CROWN PRINCE IS BACK IN GERMANY

Former Emperor or Crown Prince To Ascend Throne, Dispatch Says.

Brussels.—The former German emperor is preparing to return to the Fatherland. He already has in his hands passports for himself and his wife, and the Brussels Gazette goes so far as to say that it is expected the Hohenzollern monarchy will be restored on December 4, William, or his son, the former Crown Prince Frederick-William, ascending the throne.

Berlin.—The crown prince arrived at Hanover and went immediately to the home of General Von Hindenburg. While his presence in Hanover is unknown to most of the monarchist group of monarchist sympathizers here, he is not a welcome guest.

Chancellor Stresemann himself sponsored the move to bring back the crown prince. The main argument with which he won over the socialists and democrats was that monarchist Germany was divided into two camps—the Bavarians, fighting for Crown Prince Rupprecht, and the northern groups, fighting for the Hohenzollerns. Chancellor Stresemann pointed out to the cabinet that Crown Prince Rupprecht was in Bavaria and the presence of Frederick William in northern Germany would act as a counterbalance to his influence.

Mrs. Kunz Called by Death

An extremely sad death occurred last Friday when Mrs. Gregor Kunz passed away at her home in Pine City, death resulting from heart trouble. She had been in apparently good health but had complained of a pain in her chest Thursday night although she did not think it was at all serious.

Friday afternoon when the two youngest children came home from school their mother was lying on the couch downstairs and as they thought she was asleep they did not disturb her. Shortly before six the eldest son Edward came home and in trying to awaken his mother he noticed she wasn't breathing. He called a neighbor and Dr. Wiseman was sent for and she was pronounced arrived within a very few minutes.

The noon dishes were about half washed and it is thought Mrs. Kunz had felt faint and laid down to rest and quietly passed away, the end coming very peacefully as she appeared to be but quietly resting in her eternal sleep.

Funeral services were held by Father Leo last Monday morning at 8 a. m. and the remains were laid to rest in Calvary cemetery. The pall bearers were J. J. Madden, W. A. Swamer, Frank Pifer, George Chertier, Ed Chertier and Ed Bastien.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kunz was born in Mantua March 21, 1878, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holmboe. She came to Pine City with her parents shortly after the Hinckley fire. On June 26, 1907 she was united in marriage to Gregor Kunz, and they have resided here since. Her father passed away here about 11 years ago and her mother has made her home in St. Paul the past 12 years. She leaves her husband and three children—Maceella age 9, Leo age 13 and Edward age 15.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral were Mrs. Reinhold, Mr. and Mrs. Boston, Mrs. George Drape and Jack Reinhold and family of St. Paul; Mrs. Harry McCorkick of Minneapolis; Mrs. Holt, Kunz of Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; Clyde Allen and family and George Kunz and family of Pruetter were here Sunday.

Mrs. Kunz's sudden death was a terrible shock to her family and many friends and the sympathy of the whole community is extended to the husband and children in the hour of their bereavement at the loss of their loving wife and mother.

Card of Thanks
We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many kind friends and neighbors for their kind sympathy and sympathy at the sudden death of our beloved wife, and for the many beautiful flowers at the funeral—Gregor Kunz and children.

Major Sundheimer Visits Pine City

Major John L. Sundheimer of Washington, D. C., visited Mr. and James Hurley's home yesterday and this morning leaving for St. Paul this afternoon. He accompanied Lon Cleary, son-in-law of Mr. Hurley.

The Major came from Washington last week to attend the annual meeting and banquet of the Russian railway engineers division of the U. S. Army, which is composed of officers of railway engineers corps who served in Russia during the war. Close to a hundred members of the organization were present at the banquet who came from all parts of the country to attend the meeting. Walter G. Barron, former state Legion Commander, presided as toastmaster at the banquet held in the St. Paul Hotel.

Major Sundheimer returned from Russia about five months ago and is now stationed at Washington. Following the departure of the American troops from Russia in 1919, the Major remained in Russia as a member of the Inter Allie Board which was composed of members representing the various allied countries. The president of the board was John F. Stevens who drew the plans for the Panama canal.

Upon his return to Washington last summer, Major Sundheimer made a report to the U. S. Government on European conditions as they were affected by Russia. In returning to America he Major visited the capital of every European country. While in Russia, he was stationed at Vladivostok, Irkutsk and Omsk.

