe of Stillwater; one brother, John, of Louisville, Ky., and another, John, a teacher in Chicago.

"Dug" as he was known to his many friends, was a conference member and was an ardent worker and booster and had much to do with the building up of this village.

Although he has been a resident of the "Range" the past thirteen years, he has kept in touch with old friends here and has taken con- siderable interest in the progress of Pine City.

It was a shock to the community to learn of his death and the sympathy of many "dug" goes out to the bereaved family.

The old Greeley farm owned by his father on the Snake river west of town, was one of the first farms to be located in Pine county.

Good Acting in Senior Class Play

The Senior class play, "The Wrong Mr. Wright" drew a good crowd at the Family theatre last Friday evening.

The play, which was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

The plot of the play is built around the character of a man named Seymour Stiles, taken by Ernest Wilcox.

Ernest impersonated his part to perfection and had little trouble in convincing the audience.

He couldn't withstand the wiles of a fortune detective in the person of "Mildred" Stiles, how- ever, who properly yanked the wrong Mr. Wright thinking he was the man.

Chester Greenlywain of M- Siten, catches the old gentleman when he is in a mellow mood and talks him out of a nice big check.

John Weinberger, an old chum of Mr. Stiles, is quite nettled when Stiles would not recognize him as a friend in order to keep his income.

Mayme Benda, a niece of Stiles, and heiress to a million, wants to be loved for her own sake, not for her money.

She is attracted to the young man, but she is not so easily won.

Alma Mack, as an old maid, handled her part like a veteran of the stage.

The play was a success and the audience was well pleased.

The annual meeting of the Pine City library association will be held on Wednesday evening, May 2, 8 o'clock in the club rooms.

Arrangements is arranged for Miss Baldwin, state librarian, to be present. All are invited.

Library Meeting Tuesday

Rock Creek Residents Want State Road No. 9 Left on South Site

The regular monthly meeting of the board of county commissioners was called to order last Monday.

There were not as many dele- gations present as there have been at some of the former meetings.

The most important delegation to be heard, and the one that was left until the last business of the afternoon, was the delegation from the first commissioner district.

Henry Studt, former county commissioner from that district, was the first speaker to be heard.

He stated that the delegation, consist- ing of about thirty men, were pre- sent to object to the resolution passed at the last meeting of the board, which changed the location of State Road No. 9 from its former location, running west from Rock Creek to the road 1/2 mile north, coming from West Rock.

That the resolution be rescinded and the designation left as it was, Commissioner Anderson replied.

Aug. Johnson informed the board that he had a petition with about 200 signers who wanted the south location.

Mr. Studt told them they were not asking that the road go through the village of Rock Creek, as they realized the danger in crossing the bridge, but asked that the former location be used.

Mr. Anderson wanted to know why West Rock should be left out.

Mr. Studt said that the road was a state highway and should be left to the state.

Frank Hanson, member of the Chicago county board, was also present and stated that he would like to see the south road designated as it would give his county a chance to connect with the road and give Rush Lake residents a good road to Greeley.

Went Road Bonds Issued. Herman Reed headed a delegation from the Town of Pogoema that presented the board with a petition which requested the county board to issue bonds to build bridges.

There is a law which permits the board to issue bonds, the proceeds to be used for the construction of bridges in the county.

The board voted to issue bonds to the amount of 1 per cent of the assessed valuation of the county.

The town of Pogoema has a number of bridges that must be repaired or rebuilt.

Mr. Studt stated that the board would be taking care of the road on the Anusum road about a mile from the Federal highway, a route and must be repaired.

Mr. Studt stated that it was his opinion it was not a good time to do any bonding, as taxes are already too high.

One of the members remarked that Pogoema had been fairly well taken care of.

Mr. Anderson said that he had received about $400 last year.

Mr. Anderson said that he thought the issue was a good business proposition and wanted a general opinion of the county, as did Com. Oakland.

A delegation was present from the town of Barry requesting a re- assessment of that town, and asked the board to recommend an assessor to do the work.

After considerable discussion, a motion was made by Oakland supported by Studt, that the board recommend the reassess- ment this spring, which was unani- mously carried.

Considerable other business was transacted. A number of addition- al tax abatements were granted to Hinckley and other taxpayers.

