KNUTE NELSON

The State of Minnesota this week mourns the loss of one of her greatest citizens, Knute Nelson, the "Grand Old Man" of Minnesota, for 28 years he ably represented this state and the nation as a whole in the United States Senate. Six years previous to that he spent as a member of the House.

President Harding fittingly paid tribute to his memory when he said, "He was a stalwart American and had a most useful public service with a record of great work accomplished. Senator Nelson was an inspiring example of American opportunity."

Senator Nelson's career is one of industry and public service. Starting life as a penniless lad, he climbed the ladder of success by his own endeavor, and when the end came it found him still in the harness, still the same fearless leader, with a record that will be down in history as an example of American Citizenship—Civil War veteran, Governor of the state he loved so well and a national lawmaker, and through it all a real man, and a real friend.

Theatre Notes

Saturday—

"Alice Lake in 'Woman Hate,' 'Babe' Lennox, pretty little show girl, found herself involved in a murder mystery. She knew that the man who had been indicted was innocent, but her lips were sealed by her promise to the murdered man. What should she do? For the answer see 'Alice.' Another of those Buster Keaton comedies 'The High Sign.' When Buster Keaton shows his face it's 'The High Sign' for unlimited mirth. Also Movie Chats.

Sunday & Monday—

"Bliss" Dove in "Youth to Youth." A brilliant ball in honor of Broadway's favorite star is taking place in a gorgeous room in New York's most exclusive hotel. The owner of the hotel is the man who has financed the actress' stage career. Blindly she has accepted his favors, giving no thought to the scandalousness surrounding her. A match of conversation which she overhears provides the terrible awakening. And a comedy "Handy Man."

Tuesday—

Herbert Rawlinson in "Don't Shoot." If you were destitute and alive, then willing to work with no job in the office, wouldn't you take a thing? That is the basis of the action in "Don't Shoot." Also a comedy "A Bully Pair" and the first chapter of the big new serial "In the Days of Buffalo Bill." Chapter 1—Abraham Lincoln signs the U. P. Act securing a transcontinental rail railroad. Buffalo Bill and his pals are Pony Express riders. Indians attack settlers' cabins. Rodgers leave Fort Kearney, Neb., to fight Indians. This is "Family" night 446 admits the whole family no matter how large stage admission 10c and 5c. This is the big light and the big show of the week.

Thursday & Friday—

Clara Kimball Young in "The Hand of Nara." A beautiful girl—sifted in the Russian Revolution—beset by terrors on every side, surrounded by monsters disguised as men, her life is an endless struggle against the base forces which envelop her. Clara Kimball Young plays the part of the girl Nara, in the most dramatic photography of her career. It is "The Hand of Nara." And Buster Keaton in "Neighbors." "Leave your little bunch of neighbors in your honor!" See what Buster Keaton does to his in a rollicking two-reeler of polished slapstick.

"At Home"

The Pineade Mr. and Mrs. Thompson had just returned from their honeymoon and were "at home" in their new Lake Side bungalow, recently constructed by the Parish-Boo Lumber Company.

The first important task, that confronted them upon their return, was the furnishing of the house. Mrs. Thompson knew exactly what she wanted and marvelled in the tapestry parlor set she found at the A. W. Piper Furniture Company. Before evening the City Dray Line had hauled it to the Farmers' store and quickly returned for the rest of the purchased furniture.

The settling had its many trials and Mrs. Thompson made several hurried trips to the Three Hard ware stores, each time returning triumphantly with the tacks or wire, his wife had sent him for.

At last everything was settled and a more cozy home, their could not be found in all Pine City. The next week Mr. Thompson returned to his office. The work was piled high on his desk, so he was not able to return for dinner. This gave his wife the time she needed for shopping.

Mrs. Thompson dreaded shopping, very much, but she found the very kitchen curtains she wanted at the Pine City Mercantile Co. She enjoyed herself that afternoon until the clock on the Farmers and Merchants State Bank warned her it was four-thirty.

Realizing that Mr. Thompson would be home soon for supper, she hurried to Buchan's & Glade's Meat Market to get some meat for supper. She bought a roast thinking it would go very nicely with the fresh vegetables she had bought at Beecher's Grocery Store. This remembering there was no bread in the house, she hurried to the Bakery and bought some fresh rolls.

While Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were eating supper, the telephone rang. It was Mrs. Smith calling to find out if the Thompsons would go to the Family Theatre that evening. They were screening "Poor Men's Wives."

They enjoyed the show very much and later had refreshments at the Kozy Korner. The next few days Mrs. Thompson received many callers and was kept busy, just entertaining. She loved to receive visitors, but oh, they her so busy!

One day she was out of sorts. Things just seemed to go wrong. Her bread wouldn't raise. Something was wrong with the electricity and her stove wouldn't heat.