Major Sundheimer received his foreign decorations while serving in Europe. He was decorated with the "Medal of Merit" by General Gurgens, commander in chief of the Czechoslovak army for his assistance in the evacuation of Czechoslovak troops. Former President Haas of China decorated him with the "Cha Ho" Chinese medal for meritorious service and General Fliho of the Japanese army decorated him with the "Rising Sun" which the Japanese use medal which he received for service during the evacuation of Siberia by Japanese troops following the Peace Conference at Washington last year. Only three foreign honors have been bestowed on him. The Czechoslovak War Medal and the Major is one of them.

The Pine Poker enjoyed a very pleasant, as well as instructive visit from Major Sundheimer and Mr. Cleary yesterday afternoon, when the Major gave us some interesting information as to the actual conditions existing in Russia. He stated that Russia was slowly rehabilitating itself and would eventually come out alright. The Russian people have suffered terribly from famine but they had a good crop the past year and will pull through the winter. He commended highly the work of the Red Cross in saving thousands of lives. There is very little paper money used in Russia today practically all exchange being in gold and silver.

Major Sundheimer looked over Pine City with a view to having the annual meeting of his organization here next year, and indications are that Pine City will have the opportunity of acting as host for the occasion. They plan on spending a week if they come here next summer and Major Sundheimer has the assurance of many local citizens that something new in the way of entertainment will be provided and their stay made a pleasant one. The organization is composed of 210 members and Major Sundheimer is the engineer division of the U. S. Army that served in Russia. The Major is delighted to choose next year's meeting place and Mr. Leary has secured a tentative promise that it will meet here.

It is unfortunate that Major Sundheimer's visit in Pine City was limited as it was hoped he would be able to deliver a public address in European conditions while here, such an address would prove popular.

He will visit for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleary in St. Paul before returning to his duties in Washington.

Farm Buildings Destroyed by Fire

Fire which completely destroyed the barn, ice house, machine shed and storage house on the Ed Nelson farm about 1/2 mile southeast of Rock Creek, was discovered last Thursday night about 12:30. When first discovered, the fire was beyond control and the big barn and all its contents were doomed.

The fire started in the hay mow over the horse barn and was a mass of flames when Robert Nelson, a son reached the barn, attired only in his night clothing. It was impossible to get the eight horses and all were burned. By crawling through a window in the cattle barn he succeeded in freeing 40 of the 49 head that were in it. By this time the barn was full of smoke and flames and he was guided out by a younger brother who stood at the door calling to him. He was just going in to free the other 9 head when the house caught fire which needed his attention. While on the roof he slipped and fell and was knocked unconscious. But for his heroic work it is very probable that all the stock in the barn would have perished in the fire.

Neighbors arrived in time to prevent the flames from spreading to the house, garage, wool pits and other buildings. The machine shed contained a large amount of machinery and only 2 hammers, a drill and an engine were saved. The loss in the machine shed included a practically new corn binder and grain binder. A straw pile was completely burned and the two silos were burned on one side, much of the ensilage can be used however.

The barn which was 130x92 contained about 150 tons of hay and included the horse, cattle and machinery and other buildings approximates a loss of about $11,000, which is covered by about $5,000 in insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Nelson started a crew of men at work the first of this week to rebuild and hope to be able to finish enough of the work this fall before cold weather, to take care of his stock over winter.

Last Rites for Mrs Hoffman

Funeral services for Mrs. Amelia Hoffman were conducted by Rev. Heinke from the Lutheran church at Pine City Tuesday afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in Birchwood cemetery. The pall bearers were: I. Chendik, Jos. Kozak, Otto Becker, John Grand, Herman Teich and A. Klante.

The deceased wife of Daniel Hoffman, living north of town passed away at a hospital in St. Paul. Mrs. Hoffman was born the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Piro in Germany January 24, 1861 and was united in marriage there to Daniel Hoffman in 1881. They came to America in 1881, and resided in St. Paul four years and then moved to Hinckley and lived there till shortly after the Hinckley fire when they settled on the farm where the family now lives.

Nine children were born all of whom with their father survive. They are Arthur, Adolph, Herman Carl, Mrs. Leo Pyle, Mrs. Chas Olson, Mrs. Harry Davis and Mrs. H. Leasing. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Swarz, and one brother Fred Piro of Stillwater.

Those from out of town here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Temple of Rock City and Mr. and Mrs. Cote, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer and the Misses Swartz of the Twin Cities.