Ray Nelson, supervisor, and D. H. Kennedy, trustee of the town of Barry, requested aid in repairing the bridge over the St. Croix river at Markville and $150 was appropri- ated for the purpose.

Oscar Steen living east of Hinck- ley was present to ask aid on a bridge in his town.

County Assessors Get Instructions

Forty-one of the forty-three assessors of the county attended the meeting of assessors held at the court house Tuesday.

Mr. Peterson's instructions to the assessors were very instructive, and if remembered and carried out by the assessors, the assessment this year over the county will give much more satisfaction than in the past.

I notice the Pine county assess- ment doesn't include any jewelry, except for the value of the jewelry stores that seem to be doing a good business.

Treat all taxpayers on an equal basis. Don't dock a fellow because he votes against you.

The value of the personal prop- erty of a man is worth on the first day of May, not what it cost a year ago.

The auditor has no more right to make up your books than he has to make the assessment.

Consideration Stepan made a few remarks to the assessors ad- journed. He told of the condition of many of the books received by the county assessor.

Two resolutions were received from the board of the Town of Belden. One requested the county to send the county surveyor to that town to set out stakes and repair a couple of roads.

The other resolution received from Belden requested aid from the county for construction of four bridges in that town.

The board of the Town of Belden has 27 taxpayers living in the town. The board has determined to have some roads in that town had some of the town for $10,000 in return to the town.

Ernest Hinze, living east of Hinckley, was present and stated that Supt. Howell was in favor of the county engineer be in- structed to draw plans and speci- fications for that purpose.

We understand the town of Belden has 27 taxpayers living in the town. The board has determined to have some roads in that town had some of the town for $10,000 in return to the town.

Erick Hinze-Miss Nora Pepin Wed

Miss Nora Pepin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Pepin, and Erick A. Hinze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hinze, were united in marriage Tuesday morning.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Henke at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nelson acted as the bridesmaids. Mrs. Nelson is a sister of the groom.

The ceremony was a wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents south of town.

The wedding left on a wedding trip to the bride's home at the state and points in Iowa.

Ernest Hinze went to Wadena recently where he opened a tire and battery shop and reports business starting in in the shape.

They will make their home there on their return, excepting the honeymoon of weeks of their trip.

Both the newlyweds were raised in this community and are well known here. Their many friends wish them the best of success and happiness.

FRANCE DEFIED BY TURKS AT PARLEY

Angora Seeks to Cast Off Paris Control—America's Stand Given Delegates.

Lausanne—Resumption of the peace negotiations between the Turks and the Allies has given rise to the sug- gestion that Turkey's expressed desire to cast off France as her economic pilot may lead to difficulties that will prove to be an important development of the conference.

The Turks express a desire to shake off French control, but spokes- men of the latter country aver they are interested only in protecting legiti- mate French investments in Turkey.

Activities of the bands of Turkish irregulars which the leaders of Syria, a French mandate, appear to have entered into the situation, resulting in the dispatch of General Weigand to Syria.

The first day of the conference passed without mention of conces- sions to the Turkish demands of the American delegation, informed the delegates of the United States' desire that the coming opportunities of all nationals be safeguarded.

Contract for 400,000 Pounds Before Co- operative—$500,000 Question Up.

Minneapolis—A contract for 400,000 pounds of butter for the United States navy and the establishment of a wholesale butter house in the twin cities were before the executive commit- tee of the Minnesota Co-operative Butter and Cheese association for approval.

Opposition to pooling the $300,000,000 annual butter product of the Min- nesota co-operative with that of other states less organized and with butter of poorer quality has developed.

Representatives of dairy co-opera- tives in Minnesota, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois recently ratified the plan for a national sales agency of sweet cream butter.

COURT HEARS HIBBING CASE

Mining Companies Protest Bond Issue for School House.

St. Paul—Supreme court heard arguments in the case of the Oliver Iron Independent School District No. 10, Hibbing, which was appealed from the St. Louis County District court, when the lower court held that the mining companies were entitled to an order of injunction restraining the district from continuing the work.

The case was argued by the attorneys for the school district and the mining companies.

DOES HOUSEWORK LIKE IT WAS PLAY

Mrs. Little Declares Tanlac Restores Full Strength After Overcoming Indigestion.