Utterly discouraged she called her husband's office and poured out the whole tale of woe to him. "Well I'll tell you what we'll do—You come down town and we'll lunch at the Hotel Agnes Cafe. Will that suit you?" the Eastern Minnesota Power Company. They'll go over and fix the electricity."

This greatly relieved Mrs. Thompson, so she hurriedly did up the morning work and met her husband promptly at twelve for lunch.

That evening Mr. Thompson had

Public Approval

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) stands before the public squarely on its merits as an organization of service.

In directing the affairs of this Company, the management is animated by ideals of justice, fairness and equity to employee, consumer, competitor, stockholder and the general public.

Because it insists that the rights of all should be safeguarded, the Company has prospered and has taken its place as a leader in an essential industry.

To achieve commercial success, profits are necessary. Profits can come only through liberal patronage of the buying public.

This public will not patronize an organization whose methods are unfair or unjust. Continued prosperity comes only to the Company which renders a superior service and sells honest merchandise at an honest price.

To every far-sighted observer it must be obvious that hundreds of thousands of people are patronizing the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and are doing so because they have found by experience that the service rendered by this company is reliable and that the goods it sells are uniform and dependable, and that its prices are consistently fair.

Figures recently published by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce show that one-third of the automobile registrations are concentrated in the ten states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)—yet, the price of gasoline in this territory compares favorably with that in any similar section in the world.

This low scale of prices is attributed to the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

By its ever increasing patronage the public places the stamp of its approval upon the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The acknowledged efficiency of this Company is due to the unflinching loyalty of its 27,000 employees; to the high ideals of service which the management has inaugurated and insists upon maintaining; to the unequalled facilities which this Company has provided for carrying on the business.

The loyalty of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) employee is based upon the knowledge that this Company recognizes the rights of the worker to steady employment at good wages; to a liberal annual plan; to protection against accident; and to opportunity to invest in the Company's business on favorable terms.

Because of this efficiency, recognized and approved by the public the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to pay to the stockholders a fair return on the capital invested, and to build up a sufficient reserve to enable it to expand its business to keep pace with the public need.

ROCK CREEK NEWS DE'T

The Rock Creek postoffice was changed from the Ryland-Westberg store to the Oscar Hartz Hardware store on Saturday of last week. Mr. Hartz will now have charge of the postoffice.

Thieves entered the Ryland-Westberg store last Saturday night. Entrance was made by breaking the window in the rear of the store. About $11 in cash was taken besides a quantity of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and several pairs of women's stockings. It is not known just how much was taken. Probably the same gang of culprits entered the Rudd Lumber Co. office as Manager Lindgren is shy a perfectly good adding machine, that being the only thing they could handle carry off, as no money was left in the office. No trace of the burglars has been found, but it looks as though it was done by someone familiar with the lay of the land.

Emery Johnson of Rush City arrived last week and is now employed in the Cash Store.

Jonas Strandberg left the latter part of last week for Fort Williams, Canada, where he will be employed. Mrs. Strandberg will remain here at the home of her mother, until later when she will go to Canada.

Jack Hurman and family of Bramhan spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Erickson.

The ladies aid will meet in the church on Friday afternoon of this week. All are invited to attend.

The Rev'd John Lowe of Pine City will preach in the Rock Creek church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody is most affectionately invited to come to this service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lindgren of Mort arrived last Friday and went until Tuesday at the home of his son John and family of this place.

Don't forget the big dance at Pine City Saturday evening of this week. 50c admission.

School in the West Rock school came to a close last Friday afternoon with a big picnic. After a big picnic dinner a program of races and games were held which was followed by the classic event of the afternoon, a ball game between the West Rock and Rock Creek schools. The Rock Creek with a few ardent admirers of the feminine sex walked out in the morning arriving in time for lunch and then set about to show the West Rockers a few rudiments of the national past-time. "Speed"

Carlson was on the mound for the West Rockers and he was met by a terrific drive from the bat of "Dutch" Schmidt who soaked the ball over the fence for a home run. "Cannonball" Johnnie Nelson drew the pitchers' burden for the Rock Creekers with Buck Buey on the receiving end. "Cannonball" evidently wasn't quite right or he used to much smoke on the ball, for his arm played out and he was forced to leave the mound in the fourth inning. "Dutch" Schmidt Schmidt then took up the burden and at the end of the nine innings the score stood 22 to 23 in favor of the Rock Creek school. The two teams will meet again on the day the local schools let out. The West Rock team was composed of the following: Reuben Carlson, pitcher; Wanda Carlson, catcher; Herman Bost 1st base, Clarence Johnson 2nd base, Kenneth Carlson, 3rd base; Leonard Anderson shortstop, Clarence Matson and Herman Smith outfielders. The Rock Creek team line-up follows: John Nelson pitcher and catcher, Schmidt 1st base and pitcher; Buck Buey catcher and 1st base; Arnold Hawkins 2nd base.