Pine City Band Plays for Dance

The Pine City Band will play for a dance in the armory on Saturday evening of this week, with dancing from nine o'clock until 2 a. m. Twelve of the band members have been rehearsing and have developed a two-piece jazz band that will give patrons some of the best dance music that has been heard here in a long time and will be a real treat.
It is only the fact that the band members donate their services that makes it possible to have band music for the dance. Money levied from band dances goes toward the support of the band. The band is a public institution, the members donate their time and their talents deserve the support of this community. Supper will be served at midnight. The price of admission is 50c.

Cambridge Gets Hospital

Cambridge, Isanti County, has been selected for the new epileptic colony.

This was announced today by Mrs. Blanche La Du, chairman, state board of control.

This ends four years search for a site.
The legislature four years ago authorized a new colony to relieve the overcrowded condition at Earlball, where all epileptics and feeble-minded are now kept.

This site was to be on state land, but no available location could be found. The last legislature authorized an appropriation for the purchase of a site.
The one selected is 320 acres in area and costs $37,000. It is 45 miles from the Twin Cities and on a direct route to Duluth.

Construction buildings which will house 300 of the least serious of the cases will be started in the spring with an appropriation of $110,000 for that purpose.—S

THIEVES ROBB KLEIN STORE

The biggest burglary ever staged in Sandstone was pulled off about 2 o'clock this morning when thieves entered Klein's big store and carried off from eight to ten thousand dollars worth of merchandise.

Entrance to the store was gained by prying off a lock on the cellar door, another plank door and lock, to get into the boiler room, and still another locked door to get from the basement to the store proper. Then to remove the goods they had to pry off a large iron grating over the rear door, all of which was done with a crowbar.

The larger part of the loot consisted of men's suits, all of the being taken with the exception of one lot of size 36 which are the hardest to sell. A few of the best overcoats for men, some ladies coats, silk dresses, gloves, silk hose etc. are also known to have been taken.

It was thought the loot was taken in a large sedan which was seen coming out of the store without lights about 2 o'clock. The loss was not discovered until the store was opened in the morning. Sheriff Hawley was notified at once and arrived this morning to take charge of the case.

Girls working in a restaurant nearby had noticed some suspicious characters during the evening and heard them during the night but were too frightened to turn in an alarm. Several similar cases have been reported in different parts of the state, which would indicate that there is a regular band that is getting by with robberies of this kind, and they have some systematic way of disposing of the loot. The loss is a heavy one for the Klein Co. as it is not covered by insurance. It is hoped that the culprits can be apprehended.—Sandstone Courier.

Pertinent Pointers for Practical Farmers

BEEES SHOULD GO INTO WINTER QUARTERS NOW

Double Walled Hives Needed if They Are Kept in the Open.

Minnesota beekeepers can winter their bees outside if they will pack the colonies in wintering cases or in double walled hives, says Francis Jager, chief of the division of bee culture, University of Minnesota.

"A good wintering cellar," says Mr. Jager, "is one in which an even temperature of about 40 degrees F. can be maintained—one which is dark, quiet, moderately damp, and free from mice and offensive odors.

"The entrance must be left wide open but should be covered with wire screen as a protection against mice.

Mr. Jager finds that the honey crop has been nearly sold out owing to the shortage of the wintering cases in all parts of the United States except in the northwest.

TREATED SEED SHOULD BE KEPT IN SAFE PLACE

Animals and Poultry Might be Poisoned by Eating Copper Dust.

When seed wheat and corn are treated with copper carbonate dust, care should be taken to prevent the dust from being scattered about.

In treating seed with copper carbonate the farmer and his helpers should wear masks or eye goggles.

Warning that danger lurks in copper carbonate treated seed for the human or animal species which is fed at this time in view of the fact that seed can be treated now and sown later.

HOW TO WASH REFRIGERATOR

So Far as Possible Receipts Should Be Kept Clean by Little Preventive Measures.

The refrigerator should be thoroughly cleaned about once a week, at a time when it contains only a little ice, says the United States Department of Agriculture.

Remove the ice and all the food. The inside of the door, wash them in hot water containing soap or soda, rinse, and wipe dry.

Remove the drain-pipe, scrub inside with a long-handled spiral brush or wire, and scald. If the pipe is not removable, it should nevertheless be thoroughly cleaned out.