"Since taking Tanlac my troubles have left me, and I never tire of telling about it," declares Mrs. Johanna Little, 3032 N. 17th St., Kansas City, Mo.

"My food often caused me much distress from gas, sourness and heartburn, and I sorely ever wanted to eat. Headaches, biliousness and pains in my back kept me in hot water, and I hardly ever got any restful sleep. My nerves were excited and I was so run down it was all I could do to look after my household."

"I searched the city for the right medicine, and finally I found Tanlac. Indigestion, sleeplessness and nervousness never bother me now. I can do my household work like I was playing and am strong and happy. Tanlac is simply grand."

Replying to Lord Robert Cecil at New York, Senator Borah of Idaho, declared that the League of Nations has been "dominated by governments who do not want peace on any terms compatible with equality and justice," and that the proper field for dissemination of a gospel of peace was in Europe—not in America. Senator Borah added: "As things stand today, a ruler, an irresponsible adventurer, a royal name, may start a war, engulf a continent in blood and sacrifice the lives of millions and yet never pass under the denunciation of the laws of the land. Until that standard is changed, no league of nations can function for peace. Its makers may make it for peace, but those who execute it will execute it for war."

The Thomas Jefferson Memorial Association was incorporated at Albany on Jefferson's birthday, Friday, the 13th. The purpose is to buy and maintain Monticello, Jefferson's home at Charlottesville, Va., as a national monument. "The immortal principles inscribed in the Declaration of Independence," so that they may rank among the country's sanctuaries with the birthplace of Washington and the tomb of Lincoln, is a worthy purpose and the carrying of it out is only a question of time, and not very long time either. It is gratifying to note that the corporation is nonpartisan, prominent Republicans as well as Democrats composing it. This is as it should be. No party has any monopoly of Jeffersonian principles.

The Country Life Association has analyzed leading farm papers and finds that half their space is given to advertising, about one-sixth to technical articles on production, 5 percent to marketing, 6 per cent to "fiction and nature articles," about 3 per cent to co-operation, only 1.5 per cent to social subjects, and less than 2 per cent to education, politics and citizenship. Only slightly more than 2 per cent, but recreation, social subjects, religious and labor news call for less than 1 per cent each, and fail of any space in a number of these principal farm papers.

The great trouble with most of the "farm journals" and many local newspapers of this country is that they do not realize the extent to which the average farmer has broken away from the old-time literature. With his auto, his radio, his daily market reports, his organizations and his necessities, he demands real solid substantial information on current events, state national and international. He demands something more than generalities and "hunk." He may not have time to do much reading, but he does have time to do a heap of thinking—and that's what counts. People who play the farmer for a "hunk" will wake up some day to discover that they have "monkeyed with a buzz saw."

Out of the beginnings of philosophy there came this bit of crath: "If you say you have enough, you perish. Always add, always walk, always proceed."

No author of the present day is writing anything that goes deeper into the "why of things" than does that thought. The people have ceased to "add, walk and proceed" have ceased to be useful to society. The preacher, teacher, editor or student who do not make honest efforts to improve, to advance are at a standstill—going backward, in fact. The merchant who is satisfied is doomed. The merchant who believes that his business is big enough, useful enough, important enough, is out of the race. In all lines of business there must be of necessity, the ceaseless adding, walking, proceeding—the reaching, pushing, showing, pulling, pressing for greater usefulness to the community. These things progress growth—they are growth. Under modern conditions this striving and struggling would be of little avail if it were not for advertising—which makes striving and struggling worth while, and effective.

Time was when merchants imagined that it was good advertising to merely keep the name and location of a store in the public eye, with an occasional generality concerning the store's aims and purposes. This probably served as well as anything in the days when people did not generally read advertising, not let it influence their buying and selling.

Under the new conditions, however, people are reading advertising in pursuit of information concerning the particular and specific things the stores have to sell, or that people have to offer. There are more people in this community whose purchases at stores are influenced or governed by advertising than ever before. The result is, of course, that newspaper advertising has become to be far more effective—that results from it are only sure, but that they are usually quick and easily traceable to the ad which produced them.

It has become possible to very nearly gauge and measure the amount and kind of newspaper advertising which will be required for a specific purpose—to carry through some particular store sale or to inaugurate a project or produce, float a business venture, rejuvenate a run-down store or sell a piece of property. The advertiser who says "enough" thinks he is striving sufficiently, has really ceased to strive at all. "Enough" is a delusion.