"Hook" Merritt 3rd base, "Fat" Nelson shortstop. As there were only seven on the team Richard Buey played all three fields. The return game is looked forward to with much enthusiasm by the two teams.

Don't make a mistake

You own a car. The most important thing for you to know about that car is—"what is my oil doing?" And if most car owners knew, they'd be amazed.

The safest thing for you to do is to fill your crank-case now with

SUNOCO THE DISTILLED OIL

For the same reason that you use distilled water when you want pure water—you should use distilled oil.

Sunoco is the only oil which is made in six types—and all wholly distilled; it's pure. It gives more perfect lubrication. It prolongs the life of your motor. It gives greater power—because it makes an almost perfect piston ring seal.

Ask any Sunoco dealer for booklet, "What's Happening Inside Your Motor?"

51% Are De Laval's

The overwhelming number of De Laval Cream Separators in use is proved in a striking and forcible way by three recent investigations conducted by disinterested people, covering most of its principal butter-producing states:

(1) From an investigation conducted by the Purdue Agriculturalist (Indiana), Iron Age (Pennsylvania), Cornell Critic (New York), Agricultural Student (Ohio), Penn State Farmer (Pennsylvania), Farmer published by the students of the various agricultural colleges in question, and their readers, who received the questionnaire, are either graduates or former students:

64.8% use cream separators of the following make:
80.6%—De Laval
16.8%—Nearest competitor.

(2) Sixty-two per cent of the cream separators on 388 representative Minnesota dairy farms, selected at random and over a wide area, are De Laval's, according to a survey recently made by The Farmer, of St. Paul.

De Laval—62%
Nearest competitor—6.4%
(3) From the Dairy Farm Survey of Harvard Dairyman (the foremost dairy paper in the world, having a circulation of approximately 85,000 at the time of this investigation):

Have you a cream separator?
80.0%—Yes.
What make?
41.1%—De Laval.
16.7%—Nearest competitor.
52.2%—Average number of De Laval's, based on the foregoing, which confirms the well-known statement that there are about as many De Laval's in use as all the rest combined.

The only reason there are so many more De Laval's in use is that it is the best separator—skims cleaner, lasts longer, and is easier to clean and turn.

"At Home"

some news for his wife. He had ordered an Overland Sedan from Mr. Petschel and it would arrive the next week. It was the very thing she had wanted! She was going to drive it and take all her friends out riding.

When the car came the next week Thompson was in their glory. Mrs. Thompson learned to drive it the very first day and the next day she took Mrs. Smith for a ride in the country.

The car took up Mrs. Thompson's time and day after day she spent driving it. Cold meals took the place of the previous neat dinners and some days Mr. Thompson returned home to find everything topsy-turvy, his wife gone and the pantry empty! This finally got on his nerves and he resolved to put his foot down. His wife was not to spend any more time paddling he said to himself. Again he ate lunch down town.

He hurried home at six o'clock and found his wife cutting slices of cold boiled ham for supper. "See here," he said upon his arriving, "you are not to take the car out to-morrow."

"Why," his wife answered in a surprised tone. "Mrs. Smith and I had planned the most wonderful drive to the cities!"

"Well, call it off, you are to stay home," he said. "The gas bills are a fright to say nothing of eating down town. I may just as well at home."

With this he left the room in a very raging temper. Mrs. Thompson stood dumfounded. Her temper rose and stamping her foot she fled out of the kitchen.

Her feelings gave way to violent tears. He was getting awful. Why had he said that? What did he get the car for anyway?

They met again at the table, both were silent and angry. Neither would give in. At the end of the meal Mrs. Thompson cleared away the dishes and her husband read. The Pokers, which he had brought home. They both wished to tell each other just what they thought, but they remained silent.

Their angry mood had not subsided by the next day and both remained persistent. Finally Mrs. Thompson resolved to take her side of the case to Attorney Sobotta. She made a lunch at noon, but her husband did not come home, this made her the more determined. She didn't care what her husband said. That afternoon she went to the lawyer's office prepared to state her case.

A very different Mrs. Thompson came out from the lawyer's office. Yes, she would make up with him again. Yes, she was in the wrong. She hurried home, and by six o'clock had an excellent meal prepared.

A different Mr. Thompson rushed from his office that afternoon. On his way home he stopped into Staack's Gift Shop and came out with a box and a smiling face. "As he opened the door of his home he was greeted by the odor of baked ham and the laugh of Staack's Gift Shop."

"No, it was I who was young," answered Mr. Thompson. "And to show you I brought you these." And he placed a beautiful string of pearls around his wife's neck.