SOYBEAN SEED PRICES LIKELY TO CONTINUE HIGH

Frost Has Cut the Yield in Spots and Strong Demand is Foreseen.

According to reports soybean seed was injured by frost in eastern states, and prices are therefore likely to continue high.

R. D. Hodgson, superintendent of the Southeastern Experiment Station at Wascosa, predicts that soybeans grown for seed will prove a profitable crop for the next ten years to come.

Recent prices have been around $4.00 a bushel. In some quarters it is feared that Minnesota grain seed will be injured by frost last September; so far no germination tests have been made.

Hodgson believes that the soybean is destined to figure prominently among foreign crops grown in Minnesota. Every year the soybean seed used here, he says, the vines make excellent hay, the cracked or damaged beans are good for seed, while those without blights can be sold at high prices for seed.

The variety known as Manchou, he says, has proved to be the best for southern Minnesota conditions and is the favorite among the growers.

Chief of the division of animal husbandry, University of Minnesota, who is in charge of the first Swiss Federa Day exercises at University Farm, St. Paul, October 26.

Two hundred farmers of the state attended this meeting to study the swine used in various feeding experiments and to listen to the conclusions drawn by the faculty from the different experiments.

John M. Elyard of the Iowa State College at Ames was the chief speaker at the afternoon session. The keenest interest was taken in all the proceedings and it is now the plan to celebrate Swiss Federa Day every year at University Farm.

How to Increase Litters. Proper feeding of brood sows just before and during breeding season will increase the size of litters farrowed, says H. G. Zavoral of the agricultural extension division of the university.

Whether crops or cows, the best way to detect their unprofitability is by keeping an account book. Minnesota dairymen get good profits from butter because they market through 600 co-operative creameries.

CLEANLINESS IS IMPORTANT

Provision Should Be Made at School for Washing Hands and These Handling Food.

Cleanliness is so important in those who eat as in those who prepare the food, and whenever lunches are served in the school, provision should be made for washing the hands before the meal.

Theatre Notes

Friday—SPECIAL—"A Man There Was"
 Three Acts of Vaudeville.

Saturday—
 Wm. S. Hart in "White Oak"
 When hostile Indians attacked the wagon train, and none but the quickest-trigger man was safe—
 When the roaring gambling hall was the only "club" that the life of the Frontier knew—
 Came White Oak Miller riding over the plains riding on a quest you heart will thrill to see!
 A story that runs up the wheel, Will West and pictures its best and its worst.

Also the Great International Race
 Topsy vs. Zer.

Sunday—
 Miriam Cooper and Gaston Glass in "Daughters of the Rich"
 Really, Dukes just annoy me to death. If there's anything I can't stand, it's a man eating anchovies for breakfast.
 Breakfast, is what the Dukes eats nothing else but. Are you coming to my home party? You must, Jolly and bohemian and all that sort of thing, no man's allowed to dance with his wife. There goes ray light—
 Get a match?
 Buster Keaton in "Wife's Relations" and Movie Chats.

Monday—

 Thursday & Friday—
 A brand new picture Warner Bros. Screen Classic just released "Lucretia Lombard" or "Fires of Fate" with Irene Rich and Monte Blue as Stars.

"Lucretia Lombard" is a story of life as experienced by an American girl, who brought her titled English husband to her native country in search of health, after he had become prematurely aged because of a dissipated life.
 It tells of her forced marriage to him by a wealthy mother, her sufferings, humiliation, sacrifices and her final triumph of love after a series of episodes that will hold your interest through out the fitting of this dramatic photoplay.
 "Lushier Pushers" "Chickasha Bone Crusher"

What you Should Know ABOUT "THE RAPIDS"
 That is a picture of Alan Sullivan's popular and widely read novel of the same name.
 It is a big outdoor story of Canada.
 It offers one of the most sensational fight scenes ever recorded on the motion picture screen.
 It supplies a thrilling rescue from the Rapids.
 It contains all elements necessary for the making of a first class film entertainment.
 It is a heart touching romance of a business genius.
 It is a story that will appeal to the young and the old.
 At the Family Theatre, National Motion Picture Day, Monday November 19th.