Maxwell Touring Car

Here Is Why You Should Get a Good Maxwell Touring Car:

It seats five adults with complete comfort, and is the best riding car on the market.

The perfect balance and correct distribution of weight cause the car to cling to the road and handle with an ease that wins instant approval.

The driving position is exceedingly comfortable.

The beauty of line and finish of the Good Maxwell cars is emphasized by the disc steel wheels, demountable at both rim and hub, that are standard equipment.

Don't buy any before you see the Maxwell and Chalmers Cars.

BE YOUR OWN LANDLORD
 Turn Rent Receipts Into A Deed For a Home.

YES, YOU CAN DO IT—EASILY, TOO

Every family in Pine City, that is now paying rent, can, by our new plan of Home Financing, turn the rent payments into home payments, and at the end of a few years have a home of their own all paid for, instead of a bundle of useless rent receipts.

Our plan is simple, easy and open to any family living in town. Call at our office and let us explain details, show you our collection of home plans, tell you what each will cost, and how little you will have to pay monthly to own a beautiful home of your own.

May is an ideal home-starting month, and our office is the place to start it. Call this week.

CHINESE MINISTER AS CUPID

Interesting Remark Made by Wu Ting Fang Led to the Union of Two Loving Hearts.

Wu Ting Fang was, while minister at Washington, attending the wedding of the daughter of the late Justice at that time. At the breakfast he asked one of the bridesmaids when it would be her turn to become a bride. She modestly said that she did not know, as she had not yet had an offer. Turning to a group of young men, Doctor Wu joyfully remarked to one of them, "This is a beautiful lady, would you not like to marry her?" He replied, "It should be most delightful to." "Will you accept his offer?" said Doctor Wu to the bridesmaid. She seemed slightly embarrassed and said something to the effect that as she did not know the gentleman she could not give a definite answer. Meeting the Chinese minister at an "at home" a few days later, she recalled him for his business, and he excused himself by saying that he was actuated by the best of motives.

A few months afterward Wu received an invitation from the young lady's parents to attend her marriage. The bridesman was the young man who had turned in the unconventional incident. To Wu's agreeable surprise the mother of the bride informed him that it was he who had first brought the young couple together and both bride and bridegroom heartily thanked him for his good offices.

EXCITED WRATH OF DICKENS

Great Writer, at His Best, Denounced Public Hangings, Which Were Diagrace to English Law.

Charles Dickens, at the time of the execution of Manning and his wife for the murder of Patrick O'Connor, was at his fullest power as a writer. In a letter to the London Times he wrote: "I believe that a night would be as fully awful as the wickedness and cruelty of the inhuman crowd collected at the execution this morning could be imagined by no man, and presented by no breathless band under the sun. The horrors of the gibbet and the crime which brought the wretched murderers to it faded in my mind before the atrocious bearing, looks and language of the assembled spectators. When I came upon the scene at midnight the stillness of the cries and howls that were raised from time to time, denoting that they came from a conscience of boys and girls already assembled in the best places, made my blood run cold. When the two miserable creatures who attracted all this ghastly sight about them were turned quivering into the air, there was no more emotion, no more pity, no more thought that two immortal souls had gone to judgment, no more restraint in any of the previous absentee, than if the name of Christ had never been heard in this world, and there were to be hell among men but that they perish like the beasts."

DOES IT PAY TO WORRY ABOUT APPENDICITIS?
Can appendicitis be guarded against? Yes, by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal antiseptic, Adul-Ida, acts on both upper and lower bowel removing ALL foul, decaying matter which might start infection. EXCELLENT for gas on stomach or chronic constipation. It removes matter which you never thought was in your system and which nothing else can dislodge. One man reports it is unoblivious the awful impurities Adul-Ida brought out.—For sale at Prochaska's Pharmacy.

Representative Therrien returned home from the state capitol last Thursday evening, and is resting up after the whirlwind windup of the legislative session, and too says the last week or two was "some" exciting too. Mrs. Therrien was down to take in the last day of the session and returned home with her husband.

L. F. Appleby drove to Plainville last Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Appleby's mother, Mrs. Ella Drev, and sister, Miss Alice Curtis, who have spent the winter at the apple by home. Mr. Appleby returned Tuesday. His niece, Miss Dorothy Porter, came up with him for a visit.

Mr. Appleby stated the roads were in fine shape and said that seeding is no farther ahead in the southern part of the state, than it is here.

The Chmelik boys living north of town have been busy the last few days in their annual job of assisting autoists, who got their cars mired in the mud near the Chmelik farm on the Federal road. It looks to us like the highway department might be able to spare enough money from their "road" funds to fix this hole and a couple of others that give annual trouble. This is the only spot between here and Beroun that has been had this spring.

Art Biederman was a visitor in Moose Lake over the week end. Art will hold down the third sack for the Lake ball team this year. C. W. Carlson of Rock Creek, who is buttermaker at the creamery in Moose Lake, is manager of the team and is lining up a strong aggregation. Herman Handichit will do the catching and we understand he has some good ball players who are in the soldiers colony there. They plan on playing independent ball this year.

51% Are De Laval's

The overwhelming number of De Laval Cream Separators in use is proved in a striking and convincing way by three recent investigations conducted by distinguished butter-producing states:

(1) From an investigation conducted by the Purdue Agricultural Experiment Station (Indiana), Journal of Agricultural Science (London), Journal of Dairy Science (New York), Agricultural Student (Ohio), Texas State Farmer, Tennessee Farmer, published by the students of the various agricultural colleges in question and their readers, who received the questionnaires are either graduates or former students.

64.8% use cream separators of the following makes:
50.6%—De Laval.
16.8%—Nearest competitor.

(2) Sixty-two per cent of the cream separators on 388 representative Minnesota dairy farms, selected at random and over a wide area, are De Laval's, according to a survey recently made by The Farmer, of St. Paul.

De Laval—62%.
Nearest competitor—6.4%.

(3) From the Dairy Farm Survey of Hoar's Dairyman (the foremost dairy paper in the world, having a circulation of approximately 85,000 at the time of this investigation).

If you use a cream separator? 80.0%—Yes.
If not? 41.1%—De Laval.
16.7%—Nearest competitor.
$1.26%—average number of De Laval's based on the foregoing, which confirms the well-known statement that there are about as many De Laval's in use as all the rest combined.

The only reason there are so many more De Laval's in use is that it is the best separator—skims cleaner, lasts longer, and is easier to clean and turn.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT HENRY SYDNOR HARRISON

It is like shaking hands with an old friend to read the work of Henry Sydnor Harrison. Since years ago his first book, "Good-bye, My Love," has been a success...

It was the evening of May Hester's picnic supper, small but memorable, and now the clock had been any on the island, would have pointed close to midnight.

"You," she said, with the faintly mocking air she had when she looked at him; "but fancy meeting you here!"

"You—you looked like I'd been a little confusedly, but the breaking off, he cleared his throat and started again, more authoritatively.

"You," she said, with the faintly mocking air she had when she looked at him; "but fancy meeting you here!"

VINES ADD BEAUTY TO SURROUNDINGS

Climbers Make the Home Attractive—Do Not Injure Walls—May Use Trellis.

The impression that vines are injurious to the walls of a house, making them damp or causing woodwork to rot, is erroneous, says the United States Department of Agriculture. On brick and stone buildings some of the clinging vines are most appropriate and attractive in completing the charm of the home surroundings. On a wooden house the vines should not be permitted to become so thick that they prevent proper ventilation and timely painting, but hot sunshine is very destructive to paint, and the shade of vines helps to preserve it.

There are several devices for growing vines so as to permit removing them from the woodwork when it is necessary to paint the house. A trellis can be made with hinges near the ground, or a chicken wire placed overhead at the highest point, so that it may be taken down, vines and all, together with the trellis or frame, which will keep vines entirely away from woodwork. Vines are also appropriate on fences, arbors, pergolas or summer houses.

USE THE TRENCH FOR IRRIGATION

Scheme Conserves Water and Labor—Best Way to Reach Roots of Plants.

The proper amount of moisture is about as essential as enough warm sunshine, to produce a good garden crop. Too much moisture is worse than too much sunshine, for in the latter case the soil can be loosened, conserving what moisture the ground holds.