Good-Will
 SHAKESPEARE appraised good-will at its true value when he said:
 "Who steals my purse steals trash;
 'Tis something, nothing;
 'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been slave to thousands;
 But he that filches from me my good name
 Robs me of that which neither enriches him
 And makes me poor indeed."
 It is good-will that has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) great.
 Good-will is prized more highly by the Management of this Company than any other factor or element in the business.
 Good-will is born of confidence.
 Confidence is the inevitable result of ability to serve—proved over long periods of time.
 In short, good-will is the child of Service.
 The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) long ago became convinced that when service is rendered to the public, profits follow—as surely as night follows day.
 The more whole-souled, the more energetic, the more enthusiastic the service, the greater the profits.
 Service is interpreted in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to mean something more than the perfunctory delivery of petroleum products.
 It means going to any lengths to get Standard Oil products to the consumer, wherever he may be, in such quantities as may be desired—whether in thousand gallon lots or five gallon lots.
 It means the highest standard of quality in manufacture and the maintenance of this standard at all times.
 It means exerting every atom of facilities at the Company's command to discover and develop new products from crude petroleum that will add to the comforts and refinements of life.
 It is this enthusiastic spirit of intensive service—plus the every day practice of the principles of equity, fairness and justice—manifest at every point of contact between the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the public—that has gained for this Company the good-will, respect and esteem of the thirty-million people of the Middle West.

Cavalry Engaged in Great Maneuvers in Texas

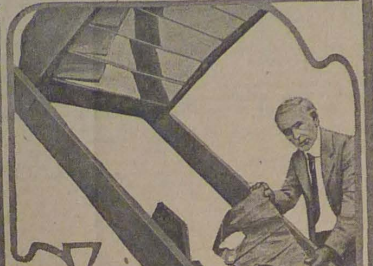

Three hundred miles across the dusty plains marches the Fifth U. S. cavalry, commanded by Colonel Short, to fight as the "white" army in the cavalry maneuvers, carried out at Marfa, Texas—the greatest mimic warfare by mounted men in the United States since the Civil war.

WILL WED NOBLEMAN

Mrs. Marie Roberts Kamm of San Francisco whose engagement to Marchese Ernesto Enrico Gumbasio Giustalini Diella Scala, duke of Verona and prince di Solto, is announced. Mrs. Kamm was the wife of Philip S. Kamm, clubman and manufacturer. They were divorced in 1920.

Californian Invents Sun Furnace

Dr. William Thomas of Hollywood, Cal., is shown above demonstrating a sun furnace he has invented which generates heat of 9210 degrees. The device, a wooden structure, resembles a gigantic crane and contains an arrangement of long mirrors which throw the sun's rays on a spot six inches square. In the photograph Dr. Thomas is holding a sheet of lead through which holes were burned.

Naming the ZR-1 "Shenandoah"

A christening party was held in honor of the ZR-1 at Lakehurst, N. J., and Mrs. Edwin Denby, wife of the secretary of the navy, named the giant dirigible "Shenandoah," thus officially placing it in commission. Many notable men from the country attended the christening of America's largest airship, designed, built and manned by the United States navy.

WANTS ENGLISH MENUS

Why should our menus be in French when so few of us understand that language, is what Congressman Fred Britton of Chicago wants to know after returning from Europe on the Leviathan. He is here now asking the same question of a Washington hotel chef.

Detroit Has Democracy in Athletics

DETROIT, Mich.—Socrates and a number of persons after he has been asked about athletics as fostering democracy but in Detroit they insist on the contrary view that the point is not of all to have democracy in athletics. In Detroit athletics is one co-ordinated phase of a school-wide program of health education. Competitive sports are part of a system of training which is an established function of the city department of education with trained teachers and supervisors in charge of a uniform program in every school.

Suicide of Jean Valjean in Real Life

IRVINGTON, N. J.—The late mayor in this city was Jean Valjean in real life. The tragic story of a man who served in his youth, paid the penalty and then set out to regain the respect he had lost, only once more brought to life, was unfolded when the prosecutor began an investigation into the motives that prompted the suicide on September 26 of Mayor Edward R. Polson of Irvington. It was in Hammondport, N. Y., that the story had its beginning; it was the aged tale of wealth and poverty and love. Polson's family was poor. The girl he loved was the daughter of the wealthiest man in the town, and her father refused to accept the love of his son-in-law. The boy was desperate. He forged the wealthy man's name to several checks and later was caught red-handed robbing a bank. His sentence was ten years at hard labor in Auburn prison, but Theodore Roosevelt, then governor, pardoned him after three years had been served, in response to a petition of Hammondport citizens, headed by the girl's father. Polson and the girl were married then; they decided to move away and start life anew. They came to Irvington, where Polson established a coal business, won his way into many friendships and prospered. He was elected mayor and his work in civic and church affairs was praised by all who knew him. Then came the dark cloud that cast a shadow over the man who had erred in his youth. Some one (his son says the prosecutor has that name) who knew his past confronted him with the facts and demanded blackmail. And on September 26 he died. It was believed he had died from an accidental overdose of work in a city. The investigation unfolded the facts of his life. His widow says that he paid $25,000 in the last year to the blackmailers. He was penniless when he died and his coal business was mortgaged for $35,000.