THE GARDEN ENEMIES

Life of the gardener would be a glorious dream if it were not for the many kinds of bugs and worms and plant lice and other creepy, crawling things that he has to fight from early springtime to late autumn. Sometimes it is hard to dova these enemies of the garden, but scientists have found a remedy for nearly every one of them. They can be either poisoned or trapped or in some other way destroyed, but it takes watching and prompt attention on the part of the gardener to get about of all these garden enemies.

UNSEEN GARDEN ENEMIES

Every home gardener is in very much the same position as the old dandy who said: "I'm not afraid of what I see, but it is what I don't see that is afraid of." It is the slimes and mites working at the roots of the plants; the spores and other forms of plant disease working invisibly on the leaves of the plants, and the worms and blights that are sapping the very

TIME TO APPLY LIME

The time to apply lime is in the spring after the ground has been plowed or spaded. The lime can then be thrown broadcast over the surface thickly enough to give a decided white coating on the ground. It is then harrowed or raked into the top three inches of soil. The lime should not be plowed under, its tendency is to work downward, and by applying it on the surface the greatest benefit from it is secured.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, the number of patients who have been very successful in overcoming kidney troubles, is increasing.

An examining physician for one of the largest Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the following statement: "One reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those who are rejected are declined to do so even though they have no other ailments."

TERM FOR POLITICAL CUNNING

Italian Genius Gave Name to What Might Be Called Unscrupulous Statesmanship.

"Machiavellian" is a term for political cunning, duplicity or bad faith, because Niccolò Machiavelli, an Italian statesman and historian, held as one of his principles that any means, however lawless or unscrupulous, might be justifiably employed by a ruler in order to maintain a strong central government. He produced among other works a treatise on government called "The Prince," the principles of which have gained for him a notoriety as wide as the civilized world.

Briefly, Machiavelli's political doctrines maintained a justification of the means by the end. The ruler or prince was to retain and augment his power; and to do so he might be an adept at mistaking his opponent's weakness for their strength. The interests of the state, represented by the ruler, were held to be above all laws or virtues, and the despotism of the ruler was to be maintained by cunning and unrestrained by morality.

MOON IS NOT DEAD WORLD

Recent Scientific Observations Seem to Prove Astronomers Have Long Held Wrong Idea.

Astronomers cling to the old idea that the moon is a dead world, destitute alike of air and water. But recent observations of W. H. Pickering, made at Manlyville, Canada, go to show that many changes occur with the alternation of lunar day and night. Great snow fields form in the mountain valleys, and then melt away. Ice lands are seen and very rarely, drifting clouds. The loftiest peaks are snow-capped. The moon's surface is pitted with volcanic craters; some of these measure 100 miles across. Each crater is surrounded by a mountain ring 1,000 to 20,000 feet in height.

According to Pickering, there are few, if any, such changes on the continuously active volcanic regions on the surface of the earth. But the activity of the lunar volcanoes is now confined to the quiet isolation of steam jets, like those found in Yellowstone National park. Certain variable dark areas of the moon may be due to vegetation.

REMAIN ALWAYS THE SAME

Overwhelming Proof That Finger-Prints Undergo No Change During Lifetime of Individual.

The finger print is a scientific method of identification for a state registration system under which every one would be fingerprinted. It is also planned by the government to establish a central bureau of identification, with a national registration. It is deduced that prints are more permanent than change over the course of a lifetime.

Restored Life Turns to Autos.

The world of Lilla is again taking on an aspect of prosperity, according to a report to the Department of Commerce from Vice Consul J. G. Finley, and is first assuming the character of a thriving center of commercial and industrial activity worthy of its position as capital of the north of France. A considerable change has taken place since 1921, the consular times. Streets situated in the districts not damaged are well stocked and apparently enjoying a good business and electric lines, unknown in 1921, have appeared in various parts of the business centers, which give much animation to the city at night. The number of automobiles at present is not large. After the business broke and the outer layer of the skin came off he made finger-prints each day until the fingers were completely healed. The plates were gradually until they made the same sharp prints that they had made before the accident.

Three Queens Her Guest.

Mrs. E. C. Fylen of Southbridge was the proudest woman in all England when she was congratulated by her three granddaughters on her one hundredth birthday and had as her guests three queens. Queen Mary came first, then Queen Alexandra and Queen Olga of Greece honored her with a visit.