Letter Says Curzon Is Back of Suit

CHICAGO—Lord Curzon, Great Britain's minister of foreign affairs, is accused by Joseph Letter, his brother-in-law, as the instigator and chief actor in recent charges made in court that his father, Lord Z. Letter, has been guilty of gross mismanagement. The original bill against Mr. Letter was filed by his sister, Lady Marguerite Hyde, countess of Suffolk and Devon, who demanded that Mr. Letter be deposed as trustee and required to make a thorough accounting. In his reply, Lord Letter in Superior court, Mr. Letter alleges that Lady Marguerite is a "pawnee" in the hands of Lord Curzon, and completely subservient to his wishes and dictates. "The trustee theory charges that Lord Curzon's consent toward his due to the fact that he, Lord Curzon, was named as trustee of the estate, and that Letter refused to perform the duties to manage personally the collection of the income for the share of the estate, bequeathed to Lady Marguerite Curzon, daughter of Mr. Letter's sister and the minister of foreign affairs.

First American Woman Ship Captain

SAN FRANCISCO—When the Jennie Crocker, four-masted schooner, set sail for her twentieth era port recently, she had two masters aboard. And her particular honor was that she carried the first American woman who has ever held a captain's license. The article Crocker changed her name from her birth name to Jennie Louise this first woman captain. Mrs. Jennie Crocker, wife of Capt. Nelson A. Crocker, has long been qualified for the license, but never "took" her. Now the time has come when she feels that she wants it, though she knew as much about navigation ten years ago as she does today. The Crocker's have in Cliffside a neat little bungalow on a side hill, but for almost twenty years they have lived aboard ship. Mrs. Crocker, alert and smiling, with crisp, rolling red hair, admits that she always wanted to go to sea. "My husband and I grew up in the same town, we went on 'look' to Mackinac, Mich., and my husband went to sea when I was only twelve years old. After we were married he wanted me to go on voyages with him, but he was only a mate then and it wasn't very convincing. I told him to hurry up and get a ship of his own. "So, for the last twenty years, I have gone on his voyages with him. I have sailed his ship myself lots of times, but I never bothered about qualifying as a master until he took his course in navigation in a school in New York. That's where all the captains go to brush up their qualifications. I'm afraid that's why I decided that I might as well have the license, too; then if anything happened I would be legally qualified." Lands that are out of the beaten tourist track are familiar words to Mrs. Crocker and she has grown hard-boiled in the experience of daily natives of the open sea. "I've been twice wrecked at the red sea and the white land of the woman from the foreign land."

Chicago Business Men Face Deportation

CHICAGO—Stephen von Loebly, son of a former Hungarian baron, and Frederick Baker, both Chicago business men, are being held under $1,000 bonds each to face deportation proceedings because they failed to comply with the law requiring a visa of their passports when they slipped into the United States from Canada through International several years ago. It was after they arrived on a warrant issued by Immigration Commissioner Howard C. Wiley, charging illegal entrance into this country, after they had applied for their citizenship papers. Both men were twenty-one years old. Von Loebly's wife, daughter of a rich western Illinois, who he married after coming to Chicago, and his child were not subject to the deportation, and should be deported, he faces the problem of being separated from them on leaving them to their country. Von Loebly father, Stephen J. von Loebly, came to Chicago in 1917, and was one of the founders of the United States company, in which he was

Mothers Advise Their Daughters to Rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Keep Them in Health

A Mother's Advice Prevents Operation. Corona, N. Y.—"I had a terrible pain in my left side and had to go to bed every night. My mother told me I must be operated on, but I do not believe in the knife and would rather suffer than go through it. My mother also did not believe in it and she made me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because it has helped me for 10 months and able to do all my work. I recommend your medicine and give you permission to use my letter as a testimonial." Mrs. J. Bosch, Jr., 11 S. Railroad Avenue, Corona, N. Y.
